WRITE THESE THINGS TO MY PEOPLE - 03/07/12

Write these things to my people: I come as Your friend, Your brother, Your King. I want for you to listen, to be still enough to hear My voice. I am your comfort. In Me are all things. I am coming soon for my Bride. Hear Me now. There is no need to fear anything. The battle has begun. It is war. Do not be confused as nothing will be as it seems. The armies have gathered and the lines have been drawn. Which side do you fight for? The outcome is set. Many will fall and the blood will run high. I challenge you now to lay aside all things that are not of Me. There is nothing more important than listening to My instructions now. I will guide your every move. Be not afraid. It will look as if the enemy has won, but this will not be so. Keep your eyes on Me.

Your Jesus

RESURRECTION MORNING - 04/08/12

I am pouring out My Spirit at this time for all who seek Me. I am ever near. Seek Me and you will find Me. My heart longs to be Your friend, Your Redeemer. Rejoice! For My Father's will is accomplished. I will guide you in all things, in all ways. You are Mine, precious in My sight. Allow Me to work through you while there is yet a little light still on this planet for the curtain is drawing to a close. Night is fast approaching. Be still and know My love, My ways. A day is coming when all will seem hopeless, especially for those who have not already chosen Me. Terror will reign, but remember, I am the King of the Universe and everything answers to Me. Stand firm as My soldiers. I will give you the courage and strength you need to endure. Trust in Me. Do not fear anything My child. Go now, and rest in Me.

Yeshua

HEARKEN UNTO ME - 04/11/12

Today I am getting a very strong sense of judgement on this country by fire and by God allowing enemies to sabotage us within our borders. The scripture I was given are as follows; they speak of refining by fire, enemies within the gates, and pride causing the judgements. Please take the time to read these as they refer directly to America and the coldness of her people to God.

Yeshua speaks:

"The earth groans with this weight of sin. It can no longer hold the burden. Death is in the air. My mercy is about to expire. Hearken unto Me child, I am the only light. I will manifest Myself to you in ways you will not expect. Soon, you will see things in the spirit realm concerning these things of which I have spoken. Expect this. Such joy there will be in abiding in Me. I have wonders upon wonders to show you! There are many in the angelic realm at your side, ready to assist. What a glorious time to live! My word says that I will pour out My spirit upon all flesh and this is what I am doing!"

STAND FIRM IN ME - 04/14/12

On April 12, I received a warning that there would be a fire very close by to where I live but that our house would be fine. I asked for confirmation through my daughters, and two of the three dreamed of fires, very close to our house. Three days later, we had a fire within approximately 500 yards of our property. We were told by a neighbor policeman to pack up and get ready to evacuate, that the authorities thought the fire would jump the highway and be in our backyard. After praying and thanking the Lord that night for protecting us, I asked if there would be more fires and I was told yes, there would be. Then Yeshua spoke this:

"My beloved, you now see how quickly change can come upon you. You must endure. Stay strong! Expect the unexpected! Do what you can to prepare, then leave the rest to Me. Nothing is too much for Me to handle. Continue to be diligent in all you do. Stay sober and watchful. What happened yesterday is but a taste of things to come. Stand firm in Me. You are surrounded on all sides by My mighty angels and they are ready to assist. My peace will flow through you if you allow it to. Draw close to Me, I love you."

DARKNESS COMES SO QUICKLY - 04/23/12

"There will be storms of great magnitude with great winds. Foundations will shake. Fierce winds will cause fires around you and many structures will fall. Events will happen so very quickly now, they will escalate each day. Act now in the areas in which you know to move in. Trust in Me. Darkness comes so quickly now. Be watchful and pray."

LISTEN TO MY WORDS - 04/25/12

"My daughter, it is so important that you listen to My words and instructions now. Many, many things are happening on your earth today. Your air has become poisoned. Your country will collapse. The weight of gross sin around the world is too much for the earth to bear any longer. Deep under the earth, the foundations are cracking and splitting apart. The whole earth groans for My justice. It won't be long now. Take heed to gather your loved ones into your heart in your prayers and I will protect them."

I see a picture of balancing scales and the left side of the scale is full and lying on the ground, the right side is empty and swinging.

"The air is thick with the battle of My angels against the wicked ones. You can sense it, almost see it. you are almost there, you will endure to the end! Continue to encourage yourself and the children with My stories of old, My victories over the enemy. I will ALWAYS prevail. There is such glory to come to those who are faithful. You will be so amazed! Endure, endure, endure to the end my loved ones. I am Yeshua, Your Lord and Your King, and My love has no bounds! Go now and walk in My authority and with My peace."

BE SOBER AND VIGILANT - 05/01/12

"The time has come for my judgement to pour out. The hour is here. The time to choose is over. Internal as well as external structures will collapse into ruin. I am the only ground in which you will be able to stand on now. There is security in nothing else."

(I see ships firing missiles in the oceans).

"I have opened the abyss to the underworld. Satan has been given his last freedoms on this earth. Many, many demons swarm this earth, and will devour. The battle intensifies greatly my child. Continue to walk with Me, talk with Me, consult Me in all you do, in every step you take. I will never leave your side, and I will instruct you in My will. Listen for the angels who will also be provided for you to guide you and lead you. Be prepared for things to change in a moments notice. Be sober and vigilant. I have called you for such a time as this. So much evil waits to devour those who know Me not. But you can not be harmed. you are Mine, I have sealed you with My blood. Be not afraid! Such glory is coming after this short time of terror. Rejoice for you will spend eternity with Me! I love you My dear one. All of the angels are awaiting the glorious reunion of My saints. Oh, what a joyous time this will be. Just a short while longer. Endure. Endure to the end. I am all you need! Seek Me. Peace be with you!

I WILL BE AVENGED - 05/09/12

I just saw on the TV that Obama has stated publicly his support for gay marriage in the US. My heart grieved to see this, and I felt extremely saddened and a deep sense of mourning for this country. In prayer that day, I asked God His response to this, and heard:

"This nation has angered me greatly! I will hold back my hand of protection no longer! I will move swiftly and severely now! The vile and abominable sin of these people and their hatred for Me will bring horrible judgement and devastation as you in your country have never experienced before. The seas will roar and your nation will burn for their lack of love for Me. I will bring down your idols and your leaders who spit in My face and persecute Me over and over again. The ground cries out for My Hand of justice to act, and act I will! The blood will run deep and high for those who have turned their backs on Me. I will be avenged. Do not fear though, my special and faithful ones, you who have held close to My heart. I have a covenant with you and I will keep it. You are Mine, and you have nothing to fear. My arm of protection around My faithful stands firm. I hold you under My mantle. Be still and know I am Your God.

ZECHARIAH 14 - 05/12/12

"Allow My kingdom to permeate every pore of your body. You are My temple, and walking this way will change your life and all that is around you. Grasp the magnitude of Me living inside of you, operating under My Father's will. I have no limits! I will manifest Myself in ways you could never imagine! Allow Me to flow through you like great and many waters. Trust Me. Believe in Me. I will never leave you or forsake you. You are my precious gem. Stand in My authority. Seek Me. Pray. Continue diligence. Transformation, can, and is yours. Rest in Me. Even when all around you will melt away, I will be your rock. I am Your foundation. Thank you for spending time with Me. I love you."

THE LINES HAVE BEEN DRAWN - 05/28/12

"The time has come and gone for all to choose which side they are on. The lines have been drawn. You have either chosen Me, chosen life, or death, and the world. I weep for those who have not accepted My love and who reject Me and what I have done for them. Rejoice in that you have chosen well, but also mourn with Me for those who are now forsaken. I speak of those who have not Me as their root, their substance. Unless you are drawing your strength, your very sustenance from Me, the source and foundation of all, you will not stand! For such horror's as have never been witnessed will befall you. Only those with their feet firmly planted or grounded in the Father's will, will endure. I created you to be an extension of Me, with My blood flowing through your veins. But so many can not grasp this. You were created in Our image! If you could only accept this and walk in this My people, your souls would be well. America's fate is sealed. Destruction comes. I have been more than patient with a nation that mocks Me at every turn. I have turned the other cheek time and time again. I will always protect My faithful, I have demonstrated this many, many times in My Word, but the unrighteous MUST be brought down. You have entered into a very perilous time, a time foreseen by My prophets thousands of years ago! My prophecies are and will come to pass very quickly now. Prepare your hearts ! I am coming soon!! May My peace and My love flood your very soul, and carry you from glory to glory, from everlasting to everlasting."

THERE IS A COMING DARKNESS - 05/19/12

I dreamed that it was daytime, but pitch black everywhere outside. So black you could not see your hand in front of your face. It seemed to be caused as a result of fires burning and the thick black smoke, but I don't know for sure. I'm told to read Revelations 8, the opening of the 7th seal. It speaks of the 4th angel sounding his trumpet and 1/3 part of the sun, moon, and stars are darkened.

This is the interpretation:

"There is a coming darkness that will envelope the earth and men will die of fright from the terror of such darkness. My faithful however will operate under an anointing that will only come for those who seek Us. In your dream, you were going about your business inside, while David was working outside. Notice, you did not need any other light source. When you looked at the air outside through the windows, you saw blackness, but you 'saw' David working as usual and his light in his body was all you saw. He had no trouble working outside and could 'see', because it was My light he was operating by. The same was true for you. And this is how it will be in your very near future. My anointing on My chosen ones will allow you to minister in a way you've never been able to before. Pray now, today, for this grace and this anointing for your family and loved ones. The time draws near. Prepare your hearts. We are with you always."

YOUR TRIBULATION HAS BEGUN - 05/24/12

"You see how it seems the wind is blowing very hard. It will not take much of my wind of judgement to cause your infrastructure to crumble. You will be shocked at how vulnerable your nation really is. This sense of dread, and ominous events is very real. My armies have gathered. Your tribulation has begun. My hand of judgement will be severe. I see many in your country preparing for a holiday, starting their celebration early, drinking and carrying on in the mire of their own destruction, when they should be on their faces and on their knees, begging Me for mercy for the disgust that marks their filthy lives. How long must I warn? How long must I tell My people to prepare for My coming?! How many watchmen have I sent to warn the people of the lateness of the hour! And to no avail! My words continue to fall on deaf ears! I have made a way for My righteous, My obedient ones, for a small few have heard My call and are watching and waiting for My return. I will soon rain fire in this country!

(I'm seeing disasters of every kind, everywhere, and total societal breakdown)

You will burn America, you will burn!!! I have held back My hand of judgement long enough! You must, I repeat, you must have your spiritual houses in order this day. The hourglass is empty. Behold, I come!"

THE SUDDENLIES ARE NOW UPON YOU - 05/22/12

"What I am about to do on this planet will shake you to your core. The events spoken of by My prophets are here. My righteous whose feet are planted firmly in Me and in My Word, will stand. Those who have NOT accepted My offer will now know they have chosen poorly. Eternity would not be enough time for the wicked to mend their ways. I must, and I will act now. The sorrow will be great. Certain places will cease to exist. You will be the only light most see in their despair. My light must radiate through you, as a beacon for those who will be totally lost and despairing. Remember months ago when I spoke of the suddenlies. The suddenlies are now upon you. WAKE UP !!! Be not afraid. Your focus must not be on the physical, but on our relationship and your eternity with Me in the spiritual. Pray for the people of Japan. Pray for the souls of the lost. You are mine, and I have sealed you with the seal of My protection, you and your family and loved ones."

I MUST PURIFY - 05/28/12

Word Received, May 25, 2012

"It was never My intention after I created you and this earth to have to destroy what I had made, in order to rid the earth of it's evil. You were created in My image! It was perfect, and it was beautiful. I have much sorrow at what I am about to do once again. Oh My people, My people! Why is it that you have not chosen life over death? Is what satan has dangled before you, grotesque sin, so much more attractive than what I, your Creator and your Father have offered you? I gave you Paradise. I am a God of love, of peace, of joy, yet man continues to choose death. I have no choice but to again, put a stop to the schemes of the enemy. But first, I must purify. It will be painful my child, but only for a time. Hold fast, we will never leave you."

BEWARE THE LEAVEN - 05/31/12

Message to those who are weary, discouraged

"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

In my prayer time this morning, I asked Yeshua what He would say to all of the people who are weary of this life. People who are discouraged and disappointed at how their lives have turned out, or how things have been going the last couple of years. To those who are confused and hurting, lonely and distracted by so many of the trials of this life, lukewarm at the warnings that have been coming from His many watchmen for some time now. He has this to say:

"speak to you today of the leaven in your lives. What do you know of this leaven? Do you recognize what it is, where it has come from, and how you are allowing it to not only influence your lives but to mandate everything about it? It starts out so subtly, but grows ever stronger of a force over you. I speak of the many, many ways and things that have your attention, and therefore have taken your focus off of Me. Is it your work? The lifestyle you have created for yourself and your family? Think about this for a moment. How do you spend your time? What things are you following that have been mandated by men? What has become your priority? Technology is fascinating, but how much of your day is spent absorbed with it? You know of which I speak. This leaven becomes a poison, but a poison that destroys slowly most times, and completely. Satan has used this tool as a weapon of warfare against My saints because he knew it would bring the downfall of many. Distractions come in many forms, but the end result is always the same. A numbness, an indifference, a lukewarm attitude toward Me and the Kingdom that I have offered you freely. I ask you again, what do your eyes feast on? Your ears? Think of all the things in your life that have nothing to do with Me or My purpose here for you. They have made you idle and fruitless spiritually, and they are the reason you have become satiated with the things of this world and ignorant of the ways of My Kingdom. You experience depression, loneliness, bitterness, anger, unforgiveness, confusion, and finally, apathy. How could you ever know My voice? But I tell you once more, I have opened a way unto you that brings joy, peace, forgiveness, love, and contentment. The way is so very simple. All I ask is that you spend time with Me! I want to be Your help in times like these, I want to be the answer to all of your life's troubles and concerns. I want to be the One you run to and ask to just sit with you, talk with you, listen to you. I want to be Your everything! I want to hold you and tell you that you don't have to worry anymore, that all indeed will be well. I have that promise for you, if you would only embrace it and truly believe it with all of your heart and all of your soul. I am your Yeshua, and I love you more than anyone could! Come to Me, and allow the Kingdom to dwell inside of you, as this is how We created you to be, remember, in Our image. Read My Word, in it you will find everything you need to move forward, and rid yourself of the leaven that has made you feel so heavy and burdened. There are no strings attached, and the invitation is open to all! Please, don't wait any longer, come to Me now."

MY SON, MY MOST PRECIOUS GIFT TO YOU - 06/02/12

"My people, do you have an idea what an incredible gift you have been given in My most holy Son Yeshua? I have provided a way out for you. A way out of your pain, your depression, your suffering, your loneliness, the heavy cares of the world in which you live. All the world speaks of a coming time upon the earth of great tribulation. Each soul deep in their hearts knows there is something unbalanced and unsettled at this time. Where do you think this has come from? Who do you think gently speaks to your soul, inviting you and drawing you into a deeper relationship with Me? All is not hopeless, all is not lost. Again, I have provided a way out of the darkness that has so enveloped you. My heart mourns for those who feel they are not loved, for those who feel as if their life has no purpose, no meaning, for this is the lie of the enemy! You must know that I am Your Father and there is no one that has cared for you more than I have! Read my Word! I speak again and again of My love for ALL men. I wish that NONE would be lost! This is why now, at this time, I am speaking to so many of my servants about repentance, words of warning about the condition of your souls. All of the things you have put your dependence on, your focus, these are all things of this world. My Kingdom is not of this world. In my Kingdom, there is no suffering, no pain, and no sorrow, no hopelessness, and no fear. But know this; this gift of My Son and My invitation to allow Him to give you access to Me through His shed blood is a choice of free will. I will never force you to believe in Me or believe I sent My Son to redeem you. The choice will always be yours. This should show you how very much I love you, in that I would never command you to love Me as well. I want your heart and I want all of it, but it must be of your own accord. Please allow Me to soothe the hurts and pains in your life. I can fill that emptiness in your heart, and turn your sorrow into joy. I can bring you a peace that exceeds all understanding. I am the only way you will find the relief of your soul that you are so desperate for. Let Me show you this. Give Me a chance to comfort you and all will be well with your soul. You have My word on this. I can not let you down.

You must turn from your worldly pleasures now! They only offer empty promises that could never fulfill you in the ways in which you search. Your soul is the only thing that will matter very soon, and your relationship with Me, for all these other things are soon passing away..."

Your Father in Heaven

TURN TO ME OH MAN AND BE SAVED - 06/05/12

"I have come to bring light to the world, but your hearts have become dull and cold. You have allowed the enemy to lull you into a deep sleep. So many things consume your time and your energy. Do you even ask yourself each day, 'Is this in the Fathers' will'? You do not. You go about in vain, operating in your own selfish desires and ambitions, all of which have nothing to do with My Kingdom. When will you learn My stubborn people: Wake up! The day of the Lord approaches so quickly now, and will sadly catch many unaware. Turn to me while there is yet still a moment left. Repent of your sins, and worship Me, the Light of the world. My love for you has not gone cold. Turn to Me! I call you each by name. I have sent My comforter to help you, to strengthen you and guide you. Leave all to Me. Only truly believe, with all of your heart, and you will be saved."

A CALL TO ARMS - 06/08/12

"I speak today of a request for My army to mobilize. I am calling on My faithful remnant to take My instructions seriously, and urgently, for the battle is at hand. I ask that you would spend as much time as possible in prayer and meditation, reading My Word, and waiting for My instruction. Put aside a set time each day and listen to Me. This is of the utmost importance. Pray unceasingly. Pray for the lost, and the desperate ones. Help Me to bring in a harvest of souls. Just as a commander of an army prepares and trains his soldiers before war, I am training My elect at this time for the coming war on the earth. Soldiers are not dropped into the middle of a battlefield and then instructed as to how to go about fighting. They spend much time in advance preparing for the battle. I will not leave you defenseless. You must trust in Me. I am the King and Commander of My army, and I am the only voice you must follow. It takes discipline however to be able to recognize My voice. There is coming a time, very, very soon, when there will be many voices warring for your attention, telling you what you must do, and you must have the discernment to know the only One in whom you should follow. This is your duty, your marching orders. I will always lead you and guide you to safety, and provide for all you need. Be prudent and watchful, and always keep your armor on. Never remove it for any reason. It is meant to be a part of who you are in Me. It is My Word, being lived out through you. This armor should be as light as a feather to carry, as My yoke is easy, and the burden is light. Truly grasp what this entails for you as you walk out My steps in the coming days. I care so much for each one of you."

Your Commander in Chief,

King Yeshua

BONDAGE OR FREEDOM, YOU CHOOSE - 06/09/12

June 9, 2012

How much more time will you choose to spend in bondage to the things of this world? How much more time will you waste, on things that do not bear fruit? I have offered you a way of life that frees you from all burden, and guides you purposefully through this mission I have created for each of you individually. Are you truly joyful and peaceful in your soul? Do you have true rest at the end of each day, or do you find that you lie down to sleep feeling frustrated, still empty, still lacking, and inadequate in what you have set out to do for that day? What do you continue, day after day, to chase after? Money? More and more because what you have is never enough? Material things? Do you fill your days with so much work that you could never hear My voice even if I was screaming at you? Maybe you are running from past hurts and fears, thinking if you stay busy those deep wounds in your heart will someday fade away, filling your time with anything and everything, as long as you keep moving to distract yourself from facing your pain. Have you actually become obsessed with things of this earth? Technology? Media? Computers and phones, alcohol, drugs, sex, food, the list goes on and on. I have only ever asked one thing of any of you, and that is a relationship with you. I don't want or need your money, your hard work, your accomplishments, or your things. I want to spend time with you. It's that simple. There was a time when I walked and talked with man in the Garden, and there will come a time again when we will do so. But you may still find Me close today. I am as close as your next breath. I have never left you or forsaken you, so why have you separated yourself from Me? You know by now that this world offers nothing that can truly satisfy the longing in your souls. I am the only Way, the Truth, and the Life. I make this request yet again, please, come to Me, and I will bring rest to your souls, and give you a peace that will astonish you. Give Me a chance, you won't regret it. Let ME fill all the empty spaces you need filled. I love you.

The Lord left me with a final thought this morning, and that is that He is our FULL PORTION.

In Hebrew, the word portion is an allotment, an inheritance. What does it mean to us personally that He is our portion? For me, it means He is the author of my destiny, and my future. I am the daughter of a King! He is all I will ever need, want, or desire, all I pursue. All I am or ever will be He determines with His Holy will. When I am obedient to Him and trust Him in all things, I find favor with Him and with that comes true peace and joy. I come to a deeper understanding of Him, His attributes and His characteristics. When I am hurting, He is my portion. When I am lonely, depressed, confused, disheartened, He is my portion. When I am lost, weary, discouraged, He is my portion. So, as Elisha received a double portion of Elijah's anointing (2Kings 2), let us pray today that we may all receive a double portion, a double blessing, as we seek to allow Him to be our all is all.

May you be blessed in this day.

I CALL ON YOU TO BE PROACTIVE....NOT REACTIVE - 06/11/12

In a world that teaches you from birth that is 'all about you', I am calling on My faithful to keep in mind, the Kingdom of God resides within you. This means that you operate in contradiction to what the enemy has taught people since the fall of man, selfishness. When you follow Me, it means you follow My example, in that I did not come to be served, but to serve. When you seek Me in all that you do, you will learn to love others unconditionally, the way I love them. No greater love is there that a man lays down his life for a friend. This means you will be able to forgive all people of all things. After consecrating your day to Me each morning as you rise, ask for My will to be accomplished in your life. My will is always going to be based in serving others in all that you do. You are to put others needs ahead of your own. Remember, is is I you are truly serving in this. I call on you to not react personally to the unloving, negative attitudes you deal with on a daily basis. I ask you to pray for those people, and allow Me to show you how I perceive them in their hearts. So many are wounded, afflicted, and bleeding. I am asking you to be the light, the reflection of Me to these lost souls. If you are allowing the petty things of today to hold you in bondage to anxiety, frustration, depression, anger, and discouragement, then what will be your response as My judgements on this world become increasingly severe? Will you be one of millions who only know to react to the chaos? Or will you walk in My light and be one of very few who have disciplined themselves to put off the old man, selfishness, and put on the new spirit man in Me? I want you to reflect Me and My love for all mankind as you purposefully tend to the needs of others, comforting them, and guiding them. I can assure you, there are many, many more than you may believe that will actually die from fright at what I must do to purify this earth. However, if I truly live inside of you, there is nothing to fear. I will direct every step you take, and equip you with all the necessary tools in order for you to serve the many who will be so terrified. So rise My army, RISE.

YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE NOW MY ARMY - 06/14/12

I have spoken to you of the ensuing battle, and have instructed you to keep your armor in good working order, to pray unceasingly, and to listen for My instructions. I would like to speak to you of the deeper meaning of what I am doing with you. I am pouring out My spirit at this time, and I am in the process of sealing and anointing those of you who are truly faithful, truly and earnestly seeking to follow Me and My commandments at this time. My army knows who they are. You have been chosen from before time for this day, and I will now activate things in you spiritually that will enable you to be the ambassadors I have called you to be. Do not be concerned as to how you are being equipped, or the means in which you will walk out your orders when the time comes. Only know, and trust with all of your heart, that I am giving you the strength now that you are going to need, the wisdom, and the discernment. My word is becoming ever more clear to you. You are now coming into alignment with Me and My holy will, and you are feeling My illumination within you, some more strongly than others. I am purging things, situations and circumstances, even relationships in your lives so as to bring you into closer communion with Me. I am purifying you from the inside out, for this is how it must be. You are being anchored and secured in Me so that you will be impenetrable to the enemy. This is of the utmost importance. You will proceed with your orders without fear and walking in My complete authority. I will redeem your time so that we will always have 'time' for listening to each other and communing together. The angels are eager to assist and will continue to walk out My instructions, side by side with you. Invite their company, and be thankful to Me for providing assistance to you in all you do. They have a special mission in serving with you and are so joyful to partake in this mission. This is a time when you will become a clean, pure vessel through which I pour out My will for you and those you will be serving. So do not cease praying, interceding for my poor lost ones, the innocents, and the children. Remember, the fervent, effectual prayer of My righteous saints avails much. Do not underestimate what I am doing and will do in each and every one of you that seek Me. Also remember that I am the Victor in the end. I will rule and reign forever and ever, with you at my side! We can not, we will not LOSE to the enemy. His time grows shorter each day. Rejoice, I say Rejoice ! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! Blessed are they that rise up and answer My call at this time. Have your swords drawn, be still, and TRUST ME NOW IN ALL THINGS!

ANOTHER SERIOUS WARNING FOR AMERICA - 06/18/12

As I was praying and asking the Lord about America and the coming severe judgements, I saw two different scenes. The first one was a giant wall of glass, and in the background of black, I saw a faint outline of the American flag, and the colors of red, white, and blue, the flag being behind the glass wall. Instantly, the glass shattered into a million pieces and the flag behind it disappeared. Directly after that, I saw a scene where there was a very long train with many, many cars, traveling from West to East. This train was traveling at the highest speed a train can go, like lightning. The first car of the train then hit an invisible but solid wall, causing the first car to disintegrate and explode in every direction; then each car following hit the one in front of it, all with an increasing intensity and explosive power because of the force of the impact and the accumulative power of all the cars in motion behind each one. The cars hit in rapid succession with no reprieve in between. The scene, needless to say, was complete destruction with a force I can't even describe. I then felt the Lord reveal this to me:

The war drums have sounded. Tell My people My judgements come soon, sooner than what they expect. I send you these warnings because of My great love for you. I wish that not one of you would perish without knowing Me in a personal way. I find no joy in this purification process the earth must endure, but I will and do rejoice when it draws souls closer to Me. Sometimes it is only through pain and hardship that one would turn their eyes to Me above. I will humble the people of America very soon . The arrogance and complete mockery of My laws will bring severe judgement. In the vision of the train, each car represents one of My judgements. The impact of the first one will shock many because of its intensity, but this will only start a chain reaction, so to speak, as each (car) judgement follows the first in rapid succession, and with increasing intensity. That is why I warn you to REPENT NOW! Do not wait until calamity befalls your country to make the decision to walk with Me in My commandments. To wait will only bring you much more pain, suffering, and despair. My people, please take these warnings seriously. I do not speak in vain. Come to Me now. I love you.

Please turn to the Lord now if you have not already, and ask forgiveness for your sins. Invite the Holy Spirit to be your guide, and trust in our Father completely as He will guide you and strengthen you for what lies ahead. My prayers are continuously for all to seek His face.

ENOUGH - 06/26/12

I am a holy and a righteous God. I will not be mocked. You have been shown My paths and taught My ways, yet you continue to turn your backs to Me. Do you truly feel you can do this on your own? Do you not realize that if I cared for you not, you would cease to exist? You have been given so much, yet you remain stubborn and hard-hearted to My love. Just as the Israelites were delivered from Egypt, I have come to deliver you from all wickedness. The choice has always been yours. Why have you rejected Me? I offer you an eternal life that would exceed every one of your expectations, yet you refuse Me each time you choose the enemy's ways and not mine. There is come a time now where I must bring an end to this evil and wickedness. It is begun. I am turning you over to that in which you idolize. No more will I plead with you to answer My call. You may cry out now to those things that you have continually put before Me. I say now, ENOUGH. To My cherished beloved ones however, a time of such glory is awaiting you. Oh the glory you will partake in so very, very soon. Be not troubled dear ones, I am always with you, and you have nothing to fear. You are sealed with My name and you have My protection. You, My army, will ride courageous and with My strength and peace and joy flowing through you during the imminent tribulations. Stand fast. I will carry you through these times as quickly as I can. Sharpen your senses. Stay alert. I come soon.

A TIME FOR YOUR PURIFICATION - 07/07/12

This is what I feel our King Yeshua is speaking to us today.

I have spoken to you this week concerning knowing the seasons you are in. I want you to meditate upon this, for I am beginning a new season in My people, My Bride. This time needs to be a time of deep reflection, a time of cleansing, and a time of purging. For some, this process will be quite painful, for others, a light dusting. I am asking at this time that you would search deep into your souls, deep into the past, and bring to the light any secret and hidden sins you may have. Many of you feel you are walking out a life in union with Me, but wondering why you are still feeling empty, frustrated, even angry. Know this. It is sin that has caused the separation from you and I. Sin you may not even be aware of. I want you to go back to your childhood. Think back to the very first hurts you are aware of and ask yourselves these questions. Have I truly forgiven the people that have caused me so much pain? Or have I come to a place of indifference and apathy regarding those things. Because My children, indifference is not of Me. It is not loving, and is the root of more serious issues in your lives. I realize how painful it will be to go back to your youth, but you MUST at this time, extract every hurt and every wrongdoing there has been up until this point. Review each situation, and bring this to My throne. I am here to comfort you through this process. You MUST come to a place of total surrender, and total forgiveness for every circumstance that has caused you to fall deeper and deeper into the sins or fruits of the flesh. Unforgiveness only continues to bring pain and emptiness, not for the ones who have hurt you, but for you, and for those around you. Slowly, over time, even a slight indifference that you may have, this brushing off of so many things has festered deep within you and is now become a bleeding, open wound. This is exactly where the enemy wants you to remain. He would have you believe that you are justified in how you are feeling, that your anger, your frustration, and your weariness are deserved. Do not believe this lie! I am a God of peace, joy, love, and compassion, and I want to be what is filling your souls. This disease called sin will eat you alive from the inside out. I say again, you MUST go through each relationship, each season of your life and purge the dross. Bring them all to Me as I will cover each of your trials and sufferings in My Blood, never to return to you to infect your souls. This request is of the most vital importance, as you will not progress with Me into your next season until this process has been completed, and the time is NOW. I will be calling each one of My Bride for a very unique and designated purpose in the coming dark days upon this planet. But you can not bring any baggage into this next season. You must travel light, and be able to feel the freeness of having let go of all that has kept you in bondage for so many years. Allow My Holy Spirit to lead the way, as you bring all to Me and then rest in My arms for a time to heal. It is then that you will receive your orders for this next season, and I will guide you in your next move. You can not hear My voice however if you do not clean your temple from the inside out. I must have pure vessels from which I will operate. If only each one of you could fathom My love for you. I would give My life again and again for every single one of you, how precious is My love! So why wait? Come to Me NOW, and allow Me to heal you completely, as I need each one to be prepared for the things I am having you move in so very soon. Listen for My prompting, and bask in My love for you. Take My hands, and follow Me.

With all My love,

Yeshua

PREPARING FOR YOUR NEW ASSIGNMENT - 07/14/12

My children, if you have been listening, spending quiet time with Me, and obeying My instructions, then you have begun to experience the purification process I have begun in My church. I have asked you to prepare your souls for a time that is approaching very quickly. This requires a deep searching, and a commitment to stay the course with Me no matter how much it pains you. I have talked with you about reviewing your lives, purging all distractions that take your focus off Me, and then repenting and asking Me to absolve your sins. If you have been humble and sincere in this repentance, the Holy Spirit has brought to your attention iniquities that you never saw as sin. This is a time of deep reflection, and a time that you must draw close to Me as I lead you through this process. Think of this as an outgoing ocean tide. As My Spirit draws back the veil in front of your eyes, sins are uncovered, exposed, and suddenly covered with the light of My love, just as the sand is suddenly exposed and no longer covered by the water. So as the ocean then flows back up the shore, My love flows over your being and I wash your spirit, completely removing every sin that kept you separated from Me. In this way, you are cleansed, and purified. This is a process that should continue in our relationship each and every day. In this way will My church remain prepared at all times to answer the call of duty that is to come. You must be ready to hear your instructions and move accordingly in My time, and the only way to ensure this is to keep yourselves pure and repentant. I will accomplish so very much in those who are in complete surrender to My will. Just as I spoke in My Word, you too will do greater things than I did while on Earth when under My authority and power. The time is now. Allow Me to wipe the slate clean and let Us begin your new assignment today! Always remember, as well, you have been given the Comforter who will ease the transition for you into your new mission. I love you.

VISION OF A WHITE HORSE AND RIDER - 07/23/12

Several nights ago, I was shown a skeletal looking white or pale rider with a bow on a horse laid down on the horse in a riding position as if galloping. Praying for interpretation and revelation, this is what I received this morning while meditating.

These distressing situations and evil manifestations that you are experiencing in your lands are indeed escalating yet many of you seem surprised at the intensity of these things. I have spoken to you previously of having released many, many demons from under your earth at this time. The evil you are seeing now will only increase and spread throughout your world at a very alarming pace. There are very many powerful ones in leadership who answer only to the beast system, and who are manipulating many of the events to bring about the culmination of their beast system of total control of the populations. Judgement is indeed upon you, and many, many people will die in the near future during this hour that I pour out upon you. Pray earnestly for their souls, for more than not have no knowledge of Me or My mercy and love. The evil being perpetuated at this time goes far beyond anything ever heard of in days past. The scales are indeed tipped and are broken, as all the earth groans for my justice. Your rivers, lakes, and streams will indeed run dry as I withhold the rain on your countries. As the rains cease, so the fire comes. You are experiencing famine, pestilence, and plagues as not seen before, and these will increase in intensity and occurrence. I will avenge the wickedness that is blatantly thrown in My face. You cry out to Me for water, for relief, but your hearts are far from Me. There is a great shaking coming your way, that will affect every aspect of your lives. For when they cry peace, peace, sudden destruction comes. Expect great turmoil and confusion. Much suffering is at hand. The enemy will then use this time to deceive many, his deception is already widespread. I have also spoken of the utmost importance of being grounded in My Word and in Your relationship to Me. You must not be on sinking sand, but completely rooted in Me. It is the only way you will survive what lies ahead. People will make many poor decisions when faced with terrible and dire situations. They will choose the comforts of the flesh for their physical needs rather than rely on Me to carry them through their hardships. The antichrist system is now in full control of your lands. Do not doubt as well that even your weather has been manipulated to bring about the hardships you have seen recently with your crops and livestock. This generation is THE generation that will experience all that has been foretold in My Word concerning the last days. Although I have warned continuously for repentance, most walk according to the flesh and do not believe these things will occur in their lifetime. This is part of the great deception of satan. He would have you believe that there is always more time to prepare, to repent, to choose to live a Godly life in Me. I tell you now---THERE IS NO MORE TIME FOR THE HOUR IS LATE----Choose Me NOW. TODAY. DO NOT HESITATE AGAIN. Many of the comforts you are accustomed to today will be gone tomorrow and you will be found wanting if you do not abide in Me. All you depend on for stability in this world is crumbling. I am the only base in which you must stand. I will not continue to allow such immorality on this earth. Heed My warnings My people. There is hope for those who walk in My ways. Turn to Me today.

I KNOW MY OWN - 07/31/12

Tell my people I know the ones that have listened to My instructions and are obeying My pleas to rid themselves of all the distractions of the world and are spending more time drawing close to Me each day. I hear their cries of fear, of disappointment, and of sorrow, and they are never alone. I know My own, I know you who seek My face and earnestly desire relationship with Me. To you I say, you have nothing to fear. Do you feel how it is becoming easier and easier to let go of all the things of the world and rest in My presence? I am separating the wheat from the chaff, the sheep from the goats, and you may find some situations alarming, as you see people slide into indifference and complacency, people that you thought were walking hand in hand with Me. The earth is indeed trembling as I speak, as I prepare to bring judgement upon judgement to your land. As I have shown you in the train vision, the events will come in rapid succession. I must do this shaking in order to rid the world of the evil that consumes it. To those who will not turn from their ways and repent, I say to you, WALK AWAY! Pray for them, yes. But distance yourselves from them. The iniquities of these are like a contagious disease that will affect all they come in contact with. I assure you, the more you seek to know Me, the more I will manifest Myself to you, and the more peaceful you will become. But you must put Me FIRST in your life. You must allow Me to transform you and rearrange old ways of thinking and doing things. My Kingdom is a Kingdom without limitations, and therefore you need to remove from your understanding, all that causes you to put any limits on what I can do, or how I can move in your lives. Much is already not as it seems. The deception of the enemy runs so very deep. Many, many are falling into his traps every day, and are in danger of losing their souls. You must pray for those who are lukewarm, My people of Laodicea. There is a great falling away at this time of those who continue to feel there is more time to make things right with Me. However, at the same time, there is also an army gathered, YOU, who have heard My call and are eagerly and anxiously awaiting to serve in your new capacity. Such wonders will you yourselves experience, My faithful ones in these coming days. It is to you I speak today, of soon coming events where you will shine and rise in My Glory even as the days becoming increasingly dark and uncertain. So many will need to be led to Me, and will need direction and compassion. It is at this time that I will pour out My Spirit through you to them, and they will finally know the Truth and be free. Do not underestimate the power of your prayers for the lost. Intercede for them at all times. You are My Beloved, and I am always awaiting our fellowship together. Be strong and be more than conquerors in Me. I love each of you so.

DREAM OF TSUNAMI / DEATH OF DISCERNMENT - 08/06/12

I dreamed of a tsunami last night. I was in a very crowded area, and I seemed to be close to a large city, and at some type of attraction, like a tourist attraction or park. The ground rumbled and vibrated, and before anyone knew what was happening, I looked out to the sea and saw a huge wall of water coming for the land. A few people saw it pretty quickly and yelled to others to look at what was happening. The interesting thing was that there seemed to be two distinct groups of people. The majority of the group panicked and started running, with no regard for others, running inland to hopefully find safety. A very small few however stood their ground, faced the wave directly, and did not even move. It was actually two or three men, and two women both pushing baby carriages with babies and a few small children whose hands they were holding that I saw standing their ground. They were staring at the wave approaching with alarm, but also with complete stillness and authority. In my spirit, I knew that they knew they could not outrun the wave, and I also knew that they were strong believers and had no fear of earthly changes because they knew God was in control. In their spirits, they were already prepared for these changes, and so, this tsunami wasn't catching them by surprise although it was awesome to take in. I stood watching the scene, wondering what to do myself, and finding that I immediately started to look around for another place, but also instantly realizing that it was ok, and I didn't need to move anywhere. I was going to be alright no matter what, and then I had an incredible presence of peace that can only be explained by knowing Yeshua. After praying and asking Yeshua for more interpretation of what this was about, I received this.

I am showing you how I am separating the wheat and the chaff at this time. These two groups of people represent what is happening in your world today. My own will discern the times and stay in a state of spiritual preparedness at all times. They continue to heed My voice and My instructions at all times and will not be caught unaware. They have prayed for discernment, and I have heard and answered them. They study My Word and listen to me speaking to them in their quiet time. These are the people you see standing their ground, and although all around them shakes and rattles, they remain unmoved. Even when faced with the impossible situation, they know their God saves. The second group of people, which is still the majority of those you see all around you today, these only look for their own best interest, and panic, running in complete fear when danger looms. They break into chaos immediately, and lose complete control, even to the point of endangering others as they scramble to save themselves. Their focus is on the flesh, and not one thought is concerned for their eternal souls. I am a long-suffering, and very merciful God, as I have warned them and called them out of the world for so long now. I am saddened to see that so many continue to remain comfortably numb. They have saturated themselves with entertainment, busy lives, plans for their lives that have absolutely nothing to do with Me or My will for them. These things of the world have become as drugs to them, and they truly do not know how to function without them. They have created a dependency on things that are as dead as they are spiritually. Things that will leave them feeling as dead as before they consumed them. But I continue to offer life and life everlasting! The choice should be so simple for them, yet they are confounded and dying for lack of knowledge of Me. I have been so patient, but I see too many with their heads in the sand as ostriches, sedating themselves to what is going on around them, insulating themselves to My Voice, and these will perish because of this choice. They have no discernment, and will be the ones in panic as the earth responds to their sinful ways. The shaking I am doing will only increase in intensity and frequency as I have spoken of late. See that events will become much more serious as this shaking is the only way I can get most of My peoples attention. I use these events to speak to them and call them back to Me. It is unfortunate that I must act so harshly at times to awaken those that continue to slumber. Know this as well, the time is upon you. You must choose today. Do not delay any longer. Ensure you are one of My chosen ones in these days. I will care for you and provide for all you need. Turn to me, repent of your worldly lives, come to Me. I am waiting for each and every one of My precious children to draw to Me.

Your Redeemer,

Yeshua

HAVE YOU FOUND ME? - 08/15/12

We've been talking about discernment recently, and deception, and how we are to know who our Messiah is, to be able to recognize Him. The only way this is achieved, is through reading the Word, prayer, and quiet time each day with Him. In the book of Luke, two people, one being Cleopas did not know who was walking with them towards Emmaus until Yeshua opened their eyes after He broke bread with them in the village upon arriving that evening. They even asked themselves, 'did not our heart burn within us, while He talked with us by the way, and while He opened to us the scriptures?' Then continuing to Jerusalem, Yeshua appears in the midst of the disciples as they were sharing the story of what had happened to them along the road. Yet again, they were terrified and did not recognize Him. Please read Luke 24 and then allow your hearts to be filled with His joy as you read what Yeshua had to say this morning about this story.

My beloved people, as you see in this passage, I was able to walk among My own, even break bread with them, yet they did not know Me. I appeared amongst My closest friends after rising, yet they were terrified and thought they were seeing a spirit. How could I have walked among them for three years, taught them, ate with them, laughed with them, healed them and loved them like I did yet they could not recognize Me after I was glorified? I tell you this, it is because they had hardened their hearts to Me and My message. To them, what I had been telling them sounded like a good tale, but when it came time for Me to fulfill the scriptures and die only to rise to new life, My friends could not accept this truth, and therefore hardened their hearts to the reality of what this meant, not only for Me, but the implications of what it was to mean for their lives. Many of you have done this very same thing. You care for the stories of old, you read My word, you follow your traditions and rituals, you do your works, but do you even SEE Me? Do you truly KNOW ME? Can you feel My presence with you? As these precious souls felt when I rose from the grave, looking for Me in the tomb and longing for the days when we were together, walking and talking and fellowshiping with each other, do you too, do the same? Are you not looking for Me in the tomb? In a church, a sermon or a teacher, a situation, a special quiet place? I tell you this, you need not look for Me anywhere 'out there!' for I am here, within you, surrounding you, filling your every pore, I am within the core of your very being if you have invited Me to be. Remember, the door to your heart is opened from the inside, and once invited, I remain eternally! Grasp this concept! The Kingdom of Heaven is within you! There is coming a time very soon, when you will hear rumors of some telling you to come here, or go there, for you will find the Messiah. I tell you this. I am NOT outside of you! Those who walk in union with Me and are One with My Father and My Spirit know this. You were created to be ONE in Our image. We are not separate from You, nor can We be found outside of you. The temple of the Living God dwells within you My children, and this truth should bring you so much joy that your heart swells at this reality of Our love for you, each and every one of you. You are Our Beloved, and We yearn for communion with you at all times. I hear your prayers of asking to be like Me, to be godly and live in righteousness, however instead of striving for these things outside of you, know, and let it resonate within your being, that these things are in reality who you are, who you were created to be. The Kingdom resides within! Do not look to Me to mirror Me, or simply reflect Me to others, do not just simply show love, become love, become Me, for it is through you that We operate, you being the empty vessel in which We flow uninhibited. Do you see? Do you really comprehend what this means for you? In this, you will find that you will never be misled, you will never be confused, frightened, or deceived, for this could never happen when your body and your very being becomes Our temple. Can you imagine the impact on others if you walked and loved as I loved? This message today is very important because as the judgements of your nation, and indeed your world become increasingly frequent and destructive, My church MUST rise up to fulfill the missions they were created to do at this very point in time. There is no need to fear, for I have told you all you need to know in My Word, and through those prophets that speak on My behalf. I have been and will continue to speak to you and guide you in all ways during these crucial times. I will provide for you, I will protect you, and I will comfort you My Beloved. Allow Me to flow unhindered through you now, and be at peace.

I love you.

Your Messiah, Your All in All

Yeshua

THE SORROW OF THE FATHER - 08/19/12

It is with a heavy heart that I speak with you this day. Much, in fact, most of the world has chosen the path of darkness, the angel of death and destruction. I see continual rebellion, and a constant desire for things of the flesh. Every aspect of your societies reflect this fact, and it brings such sorrow to Me, your Heavenly Father. How is a Father to accept the fact that although I have given you the free will, the innate spirit within you that is a part of Me, most of you still choose death? And not only this physical death in your members, your body, but an eternal death with consequences so painful, that you could have no idea even what you have chosen for yourself for all time. I have poured out a love on My people always, a love that transcends anything you could ever experience here in this life as you know it. Yet, you crave this darkness, you desire it wholeheartedly, and completely, and you leave no room for Me, your Creator, to fill any space in your lives. You have shunned Me at every turn, and vehemently denied even My existence. How is this possible in you? How can you not comprehend that you have a wonderful, loving, forgiving Father that has promised to care for you and provide for you as long as you turn to Me? I offer eternal life, but death and darkness is your path. This perverse generation is no different than those of the past, and I am a just God. If I did not withhold My hand of judgement on those nations, then why would I withhold My hand now, when so many mock Me and My commandments? You are so blazon and unabashed in your pride and your demonstrations of obedience and reverence to satan, hence, observe your most recent world event, the Olympics. What an opportunity for My people to represent Me, to show Me all of the glory, the honor, and the praise and adoration. Many athletes did just that, and I hold them dear to My heart and I will continue to bless them. However, what a spectacle to witness as you celebrated and elevated demonic rituals, traditions and mock sacrifices to the king of the underworld through your music, costumes, and styles of dancing. You paid homage to the New World Order and the powers that now govern your everyday life. How revolting and disgusting was this to me as your Heavenly Father, the One who created you with a specific mission, a purpose, and a destination of eternity with Me in My Kingdom. You crave sensuality and idolatry, and I am turning you over to all of these things. I will give you all that you desire, for as I have said before, it is your free will that I respect. You have abandoned Me, but I will still, never abandon you. You may still turn to Me at any time and repent, fall on your faces and ask Me to change your hardened hearts and restore you and it will be granted. This is My earnest desire for all of you walking in darkness, and this hell on earth that you have created for yourselves. You are walking on a sea of very, very thin ice which at any moment will crack completely and swallow you whole. My people ! There is always hope though for those who seek it. There is always Me. Know this as well. I have allowed enemy nations to come in very close proximity to your land. I have allowed the enemy from the east access to your borders, they are even within your nation and at your gates. Your high towers will be brought low, the exalted will be humbled. Missiles will reign down from the sky and the fires you are experiencing now are nothing in comparison to what I am about to do. Some cities will become uninhabitable and places will cease to exist. I will continue to dry up your rivers and your streams and you will see who it is who has been providing for you. My hand of protection will no longer be with you as I give you over to your desires. Your government here in America has betrayed its own for the New World Order which is to come and will rule for a short time. You were the greatest nation on earth, and you were meant to lead by example. I watch in horror as you murder millions of innocent souls each year, and fight to keep these laws enacted. You have mirrored the idolatry, fornication, and wickedness of other nations and then expounded on them, bragging and wallowing in your own filth. So now, your pride and your greed and your disobedience will bring your utter destruction. Woe to those who have immersed themselves in their own mire, disregarding My gift of love and unity with Me in My Kingdom. I am a righteous God and I will be vindicated and all will know that I am God Almighty. I urge you if you have not already chosen Light, do so now, for the time of the end is upon you.

Your Loving and Ever-Merciful Father.

MY PERSECUTED CHURCH - 08/26/12

While praying today and this weekend, this is what I feel the Father is impressing on my heart to write about.

My dear ones, I am asking that My own would take an extra moment each day, to lift up your brothers and sisters around the world who are being persecuted for My names' sake. Yes, there has always been persecution because of Me, but the hatred of those who reject My Word and My offer of salvation increases each day. The enemy knows very well his time is increasingly shortened, and the root of bitterness towards those that love Me and obey My commands escalates to an extent many would find hard to fathom. Manifestations of evil will become more and more visible and frequent, as well as intense. Many of you are experiencing situations of these kinds at this moment and know of which I speak. Some of these manifestations of evil will be on a very personal level. The enemy will do all he can to derail you and shake you to your core. So I ask of you now, on what is your foundation built? Where do you stand in your relationship to Me? Are you forsaking all in order to walk hand in hand with Me, following My will for your life? Or are you like My disciples in the past, who walked with Me, talked with Me, ate and slept with Me for years, yet could not stand with Me in My final hour? How much are you willing to lose for My sake? Will you forsake all for Me? The persecution in your nation pales in comparison to that which those in other countries suffer because of the faith in Me. However, know that you are not immune to these attacks. Your freedoms will be increasingly jeopardized and annulled and many of you will suffer much because you have chosen the narrow path. Know this, I will never leave you or forsake you, and My eternal glory far outweighs any abuse, ridicule, or tribulation you could ever experience in this life. Do not fear him who can kill the body, but be more concerned of him who can kill your soul. I allow this suffering because I must know where My people stand. I must know who is in My army, and who I can count on to walk with Me through these coming dark days. Darkness must come first, but then, the glorious reign of My Kingdom forever! And if you have allowed Me to penetrate every part of your being, I will carry you on wings of eagles through these trying times, and you will experience My faithfulness, My shield of protection, and My divine guidance through it all. No weapon formed against you can or will prosper! I have given you the power to tread on serpents and scorpions and this you must do. In order to be able to recognize when and where and how you are to do this, you must pray for My discernment each day. You will not be harmed as long as your loyalty remains with Me. Read My word, know how to respond and react when the darkness closes in around you. Plead My blood and pray My name, for there is no other name under Heaven by which any of you can be saved. All evil must flee at the mention of My name. Unite today and each day with your spiritual family around the world and pray for encouragement and a steadfast faith for yourselves and for each other. The prayers of My faithful are always heard and I will respond to each of you individually according to your needs and My plan for your life. It is only for a time that this darkness will become very encompassing, but for you who know Me, My light will be your comfort, your peace, and your security. Nothing else will matter. It is then that you will display My immense love for all My creation without trembling, and without fear. Rise to the occasion church, for there is much work to be done! I love each of you so very much,

Your Glorious King

Yeshua

I DESIRE YOU - 09/07/12

While praying and meditating the last few days, Yeshua has impressed upon me how very much He loves each and every one of us, and how very special and precious we are all to Him. As we continue to watch the deterioration of this country, the United States, because of the decisions made by our leaders, (the recent Democratic Convention events), our Father's judgements will increase in severity and frequency. He understands however, that the government is not representative of many of His people. I feel we are being asked where our focus is at this time, and if we are continuing to look to Him constantly, despite what is happening around us, or are we being caught up in the day to day events taking place all around us, and all around the world. It is very difficult to not want to know what is going to happen next, to not know if there is anything else we 'should do'. But the main point our King is stressing I believe is that we are to be Kingdom minded at all times. This means in everything we say, do, and everything we look to. We are going to witness events never before seen in our lives. We are going to go through some very, very difficult and trying times. We have a promise though, that we are not alone, and that we will be more than conquerors if we only keep our focus and perspective through it all. Following is the encouragement I heard this morning:

Go and tell my people how very much I love them. I desire nothing more than fellowship and communion with you all of the time. I long to spend time with you, talking with you, walking with you through this life and your daily responsibilities. Can you not feel My presence? When invited, I walk hand in hand with you, holding you, comforting you, speaking the things to you that you need to hear for each day ahead. I go before you in all situations, and prepare your way before you even take a step. You are My chosen, and there is nothing that will or could stop Me from being everything for you, your Comforter, your Guide, your Protector, your Love. I am pouring out my anointing upon you, and it covers you completely, bathing you in My glory, and sealing you from the world. I have told you many times, you are not of this world, as you are Kingdom heirs, and this earth is not your home. Seek My Kingdom and all that it encompasses, and all else will be placed at your feet. You have at your disposal multitudes of angels, always eager to assist you in your requests. Simply ask, and they are positioned for you. I desire for you to look only to Me and the things that Heaven is about at this time, not the world events and the enemies plans being carried out on this earth. He would like nothing more than to take your focus off of the Kingdom, and have you anxious over what is occurring in the physical realm. Remember, these things must occur as I will continue to appeal to those whose hearts are hardened to me. You however are not reserved to My anger and wrath. I will bring you through all of these events, and you will witness Me in all of My glory on this earth. There is so much joy awaiting you! There is much preparation being done here, as the feast of our Wedding together is to take place shortly! I am eager to share your new name with each of you, and to fellowship with you at My Table. I have created all of the beauty of this world for each one of you. I love you this much! Enjoy this that I have given to you, My gift to My people. It is possible to have immense joy, in the middle of tribulation, because your desire is Me! And My desire is you! Grasp this My beloved, and you will know such peace! My grace is sufficient for EVERY circumstance, no matter how it appears. Get a Heavenly perspective! Not a worldly one. I will sharpen your senses, and you will know what is occurring in the spiritual realm, if you only spend time with Me and ask Me to enlighten you. I will not leave you confused or uncertain or in fear. You will know My plans and walk in them in authority. I am thinking of My pure and spotless Bride, and I am filled with joy and love over you! I am eager for our union for eternity! I have much to share with you. Desire Me! Yearn for Me! Reach out for Me always! Hold fast to Me! Breathe Me! Set your eyes upon Me! Eternity awaits you!

Your Loving Groom,

Yeshua

COME OUT OF BABYLON TODAY! - 09/15/12

Come out of her My sons and daughters today! If you claim to follow Me and be one of My sheep, I say to you COME OUT OF Babylon TODAY! Many of you are hearing the calling of My spirit, and know without a doubt that you can not continue to operate in the parameters you have been operating in anymore. There is a movement of My spirit across the lands, a tide so to speak, as I gently but authoritatively draw you out of enemy strongholds. Many are feeling that things are changing, and something is happening in the spiritual realm that is pulling you away and closer to Me. Your prayers are being heard and I am assembling My army as I have been speaking about for several months now. Those who are listening and are spending time with Me every day, who are placing Me first and foremost in all they do, you are being strategically placed in the areas I want you to minister in and with the people you are to join with during these momentous days spoken of by My prophets. Continue to listen for My instructions. All that is not of Me will indeed fall. One of the enemies greatest accomplishments has been from the beginning of My church, to create divisions through denominations. My church so quickly became consumed with traditions and doctrines and rites of passage, that they forgot why I was here and what I had taught you to do. When I walked on this earth with My disciples, I taught you ways that are Kingdom ways, and these ways are simple My friends. I walked and supped with you, talked with you, ministered to your needs, and prayed with you. This is all I have ever wanted Our body to be about. We had communion. We had relationship. I did not try to organize anything, I embodied LOVE and that encompassed all. This still holds true dear people. My ways are right and true and pure. I am calling up a people now that lays down separation, division, and vain attempts to feign church as you have known it to be for so long. You know who you are now, and all I require is that you ask My Holy Spirit to reveal to you the giftings and direction that I have created you for in this moment now. Do not fear to step out into this calling, for it is finally time to move! The paradigms of your societies are shifting quickly, and you must flow into your next purpose with authority, and with peace, knowing I direct all your moves. I will have a body of unity again, like days of old, a body that is effectual in leading and ministering and healing, for many multitudes will soon flock to you. They will come because it is My light, and My love permeating your spirit, and they will see that I am real, and that I come for all. Pray unceasingly for discernment, as I will be bringing you into places and with the people I will have you minister with. Forget the ways of the past, and church as you have known it. I will show you My true meaning of unity, and oneness in the spirit. How marvelous it will be for you to experience that for which you were created! Oh the joy that will supersede all you've ever known. Watch for Me in ways you've never expected before. I am ever-present! Do not fear that you will not be made aware of the direction you should take. If you have surrendered all to Me, there is nothing to worry about. You will hear My voice, and you will be comforted. I have never left you alone, why would I do so now? I will manifest in powerful ways amongst you and My glory will be known throughout the earth. The darkness must flee around you when I am present. Remember to whom you belong. Pray for the people I will place you together with to be put into their positions, pray for divine meetings, and My purpose to now manifest in your lives. Nothing is coincidence or happenstance. I am moving in every moment and each circumstance and situation in your lives is going to reflect My flow. Be ever so careful not to hinder this movement by allowing distractions and things of the world to creep back in. Remove yourself continually from this world, and unite your spirit with Me in the spirit realm. In doing this, you will know what Heaven is about at this time. You will have no problem understanding and walking step in step with My plans. My ways are so simple, and so pure. You have entered into a time that will indeed be very dark, and very painful for those who have rejected Me and My love for them. You will see much in these days, and much of it will not be easy to experience. There will be those that are unreachable, those whose hearts are too hardened to My message, those you will watch perish without knowing the hope I have offered them. Your hearts will break because of this, and you will also experience the sadness that I do when this occurs. Because We are one, We feel the same. There will be much work to be done however, so you must continue to move and minister and reach out to the lost as these earth changes occur. Feed My sheep. My will, My plan, will be accomplished. The fate of many has already been sealed. The things I have put in motion will now increase in intensity, do not be alarmed at how fiercely they come. Your world will shake mightily and violently. I have spoken it before many times, through many people, I will not be mocked. I have given many visions and messages and pictures so that My chosen will know what to expect. It is not for you to know the details of what I am doing, only that much, much must occur in order to expose the darkness, the lies, the deception and the wickedness. I am separating the sheep from the goats, the wheat from the chaff, and if you are not grounded in Me, you will not stand. Do not become consumed with how things will play out. This is only another way the enemy keeps your focus off of Me. Stay in the Word, pray, pray, pray, and continue to love others as I love them. This is My command. Be obedient, be faithful. Pay close attention to what is happening in the spiritual realm. You will very soon see a large and destructive war, and this is no surprise as it has been prophesied in My Word. Many will perish. When you see this, you will know that I am so very close to My second coming. The man of perdition will be exposed. Pray My people that you will see him for who he is, and that you would not be deceived. Sadly, many of the elect will be, as they only know Me superficially, and have not the intimacy with Me that I desire. This is another reason it is so important to come out of babylon, walk away from anyone or anything that is not directly speaking from My holy Word. I am not religion, I want a relationship with every one of you. Speak repentance to all. Tell them of My mercy and My grace and My love for them. Do not bring them fear about what must happen on the earth, these changes that are coming. Simply speak love, love, love. I thank you all for answering this call, and for your obedience at this time. With all of My love,

Messiah, King of the Universe

A LESSON IN FAITH FROM A YOUNG MAN NAMED JAMES - 09/21/12

It always amazes me how our God stretches and grows us, and how he increases our faith sometimes through the meekest of people. I want to share with you a story of faith, the kind of faith that we should all have, because we have been given so many examples, not only in the Word, but in the everyday situations all around us. The scene is a young man, a very beat up old car, a puppy, and a cardboard sign. How many times have we seen these type of scenarios in a parking lot, or at an intersection, or on the side of a road. Probably dozens. Our heart goes out initially to these souls, we feel a twinge of compassion, a sudden impulse to do something, anything, but immediately those thoughts are replaced with fear possibly, fear of danger, fear of moving out of our comfort zone, uncertainty that we are the ones who should respond, I mean, there out literally thousands of other cars driving by as well. Then the rationalization begins. What if that person is lying, what if they are just scamming the crowds to make a quick buck because they're lazy, they can't bother working like the rest of us. We think of the charities that we donate to or support, and say to ourselves, we already help people through these other organizations. We've already donated our quota for this week's check, or this month. And then the judging begins. Look at how they look. Look at all those tattoos and the long goatee. Wow, I wonder if that person even bathes. How dare they sit there and beg for money, there are jobs to be had, why can't they work like everybody else. Why don't they go to those big organizations that feed and shelter people that the government funds. Why do they have to sit there staring at us, making us feel guilty if we don't stop and give them something? Now be honest. Can you say truthfully that some or all of these thoughts don't go through your mind when confronted with these type of situations?

Now, I introduce you to James. He is a young man, maybe very early twenties at the most, long goatee, crazy skull cap, bizarre looking tattoos all over his body. He and his puppy and sitting on the trunk of his car in the Sam's Club parking lot holding a sign that simply reads "Please help, ran out of gas, trying to get back home to Ohio." I know what you're thinking. I've seen that sign everywhere, they all say the same thing. So let me ask you. Would you stop? Would you dare to take a moment and find out a little about James? And why he is sitting there? Or are you willing to drive on by, just like all the other times, say a little prayer, asking God to bless James, and send someone to help him, just not you. My oldest daughter and I were faced with this situation last night, and sat there after pumping our gas, praying and asking the Holy Spirit what He would have us do. Now of course I hesitate approaching any man when I'm alone, or have my three beautiful daughters with me, because, like you, I know we live in a crazy and violent world. I'm very concerned of what could happen, or how we would defend ourselves in a dangerous situation. But this time, I felt different. I have been praying about Father increasing our faith, about Him moving us all out of our comfort zones in our little family, about Him using us powerfully to do His Kingdom work. And so, feeling empowered and confident that God would allow us to witness to this young man, we pulled up next to his car. What happened next has left an impact on my daughter and I that we will never forget. We were expecting to be the blessing, but God blew our socks off in the blessing we received after listening to James' story.

I say hello and ask this man what his situation is. He quickly put his sign down, and smiles a big, bright smile, with such a look of peace you would never know he had next to nothing to call his own. "Thank you so much for stopping!" he expresses joyfully. He tells us how he found the puppy on the side of the interstate four months ago, and how she has been his best friend ever since. He had driven from Ohio to Miami to take a friend of his back home, a girl who had been abused by her boyfriend, and dumped, and was desperately trying to get back to her home in South Florida. The only thing he owned was a very beat up old Toyota. I asked him if he knew Jesus, and he got even more joyful, and looked me straight in the eyes and said, 'Yes I do, I have a relationship with Him and I can't live without Him. He takes care of me wherever I go. I know I'm covered in tattoos, and you wouldn't probably believe I'm a Christian when you look at me, but I am, and I'm not afraid to say that'. He then goes on to tell my daughter and I that it says in the book of Phillipians, that all of our needs will be provided. He tells us he prayed to God about making the trip and God assured him He would get Him there and back, that He had nothing to worry about. So, he leaves on interstate 95 driving south, gets the girl back to her parents house, then his little car's transmission blows. He has very little money with him, only enough for some gas and a bit of food for he and the puppy. He goes to a junkyard, finds a transmission that fits his car, and puts it on himself. Back on the road again. He makes it as far as Highway 520 here in Cocoa, Florida, then realizes he is almost on empty, and he has to find help. He prays and tells God, 'Ok, you said you'd take care of me, and now I need help!' To which God told him again, don't worry, I'll send people to help you along the way. All will be well. Make a sign and let Me take care of the rest.' He says someone had stopped that morning and fed him breakfast for which he was so grateful, and he thanked God for the meal. Then he sat all day on the trunk, waiting for God's next move. God did move, and he moved my daughter and I. We learned a big lesson on what faith really looks like. Not the kind of faith that assures us when or what we will eat next, or what we will do with the rest of the day. Not the kind of faith that keeps us cozy on our couches, with a roof over our heads and a decent car outside to drive that we know God has provided for us. Not the kind of faith that gives us the warm fuzzies, as we sit comfortably in our homes, thankful for the shelter we have, and grateful for that paycheck that we're positive we're getting on Friday. And certainly not the kind of faith that gives us comfort knowing we won't ever have to be 'uncomfortable' if we don't want to. These are not the things that faith is made of. I'm talking about real, concrete, unshaking faith, that if or when we lose everything, our God will always be our rock. The kind of faith that means nothing else but Him matters to us, and the willingness to give all for Him.

My daughter and I couldn't stop talking about how blessed we both felt after driving away from James, about the peace that surrounded him, and about how incredibly strong his faith in God really was. I mean, he truly had nothing, but was one of the most peaceful souls I've ever come across. He knew that he knew who his Savior was, and he wasn't worried about a thing. He also wasn't ashamed to speak about his relationship! So my question to all of you reading this is, if someone who would appear to have nothing, the downcast of society, the poor and downtrodden, can have that kind of attitude about God's provision in his life, who are we to question God's motives in our own, and how dare we judge or accuse anyone who doesn't meet our standards or requirements at first glance? If you would only really look around you, the presence of God is everywhere, even if those you would least expect. I spoke with Yeshua this morning about this encounter, and this is what I feel He is expressing to us today:

If you only had the faith of a mustard seed My people! You would move mountains! You have been given so much, yet you cling to what you have and give of your surplus instead of your first fruits! Think of the woman with the mites! She had nothing, pennies to her name, yet she gave her all as a sacrifice for Me, knowing with all of her heart that I would continue to provide for her every need! You have been given so much, especially you in America, but your hearts turn cold when presented with My poor, My lowly people. What have I spoken to you in My Word about this? It is the poor that I came for! It is the outcast, the rejected ones that aren't attractive that I came to minister to, and it is those that I expect you to love. You pray for hearts that are compassionate. You pray for Me to use you mightily for My Kingdom purposes, you pray for boldness and increases in your faith. I hear your prayers, and I do answer them. Just remember, what you have been given does not belong to you. All that is belongs to Me. To some I have given much to utilize in this life, and to some not so much. Either way, that is not the concern. What you should concern yourselves with is what you are doing with that which you have been given. To those who have been given much, I require much. I speak again to you today. Feed My sheep! Minister to My people! Do not expect to be used for My purposes if you are not willing to constantly and continually reach out to the lost and the hurting and the needy! I have placed them everywhere, and placed them strategically. Do not think for a moment that I do not know their hearts intimately or what they are going through. I have numbered the hairs on their heads as I have yours. You are no different than them. You are no better than those who have not been given much. Reach out My people! Reach out your arms of love, give of yourselves, show compassion, show mercy, as you look to Me for these very things daily. If you are ashamed of Me before those about you, I will not recognize you before My Father. Of this, I assure you. Teach them who I am. Talk about Me. Be that extension of Heaven they long for. And don't be surprised like this instance with the man James last night, that I would use someone like this to teach you a lesson. There is much work to be done My daughter in these days. So many to reach out to, and soon, oh so very soon, there will be so many more, so many needing a glimpse of Me. Stand in the purpose for which you were created. Retain your focus. It is not about you! It is about what can be done through you! This is so important. Much of the experiences you are now having in the world are not only preparing you for what is to come, but are also testing you to see where you are being placed in My army. I need leadership. I need those that are so strong, and so committed to My work, and My ways, that nothing else matters. Reach My children, reach out in My love.

Jehovah Jireh,

Yeshua, your Provider

DROP ANCHOR - 09/24/12

You have entered into a very serious time upon your lands. I am a God of My Word, and I all will know that I am Almighty, all will know that I am the Lord God of the Universe. I am about to show Myself in a way in that there will be no question as to My existence. For all those that believe they are controlling their destinies, their plans and strategies, I will make Myself known very powerfully, and there will be no uncertainty as to who I am. I fulfill every word to the letter, and I move as I say I will move. Read My Word and you will know exactly what is coming upon the earth.

I am seeing a very large number of ships while meditating, kind of like battleships in the ocean and the ocean is extremely violent and stormy and the waves are huge. But these ships are not moving one bit. I am seeing them having dropped their anchors, every one of them, very deep into the bottom of the ocean, and they are completely still in the water, unmovable and untouchable by the storms and huge waves. There is no logical reason why these ships are not being annihilated by the weather. Then I hear this interpretation.

This is how you are to be from now on. You must drop your anchors deep, deep into Me, into My Word, and into My presence. Wrap yourselves so strongly into Me, that when the storms are fierce, you will not be swayed. I have promised to keep you from wrath, and I am a God of My Word. Know without the shadow of a doubt, that when grounded in Me, you are invincible! Much is getting ready to rage around you, but fear not My children, your root is the Source, and I, the Source, control all. You will not be touched, nor will you be harm. Pray for My covering, My shield, and My seal of protection, and it shall be so, and you will have the power to tread on serpents and scorpions without harm. Pray for your loved ones, your families, and never, never take your focus off of Me. I can not emphasize this enough. You must look ever forward and up, do not look at what is occurring around you. Drop anchor, drop anchor NOW. I do not disappoint.

VISION OF ANGELS POURING OIL AND WITH SWORDS - 10/03/12

I was given a vision in two parts, the first was personally for me, but it was connected to another vision, this morning, that is meant for the body of Yeshua. The first thing I saw in both visions, was Yeshua stooping down in the sand, I am to the right but behind him, and I watch his face as He very slowly takes His right hand and draws a dividing line in the sand. Then the second vision moves to the throne in Heaven. I saw the throne and surrounding the throne were many, many angels. There were angels designated as the holders of giant golden bowls. These bowls were very large, and they were filled with the Lords' anointing oil. Gathered around these angels holding the bowls were dozens of other angels, and they were responsible for carrying lighted swords, and following the angels with the bowls of oil. I was then looking down and saw the earth below me, and from the throne Yeshua was pointing to places all over the earth. As He would point in one place, an angel with a bowl of anointing oil would come down to the earth, followed by the group of angels with swords, and that angel would pour out the oil on believers in the location that Yeshua had pointed to. Then the angels following with the swords would come as well, wait for the oil to be poured, give a lighted sword to the believers, then stand guard all around the believers, holding a sword of their own as well. Each individual believer had many angels around them holding these lighted swords and the believer would then have one of their own. At the same time, the believer would be illuminated with the surrounding angels, and that place on the earth would light up. I saw this happening over and over, each time that Yeshua would point, the angels would dispatch and locations on the earth were being lit up. This vision also brought to mind another vision I had where I was in a church, the pastor was walking around, tapping people, shaking them, and telling them they had to wake up, that time was short! Yeshua appeared in the midst of the congregation, smiling with arms outstretched, and I watched as Michael the archangel came in and handed Yeshua a very large flaming sword that Yeshua then in turn handed out to the people.

After praying about the visions, this is, I feel, Yeshua's words to us:

I wish that My people would enter in My rest. For those walking with Me, there is nothing to fear. Heaven is busy at work, making all of the preparations for you for these end times. It is a time of rejoicing, as each of you is being selected and sealed under My anointing. Within this, you can not be harmed. I have promised to guard you and guide you, and this is what is occurring all over the earth. Your prayers are being answered and you are being activated to respond at a moment's notice when called. You are being equipped and armed with the tools necessary for warfare and also for winning souls to Me. You will not hesitate when faced with tribulation, as My power is being given unto you, and My authority. You will not fear the terrors of the night, nor the arrows that befall you by day. You will be given authority over much, and the enemy will flee from you at every turn. He must do this, as it is Me he is challenging, working in you. You will walk in My Kingdom although you will still reside on this earth. Each of you is given angels to protect you and guide you, to assist you in the times to come. You will have the awareness of them at all times, and they will not leave your side until you are joined back together with Me when I come again for you. As you are ministering to the lost, the confused, and the hurting, you will also be able to recognize others as yourself, who have been sealed with My anointing. This is a discernment which will be given to My chosen. This is the army I have spoken to you about before, and you are located all around the world. Although you are not close in proximity to your brothers and sisters in the physical realm around certain areas of the world, you will all be united spiritually and work as One under My command. You will all hear the same Voice, walk in the same formation, and work side by side in Spirit, as we gather in the harvest, the largest of all time! My army has been strategically placed, and is in the process of receiving their orders. Continue to prepare your hearts My saints! The time is at hand! And a word for those of you who are allowing your hearts to become hardened: I have drawn the line in the sand, and the hourglass is almost empty. I will never force you to choose Me. The door of your heart must be opened from the inside. However, you must also know, the days ahead will be so much more difficult for those who do not make the choice for Me, but choose to remain lukewarm and cold to My requests. Hear My again now, repent, choose Me today. DO NOT DELAY ANY LONGER FOR TIME IS NOT ON YOUR SIDE. I love you each dearly and with a love only your Creator could.

Yeshua

VISION OF YESHUA TIGHTENING ARMOR - 10/08/12

Three mornings ago, I had another vision. While I was praying, I found myself standing in a scene of all white, and I was wearing a coat of armor. Yeshua suddenly appeared in front of me, and very slowly and methodically, He began to adjust my armor, one strap at a time. He began at my legs, tightening the straps there and adjusting them to make sure they were fitting perfectly. He then moved up to the armor on my thigh, up to my arm, and then to my back. He re-fitted the breastplate from the back, and then re-tied it to make sure it was fitting snugly on me, just the way it should for my size. He placed His hands on the helmet before walking around to my right. After finishing the adjustments on that side, He stood in front of me with His hands on my chest. I was crying, feeling extremely overwhelmed and humbled. It was so hard to speak. I said to Him, 'I am not worthy that you should be doing this for me, not you Yeshua.' He simply smiled keeping His hands on my chest over my heart and said, " I will always be with you. You are worthy, worthy through Me. We can do this, and we will do this." End of vision.

These experiences are things that words can not accurately describe. The God of the Universe loves each and every one of us with all the love in the world. I have never felt so much love and so much peace in my entire life. It was if I was all that mattered at that moment. His love is so pure, and so completely consuming, a consuming fire in my spirit! It was hours before I could stop crying, crying because of the love I felt being poured out for me. Yeshua wants all of you to know, He loves us all this much. No one could ever care for us as completely as He does. His arms are always open, He is always, always standing before us, waiting for us to embrace Him in return. He is preparing His bride for the final battle, and He is examining every one of us, checking our armor, adjusting and tightening and strengthening us for what lies directly ahead. We each have a very specific calling, and mission in the Kingdom, and He uniquely and lovingly prepares each one according to His purposes. Never believe the lie of the enemy that what you do is not important enough, or that you don't matter in this world. We are CHOSEN!!! Chosen by the King of the Universe!!!

I talked with my husband and short while later, only to find out that late the night before, his specific prayer to Yeshua was for Him to 'tighten the armor around me and strengthen me'. Hallelujah Lord Yeshua! My daughters and I then gathered together in prayer, rejoicing over this experience. Yeshua then manifested Himself again as we were praying. During my prayers with the girls, I was praying that He would manifest powerfully in their lives as well, and strengthen them for their calling and purpose. Yeshua was so very present amongst us, we could feel Him all around us with the angels. After we finished praying, one of my daughters shares with me that while we were praying, Yeshua was standing behind us, His arms stretched straight out to the sides. He was holding back many demons in the room who were trying to get at us while we were praying, and she watched in her spirit as He held them back until we were done praying, then the demons disappeared! Praise you Yeshua!

I share these experiences with you because I am led by His spirit to do so, as He wants His body, His church to be edified and encouraged. I pray He will always keep my humble, that He would purify my heart each and every day. I am not worthy of anything of the Kingdom, except through my precious Lord Jesus, who shed His blood for all, for YOU, for every sin, for all time. Why choose any other way when the King of Kings, and the Lord of Lords, reaches out continually to you for the most pure relationship you will ever experience, and not just for a time, but for eternity! What a treasure we have in Him!!! Thank you my Savior.

I am re-posting a video that I feel is one of the most powerful I've ever seen, about the importance of having our armor on, and telling others of the love Yeshua has for them. God bless every one of you that read this, and you are daily in my prayers.

VISION OF THE FOUR ANCIENT MEN AT THE THRONE OF GOD - 10/16/12

I have had a vision also during the Feast of Tabernacles week, but have waited to post it as I needed interpretation. I have received that now, and will share the vision here. It was late one night and while praying, four very ancient looking men appeared from the shoulders up, they were in front of the throne of God, and behind them I could see Yeshua with His arms outstretched towards the men. The men were only visible from the chest up, and they were facing downwards, all looking directly at me. I asked for the blood of Yeshua to cover me and the experience as I always do, and then rebuked any spirits of the enemy with His blood and asked Yeshua to do the same before asking who they were or what they represented. The men were very tranquil but said nothing. Yeshua did not speak either. I waited and then asked again, but all was quiet. They simply stood and looked at me. The next morning I asked again after prayer and testing the spirits, who they were, or what they were there to express or represent. The first thing I see is Yeshua again, like the previous vision, squatting in the sand, and He does the same thing, He draws a line in the sand. I am behind Him and behind the line He has drawn. At this time, the four ancient looking men reappeared, and as I listened, they each spoke. The second man speaks first and says, "she walks with many." Then a little bit later, the fourth one speaks and says, "wisdom comes to her". Then a bit longer and the first one says "we are faith, discernment, knowledge, and wisdom. Then again a little while longer before the third and last one speaks, "we are here to assist, instruct, and guide and we will remain with you to walk you through what must be accomplished."

Although I would have loved to have the meaning of this right at this moment, that did not happen. It was several days later and after much praying that I received the meaning of the visit. The Holy Spirit has shown me that the "she" referred to in the vision is the body or bride of Yeshua, the church. These old wise men were letting us know as a body that wisdom for the last days is being poured out on her, on us the Bride. The church walks with many refers to the great cloud of witnesses that we are surrounded by at all times. In the unseen spiritual realm, we have many who are assisting in our spiritual awakening and direction. These men represent attributes if you will, of that which is being poured out right now to those who are seeking Yeshua with all their hearts and all their beings. We are being strengthened in our faith whether we realize it or not, we are being trained in discernment for the times in which we live, in order to better recognize evil vs. good. Godly knowledge is being gifted to us the more we continue to read His Word and pray each day, the mysteries of the Kingdom are being revealed like never before. Lastly, we are being given the gift of Godly wisdom, as we are facing increasingly difficult situations and circumstances as we approach the return of our Lord and Savior.

The great cloud of witnesses are the souls of all those who have gone before us, who have won the race, endured to the end, and are surrounding us from the throne, cheering us on and encouraging us to finish the race we have begun. They have accomplished what they were given to do, and are anxiously awaiting the time when we will all join at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. We are not alone in our sufferings and tribulations, nor are we alone in accomplishing the Kingdom work we have each been given. What an incredible example of how much our Father loves us, that He would have so many witnesses to the faith, supporting our efforts and loving us in the spiritual realm. These four things, faith, discernment, knowledge, and wisdom, are things we need to be praying for every day, and are critical in our growth with our relationship with Yeshua and those around us. It has been and will continue to be my prayer that we as believers increase in each of these attributes as we continue to strive for Kingdom purposes and Kingdom living. Amen and blessings to you all.

THE SHAKING - 10/17/12

This morning while meditating, I was given a picture of two believers. The first believer was doing all he could to follow Yeshua, living a life of righteousness, and continually seeking the face of God in every moment. This believer was then approached by Yeshua, who walked up to the man and placed His hands on his shoulders. Yeshua shook the man lightly, as this is all that needed to happen, and something like small scales fell in tiny pieces onto the ground, leaving the man bright white in garment and radiantly joyful. Yeshua then poured from a golden vessel that looked like a pitcher, oil all over the man until he was completely immersed and dripping with this oil. He smiled and embraced the man and nodded yes. On the right was another man, this believer was more disheveled looking in garment and obviously rattled by life's situations. There was so much concern on his face and he looked empty and lost. He was not doing such a good job of seeking God every day, and did not have a close walk with Yeshua. He had strayed in his walk and compromised much in his everyday life. It showed in his demeanor. Yeshua then placed His hands on this man's shoulder's as he did the first man, and this time gave the man a very strong shake, many times, back and forth, not harming the man, but definitely making him tremble at what was happening. Falling off of this man were larger scales so to speak, bigger in diameter from the first man, and much greater in number. These scales were thousands falling to the ground as opposed to only a few from the first man. Yeshua kept shaking, longer than the previous believer, until finally this man was free of the scales and he too, had on a bright white garment and was left with much peace and joy, ready to follow His Savior. He was covered with the oil poured from the pitcher as well, and given the nod yes too, and then I heard Yeshua say to them, "I am the Lamb of God who has come to save the world from their sins. Blessed are they that are found worthy to follow the Lamb. Come. Follow Me, there is yet much work to be done, and We must finish the race." He then turned His back to the two of them and began walking as they followed. Here the scene ended.

I am come to shake nations. I am come to shake hearts and minds. I will sift out all that is not of Me in you, and make you ready for My plans for you. Things will change in your lives, for some this will take place more quickly and easily than others. Those of you who walk closely with Me have not much need to be shaken, as I find little dross to burn. Others are very burdened with sin and the tribulations of life, hence, very darkened and resistant. To these I must do a greater shaking. I will, if permitted, remove all that has hindered you from knowing Me intimately, but you must allow your walls to be torn down. You must allow Me to shake all that you are accustomed to for security and comfort, so you will be cleansed and freed from the bondage the enemy has kept you in for so long. I would that you put on My garments of praise as I lead you into a greater and more glorious calling. Your persons are not all that I will shake, as the very earth is responding to My pleas for mankind. Come to Me now all you who are heavy- hearted and weary, for I am Rest. I am Comfort, I am Peace Everlasting. Such joy will you know when joined in One Love with Us. I will show you such wonders. Place all of your trust in Me. I see all things, I know all hearts. There is nothing you can hide from Me. Not one of you is too far to reach. There are some of you that will indeed need a greater shaking, a more severe sifting of the heart, but only I know the outcome of such a purifying. The end result is still the same, do you see? It is I ultimately that will be glorified. Those that walk with Me each day and those that allow Me to come and wipe the slate clean, they both come to Me purified and ready for My next move. They are both equal in My sight. All are precious to Me and I wish that not one of you would be lost. This is why I am going to such great lengths to personally come to each one. My invitation is for ALL, especially the lost, the weary, the wayward. All are welcome to partake in My salvation and My love. You will ALL receive the oil of My anointing if you only choose Me. It matters not how great your sins, how far you have strayed. I only want a willing heart and complete surrender. It is then that I make Myself known to the world through you. Turn to Me and ask Me to forgive you, to shake you, to remove all that hinders you from walking in victory. The choice is always yours. Why do you postpone your decision? Your groom awaits,

Yeshua

PRESS IN - 10/27/12

The time in which you are is indeed a very serious time, for there are many changes occurring in the Kingdom which are being reflected in the earth. As in all of history, your earth will respond to My voice, and to My beckoning. All of creation answers to Me, and Me alone. The scales have been tipped, and the time is come to choose the narrow way, My way to eternal life, and the banquet I have prepared for each one of you. So many however are choosing the broad way of destruction through the continual lies of the prince of darkness who controls your world. Many, many hands are working behind the scenes to manipulate your systems. These are the systems which most believe will protect and provide for them in difficult circumstances. Know however that these are more lies from the enemy, and I am the only Truth, the only Way you can and will be protected from the storms that are upon you. I am personally coming to each of you, and asking you to open your hearts to Me now. You have been created to recognize My voice, the voice of your Shepherd, your Maker, and all who seek Me are now hearing the same words being spoken, as We are all One heart, and of One accord. My instructions remain the same. Do not focus on what appears to be a world in turmoil around you, as this is what the enemy would have you most concerned about. Your focus should ALWAYS be My Kingdom and My will for your lives in each moment. I prepare My sheep, and you need not concern yourselves with what is happening around you that is so very unstable. My ways are perfect and My flock can not be touched. You will stand victorious and experience My glory being manifested in your lands as never before. You are being bathed in My grace in every moment, and My grace will always be sufficient for you no matter what you face in days ahead. Lead the lost to Me and to My precious heart. Lead them in love, in forgiveness, and with compassion. Love the unloved. Embrace My forgotten. Bring these into My fold. All I have is yours, and what you call yours belongs to Me. Submit yourselves entirely to Me and allow your hands to become My hands, your words to be My words, and your love to be My love. It is in this way that all humanity knows the love of their Savior, their Messiah. I hold the keys to all of your questions and concerns. It is all found in Me. Seek nothing else. Move in My flow, from glory, to glory, to glory. I carry you as wings of eagles and We soar high above all else! Pray without ceasing, and I will give every one of you specific instructions for your individual circumstances. You do not walk alone, and you need not fear the adversary at any time. My Father's will has already been accomplished and completed when I rose from the tomb! Darkness IS defeated for all time. We are conquerors! Walk in this knowing and you will have complete authority from Me. Stop hesitating. Be bold and courageous My children! Your spirits are already being quickened as I speak this. You who are following Me with all of your hearts know this. You have felt the change begin in you. We have entered a new season, a challenging season, but a glorious season for the heirs of the Kingdom. Listen intently for the next move. It will be given very clearly. Believe this. Then step into that move with much determination and excitement, as it is Me behind you motivating and driving you forward and closer into Me. Press in My people! Press in to Me. Tighten your boot straps as We are going to be sprinting for a bit, but know this will only be for a time and then your rest will come. Forward My children, forward!

Your loving Shepherd,

Yeshua

CRY OUT TO ME - 10/31/12

While praying this morning, I was asking Yeshua why so many people continue to ignore Him even amongst so much tribulation and suffering. I don't watch TV, but I did turn it on yesterday to see the damage Hurricane Sandy was doing, and what the response of some were to this storm. It brought tears to my eyes, to turn back and forth to the different news channels, and listen to reporters as well as everyday people, using phrases like "we were so lucky", or "don't worry, we'll simply rebuilt bigger and better next time". Another comment on MSNBC was "we have to stop focusing on the local disaster and concentrate on getting these markets back up and running". Everywhere I turned, there was not one mention of turning to God, being blessed at still being alive, or still having a house to live in, just nothing even remotely suggesting that a greater power was responsible for attempting to get the attention of a people grown cold and hard-hearted towards Him. Some were going so far as to say that our candidates Obama and Romney were using this disaster for political means as they spoke or reached out to the hurting. Do we ever stop? Our God is so merciful, yet there must be justice at our blatant ignorance to even acknowledge His existence. It is not a coincidence that this storm struck the heart of our nation, as God is beckoning us to turn our hearts back to Him (as a nation). Yet how many will respond to Him? How many will take this as their wake-up call to get their spiritual houses in order? While listening as Yeshua expressed how He is moving throughout the land, this is what I feel He wants all to hear:

I have spoken to you recently of shaking souls, of removing the scales of hidden sins and ways of life that are not in accord with My ways. I am not only shaking individual hearts through refinement to bring about this purification, but you are also experiencing a purification of your lands, your society, your foundations. I am uprooting all that does not have receive its nourishment from Me. All that is not of Me MUST be brought down. I have targeted the heart of your country as I am targeting your heart at this time. I want you to know that it is I you must turn to in your need. Cry out to Me! All that is built on false ideals and belief systems is coming down! How can you not see this? I warn and I warn, always in My infinite mercy, that your hearts have grown cold and you no longer seek Me as a nation. I give ample time for repentance, yet your walls of resistance remain standing. You grow ever more obstinate at My pleas. Oh the pride of America and how she disregards the blessings I have bestowed upon her. She will know pain and suffering because of this disobedience. I will give you over to that which you crave, and the end result will be desolation, darkness and emptiness. My people if you could only remove the veil for an instant from before your eyes and see the great beauty which I have prepared for those who love Me and accept My invitation. You are like the wedding guests who after receiving the King's invitation, not once, not twice, but three times deny even attending My banquet. And those of you who may come begrudgingly in words only are hypocrites, insulting Me more than those who simply ignore Me. You come and profess Me with your lips, but you refuse to wear the wedding garment and truly put on Christ as your garment. I must strip all that is familiar, all that is comfortable, and all that you depend on for sustenance if there is any hope of you returning to Me. Some will lose all to gain Me. But oh the glory that awaits those precious souls. I ask again in My infinite mercy. Forsake all and run towards Me. I alone will sustain you. I alone hold all you require. Let me care for you as only your Creator can. Lay down your idols and your pride. Take My hand and I will lead you home.

SATAN'S LAST ASSAULT - 11/05/12

I have only just begun to shake the nations and your lands. I am allowing the enemy to assault as never before, but know that My armies in Heaven are ready and waiting for My word to act. The greatest battle of all time is being waged for the destination of souls. I am separating the righteous from the unrighteous, and you must pray like never before for these who are walking in darkness and despair. My grace is like rain as it pours out over a people who must choose now the way of eternal life or suffer irrevocable consequences. It is My unconditional love and favor for you, and you need only accept this truth, as your works will not earn you a place within the Kingdom.

(I'm being shown at this point a picture of a flower in three different phases. The first is a bud which has not blossomed, the second an open flower, and the third a dying and wilting flower. Yeshua explains:)

My grace (like rain), is being poured out upon all. It falls on the budding believer, bathing him and encompassing him so that he may blossom into a relationship with Me. This same grace also falls on the blooming flower, its petals outstretched, and this believer absorbs My outpouring of grace and allows it to flow down to the stem, ultimately the root, and out to the ends of the petals, flowing outwards to others unhindered. Lastly this grace pours out on the wilting flower, the weary and discouraged believer, who feels he can not endure to the end. As I pour this grace here, it drips off the wilting flower petals, stripping with it the cares of the world, the sin that prevents us from walking hand in hand, and then flows into the ground, taking with it the seed of new life and yet a new season has now begun for this believer, a fresh beginning, as the old dies and fades away. Do not underestimate what you can and will accomplish with this grace flowing through you in the dark days ahead. I will manifest powerfully through each one of you. My light will penetrate even the deepest and darkest of souls to bring them into union with Me. I alone as their Creator know that in which each is purposed for in My eternal plan. It is through this breaking and crumbling that souls are drawn back to their original origin, Me. Do you understand that this must be so? I am renewing and reshaping all things. A new day is dawning as you approach the end of this age. Be not afraid for I have gone to prepare a place for you. But I am coming back very, very soon for you. I always let My faithful know what I am doing. You are always being prepared for what is to come. This is how I love My own. Hear My voice. Come to the fountain of living water and you will thirst no more. I am moving quickly now, stay in My flow. Humble thyself in the sight of your Mighty King. Repent of all your sins and totally surrender all to Me.

(As I was thinking of how He is purifying and refining, the Holy Spirit has revealed more to me as to how this will look in the physical. As Father is separating out His chosen, those that walk in the darkness, even the lukewarm, will begin to manifest characteristics of the devil. They will most times do this unknowingly, as their very soul is making a choice between light and dark. Behaviors and demeanors thought to have been overcome or lost in the past will suddenly resurface and manifest, as Father is attempting to get that soul to purge, to cleanse, to purify the heart in advance of His coming. He is literally sifting through the depths of that spirit, and forcing up and out, all the hidden areas of the heart that do not glorify Him. This soul will either allow the burning away of all that is dark, or be given over to it. This battle that has been raging around them in the spiritual will start to manifest physically and visibly.

What our position is to be while this is happening is complete surrender of ourselves to Him, full body armor on and fastened tightly!!! We are to be in constant warfare prayer as these souls literally experience the battle for their souls. You/We are witnessing the battle between the angels and the demons for their eternal destination. It is going to be the most serious warfare we participate in but also the most crucial, as each soul's very eternal-outcome hangs in the balance. Pray for discernment especially, and wisdom, and stand in the light!!! We must not hesitate to be bold and courageous for what we know is truth and light, Yeshua. This is the fight for those souls that is truly the only one that matters into eternity, and we are called to intercede for these lost ones. Only Father knows the heart motives of an individual person, and what needs to be done to bring that soul back into alignment with Him. Remember too, as this is so important, most times, WE ARE THE ONLY LIGHT THAT SOUL WILL SEE WHILE FIGHTING THIS ETERNAL FIGHT! WE CAN NOT COMPROMISE IN ANY WAY IN OUR WALK!)

AMERICA HAS CHOSEN - 11/07/12

I was praying last night after watching Obama win the election with a very heavy heart. I prayed for undeserved mercy for this nation as a whole, and I heard Spirit speak this:

You have made your choice America. You have kept a godless man in the White House. I now turn you over to yourselves. You are a nation divided, and a nation divided will not stand. Many sorrows are upon you. But though the sorrows may last for a night, My joy will follow quickly. My faithful need not fear, for I am ever faithful and true to bring you through this storm. Hold fast My people. Pray unceasingly.

THE DIE IS CAST - 11/11/12

It is with an extremely heavy heart that I deliver this particular message. Very seldom do I hear the Father speak, but when He does, it is extremely powerful. I pray now that you truly take to heart what you are hearing, and that you are taking the necessary steps to repent, and purify yourselves before your Creator. I can not stress this enough, pray constantly to be found worthy through the precious blood of our Savior, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha Mashiach. Stop sinning. Turn to Him in all things. He will hear your cries and redeem you through His Son.

I am an angry and jealous God, and My voice WILL BE HEARD in your land. I am roaring as a lion and My voice will thunder as it sweeps across this country of America. To whom is given much, much is required, and oh how you have disappointed Me. You were a land sanctified and set apart, to be an example of My freeing power. I gave you so much! I blessed you abundantly, because you dedicated yourselves to Me and Me alone. You looked to Me for all your protection and provision, and I blessed you with overwhelming prosperity and riches, riches of My glory. But oh how you have strayed. A capital city that once consecrated this nation to Me now has in it a man who boasts in complete and total defiance, the power of the nation itself, and its accomplishments and technologies, to rise again and rebuild bigger and better after the recent storms of judgement. There have been so very few who have turned to Me in their times of need and acknowledged that I alone have what they are seeking ultimately. You have absolutely NO POWER outside of Me! Instead, I see nothing more than arrogance and pride and rebellion. Your judgements have been in times past, delayed because of the prayers of the faithful interceding for the masses who continue to mock Me, but this will be no more. My arm of protection has quickly drawn back and you will know that I am not to be mocked. I will allow your nation to implode, and grant unto you your desire. You will reap what has been sown. You believe you have all the answers and are relying on your own strengths to sustain you, repeatedly wallowing in your filth and your sins, and this is nauseating to My nostrils. It is sorrowful to My heart, that My people would choose continually the desires of the flesh that bring nothing more than temporary satisfaction, rather than the desires of My heart, which would bring you peace, joy, and unending love. Your sins of idolatry, greed, pride, fornication, deceit, and murder will be your demise.

(At this point, Father shows me His Son Yeshua, standing before me, stripped and bloody and in a great amount of pain. The leaders and soldiers are whipping Him and beating Him and spitting on Him, mocking Him and insulting Him. Then I see them rip off a light linen garment as He winces in agony.)

Do you see what you are doing My people?? You are crucifying My Son again and again and again with your wicked ways. MY SON'S BLOOD WAS WHAT BOUGHT YOUR VERY LIFE FOR ETERNITY AND YET YOU TORTURE HIM DAILY IN YOUR LACK OF OBEDIENCE TO ALL HE REPRESENTS. How long do I look the other way and allow such rebellion and disregard? Tell Me?

(I then see a vision of Yeshua taking his last breath, and the curtain in the temple being torn in two.)

I WILL NOT ALLOW YOU TO CRUCIFY HIM AGAIN! It is done. His sacrifice is complete. I will now tear your nation into two. You are a nation divided in half as the veil in the sanctuary was divided. You will now be vulnerable and weak and needy. You will know at last that you are nothing without Me. The die is cast.

(definition of die is cast: past the point of no return)

To My watchman and My faithful remnant, I tell you, My warnings to this country are coming to a close. There is little more to speak of repentance. The judgements upon you will fall as dominoes, and will not stop until My Word is fulfilled. Of this I promise and I remain always faithful to My Word. You must not cease to pray, for yourselves for more faith, discernment, and wisdom in these times. Pray for all your loved ones for direction, and guidance, and peace that only comes through Me in the coming storms fast approaching. Do not stop interceding for the lost, the ones given over to darkness. Pray for the courage to stand in the midst of terror reigning. Your people will soon be stripped of their freedoms and their comforts. Your dictator will be exposed very soon for who he really is and who he represents even more so than he already has. Your basic rights as citizens will be questioned and in danger. You will be facing much opposition as you are told that you will not have food for your families unless you comply with this beast system I have allowed to dominate for a time. Do not fear! And do not succumb to the pressure. You will be treated with dissension and disregard by your leaders. Stand firm! Stand in the light of My love, and My provisions. You are not of this world! You belong to My Kingdom, and My Kingdom will reign forever and ever! Remember this always. Look forward to the fast approaching day when you will join countless other saints at My banquet meal, the Marriage Consummation of the Bridegroom and the Bride. All of Heaven is eagerly awaiting that glorious day! I say to you My precious chosen, look up! Your redemption draweth nigh!

NOW IS THE MOMENT WE ARE GIVEN - 11/19/12

As I prayed this morning, I was a bit overwhelmed by all those that are in need of prayer, and all that is happening in the world right now. Yeshua reminded me of a dream I had many years ago. In the dream, He was explaining to me the element of time. He stood next to me, and pointed out into a grassy field. I was then shown many different time periods playing out in front of me, all of them overlapping, and all of them happening at once, in the very moment we were standing there watching. I could literally see through all of the people, and they were living out their realities, all in the different centuries and places in the world, but it was all happening at once. I was a bit confused, but Yeshua went on to tell me that we only have this moment now. In His Kingdom, there is no passage of time. There is now, and He said we are to learn to only be concerned for this moment of now, that we are not to be anxious over what will happen tomorrow, as tomorrow will have enough worries of its own. He reminded me of this dream as there are so many around the world who are becoming consumed and focused on world events, and the evil that is rapidly increasing everywhere, that they are forgetting where they are to remain in each and every moment. That moment is the moment of NOW. It's really all we have. We are to leave all else to Him, and get on with advancing the Kingdom of God here and NOW. We are the body, and it is our responsibility to reach as many as we can before His return. There is a great outpouring from Heaven at this time for those who have ears to hear and eyes to see, and it is to be embraced and freely given to any who are willing to receive. Yeshua keeps emphasizing this to me, that WE ARE THE BODY. I hear this over and over and over. I know that I don't want to see Him face to face and regret not surrendering more of myself to Him so that others would be led to salvation. I leave you with this today, words Yeshua spoke concerning this.

In Me you move and breathe and have your being. You were all created in One heart. This is a mystery to grasp, you are not separated from one another. There is a constant ebb and flow in My Kingdom that all are a part of. Your experience of this flow is totally dependent upon you and your response to My unconditional love, grace, and mercy poured out each day. I pour into you, you receive in your heart, and in return continue the outpouring upon others. In this way My flow can not be interrupted. When one hurts, all hurt to some degree. When one experiences joy, all surrounding that one will be affected. Nothing you say or do goes without notice in My Kingdom. This is My design. You were created to be One body and to operate as thus. I call on each of you to be My voice, My arms and feet, My extension in this place. I will provide the nourishment you need to do this at all times. Embrace this flow with all of your being. You have been given this moment of NOW. Do not be anxious over anything.

Your Loving King,

Yeshua

EAT OF MY FLESH, DRINK OF MY BLOOD - 11/23/12

I am the bread of life, the only bread you must eat of. My blood is poured out as your drink, and the only cup you need partake of. I am asking that My people stay focused. Keep yourselves from the distractions of the world. After the miracle of the loaves and fish, the crowds followed Me across the sea not because they believed in Me, in who I was, but because of the temporary satisfaction they had in that their bellies were full and they were content. Oh how easily you do resemble these people. The enemy waves all manners of trinkets in front of you, teasing your senses and enticing you for things that will only satisfy for a time, and only fulfill the flesh. Yet I offer you an eternity of glory that your minds can not comprehend, a permanent filling, an indwelling that will satisfy your soul forever. Be very vigilant My people, do not fall into the deception of the evil one. He is very cunning. He would lead you to believe that the many things you spend your life pursuing are to be your priority. I ask you to surrender all. I ask you to give Me your will, your desire, your control. I say again, I am the bread of life. Eat of Me. Drink of Me. I alone will fill you to completion. Do not be lukewarm for a relationship with Me. Do not allow the times and seasons of holidays to dictate your walk. I want to be first in your life. I want you to desire Me as I desire you. I am your Groom, and I am anxious to reveal to you the glory of My Kingdom. I have prepared a banquet just for you. I am your nourishment. Your cares should be small, as I am your All, the All Consuming Creator. The One who will protect you and provide for you in every moment if you would only allow Me to do so. The door of opportunity will close soon, and so I ask as the Gentle Father I am, trust Me in all things. Lay down your life for Me and allow Me to use you for My glory. As a child on your earth clings to a mother or father for protection and for its very existence, cling to Me in everything you say and do, in every move you make. I will not disappoint. I love each of you so very much, come to Me, take My hand and I will lead you home.

MY SACRED HEART IS YOUR REST - 12/02/12

My dear ones, I want you to know that I am hearing all of your cries to Me, the cries of your innermost desires, the cries of your sorrows, your disappointments, and your weariness. Because I walked your earth and lived as you did, I feel as you feel, and I experience the same joys and sorrows that you do. Imagine though, how immense My pain as I continue to watch My beautiful creation reject Me more and more, and delve deeper and deeper into darkness and despair. I do not know how the choice for you could be any simpler or more obvious. Why does a people promised eternal life in complete joy and peace wish the complete opposite for themselves? Why do the lies of the enemy scream so much more loudly than My gentle, quiet whispers of love? I am feeling your weariness My children, I hold every tear you shed close to My heart. There is not one of you here that I do not carefully and gently carry in My arms during your most difficult times. A message to My elect, to My remnant right now. I am very aware of your fatigue. I speak not only of the physical fatigue which many of you experience on a daily basis, but I speak of the battle in the spiritual realm that is raging. Some of you which are My prayer intercessors experience a more severe battle each day as you are sacrificing much to pray for so many souls that are destined for hell. I say to you, do not become so weary that you cease to pray for even a moment! Do not allow the enemy to gain a stronghold in any area of your life as these times are so critical. Do not compromise! When you feel the joy of seeing someone draw closer to Me, My joy is also overflowing. And as you see others slipping further and further into darkness, I feel your sorrow as well. My heart is your heart. Remember, We are One, One body, One love. There is much still to come, the most difficult times are soon upon you. Now is not the time to hesitate! Now is not the time to sit back and think you have time to prepare for the tasks I have called you specifically to do. Now is the time to ACT! You are to be on your knees daily, asking for your marching orders, and surrendering EVERYTHING to My holy will for that day. It is in this obedience that My design for this time in history will be accomplished. I wish that each of you would walk in the giftings I have placed within you so that as One body, you edify each other and My Kingdom reigns in your hearts at all times for the world to see! We are so close now to the fulfillment of My eternal plan!

(I am seeing a vision here of Yeshua with a golden scepter and He is anointing the heads of His remnant church as we kneel before the throne.)

Draw on this strength that I am pouring out dear Ones. Join Me in My Sacred Heart as you love like you have never loved before. Souls eternal destination weighs in the balance! Bring them to Me! Allow them to know Me as a friend as you do. Judge no one, as the least of these brethren is most precious in My eyes. You will soon know how very weak in spirit the world is. As events unfold, terrible situations will arise, and sadly, most are completely ill-equipped to handle them. You will see panic and you will see great, great fear. However, you My people will remain steadfast in spirit. You will not falter and you will not be shaken. I have promised you that if you would only keep your eyes focused on Me, there is nothing you will not do for the Kingdom, and you will walk in total authority. Believe this will all of your heart beloved. I am always with you, and I tell you this as well, this battle does not belong to you! The battle is Mine, and you must only rest in My arms as we conquer together. My Sacred Heart children, My Sacred Heart. Dwell there continually.

With all My love poured out for each of you,

Yeshua

YOU HAVE MY STRENGTH, MY POWER, AND MY ANOINTING - 12/15/12

You are entering a time like no other known before in your history. This time is of a magnitude that not one of you could grasp or understand. So many are unprepared for what is to befall you. There is a great shift taking place, and there is no room for the lukewarm. If you have not chosen to follow Me with all of your being, you will not stand in the darkness that is descending. The enemy will snatch you to himself because of your weak will. You must be praying for your faith to be strengthened each day for you will be severely tested. I have spoken of demons being released in the past, however, there is a much greater army of them released now, they are even at your door. You must stay vigilant, watch, pray, remain sober, focus, and listen. I have told you that you will do greater things than I have done when on your earth, and I would not have spoken it if it were not true. Your faith can move mountains if you wish it to be so. You must pray with authority at all times and be very careful in your choosing of words. Speak as one who knows that you know that I am your King, your Commander. Speak and pray under the power and the direction of My Holy Spirit. Speak and pray with boldness and courage. Fear for nothing, and lay your burdens down. Cast your cares on Me. I go before you, and you are hedged in on all sides. There are more souls being lost to the enemy than ever before, and it would seem that he is winning the battle, but this is an illusion. Those who walk in Me know that My Kingdom will always rule and reign. Remember it is always darkest before the sun rises. Your societies, because their dependence is on their own man-made technologies and abilities, will crumble as My judgements pour out. You have already witnessed this in parts. I am looking to My strong ones now to assist in ushering in a new day. You are armed and you stand mighty under My anointing and in My power and strength. Nothing, I repeat, nothing can harm you. My commandment of all time remains the same. Love your God with all your heart, soul, and mind and love all as you love yourself. In this you will continue to reach out and take the hands of the weaker ones, and bring them into My mercy. In My body, because We are one, you are only as strong as the weakest link. So it is crucial that you do all you can to love them through these difficult times, and bring them back to Me. Encourage and strengthen one another at all times. Forgive. Show mercy as I show mercy. Be compassionate as I am compassionate. Nurture and never condemn. There has never been a time like the present, where you must always be grounded and centered on the things I am speaking to you, for your world will change in an instant and you must remain unshaken. Pray together with your families at all times. Prepare your children for what lies ahead. Do not attempt to shield them from the truth of what is to come. If you have raised them to know Me, they will operate with the same strength and power of any other. I will give them the tools they need to face the oncoming challenges. You must not forget, they are My own as well and each has a very specific and unique role to play in My eternal plan. I will protect them and carry them through these times. Teach them as well, to pray with all authority given from Heaven. Their age does not matter in My Kingdom. There are those who are very young who walk in authority and whose faith is much stronger than many adults around them. Never underestimate the purpose I have given them because of their physical immaturity. Ask for forgiveness each day and teach your young ones to do the same. Seek Me first in all things you face, and allow Me to handle the rest. I am a covenant keeping God. I can not nor would I ever fail you. Rest on My promises. Find peace in My Holy Word and in My ways. I long to show each of you more of the glories of My Kingdom. So much awaits you. Endure My children, endure and be at peace. I give all of My love to you.

Yeshua

COME AS YOU ARE - 12/28/12

How long, My children, will you continue to look towards a system that will only continue to encourage fear, dependency, and deception? I, Your Savior, since before time began, have always offered only unconditional love to My creation. As your calendar year draws to a close, there are yet so very many who have left Me off their lists of resolutions, their lists of priorities for the upcoming year. I have continued to speak of great and terrible changes coming to your earth, but more and more of you fall asleep each day, slipping into the comfortably numb realm of believing you have more time to fit Me into your busy lives. This, I tell you, is one of many of the great deceptions of the dark one. The time of choosing IS drawing to a close as are My warnings of repentance. Just as a loving father or mother at first gently chides their children and warns of punishment for disobedience, I too have repeatedly warned throughout the centuries of the results of your disobedience to Me. And just as a parent will only warn at first gently, then more sternly, before finally administering punishment, I too am doing the same with you. A new season is upon you, and you have either chosen Me and My Kingdom, or you have given yourself over to the world and its beastly system. I will not beg, nor will I demand your loyalty and your love to Me. I wish that you would love Me with all of your heart, soul, and strength as I love you, but I will never force it. I say to you, come as you are, as I have no conditions to My love for you as the world would demand conditions from you in return for success and prosperity. Is your choice such a difficult one? Would you truly prefer lies and deception and empty promises to My everlasting covenant of love and peace and joy, eternal protection and provision? Oh how you have already been so deceived and led astray. You see dark for light and evil for good. Oh My precious children. REPENT! REPENT! THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS AT HAND! I do not nor would I ever lead you astray! My Word is eternal and My Word speaks nothing but truth! In order to walk in My authority in the coming days and weeks and months, you must place Me first in your heart and soul and mind. I must come before everything else. Seek Me first and the Kingdom of God, and all else will be given to you. I must be the most important part of your lives! You must look to Me in all things! Do not look elsewhere for fulfillment, for provisions, for peace in your spirit as you will continue to be disappointed, dry and left wanting. I am the only Way! Come to Me as you are. Bring Me your disappointments in relationships. Bring Me your sorrows and your joys, bring Me your desires and your petitions. Humble yourselves at My feet. Make our relationship together your first priority from now until I return for you. Do not hesitate any longer to give Me your time! I want to spend time with you, encouraging you and preparing you for what lies ahead. The time will be coming to a close as well for My prophets to speak My words to you of warning and preparation. I wish to speak to all of you directly, and there be no need for you to listen or look to anyone but Me for your next move. I will speak to each and every one of you if you would only come to Me and quiet yourselves before Me. I have a unique and special relationship reserved for all of you individually. Please hear Me now My beloved people, come to Me NOW. Do not wait any longer, for you know not when sudden changes will be upon you, and many, many of you are completely unprepared and ill-equipped to survive. I am all that matters now, as this world as you know it will soon dissolve away. Believe in Me and My promises. I am ever faithful and My love for you will never run dry.

Emmanuel (God with us)

THE POINT OF THE SPEAR - 01/02/13

I would pose this question to those who say they walk in My footsteps. When faced with trials and tribulations, when seemingly overwhelming situations come your way, when those you love offend, betray, insult, and condemn, when the point of the spear penetrates your heart, of what do you bleed? Do you respond with bitterness for bitterness? Anger and envy in retaliation? Insults for each injury incurred? Biting remarks for hurtful unsolicited opinions? Do you bleed poisonous responses and remarks as it has been done to you? Or do you exhibit grace, mercy, kindness, compassion, and unconditional love? I realize what I have asked of you is not easy or natural in your physical realm. You must remember however that I am the perfect example in that I have showed you these things, these acts of kindness and mercy that can and must be shown. I came to show you that there is a way. It is My Way. And yes, it is not how you on your own accord would respond. I have called you to be My heirs, My brothers and sisters. I require a life set apart from the world. I have told you time and time again, this world is not your home. In this, I wish that you would find comfort. When you choose to retaliate evil for evil, you only assist in perpetuating the darkness that is encompassing the world. I have called you to be My lights. I have called you to be something different. I have called you to bring about My Kingdom on this earth. Show these lost ones that there is hope, that all is not lost. You, many times, are the only lights they will ever see. Yes, I have allowed their hearts to become hardened, but no one is beyond My mercy and My salvation unless they have pledged allegiance to the dark one. If you truly wish to walk with Me and have prayed to be My disciples, then do not pray selfish prayers. Pray the will of the Father. Pray that I would send tests for you to strengthen and increase your faith. Pray that you would be made strong in Me through these tribulations, do not pray to be removed from them, for it is in these tests that you will grow and mature in your relationship with Me. I speak in My Word of My Way as the narrow way. Following Me will never be easy. Just as I did, you will always have adversity. You must expect this, and prepare your hearts each day in your time alone with Me for these such situations. I will arm you, and equip you. Trust Me in this. And know that when they persecute you, they first persecuted Me. Turning the other cheek is contrary to what the physical man's response would be. But I am calling you to operate from the spirit, not the flesh. This is so very important. You have also been told in My Word that I came to create division, and it will start in your families. Choosing Me and Me alone will often result in separation from your loved ones. My will is that you would master these principles for the coming ensuing darkness, the darkness that is already upon you. My Way, My Spirit, My Blood, My Sacrifice. It has been accomplished for all time. Realize this, and realize how much My heart has bled unconditional love for each one of you. At the point of the spear, bleed love.

THE BATTLE BELONGS TO THE LORD - 01/14/13

While praying this morning and asking Yeshua to remove the burden of anxiety that was attempting to distract me from Him, He spoke a few comforting words. I have been very aware of an increasing activity in the last few months in the spiritual realm, and He did confirm that conditions have indeed escalated. Situations and people are not always what they seem, and I'm beginning to understand that we must prepare not only for the expected, but for the unexpected. He spoke very recently about the enemy being so close, even at our doors, and I have heard from several close to me that indeed they are experiencing a level of evil like never before. We need to remember, that the division and strife will first begin with Yeshua separating the wheat and the chaff in the family and closest of friends, and then He moves out from there. The body of Christ is being cleansed and purged and refined. My prayer is that His words comfort you as they do me, and we all continue to draw closer to Him as a result.

My daughter, you are experiencing a level of intensity not previously felt. The battle in the spirit realm rages on, and many, many of My saints are feeling the seriousness of the times in which you live. Yes, the enemy has gotten extremely close with some of you, and it will take all of your focus on Me for you to stand in the midst of the throngs of wickedness thrown at you and your loved ones. I come not as the lamb for slaughter this time, but as the Lion of Judah who will conquer with the Sword of My Spirit. If your house is built upon Me, your Rock, you will come through each attack victorious. But woe to those who are lukewarm and believe in their own power and strength to endure. They will find very soon that they are nothing in their own abilities, and they will fall. I have given you the tools you need to endure. It is up to you to obey, study My Word daily, and look to Me for everything. I alone can sustain you through any trial, and I have given you the power to repel all evil. My blood, and My name is all you need. Remember My beloved, when attacks come at you, you need to plead My blood covering over you and those you love, pray My name, repeatedly, and the enemy must flee. The battle is not yours to fight, it belongs to Me. I have conquered sin and death and sickness and all forms of evil for ALL TIME. The battle is won! Guard your hearts and your minds. Of this I can not stress enough. The enemy is very cunning, and so many of My people are falling into his traps. He seeks to devour and destroy you as he whispers in the dark, but I will always come as truth and light. You are experiencing a great, great shifting now in this earth, and My people shall rejoice as My Kingdom becomes manifest once and for all. Expect the unexpected, and do not rely on anything to remain constant other than Me. In your world, there are no constants, and so it is I alone you must seek. There will be great upheaval, and you know not when I will call upon you to do mighty deeds for My Kingdom, and so you must remain prepared in your hearts. Do not sway, do not doubt Me. You will see miraculous events amongst the tribulations. I will be known on this earth and My voice will be heard. Do not underestimate the seriousness of the times in which you live! Ready yourselves, for My Kingdom is come! I wish that it would be on this earth as it is in Heaven. Heads high My chosen ones, I do not tarry much longer! Remember you follow the only true King!!

Yeshua, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah

REMEMBER ME AND YOU WILL SUFFER WELL - 01/26/13

During the times when you struggle the most, the times when you feel most alone, I would ask that you remember that I was the best example, in that I've shown you it can be done. This life, this walk, and everything that you go through. My divine nature, in a human body. My divine nature, in your temple. There should be no difference. Because of My sacrifice, a way has been made for you for all eternity. Because of My suffering, you were created to suffer well. In this, I mean that you have Me as your example. You have My lead to follow, the work has already been done. My grace is enough for you. The end is known, it is only up to you to walk in My footsteps, steps that have already trodden the many sorrowful paths that you must now tread. Rejoice My children at the challenges that present themselves to you, for it is in these challenges that you can rise to the occasion, that you can live victoriously through each one, your eyes focused on Me, eagerly awaiting your reward in My Kingdom. I was born to die for you, you were born to die to self. My life was given so yours could be lived more abundantly. You have been given My power and My authority in all matters. When realized, our potential together is unlimited. Your purpose in this life is so very simple. It is a full, deep, and intimate relationship with Me. When you are seeking Me with everything you possess, I will supply your every need. I will care for you as an heir to My Kingdom, because this is what you are.

I was misunderstood by many as I traveled and preached about My Father. I know what it is to be misunderstood. I was without material possessions, and I know what it is to be poor. I was judged for speaking the truth of the Father, and I know how you feel when people judge you. Only the Father and I know hearts. I was challenged at My teachings and contradicted, even when I only spoke truth. I know how you feel when you face so much opposition. I was betrayed and left alone by My closest friends, so I know the pain of rejection and feeling completely, utterly alone. I was accused even though I was innocent, and so I know how you feel when you suffer condemnation unjustly. I was persecuted because of lack of knowledge, and so I know how you feel when you suffer the same. I was handed over to evil men, who only wished to destroy Me and everything I represented. In this, I feel your pain as evil closes in around you, more and more each day. I was finally beaten, crucified, and left to die, alone, and unloved by most. Remember Me. Remember this, in order that you may walk uprightly and with all authority given to you from Heaven, advance My Kingdom. All else ceases to matter in this life. Will you lay down your life for Me? Will you lay down your pain and suffering so that I may be glorified? For you who answer yes to this question will suffer, but saints, you will suffer well. It is for this that you were created.

Your Suffering Servant Messiah,

YESHUA

YOU WERE MADE TO BE COURAGEOUS - 01/28/13

For the last two weeks, the Holy Spirit has been speaking very strongly about the condition of the body of Christ. I am hearing how crucial it is NOW to stop being so complacent about our relationship, and take a stand for our beliefs! At what point did the body of Christ lay down and decide the task could not be accomplished? When did we become so weak, so comfortably numb, so apathetic, that we felt it's perfectly fine to sit back in our comfy homes, medicating ourselves with media, food and drink, technology, while it is estimated that 1.78-2 people are lost to hell every second. Do the research yourselves, the numbers don't lie. We can not even begin to grasp the magnitude of this fact. Which generation was it, that lost the passion and the drive to fearlessly proclaim the message of Jesus Christ to all they came in contact with? When did we stop teaching our children about Yeshua? When did it become unimportant to read and study the Word everyday? To pray unceasingly, and instruct our children to do the same? When did we stop truly worshipping our Creator for who He is? I mean, truly worship, on our faces and on our knees before the throne, praying as One and in unity? When did Jehovah take a back seat in our lives and we decide we could handle life on our own? At what crossroad along the way did we feel He hadn't proved Himself capable in the past, and we took control of things?

Hard questions indeed, yes, but deserving of every bit of attention we are willing to give it. What has been our excuse, to become a body, a church, that has completely lost its backbone? Why do we go about life acting as if we are suddenly vulnerable, when He never was? When we do not make our relationship with Yeshua first priority, many of us succumb to anxiety, fear, depression, anger, apathy, and hopelessness.

The Word tells us however, that we are equipped with a supernatural strength in order to fulfill the calling we were created for. If this is the case and we truly have the Divine residing in us, then why isn't all hell breaking loose because of the power and authority of the church of Jesus Christ? Hell does not fear the church! When will we realize that we were not put here to be comfortable? We can not base our doctrine on our personal experiences, but only on the Word of God. God speaks, it is fact and it is authoritative. It may defy our experience, but we must follow fact, and our experience will come in line. It may take a season, but we need to persevere. When Yeshua becomes our primary focus, and the reason we live and breathe, we receive that supernatural strength, so that we can be made well in every situation and circumstance in order that He be glorified!

The point we don't seem to grasp is that our Father wants what is happening in Heaven to be made manifest here. The Lord's Prayer, that Yeshua spoke to us says simply, "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven." This is our command. We can not just read it, and then say we believe it. We must take it and grapple with it and live it! We were bought with the precious blood of Yeshua, and His work of grace has not ceased just because somewhere along the way we deemed Him incapable of managing our lives. We are not here to seek easy lives, and easy relationships. The battle must be taken to the enemy in this natural realm. It is our task to prove Yeshua's awesome victory of the cross here on earth in our lifetime.

We have been given courage and fearlessness to win the battle with sin in this sinful world. No, we are not immune from the battle, however, we are equipped by the Almighty with all power and authority to be more than conquerors! When Yeshua truly resides within us, we are immovable, unshakable, unstoppable, and invincible. We were made to be courageous! Our inner man is infused with the new wine of the spirit of Jesus Christ and we can have a new life everyday in these old, dying bodies, in a dark and dying world.

May our prayer be that we are filled with His abundant grace and mercy to overflowing, completely resilient to our physical weaknesses and human frailties, ever reaching for the face of our Creator, walking in a boldness that makes all hell tremble, and as souls that are completely and utterly kept by the power of the Almighty, sold out for Jesus! If we don't show the world Yeshua, who will??

Hallelujah Yeshua! Amen!

THE SPIRIT OF LEVIATHAN - 02/22/13

This earth is dominated by sinister forces, by the spirit of Leviathan. The darkness it embodies pervades all aspects of your lives. This spirit which has been set in motion will not be stopped until all spoken of in My Word is accomplished. The earth's axis is off kilter because of the gross and unbearable weight of mans sins. Seek Me with all that you have, it is your only hope in this battle for your soul. Do not be used as pieces on a chessboard, pawns of the dark one. This spirit of Leviathan is all powerful and seducing, very few are able to escape its grip. This is why it is IMPERATIVE that you discard everything that takes your focus off of Me-everything! Be still and know I am God. Reach for Me in all you do and I will bring you through this dark time. It is your choice. You do not have to be one of the ones living in terror as night falls on this earth. I have told you, Me dwelling in you can illuminate all darkness. It must flee at My light. This is what I have ordained. You have been conditioned to the point of madness in your souls! But to you I say WAKE UP!!! Rise from your slumber as there has never been a more important time to be sober, alert, and vigilant. Do not succumb now-the hour is so very late! Focus! Reach! Desire Me and your souls will be well. Are you even remotely aware or concerned of the multitudes of dark forces that pervade this realm? They seek to destroy and devour you, all the while you continue to slide further and further into oblivion. But I have given you My power and My authority to walk in the light. Me that is in you is greater than legions of the dark spirits surrounding you. Step into your calling. Stop believing the lies of the enemy. Fulfill the destiny you have been created to fulfill. Rise My people, rise. Although the battle is yet to be its most intense, we have already won. Don't you see? You must only make the simple choice to look to Me in all things. Once again I ask you to know your enemy. Know who and what Leviathan represents in order that your armor may be secured properly. The spirit of Leviathan walked this earth many times in the past, and because I am permitting it, it roams the earth once again. You are powerless against it in your own strength. It is more powerful than any other of My creations. It is fierce and PRIDE is its fuel. It's fury is unsurpassed. Nothing but I can protect you from this power and its destructive grip on your souls. You alone will never withstand its fierceness nor its insurmountable influences in the world in which you live. Remember My words though, you are in this world, but not of it. This is an evil to which nothing can compare, hence, My warnings to you to repent before it is too late for your soul! Lay down your will for Mine. I will keep you from the terrors by night and walk with you by day. Allow Me to be the Keeper of your souls. You are on the brink of a world war the likes of which this earth has never seen, and many, many will die and lose their souls for all eternity. They will succumb to this spirit of pride, arrogance, and rebellion. Pray! Pray for these that will be damned because they will not choose Me now! I will always prepare My own for what lies ahead. Believe Me, trust Me My people. I love each of you so very much.

Messiah Yeshua

BEWARE OF WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING - 03/19/13

Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing. There are many powerful leaders around the world working together, and they are operating with total deception. Their words and deeds are not based in the truth of My Word, and so many are being led astray. They only speak death and destruction to your eternal souls, poison from the evil one. They label good evil, and evil good. Woe to you who do not heed My warnings and give ear to My voice. I have told you do not fear those who can destroy the body, but rather them that will kill your soul for all eternity. Pay attention. Much is occurring and for the sake of My elect and faithful, these days will be shortened, but you must focus on Me now! Complete systems are crumbling as I told you they would. Pay close attention to Israel and what is taking place there, as well as the new, powerful influence from Rome.

Remember, all is not as it seems. Do not be led astray by promises of safety and comfort, and prosperity. Your only refuge is in Me. I am tearing down strongholds, but the process will be painful for a short time My faithful. Do not lose hope. Do not lose faith. I will rule and reign in the hearts of all men once again. You will see. Pray for a conversion for your leader America, for those in lofty positions will be brought low. My Father will only allow so much evil to be perpetuated before His mighty arm sweeps the globe, and your time to repent is drawing to a close. But My sheep hear My voice, My sheep know Me, their Master, and they will walk without fear, and with peace and joy and security. I am ever faithful and true. The earth is literally trembling at what My Father is about to do here. Remain steadfast and pure in your hearts dear children, and I will lead you home.

Your Messiah

I WALK WITH YOU IN THE ASHES - 04/10/13

My children, there is a purpose in the difficulties and trials you endure. Know that much is required of My people, but also know that you will never be given more than you can endure. Just as I came and willingly surrendered My will to the Father in humility and obedience, you are required to do the same. Obedience is the key to your success. My Fathers' will is always accomplished in the earth, and your willingness to surrender demonstrates My power and strength through you. It is for you to be small in this worlds eyes, and Me to be magnified. Your obedience allows My grace to pour forth and accomplish things eternal. When I gave My all on the cross, the veil was torn giving you direct access to the Throne of God in every moment. Take advantage of this precious gift! For this is how much the Father loves you. You are hindered no longer from receiving all the blessings and graces that were made available to each one of you. You hear Me speak of endurance and perseverance much. Just as I endured much pain, suffering, and sorrow in My earthly life, so will you. But remember, it is through the continual pressing in and pursuing of My Holy Will that you will succeed and be sanctified. I ask nothing of you that I did not accomplish Myself. In this is your perfect example. It is done, but I also walk hand in hand, side by side with you in your journey, for you are never alone. To the soul in quiet and constant submission will I carry through every trial and tribulation that comes your way. I tell you, My burden is light. Rest in this My people. Learn this now, and quickly, for a time is coming, even is already here, that will shake even the strongest of Mine to their core. So many of you are ill-prepared to stand before the fires of My judgements. Submit your will and your lives today, in every moment. These lives you have been given are but a vapor of time. You tend to see things most often from an earthly perspective, however, I am imploring you to now see things from an eternal perspective. You are not of this world, and so as your Savior, who asks nothing more than what I have already given, walk with Me and endure the hardships and scoffing and mockery, injustices and sorrows, so that once again My love may be made known to those who are lost and walk in utter darkness. Do not be afraid saints, for I have overcome!

Him who has overcome the world,

Savior Yeshua

IS HE YOUR MESSIAH? - 04/23/13

Jesus

He who created the Heavens and the Earth

He who is God in the Flesh

He who perfectly demonstrates God's Glory

He who enunciates God's Holiness

He who reveals God's Perfect Righteousness

He who brings us God's Salvation

He who manifests the Love of God

He who is the Way to the Father

Jesus

He who was without spot or blemish

He who perfectly fulfilled the Messiah test

He who proved to be the Sent of the Father, with Perfect Canonicity

He who fulfilled the Scriptures and validated their authenticity and perfect integrity

He who took the wrath of the Father and was accursed for man's rescue

He who humbled Himself and took on the form of a servant

He who was crucified in obedience to the Father

He who redeemed man with His blood

He who atoned for man's sin, was a satisfying offering in man's place

He who was accursed, condemned in man's stead

He who destroyed the power of sin and death

He who overcame the Devil

He who triumphed over the grave

He who died but rose again on the third day

He who rent the barrier between God and man

He who brought man forgiveness of sins

He who brought man cleansing from his sins

He who brought man victory over sin

Jesus

He who has brought believing man into a place of heavenly adoption

He who has called believing man into intimate communion and fellowship

He who has placed His Name upon believing man and set His seal of love upon him

He who desires to be known intimately and well by those He has redeemed

He who has the deepest affections for those who have come to Him in faith

Jesus

He who demands absolute and instant obedience

He who commands that man yield up his life to Him

He who beckons man to pick up his cross and follow Him

He who says, "count the cost" before you come to Him

He who says that He will spew lukewarmness out of His mouth

He who commands man to repent from his sins, his old life, his old deeds, and his every idol

He who commands that man walk in faith, unswerving confidence in His ability to perform that which

He promises

He who commands that man confess his sins one unto another

He who commands that man must forgive others as He has forgiven them

He who commands that man must renounce His every tie with darkness

He who commands that man must deny himself

He who commands that man let not sin reign any longer in his mortal body

He who that, when He begins a work, is faithful to bring it to completion

He who doesn't just command, but enables man to obey His every command

Jesus

He who is the great rescuer, the great intercessor

He who calls His followers to live as He lived, and thusly rescue the weak and needy and intercede for the vulnerable and oppressed just as He did

He who calls His followers to take what He has freely given them and share it with those that do not have

He who calls His followers to reveal His nature, His behavior, and His attitude in every circumstance, every encounter

He who first loved, that his beloved followers, might demonstrate His great love to this world about

MY HEART ACHES - 04/23/13

My people perish for lack of knowledge, lack of the knowledge of Me, of who I am, of how much I love them, and of how much I wish to have a relationship with them. Those who do know Me, know that when your hearts ache, My heart aches more. It is not My desire to see any of My loved ones suffer. Much tragedy is unfolding in your lives, in your nations, and in your personal lives. Much more will come as well, for the hearts of so many have waxed cold to Me. The invitation to share a life of communion with Me has been ignored by most. Therefore, events will unfold as prophesied to bring about all that has been foretold. Please, while there is yet a moment of time, draw near to Me. Allow Me to embrace you and shield you from the darkness that is overtaking the world. All it takes is for you to say yes to Me. All else is crumbling in the world. I am the only Way, Truth, and Life. Choose well, for you are choosing your eternity.

NIGHT COMES QUICKLY - 05/01/13

Events will now occur in rapid succession as I have foretold. You may be surprised at how quickly your nation of America falls into chaos and martial law. It is on the doorstep My people, prepare. There are groups of saints strategically placed in your country, that when given the word, will immediately act to fulfill My will. I will be calling some of you to travel and lead others with you. Prepare for this as you know to, but travel lightly, as I am the Source and Provider of all you need. Others of you will remain where you are, but I say to you also, prepare as you are led by My Holy Spirit, knowing that My chosen will never be neglected.

For those that will be traveling, do not concern yourselves with the details now. Simply rest in My presence and know that when it is time to move you will be given all the information you require. My army, whether moving or stationary, will be invisible to the enemy. You will all be supernaturally protected so that My orders are carried out exactly as I give them. You will be directly in front of them many times, however, they will neither see you nor hear you. All will be in place for the tasks for which you are called; vehicles of transportation, the routes to travel, other saints to connect with, supplies, all of it. You need not fear anything. All has been lovingly prepared for you. By ridding yourselves of all distractions, and spending as much time as you can with Me, you will clearly and easily hear My voice and know exactly when and how to respond to each situation. Night comes quickly now, but I am the Morning Star. My chosen can not nor will not be overcome. Listen closely now for the next steps. The Good Shepherd will lead you home.

THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL BRING ALL THINGS TO YOUR REMEMBRANCE - 05/24/13

My brothers, My sisters, My friends, I want to explain to you a truth. I came in the flesh and walked with My disciples. I taught them, lived with them, walked with them, ate with them. They were with Me in a tangible form, a form that was very real and very personal. For a chosen few, our relationships were intimate and understood on a level that only a Creator and His created children would comprehend. When I spoke to them about My leaving, and My death in the physical only to rise again, most did not understand what I was speaking to them. This was when I explained to them that the Father would send them a Comforter, a guide, a helper, and that I must physically leave their presence in order that this Comforter may come. The fire of My Spirit indeed did come to them and they were illuminated then to the great Mystery of My death and Resurrection. They were then able to truly understand the relationship We had with them, Creator and created, One Being in love. They then were filled with an urgency and a boldness to teach others about Me, to be an extension of Us, the Trinity, and to help others comprehend their position in Me. The dichotomy lies here. So many of you feel that you are nothing like My chosen ones then. You misunderstand that your position in Me, is no different than theirs was so many years ago. You, now, are so much more blessed however! Yes, they had Me in the flesh, walked with Me, and were taught by Me. I wish that you would discern that YOU were put here, TODAY, for such a time as this! Although I am not here in the flesh, I AM GLORIFIED, AND GLORIFIED IN YOU NOW! The great blessing indeed for you now, is that you have the choice of living with Me GLORIFIED because My mission is complete. This Comforter, My Holy Spirit, is the same Comforter then as today. We are One Body, One Spirit, and We always have been. This includes YOU. This Holy Spirit when indwelling in you, will allow you to remember the overwhelming love in which your Father, the Creator, formed you. You are an extension of US! You are made in Our image. There is no separation from you to Us, and you are no different than My holy apostles then. What a unique and precious time to be alive and offered the gift of being a co-heir in My Kingdom. My people then did not know if I was coming back that day, in a week, or a month or a year. Yet, they had an expectant hope that burned within them in every moment, wondering if I would appear suddenly with them again. Because of this hope, they were alert, vigilant, sober, and excited, teaching and walking without fear, resting on My promises. There are no different instructions now than there were then. Do not worry or be anxious about what is coming, trials or persecutions, knowing that I AM greater than anything and all things that you would ever face. My disciples of old traveled light with no concern for where they would lay their heads or get their next meal. I ask no differently of you now. You need only follow the gentle whispers of My Spirit in every aspect of your life. Walk in My authority and power BOLDLY, and without fear, remembering who you are and who you were created to be, (in Our image). Know this too My precious ones, My Coming again is closer and closer every day, and every hour. My prophecies have been fulfilled, each and every one to perfection, and when you study My Word, you will see that you are extremely close to seeing My return once again. I tell you this, My children, this generation will see Me coming in the clouds, in all of My splendor, and all of My glory. Ponder this amazing truth and grace that has been given to you. My apostles had no idea the day or hour, but you have been given many indications, from prophecy fulfilled in My Word, to the numerous dreams, visions, and prophecies that so many are experiencing today, that speak of My imminent return. Blessed are you that will be found worthy to be called heirs of the Kingdom because you have made the choice to remember who WE ARE TOGETHER, and to walk with Me glorified, as I pour out My grace continuously on you My friends, My children, and eagerly await our reunion. I love you so much!

I AM

MESSAGE TO MY REMNANT ARMY AND THE BATTLE FOR SOULS - 05/26/13

I speak now to My remnant army, as the lines have been drawn. You either have chosen to stand for Me, the truth, or you have chosen the enemy and his lies. The lukewarm I am spewing out of My mouth, for they will have no place with Me in My Kingdom. In asking you to invite the Holy Spirit to assist you in remembering who WE are together, you will see that We operate as One, and you, WE, can not, nor will not fail. Victory is ours, the battle IS WON. It is up to you to simply walk the steps I have ordained for you. The outcome is known, the enemy is defeated for all time. Although very soon it will appear to be the darkest time this world has ever known, you, My remnant, will BOLDLY and COURAGEOUSLY fulfill the tasks you have been given, drawing many souls to Me along your journey. It is time, My loved ones, to step into Me wholeheartedly, surrendering completely, so that My body is your body in action, My arms are your arms reaching, teaching, and comforting, My heart is your heart loving the lost, and My feet are your feet walking the path set before you without hesitation. It will be My words you speak, and only the truth will come forth as I can not lie. Darkness must flee at our presence. I call on you to move in great POWER and AUTHORITY at this time, always understanding that you are nothing without Me, and that it is My power and authority that enables you to fear nothing. BE NOT AFRAID MY SAINTS. Though thousands seem to encamp around you, you will not be harmed. Fear not the one who can kill your body, only beware of the one who can kill your soul. My army will not hesitate when faced with opposition and persecution. You are a new people, rising up, to demonstrate the Kingdom in full operation on this earth, even while the beast kingdom makes its final attempts at destroying souls for all eternity. You must prepare now....today....this hour....to face the toughest challenges many have ever known, doing so unmoved, and unshakable. Your faith is rooted upon Me, your Rock, your Foundation, your Fortress and Strong Tower, your Shield . I am with you at all times, I never leave you. Ponder this deeply. I am always, always with you. The Creator of the Universe dwells within each one of you intimately. Come forth now My army, with all boldness and speak My truths to the lost before it is too late for them. Stand firm and unmoved by anyone, or anything. I have equipped you with My Holy Spirit and the tools you will need lie inside of your spirit already, waiting to be activated. You each have your sword, and you do not go out alone. Many angels assist you in your duties, and do not forget the multitude of witnesses that pray for you and are waiting for our banquet together. Heaven's army assists you all the way. Just a short time now saints, and evil will be vanquished from the earth and we will dwell in peace and love as it was always intended to be. Come, we have much work to do My ambassadors!

His Majesty, Your King

KINGDOM RESOURCES - 06/13/13

For those of you who have chosen to walk the narrow path of righteousness, and are listening for every instruction and every move, I will tell you that I am releasing Kingdom resources and provisions that will sustain you and allow you to continue in My purpose for you in the coming days. As you see entire systems crumbling around you, you must know that I will manifest powerfully to each one of you, carrying you along in My flow as you surrender to Me. I can not be limited, and I will never fail you. As the world and those who have given alliance to the beast system panic in despair and fear at the collapse of their securities, you will only experience peace and safety, knowing your provisions and protection come from the Creator himself. Pray for those who are lost, as the things you see happening to them will indeed be alarming. Pray continually for your spiritual protection, and for My angels to guard you always. Not much longer now My faithful ones, events come quickly.

KINGDOM ASSIGNMENT - 06/20/13

Daughter of God, there are many changes coming, serious changes, and your faith will be challenged yet strengthened. I am elevating My saints to their new Kingdom positions and assignments, very important positions, as this will be the last great move before much more serious judgement comes, and before My return for you. I have spoken of some remaining where they are, and some being repositioned, whether this be in location or employment. Hear the instructions clearly as they are being given, and be obedient in each day, each step, and all will be well with your soul. My outpouring of grace flows in and around all those seeking My will only in their lives. By now, many of you should have realized that much of what you are accustomed to as far as material things is of no importance or value to you or your purpose in Me anymore. You are and will be asked to let go of most of your comforts so that your focus will be Kingdom minded only. I am the Source of all, you have no need to concern yourselves with your provisions, as I take care of Mine own. Did I not care for My people in the desert, providing them with covering and My Heavenly manna to sustain them? I traveled with them day and night, never leaving them unprotected. Will I not do the same for My beloved now? Allow Me to place My sanctuary within you. Allow Me to dwell in your midst, day and night, nourishing you and caring for you. Your obedience to this, My will, is the way that the lost will see how much I love those who seek My Kingdom first. You are My salt! My light! My witness in this earth! A beacon for those in darkness! When you speak My words of Truth in all of My power and authority, it is I who am glorified! I am about to do incredible wonders in and among you! You are living in a time like no other. Prepare! Prepare your hearts as My glorious outpouring will carry you through this next short season, and then I come for you My Bride! The banquet awaits you, all is prepared. Heaven is so excited to have you all coming. I have a place for each of you, and a seat reserved with your name on it. Begin the celebration with Me now in your hearts. You need not wait to experience My glory now, while there is yet a little time left. Celebrate My Beloved, for I am your sanctuary, and I am in your midst always.

Your Source, your Sanctuary

Yeshua

THE TIME IS NOW/ VISION OF THE LIVING WATER, OIL, AND BANQUET - 07/05/13

Several weeks ago, I had a vision and this week I have been released to share this with you, along with the encouraging and loving words that Yeshua has given me for His Bride. I was praying at the throne, kneeling in front of Yeshua. As I prayed, He reached for a large golden pitcher. He lifted it and began to pour it over me, and the flow was continual and endless, His precious living water. There was no end to the supply of living water, it kept flowing and flowing. I was washed and cleansed, purified and refined, healed and sanctified, all at the same time. He was smiling so big, His joy was contagious! He then set the pitcher down but immediately picked it up again, this time, His anointing oil of gladness poured and poured from the pitcher over me, completely sealing every pore in my body, and again, it was an endless flow. He expressed to me that as He pours His oil over all of us, we are then sent with His anointing to share His message of love with all we come in contact with. As we interact with others, this oil will do one of two things. If the people we come in contact with are open to His love, the oil literally drips off of our hands as we love them, onto them, and is absorbed and then given out by them in turn to others. If they are not receptive, the oil beads up but won't absorb into them and falls to the ground unused. He then put the pitcher of oil down, and turned and held His right arm out to a scene behind Him. He said to me Look what is waiting for you!"

As I looked behind Him, He showed me the banquet table, with all of its settings perfectly arranged, absolutely beautiful and golden and illuminated! There were very ornate chairs with very high backs, intricately designed, and each seat had the name of one of His precious saints! He gestured to one of the chairs and said to me, " One of these seats has your name written My love! You do not have to wait to join Me in the feast! The celebration has begun! My Kingdom lives within you NOW! You can experience the joy of My wedding in every moment now! Your spirit dwells with Me! Celebrate and have much joy now! Why wait!" Then the vision ended.

He has been speaking about the many meanings of this vision, and this morning spoke an encouraging word for His church. While explaining things to me, I was standing again before Him with many other saints, and it was snowing. The snow however, was not snow as we know it, it was millions upon millions of precious jewels of every variety, shape and color, and they were being rained down like snow upon His believers as we caught them and they were absorbed into us! He just beamed and radiated pure joy and happiness and peace!

My precious and dear souls, how I love each of you so very much! My love for you is endless, as My jewels continually rain down upon you as My gift to you. The relationship I offer you is like no other! I alone will satisfy your every desire. I alone will fulfill you and care for you from the depths of My being. Each one of you was intricately created and formed and breathed into by My very hands, and My very breath. You are like no other, and you are precious. All I have is yours. We can not be separate. You were breathed into existence by the One and only living God and with that comes great and awesome privileges. It is time for you to recognize who you are in Me, who we are together. I have washed you with My living water and this flow will be continuous to keep you in a constant state of sanctification and cleansing. My supply is endless! Do you not realize this? I am unlimited in all things! Once you have been washed and cleansed, I then pour My oil of gladness over you, allowing you to be that vessel I can use to display My love for a lost and dying world. This oil is an ordination so to speak, as I am bringing you to a new order. You now will walk and speak and live in Kingdom principles and mandates, not the worlds. When I tell you to speak, you will speak with My authority and power and boldness. When I tell you to move, you will do so without hesitation, knowing that I have ordained each and every step of your lives and when in agreement with Me, all things must come to be as you prophesy them. Being heirs of the Heavenly Kingdom gives you this power to command My will and it will be done on this earth! My people, it is time, it is time, for you to command in My name. Take authority over what has been given to you. This is what I have called My people to do. An army receives instruction and immediately obeys their orders. You must do the same. More than ever before, you must know who you are representing as the enemy would like nothing more than to make you feel inferior and powerless. This is nothing but lies. Read again about My prophet Ezekiel. When I told him to prophesy to the dry and dead bones, he did. When I spoke to him to tell the wind to breathe life into them he did. Do you see what happened? A mighty army arose as a testimony to My power and existence. You are called to do the same. Prophesy My Words of Truth and much will be accomplished in this place! You must act now however. Do not delay, time is of the utmost importance. Speak love and speak life. I am opening doors before you that have not been open before. Walk boldly and with much courage My saints. The battle is won, you are victorious and we celebrate together.

Yeshua

YOU ARE LOVED BY THE KING - 07/14/13

I want My dear children to know that they should not be troubled or concerned because they don't feel I am speaking to them. I have a very unique and personal relationship with each one of you individually, and I use various methods to communicate to you My heart and My will. To some, I will speak inner thoughts that are similar to hearing with your earthly ears. To others, I speak through an unction, or emotion you suddenly have that you did not imagine yourselves. Many times, you will experience a message from Me in a song lyric, a quote in something you read, or simply a glance at My beautiful creation in nature. It could be a gentle word from a friend or loved one, or a kind look from a stranger as you walk down the street. You see, I am speaking in many, many, different ways, and any attempt to categorize Me and put limitations on Me by saying I only talk to a special few, is only your fear. I am as close as your next breath, and I see you all the same. I do not favor anyone over another, therefore I could not possible 'speak' as you see it, to one or several of you, and not 'speak' to others of you as well. I love you all equally, and there is always a divine order to what I communicate and when, seasons for everything. The only time I would not be able to talk with you or express My heart is if there is unconfessed sin in your life. If you are harboring bitterness, unforgiveness, anger, judgement, or simply do not have charity, love, for all others, then you will be prevented from hearing My instructions and Will for your life. So rest in My heart dear ones, I embrace all of you seeking Me with all your heart and always, always remember, you are loved by The King!

MY GREATEST ACT OF MERCY - 07/16/13

I am indeed coming down to the hearts of men and I will demonstrate Myself in such a way that has never occurred in history. I am about to reveal Myself powerfully and directly to every soul on this earth. Not one person will be able to dispute who I am, the King of Kings, and the Lord of Lords. This act is the greatest demonstration of My mercy that one could ever know. I am confirming to you what I have revealed to Bonnie so there will be no more uncertainty in your hearts. I have spoken to many concerning this event, and it is one and the same. You will be shown what I see, your true hearts will be revealed to you. You will see for yourselves the condition of your souls. For many, this will be a terrible experience and so I ask My remnant body to prepare now to minister to those who will be presented to you after this occurs. I am allowing this final act, this final warning, because of My infinite love for each one of you. Do not fear My children, only be obedient as I have required, and ensure that your spiritual house is in order. Once a soul sees its unrighteousness before a holy God, that soul chooses for itself its eternal destination. I desire that not one would be lost, but again it is a personal choice. Prepare I say again, the hour draws near.

Yeshua

LET OUR LIVES SING A NEW SONG TO HIM WHO SITS ON THE MERCY SEAT - 07/24/13

My beloved, this great act of My mercy, this glorious display of My unending love for you, is intended to draw you closer to Me, and bring more unity to you as My body, My church. It is nothing you should fear if you have been seeking Me earnestly and with all of your heart. I have been speaking of repentance, purging, and refining for some time now. If you have been obedient to this call, then you have nothing to fear, and you will welcome the opportunity I am giving you to once and for all, completely surrender your lives and your will to Me. I am offering you a unity and Oneness in Me that has previously been rejected by most. In seeing yourselves in your truest condition, you will realize My intense love for you My creation, and My desire for you to be holy and righteous through Me your Savior. This is meant as a precious gift to you My remnant, but a warning indeed to those who are lukewarm in their obedience to Me, and to those who simply have not chosen the narrow path. My desire for you is that you repent today, turn from iniquity now. Do not wait for this event before you ask My Holy Spirit to cleanse and purify you before My eyes. It is in this assistance from My Spirit that you will be better prepared to experience this revelation from Me. Many will come to know Me in an intimate way who have previously not known how much I desire each of you. My Holy Spirit will intensify the fire of My beloved remnant through this experience, and you will awaken to your true destiny and purpose in this life. You will then exhibit a power and an authority from the Most High Creator to bring more souls to Me. Nothing shall prevent you in your mission, for your steps have been ordained. You will have a much clearer sense of what I have called you to do, and a boldness to carry it through. Have joy My saints as the Lord of Hosts is with you, and your Maker is calling you back from the wilderness. I am beckoning My bride, come to Me, come to Me, for much glory awaits you. Seek Me and I shall be found!

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hosanna to the Highest!!

Your Groom who seeks you....

MY OUTPOURING IS A HEART MATTER - 07/28/13

This outpouring of My love for you has several purposes. Because of My infinite mercy, I wish to give each of you every possible opportunity to make the choice to follow Me as great judgements are upon this earth. I have been warning you to prepare your hearts, and put your spiritual houses in order. It is a matter of your heart. I stand outside the door of your heart, will you invite Me in? There is a precise order to the events that are coming upon you imminently, and you must decide for Me or against Me. You will all be shown your soul condition in the presence of a Holy and Righteous God. If you truly desire to fellowship with Me and accept My will in your life, you will lay your burdens and your will down at this time of illumination, and allow Me to completely cleanse your hearts of all iniquities. Your spirit, if you are in complete surrender, will then align themselves with Me, and We then will operate as One. This is an outpouring as was manifested for the Apostles at Pentecost, a time of infusion and of power and might. You will march forward courageously! You will be imbued with My Glory and your entire being will not resist being realigned with My purposes for you. This will be an activation for you, and will serve to equip your spirits to hear Me directly and clearly. Many will be healed during this outpouring of My Grace, those who have completely surrendered, and those in which I find no resistance. Obedience is the key. I say this again My children, obedience is the key. Meditate on this. I am telling you of this event ahead of time because of My great love for you. I desire that you would sweep your house now! There is no need to wait for Me as this illumination will be much gentler to experience if you have done all you can to repent now and come to Me in all humility and brokenness. I require those who will deny themselves to follow Me. Deny all that you desire so that only My desire may reside in you. Do you see? In this way you are pure and holy vessels through which My will can not be hindered. Many, many people will not fair well when this event occurs, as their sin is great and the separation from Me is wide. You will be used to minister, to love, to teach and guide them towards Me. You will be My equipped army. You will heal and perform miracles and the world will know of Me and know that I AM.

There will be a cosmic event that will cause complete darkness on this earth for three days and it is then that I will make Myself known to every individual soul. I have shown some of you in dreams and visions this very time. You must prepare for this time, I would not have you caught off guard when this occurs. I have always told My own what I am about to do, and I am telling you now. PREPARE. Do not be afraid. My angels are waiting and ready to assist you. You are so loved and protected. It is just for a short time, and then.....your victory, and our Wedding! I will use you for a season, again, a short season, to help those around you to see the Light, to see Me, their Creator. All is in order. You have not chosen Me, I have chosen you.

A NEW PARADIGM COMES WITH THIS EVENT - 07/31/13

There is a glory coming upon you My chosen ones that will serve to equip you completely for your Heavenly orders. I have spoken of a separation of wheat and chaff, sheep and goats, and it is time for this to be finalized in your realm. You were birthed for such a time as this My Beloved. What you are about to experience is a paradigm shift. Truth will be revealed like never before. You will see beyond the veil as all will be exposed to My Light. In the outer darkness that will surround you, I and I alone will shine brilliantly and appear All Consuming. All deception and false teachings about who I AM will be shattered. All of mankind will see its weakness and dependency when confronted with Pure Love and Pure Truth. Then comes your choice. Will you continue on your path of destruction, in covenant with satan himself, or will you choose to allow Me to flood your souls with My love and mercy, and bring your spirits back into alignment with your true identity in Me? I will not do this again, as My Second Coming draws nearer each day, you must make the choice at this time for your eternal destination. All will be made clear to you. Nothing will remain hidden from you. Choose Me and We will then bring in the greatest harvest of all time. All of Heaven anticipates this glorious revelation. I pour out My love to you all, be ONE in My heart.

Your Savior, The Redeemer of all who desire Me

ONLY OUR LOVE SHALL STAND - 08/04/13

The world stands upon a precipice of decision. A new day is dawning and you will experience the full manifestation of My glory which is upon you. There will be an infusion and an illumination of My spirit. When I speak of paradigm shifts, I speak of old patterns, thoughts, and methods dissolving. Light and dark can not dwell together. As more and more darkness descends, My light becomes brighter within you. There is a great strengthening for My saints at this time. Grace to overflowing is My gift to you. You are choosing to operate more and more in My Kingdom principles and design and your perception in this physical realm is being changed to come into harmony with My will and My heart. My heart and your hearts are now blending into One again, as you are continually surrendering in every moment. You are seeing life now from My perspective instead of your own veiled view. You dwell more and more in your Heavenly Kingdom here on earth than in your physical positions. This is My desire. Continue to let go of all your attachments here. All is quickly fading and only Our Love shall stand. You are My shining stars, brilliant and radiant in Me in a world going dark. Shine My lambs, as I AM come to the hearts of men.

I WILL ROAR - 08/11/13

My wrath will not be held back any longer, for the enormity of this worlds sin is great. My arm of protection is no longer upon you, as you have chosen death over life. I am about to act mightily and in great power across this earth. You will know that your great disobedience brings this upon you. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth as I sweep across your nations. Woe to those who have repeatedly ignored My pleas and the pleas of My Son for repentance. You will all be brought to your knees. You have no idea the force in which I will strike, for I will not be mocked. Prepare for you will reap that which you have sown. None of you has ever experienced this intense darkness that I will send as My final Warning. To the disobedient ones, it will bring immense terror and chaos.

Now to My Bride, you will experience this as My greatest act of mercy and I assure you again and again, you have nothing to fear. My judgements are not for you although you must endure for a moment in order that you be My light after these things occur. It is always darkest before the morning. I will NEVER forsake you for this is My promise. Pay close attention dear ones to My Holy Spirit which resides in you. Listen for instructions. Be ever so vigilant and alert at all times so you will not be caught unaware. Never cease praying. Anchor in Me, your Source and I will comfort you through this dark time and provide you with a peace that I alone can provide. This will commence suddenly to those not walking as One with Me, but I always let My own know what I am about to do. Do not let your guards down. There must not be any openings in your armor in which the enemy can penetrate. It is imperative that you heed these warnings now so desperation and fear do not overtake you. You must not underestimate the enemy, however remember that greater is He in you than he that rules this world. I give you My kiss of peace. You will be triumphant My Bride. I would not have My Bride to suffer long, as My love for her is beyond measure. Although you will see death and very sorrowful situations, it is of the utmost importance that you remember during these times, who you are to Me. You are My chosen, precious jewels in the Kingdom. Stay close to Me now more than ever children, drawing your strength from Me your Heavenly Father, for I will roar from the Heaven's and everything that can be shaken will be shaken.

Your Eternal Father

As the Lord relayed this message to me, He again showed me the vision spoken of with the train of judgements. Please see the post: ANOTHER SERIOUS WARNING FOR AMERICA written Monday, June 18, 2012.

THE TIME HAS COME - 08/19/13

Come to the Well, as I have much to share with you, and so little of your time is left. My living water awaits all who seek fulfillment, peace and joy. I give you Manna to nourish your spirit, My manna that sustains life eternal. Come and find what your heart has always longed for. It is Me. I am what your heart desires. Come with all that you have, your past and your future, all that has kept you separated from Me. All that you know to be solid ground will now fade away. Things are not as they seem. Give all to Me and I will wash you clean. I ask only that you come to My well with a contrite heart, a heart full with surrender and a heart to seek Me with all of your being. Allow Me then to carry the rest. Do not fret over the order of events, trust that all is in My divine will. My only requirement is that you follow in My footsteps and seek Me. All other paths are fruitless and will leave you empty and shallow. Great upheaval is upon you and many things will change in an instant. You must have Me as the Source from which you draw your strength. Very few will withstand the influence of these dark forces which are already amongst you. I offer you this moment in time, this moment of now. Come to Me. Be in Me. For I will fill you from this Well with My abundant grace, My power, and My strength. Together in this, We will usher in the days of glory. But first earth's final warning. And so I say to you now, be still and know that I AM GOD. Be still, watch, wait and do not cease to pray always. The time has come.

I AM COMING

TREASURE IN EARTHEN VESSELS - 08/24/13

My beloved, do you not know that I feel your weariness? I feel your pain, your desperation, and your longing to join Me in the Kingdom that is your true home. I watch the struggles you endure, and see how increasingly difficult the days are becoming for you as gross darkness overtakes the earth. You have been strategically placed, each and every jewel that you are, for this incredible time in your history. I have known you since before the foundation of the world My children. Seek to understand your place here. I have molded you in these earthen vessels to minister to the lost and to be My hands and My feet at this time. Such treasure you will find indwelling in your hearts, My precious vessels when you fully surrender to My will alone. The knowledge of the glory of God, His light, and His love is made manifest in your weakness and your brokenness. Empty yourselves completely. Hide not your light from those who seek Me for in this way, many will come to know true peace and joy that is everlasting. Your life is not yours to live, it belongs to Me. Although it may appear outwardly that your vessel can not withstand the strain, this is not so, as I have designed you to carry out My Kingdom purposes for this time. Do not be anxious or dismayed children for in the world you will have tribulation but I have overcome the world.

THE TIME IS VERY, VERY SHORT NOW - 09/05/13

My beloved children, such joy all of Heaven knows to see the anticipation and the longing of My sons and daughters to join us here in the Kingdom. It is not far off now, and you are sensing this in your spirits. I have told you before, much is not what it seems, therefore, knowing that I am a God of order, you are not to dwell on the specifics, for in this your focus becomes of the physical realm and you take your eyes off Me. This must not be so. Do not turn to the right or to the left. You must keep your focus fixed on Me and nothing else. I call on you to have your final preparations. Have your house in order now. There is so little time left. Do not be fooled. Blessed are they who do not see yet, still believe! Your reward will be great in Heaven and there will be much celebration over your victory. My glory will be made manifest in this earth and all will know My power and My authority. All will see the truth and be given a final decision. Many will see My light through you in this darkness coming and come to Me in the last moment. I will sweep this earth for those who have been chosen one last time and then such tribulation will come. I ask for your complete trust in all things now. Even when the darkness is palpable, you must trust Me your Light. I am the Light of the World! Never doubt My children. You are always safe with Me, I have promised this to you and it shall be so. We are about to usher in POWER and MIGHT and UNCONDITIONAL LOVE. My Mercy grants this to all who seek Me with all of their hearts. Take My hand and allow Me to show you Mysteries as you have never known.

I COME QUICKLY

THE LINES HAVE BEEN DRAWN - 09/14/13

Tell the people I will no longer continue to plead with the unrighteous and the mockers for their allegiance. They have been warned, the watchmen have sounded the alarm, the windows of opportunity have been extended in My mercy, and because of the prayers of the faithful. But now My chosen remnant I tell you the lines have been drawn. My hand of judgement comes and I am dividing the holy from the unholy, the righteous from the wicked. No more will darkness and deception permeate My holy ground in which My Beloved awaits My return. For My chosen, your names are etched in the palm of My hand, and nothing could ever snatch you from Me. For those still walking in sin, they have made their choice. They will now experience a world without My light as a guide and without Me to shelter them from the storms. It is done this day. Their fates have been sealed. My focus now turns to My Elect, the hearts earnestly and expectantly awaiting My return. You have brought Me much joy. There is much to show you and much that will be revealed to you as My spirit infuses with your spirit and We then walk as One. Many have long awaited this glorious event and it is now upon you. Look up My children! Your redemption draws nigh!

IT IS UPON YOU - 09/20/13

This ensuing darkness quickly approaching for My beloved, will be a powerful time of communion for you and I. A final refining fire. It will be a time of intimate fellowship and prayer with Me. You will be strengthened in your gifts of the Holy Spirit for which you were purposed to walk forth in and My decrees will be set in motion through you. This will be your commissioning. You are to remain in your dwellings and you will be receiving your realignment during this time both physically and spiritually. I will leave nothing undone. This is a final refining fire for the elect and a fire of judgement for the wicked. Since your training is now complete you know My voice as My sheep know their Shepherd. Listen carefully and closely for your instructions. I will protect your dwellings and your animals for they are Mine as well. Leave all your concerns to Me, the Creator of all things. My Holy angels will care for your outdoor creatures during this time, and your dwellings will remain secure. You are to have no fear for you are Mine and I am yours. Be still and know Me for this is any moment now.

THE SHEPHERD

OPEN HEAVEN - 10/06/13

My remnant army, My dear friends and children, those who are earnestly and anxiously looking up and awaiting My return for them, you dwell with Me now! You are under My mighty hand of protection and grace and you are sealed with My blood. Nothing can harm you and you now walk victoriously in and through Me. I am the Door of My sheep to a now open Heaven! That which was spoken of in times of old is upon you. The Heavens are opened unto you now and you will go in and out upon Me the ladder. I am the Door and I am the Shepherd. I am glorified in My people. Come boldly sisters and brothers into the Holy of Holies for the gate is open unto you this day! We do all things in each other now, you in Me and I in you, I in the Father and the Father in Me, together we work as One. Walk now in your full potential realizing there are no limits as heirs to the Throne. You have full access and Heaven is opened to you---you are already Home!! I am imparting wisdom into your spirits each moment as you seek Me and soon, very very soon, you will completely understand the deepest meaning of what has been done for you. In you now the Kingdom of Heaven is manifested. Come and go freely and without fear My beloved Bride. The time is indeed upon you. You have persevered and your reward is with you. I see that your lamps are full of My oil and you have made yourselves clean! I am coming for you sweet Bride and all will be revealed to you. My peace encompasses you and all those you have given to Me. You are residents of My eternal Kingdom and much, much joy is coming to you! My love for you intensifies greatly now, for you are faithful.

Your Groom, Your Shepherd, The Door

YOUR JOURNEY IS ALMOST COMPLETE - 10/24/13

My children, it is My desire that you use this brief moment in time to enjoy your place with Me in My heart and in My Kingdom. You are in a very short pause for soon, all around you will change and although I have spoken about things that are coming, you will still find yourselves feeling it happens so suddenly. I hear each one of you, asking for more clarification of the things to come. And you will be given all that you need, each one specific to his/her purpose. I know each of you better than you know yourselves for I am your Designer. I also know that given too much detail, you would focus on events to come and I would lose your companionship in this moment of now. I ask one thing of you this day. Give Me this moment of now. Sit with Me, talk with Me, be with Me, in Me. Feel My peace and My love flooding your spirit. I have promised you a place in My Kingdom for all eternity and I continue to provide for you and protect you . What concern is it of yours what tomorrow may bring? I have guaranteed tomorrows to no one. You are only given today, remember your place. You are hedged in on all sides. Were you to be given too much information, you would simply not understand. Much is being accomplished in the spiritual realm on your behalf. Concern yourselves with me and our relationship together rather than the happenings in the world. I am moving powerfully and mightily for My children. Much is taking place that you are not aware of. Take your rest now, today, knowing that this journey you have been given is drawing to an end. My peace I give to you My friends. you will be told when this three days of darkness is about to occur so that you may gather your families together in preparation. Never fear as My voice will be heard by My people. Take rest that you are counted worth of My eternal Kingdom children.

The Only One you need

THE HEAVENS WILL THUNDER - 10/29/13

My daughter, yes, you are hearing me correctly. I am at the door. You sense this, as My approach draws ever closer in each moment. There will be no mistaking what is taking place. I will speak to each heart that has chosen to open itself to Me, the skies will split, the heavens will thunder, and I will come with fire and with smoke. All of creation will hear Me roar and will respond with mightily force. There will be no doubt that I am the Righteous Judge and Ruler of All-the Almighty King. Only those who are blind in their sin will be caught unawares. My coming has been foretold and the time is come. Fear nothing ye who call Me Master and Lord. Fear eternity you who mock Me and reject Me. Your destiny rides on the sound of My voice. This earth will shake and you will know it is I. You have precious few moments left as all has been ordained and I do not delay.

The Almighty Ruler and King

SEEK ME WHERE I CAN BE FOUND - 11/04/13

Dear Ones, that which you so long for and so desire is not to be found externally. In seeking Me and a closer relationship with Me, you need only go within the depths of your heart, for it is here, on the inside that you will find all that your heart has longed for. You hold the key and the lock is inside the door. So many of you are looking for Me somewhere out there. I wish for you to come to Me from within. Go back to the beginning. Man and God were One. You in Me and I in you. We walked as One. This is possible now precious Ones. You originate from the One and are simply our extension. It is your choice in every moment to function as you were purposed, or to allow the world to bring separation between us. The Kingdom of Heaven lies within you. I am calling My remnant at this time to transition now, this moment, into nothing but Kingdom positions living by Kingdom principles. This is the paradigm shift in which I have spoken. You, My remnant, must maintain these positions now as you are strategically placed for what is very soon to take place on this earth. There is to be unwavering faith from My army and complete focus on My intentions for you. Your infusion has begun. Pray for Me to illuminate to you that for which you have been purposed and it shall be done for you. Maintain your spiritual authority and positions. My will is accomplished through you and no weapon formed against you will prosper. My Kingdom is come, My will is done on earth as it is in Heaven. Find all that you seek, joy, peace and love within the Kingdom, within the depths of your being, for it is here that you will find Me. Peace to you My friends until I come for you.

YOUR KING IS COME - 11/10/13

Your King is come! I am here. Fear not what lies directly ahead of you for I am your mighty fortress and your High Tower. I am the lifter of your head. Strongholds are being dissolved like snow all around you as My powerful anointing consumes you My Bride. As the earth falls deeper and deeper into chaos, My Bride is carried on eagles wings into deeper and deeper communion with Me, rising higher and higher from all that had previously held you bound here on this earth. Reach out to Me My love and feel My breath upon you. Nothing can separate Me from My love. Rise from the dust and the ashes of yesterday as We are doing a new thing. The chains are broken and victory is Ours. Keep looking to Me, looking up, for your redemption indeed draws nigh!!

The Lover of your soul

THESE THREE DAYS - 11/11/13

It is I daughter, your King and your Groom. You must trust Me in My timing. I will not allow you to be taken by surprise with the cosmic event. I have you in the palm of My hands. Put on your garments of praise in place of the spirit of heaviness all around you. I am bringing you from glory to glory. As my work was completed after the cross until My resurrection, so too will your transformation be completed these coming three days so we may finally be as One as My Father has intended Us to be. I have promised you the former and the latter rains. My anointing is upon you now. This earth will reel to and fro before the great day of the Lord and all that can be shaken will be shaken. Come close. This earth will shake violently at My coming. Never before in history has mankind seen an event such as this. Soon all will know that I AM THAT I AM, as all of My creation reacts to My arrival.

IT IS BEGUN - 11/20/13

Sing a new song unto the Lord. Let your song be sung from mountains high! I am breaking forth upon this place. I will turn your sorrow into joy for I am doing a new thing. So very soon you will see the spiritual manifest into the physical. You will speak it forth and it will be done on earth as it is in Heaven and as it has been purposed in and through you as you walk in complete obedience and surrender to My will alone. As I told Ezekiel to prophesy to dry bones so that they may live, so you as well will speak forth My proclamations to a dying world that they might have life and be washed clean by My Word coming forth through you. You will speak and it will be so, not by any power of your own, but by My life force that has consumed your temples. There is a new day dawning and it is time to sing forth My praises to all I have and will continue to send you. You have been given your assignments and you stand armed with My swords of truth along with the Host of My Heavenly armies at your side. It is begun My army, it is begun!

MY BRIDE'S HOUR IS COME - 11/30/13

My children and My Bride, how it pleases My heart to see such obedience and such surrender. You have learned much but know as well that much is to be required of you. I would not ask anything of you that you are not capable of when in complete obedience to My will for your lives. I would never ask of you anything that I have not already walked out in perfection while on this earth. I have always led by My example. Although you do not have the complete understanding of My timing in coming for you My Bride, know without a doubt that every detail of your joining to Me has been lovingly orchestrated by My Father in Heaven. Lean not unto your own understanding at this time as much is still being veiled. It is only for you to rest in My presence knowing that you are loved beyond measure, that you are loved by the King of Kings and it is only faith I ask. Believe when you cannot see. I am pouring out an increase at this time for My Bride, and increase in a measure of trust, of grace, of anointing, of favor and of blessing. You, My chosen Ones, will assist Me in gathering the greatest harvest of all time. Remain unmovable, unshakable and unaffected by what you are seeing in the natural. These things must come. Persevere My Beloved for Our hour is come.

MY BRIDE- MY PEARL - 12/23/13

Tell My people little one that My Bride is My heart. It has always been a heart matter and My Bride is captivated by Me. Many have been called but few are chosen. My Bride, My pearl lives for none other than Me. She anxiously greets Me each morning in complete and utter surrender and obedience to My will alone for that day. This heart lives and moves and has her being in Me alone. The sufferings and sorrows of this heart are deeply etched and intertwined with My heart, My sufferings and My pain. We live as One. Our hearts beat as One. She knows no other. Her life is worship of Me. This dear one no longer descends into the world, seeking to satisfy shallow yearnings and desires with the lies and feigned love of the traitor, her enemy. This one knows Me, knows Me intimately, therefore knows true, abiding, perfect love and will not settle for anything else. This pearl has endured much over time. This heart has bled and died alongside of Me. The scars and abrasions of this pearl are what made her who she is in Me. We speak spirit to spirit and she loves with a love that is genuine and pure. It is only through the refining process of being sanded and molded and set apart that she has been transformed from something ordinary to My Beloved. She wears My righteousness as her wedding gown. She forsakes all for My glory and incessantly intercedes for the lost. Her desires are My desires. This pearl comes together with other precious gems in My Kingdom in union as they honor, serve, and glorify Me as One Body . It is My life's blood coursing through her veins. My Bride has given her all for Me and therefore certain privileges are bestowed on her. She will see Me in all of My glory before the rest of My church. Her time of waiting has drawn to a close. She is My Queen and she will rise to assist Me in My last and greatest harvest. She will be given much power and authority in Me.

Many are you who profess Me as Lord, but your hearts are far from Me. Believing on Me as your Savior is not enough to qualify you as My Bride. Your lives must reflect My heart. You must be a new creation in Me. Spiritual pride and idolatry have taken dominion over you. I tell you this--I am coming for an undefiled and pure people. Have you allowed My Holy Spirit to completely blot out every bit of self in you? Is every thought and action measured and tested against My Holy Spirit as your guide? Have you willingly let go of every lure this world has to offer you? What do you continue to allow your eyes to view and your ears to hear? Do you still continue to compromise? I will say to you-your time has not come yet. You have work still to do before we meet face to face in order that you enter My Kingdom for My Father will send Me for His first-fruits before His church. My church as a body has more training to do, and more purifying before she is worthy to come home. She has lost her first love and continues to drink from the cup of iniquity.

The door is closing My children and then tribulations as you have never seen shall come. What say you this day? Do you know in your heart of hearts that you belong to the Bride, My pearl or have you forsaken Me and My ultimate sacrifice for you? I died to give you life eternal and because of My love for you. The door is indeed closing very, very soon and then there will be no turning back.

TREASURES UNTOLD - 01/02/14

My dearest children, there is so much awaiting those who seek Me in all they do. I have treasures untold of to reveal to you, and you will spend all of eternity in awe and wonder at My revelations to you. All I have ever wanted from you is your heart, your focus, your obedience, and your faith. If you only knew what was waiting for you, you would run to Me with all you have! The relationship I share with each of you is incredibly unique and precious. Like the many facets of any individual jewel, you were created in a dimension you can not fully understand until We are together again. I have hand-crafted you specifically for a purpose in Me, and when you come to Me in everything, I will give you the wisdom and insight you require to fulfill your role here on earth. Oh what treasure is in store for those who find Me early, who do not wait until I bring judgement upon this place. My arms are always open to you, it is your choice to run and not walk to Me at this time. As I have been saying, the door is closing, and I wish that all of you would find Me NOW. The depths of My love for each of you goes so far beyond your ability to comprehend. Being hand-crafted as you are, I have poured My heart into each of you, My very Ruach, to fashion you after Myself. Previously, there has been no limit to the extent I have gone to seek a relationship with you. But My children, these days are ending. My grace for the lukewarm and complacent is coming to an end. My righteousness will shine forth as the sun, and I will fulfill all that is promised in My holy Word. You may only have today left here---will you finally make the choice to surrender all to Me? Or will you remain to face tribulation as this world has never known? The choice still remains yours. I implore you--CHOOSE WELL.

DEEPER INTO ME - 01/06/14

Daughter, My Word speaks of the narrow way to Me. Do you not yet understand what this entails? You were not purposed for your own enjoyment or pleasure, or to pursue your own interests outside of Me. It is in this search that you encounter struggles and challenges. Immerse yourself in My Word. Pray for the gift of understanding and wisdom as My Spirit pours over you while you read them. I will bring My understanding and illumination to you, and you will then go on to face the challenges of your days without so much resistance. Because daughter, you are the one who resists. My flow, in selfless service, is unhindered. Who do you serve? Is it I, the One true King? Then I say come to the foot of My Cross. Do not ever leave the ground below Me as it is only in the shadow of My cross that My blood will flow down, reaching you, completely bathing you, refining you, purifying you, until there is no YOU left. Humble yourself before Me, on your face, on your knees, in complete repentance and surrender in every moment. Stay here with Me. Do not depart from My presence. I will show you how it is done. Look to Me as your only example of the complete laying down of One's life for another. You of course are not able to do this within yourself, but I will work this mystery through you. Let Me lead the way. I can not nor would I ever fail you in this instruction. What earthly gain have you in any other choice? This in which I have called you to demands this path. There is no other, if your destination remains Me and My Kingdom. My ways are higher than your ways and soon you will see the miracles I have worked in those around you as you have led by My example. Allow the sword of My Spirit to penetrate into the deepest layers of your being, separating your soul, your feelings and emotions and mind, from your spirit, which is directly breathed into existence by Me. I will show you the Way. Your search for more and more of Me, wanting a deeper and more intimate relationship, this is good. I tell you though that there is no limit to the depths that We can go together, One in Spirit. You do not need to wait for this level of intimacy with Me, for it is readily available in every breathing moment. This is a great truth that far too few of My precious ones comprehend. You are what stands in the way. Do not despair. I am true to My words. Trust Me like never before. Run to Me. Lay it all down, once and for all. It is almost accomplished in and through you. I will come for you. Time is of the essence. Much awaits you.

MY BRIDE DRINKS FROM THE FULLNESS OF MY CUP - 01/14/14

Oh My daughter how it pleases My heart so when My children come to Me in total humility and surrender and cast their cares at My feet as you have done. My message has been one of obedience, and sacrifice. My chosen ones have sought well, as you have now allowed My blood to cleanse and purify you, to refine and mold you into My new vessels of glory. You have come through the fire in the past and you have given Me full permission to continue to bring you through the fires of refinement in order that we are infused as One. It is in the crushing of self that I bring you to a higher level of intimacy, as My anointing covers all aspects of your lives. As you have come to Me, each one of you, it is this I ask, are you willing to drink the fullness of the Cup of My blood? I am not asking for a partial consumption but I am asking that you would drink the full Cup of My sacrifice. I Myself have emptied this Cup for every one of you, now I ask if you are willing to make the ultimate sacrifice of love for Me? Will you now in this day, at this appointed time in these last days, lay it all down for Me this final time? This Cup of trembling is not for the weak or faint of heart. This Cup when completely consumed, brings about a great transformation for you. For at the bottom of this Cup is The Key to Me. It is who I Am, it is who you are intended to be in Me. Choosing this Cup means no going back. It is finishing your race strong, never looking again behind you at those you may have to leave behind. It is running and not walking, passionately pursuing and becoming One with the Lover of your soul.

The fires of your testing bring revelation as they unlock spirits of bondage, spirits of addictions, spirits of lack and separation. Drink of this Cup My precious Bride and find The Key when you have consumed it all. This

Key will provide for you and Open Heaven as you ask and nothing will be denied you. It is in this that I will pour out the extra oil you need for the upcoming events that are just before you. I then ask for you to take this Key and unlock the storehouses of My immeasurable flow and blessing. Set the lost free with this Key. Break the chains of the enemy in every situation using your Key. Open the doors that have previously been closed to you and find your freedom in and through Me. Go forth to set the captives free, do miracles in My Name and heal all who are in need. This Key will also lock the door behind you to the enemy, forever closing off his access to you for you become Mine, body, soul, and spirit. We then move as One to consummate our Wedding and bring in the great harvest! Your desires become My desires, your heart becomes My heart. You then go forth with clear eyes, clean hands, and My purity of heart. You become My eyes that seek the lost and hurting and bring them to My heart. It is then you speak My words of love and comfort and peace. It is then you boldly walk to places you would have never walked before, Me and you, you and Me, treading the darkness without fear, reclaiming what belongs to Me for My Kingdom. Your arms become My arms reaching out and embracing the most lonely, the most desperate, and the most fearful ones who have lost their way. In Me you live and move and have your being. This is the design of My Father and His will be accomplished in this place. Your sorrow becomes our greatest joy as I share with you the oil of My gladness. The effects of Our union will be unmistakable! For none of you is separate from another. Your infusion brings forth My glory and sets off a chain reaction amongst you. Let us go now Beloved, the day grows shorter even and the night is come. Come to Me---Drink My Cup---Walk as One with your Groom---

SHALOM MY BEAUTIFUL BRIDE-----

Vision Of His Cup And The Key

As a preface to this vision, I had been facing an extreme weariness, and a sense of discouragement while waiting for Yeshua to come for us in these last couple of weeks. The enemy wanted nothing more than to lie to me and tell me that Yeshua's return was not close, and that life would become increasingly difficult and distressful. I had been crying out to Yeshua for strength and hope and reassurance of His never-ending love for us and the seriousness of the hour of trial we are facing. It was in these cries for comfort and direction that Yeshua visited me and gave me the above message. He concluded our visit by standing in front of me with The Cup of His Blood. He first told me that He had given His all, His life's blood for all, and then as He began to hand me The Cup, He asked me if I was willing to drink from The Cup as well, The Full Cup, in order to enter into complete intimacy and Oneness with Him. I said yes, of course I would, and reached for The Cup. As I did however, He hesitated, and told me I could not accept this Brideship if I did not drink The Cup in full. Shaking, I reached out and said yes again, taking The Cup in both hands and drinking until finished. To my astonishment, there was a Key at the bottom of The Cup! He looked at me with such love and smiled saying, "Now to you is given The Key to Me, to all that I Am, and all that you will now be in Me." He went on to explain how The Key would bring an Open Heaven to me, to all who consumed fully, and the ability through Him to do all He requires us to do. It is The Key to Him and the mysteries of His Kingdom, and The Key that forever prevents the enemy from harming us again, The Key that seals us under His anointing. He told me then I would never go back to where I had come from, and His glory could now be revealed in and through me. This is what He is offering to every one of us in the Bride right now. The Bride is made of those who have now submitted themselves to Him in total repentance, searching only His truth, holiness, and righteousness from here on until He comes for us. His promises are sure and true, and there are no words to describe to you the love He has for every one of us, an immense, immeasurable and undying love that will take us higher and higher and higher***

Until we meet face to face my brothers and sisters,

Shalom,

Julie

COME AWAY WITH ME - 02/02/14

My sweet and precious children-do not give up now for My well will not run dry and you are being strengthened and infused with My Spirit at each crossroad you face. Not one injustice, unkind word or accusation against you goes unnoticed or unpunished. Every tear you shed is collected and kept in My storehouse. Turn the other cheek, speak only love and truth in Me, stand firmly for My righteousness and do not waver. Not too much longer now and you will hear the Heavenly choir singing praises on High as they prepare to welcome you home. Listen closely to Me, for I will allow you to hear My voice sweetly whispering My Words to you. I promise you-I will fill you with everything you need to complete that in which you are purposed. My Bride knows the sacrifice of drinking My Cup in full, and yet she has done so willingly and without reserve as her love for Me knows no bounds. All must be forsaken for the will of the Father, all must be laid down. I have not come to bring peace but to bring My sword, to cut the heart asunder, to separate and to sanctify. You are living out in these end days that which is spoken of in My Word. I will divide families and require you to represent Me yet stand apart from loved ones who fall away. To those that detest all that this fallen world has to offer you, I promise so much more. In the stillness of My presence, I pour out blessings of peace amidst chaos, light amidst darkness, joy in place of hopelessness and comfort that only your Creator who knows you so intimately can give. Come away with Me My Bride, come away. I am speaking to you who have eyes to see and ears to hear. Nothing and no one could ever come between the love that I have for you, and no weapon formed against you will prosper. Look deeper, look beyond your current circumstances and relationships and keep an eternal perspective. This is of the utmost importance dear ones as much will happen so quickly and all will appear hopeless and desperate. You My children shall know only safety and peace and My power from on High as I walk with you hand in hand, side by side, in One accord to lead you home. It is so important to remember, I have seen you through what is coming, what is already here. I have seen your victory and I have seen you crowned. Imagine this! Facing a victory that you have already won! The work has been done! I have already paid the price for you! I have given My all---NOW---WILL YOU GIVE YOURS FOR ME???

My peace remains with you always, shalom,

YESHUA

THIS ROSE HAS THORNS - 02/16/14

Daughter, I am your shelter, your shelter from the storms of life and your shelter from the storms that are coming. Hear My voice. My voice is like no other. It will guide you in all things. Come to Me in the smallest details of your lives. I will express My Heart to you. Proclaim My victory in every trial for your words speak of Me and I am truth and life. Seek Me in your brokenness, seek Me in your emptiness for it is a humble and contrite heart that I desire. Be quick to proclaim Me in every situation and conversation. Proclaim the precepts of My Kingdom in this earth and so shall it be done according to My perfect will. Prophecy over your current situations and over your loved ones. Speak powerfully and with all authority given to you from your Father above. I wish to bless you and reveal even more truths to you as you proclaim Me. Honor Me above all. Look not to satisfy the desires of your flesh for this is soon to perish. Look only to Me and the future of your soul. Look to Me alone as I hold the answers to all you seek to know. I am coming, and My reward is with Me. It is in your complete obedience that much is revealed to you. It is of the utmost importance now to walk circumspectly. The enemy seeks to devour My saints and destroy them from within. The battle rages fiercely as many have given allegiance to this darkness and its strength in the earth increases. Death and immorality rule this planet. Events have been put in motion that I will not detain or reverse. My Word will be fulfilled. Many child, so many be will caught unaware. Never cease interceding for your brothers and sisters as the battle intensifies. To many, you are serving as a lifeline. A lifeline of hope, of truth, and of love where they seek and do not find. I would never ask anything of you that I have not already freely given. You may never see the value of your place in My Kingdom while serving Me here on earth, but oh the treasures unspoken of that await those who are My espoused. Unspeakable joy awaits you. Hold fast as I am coming quickly! I give you My Rose, My Bride as a sign of My great love for you. Here, this Rose has thorns, for this is what a life of dying to self must endure. But know this, that every precious drop of blood shed from the wounds inflicted by these trials here grants you complete and utter joy for eternity in My Kingdom. Give thanks and glorify Me in this children--glorify Me.

VISION FROM THE EYES OF YAHUSHUA ON THE CROSS - 02/20/14

My little one, tell them what I saw. Let them know for just a brief moment what it was like for Me on that day. Be the words for Me to tell them how I mourned for every one of them. Help them understand the unimaginable depths of My love poured out that day. I want them to see what I saw on that day.

At this point, I was taken to the cross, and Yahushuah allowed me to see through His eyes as He was dying on that hill, Golgatha. The ground below Him opened up, and all I could see was the abyss of hell, endless in depth, flaming fires unquenchable. As He spoke these words, I watched, through His eyes, as thousands upon thousands of people were falling into the flames, while Yahushua and I were crying. I could feel the tremendous sorrow He felt, and feel His Heart beating so quickly and with exhaustion. I cannot express in words the love He holds for all people.

You ask for Me to end the sorrow and end the pain in the hearts of My people. You must know, that this is My Heart's desire as well, that We are all dwelling together in My perfect love, peace, and unity for all eternity to come. But you must remember this too child, the trials and sufferings of My people now are but for a moment, compared to the anguish I endured at My death on the cross as I not only died physically due to the trauma My body endured, but I died---YOUR CREATOR DIED---of a completely broken heart, in that as I hung above this earth, I watched billions of souls falling into the flames of hell, forever lost, forever separated from the One who loves them above all. I saw the souls of every soul that would ever live and reject My sacrifice, My blood, the outpouring of My very life's breath, as if they thought My dying for them was all in vain. I saw their torment and heard their pleas for help after it was too late. I felt their coldness and their rejection of The One and Only Creator, the very One who breathed them into existence. I hung on that cross with the guilt and the shame of EVERY single soul for all time on My precious heart. A love indescribable! A love that would allow Me to die this way for each one, over and over and over if it was required of Me. The despair and torment I suffered, to know that each soul made its own choice and the choice was not My love. How could I make you to understand this kind of love? My grief was, and is, incomparable to anything you could possibly endure here. I can only do so for now through the eyes of this child who writes this to you, and for you, as a testimony of Me as I instruct her. She is a willing vessel. Do you love Me enough to be My vessels My children no matter what you may have to endure? My grief was, and is, incomparable to anything you could possibly endure here. Do you see daughter? Yours is but a temporary experience, for very, very soon, you and I will be joined in paradise, never to experience suffering again. My children have made a willing commitment to be My disciples for this time. There has never been a time such as this period in your history now, nor will there ever be. The end is come and your purpose here will save an untold number of souls from an eternity of darkness. You are all My hands, My feet, and My words in an abyss of darkness. This world plummets into darkness faster and faster every day. Time is no more. An event comes quickly to the earth that will shake you to the core and test your faith. Are you with Me, are you ready? You are on the final stretch of this race and as you are aware, the victory is won. Although I have paid the price, you are My extensions here, My Pearls, My Beauty, My Beloved and My Cherished. Be not weary My Army and faint not at what lies directly ahead, for after that, I answer the call of My Father and come for you. The final preparations are already made, Our Feast awaits you! I have your Rings, and the Consummation will be done as it is written, so it will be done. Do not allow your garments to become soiled this close to the end of the battle. My beautiful ones. The Heavenly Host surrounds you. Almost My loves-almost.....

I WILL RESTORE YOUR VERY BLOOD - 03/11/14

Just as it was in the beginning, I am doing again in My Bride this day. My creation reflected all that I am. I am come now in the hearts of My chosen to exhibit holiness, righteousness, truth, and purity. I conquered death at the cross, I abolished it for all men who receive Me, for all time. I came that you would have life everlasting, that the curse of sin would be overcome. I am restoring yet again through My last days remnant, a sanctified and holy people who are walking in My statutes and My example, demonstrating that a sinless life is to be your goal. I have shown you the Way as I am the only Way, the Truth, and the Life. He that follows Me knows no death. I am come for a pure and spotless Bride, one who continues to seek Me every moment of every day. I am come to rescue My love from the judgements which are upon you. My love prays continually for Me to remove the stain of sin and to restore new life. I purify this one, cleanse this one, strip this one of darkness and separation. I pour My new wine into this, My surrendered and emptied vessel, for it is only in total surrender and obedience that this one can be used mightily as an instrument to others for My Kingdom and My glory.

I speak to you now of a restored bloodline. Pray - seek Me - repent - walk in complete humility, and I will make all things new. I will restore your very blood, My precious blood in you to function in complete reflection of I AM, the One who breathed you into existence. I will remove any trace of the enemy's curse upon you and in your temple, My Sanctuary. I wish for you to understand what I am asking. My Spirit can not reside in an old wineskin that can not hold My rivers of living water. I must have a vessel that is impervious to the enemy and pure from the inside out as I can not indwell anything that entertains the profane. Do you understand child what I am requiring for My first - fruits remnant? This one (Bride) is who I come for first, so that she may be used mightily to gather the last days harvest and be a light in a world which is being plunged into darkness. You must walk worthily of that for which you have been purchased for. Yes, you hear correctly daughter. You have been purchased, purchased with a price that no one else has done for you. A sacrifice that I would give again and again and again because of My love for you. I know you intimately, better than you know yourself and I have given every one of you the ability to do as I ask. There are no excuses. The Way has been made - the Path is illuminated, victory is won, the battle is Mine, My yoke is easy, My burden light. While they say peace and safety sudden destruction will be upon you and your choice will have been made. I love you so intensely and wish all of you gathered to Me. Choose My Path now - this moment - as I have already spoken it - time as you know it is no more. PRAY! PRAY! Receive Me - receive this gift as I pour out My Spirit upon all who empty themselves to receive Me. This must be done NOW.....

Jehovah Mekoddishkem -The Lord Who Sanctifies You

I WILL TRANSFORM YOU FROM CORRUPTIBLE TO INCORRUPTIBLE - 03/25/14

Daughter, write these words, as many of My children desire further revelation as to how they are to prepare for My return for My Bride. I speak to all of you of purity, of holiness, of a life undefiled. In order that your garment be spotless and without blemish, there must be a complete separation of all things which take your focus off of Me. My chosen must separate themselves out from all earthly temptations and desires. Come out of her My people-come out of Babylon. There is no other way to Me than a complete and total abandonment to My will and directive for your lives. I want those in total covenant with Me, who forsake all else to follow Me and My ways, as you must utterly abandon your soulish desires. This life here was never given to you so the focus would be YOU. Can you understand this? It has always been about Me, and what I will accomplish in a soul willing to empty itself as a vessel to be poured into. A vessel that with continual refining, cleansing, and purging will be shaped and molded into a powerful instrument wielded for the Kingdom purposes I have ordained from before the beginning of time. I require this cleansing on a daily basis. You must come to Me in everything. Ask My Holy Spirit to circumcise your hearts daily. Pray unceasingly. Be humble, obedient, and contrite of heart. Always serve others, placing their needs ahead of your own. Be encouraging and uplifting in all you say and do. Pray constantly against bitterness and envy and strife, and know that in your speech lies the power to give life or destroy. Be holy as I am holy. Endure all things for My sake. Lay your burdens down. To whom much is given, much is required, but be mindful the battle is not your own. Pick up your cross daily and follow Me. Those who desire to be My Bride, pray for Me to do a complete work in you NOW-this moment. In doing these things, you open the way for Me to bless you abundantly, and to reveal mysteries of Myself to you that you previously would not have been given. I will come for a mature church, a church that truly and completely understands who I am and what I desire from her. I come for a church who has denied self, has been emptied and broken, a church who then allows Me to do a transformation in her which completely sets her free from the soulish realm of human emotion, will and desire. When this church surrenders fully, it is then that I tabernacle with her and set her free for all time. She then shares My true intimacy and communion and is immune to the corruptible seed. My Divine seed imparted into her transforms her from corruptible to incorruptible, forever altering the very molecular structure of life teeming inside of her, hence, she is made anew, come out of the flesh into eternal life.

These concepts are not difficult to understand, if you only read and study My Word, always praying for the wisdom of My Holy Spirit to work in you. By partaking of My Cup and accepting My Key you will be given wisdom and knowledge, revelation and understanding from on High. There is so much I wish to share with My cherished ones. There is an urgency though too My precious ones, for the day if far spent and night is come. Much, much is changing in your world every moment of time that is passing. You will not have this opportunity for this level of intimacy always, for the end of things has come. Tomorrow is not guaranteed you. Do you hear these words clearly? All things will soon pass away and there will only be you and Me, face to face. The day of reckoning lies just before you.

COME

THE WINDOWS OF HEAVEN HAVE OPENED FOR MY BRIDE - 04/05/14

Behold, I reveal to you a mystery. I have prepared a work in My chosen ones that has not been done since the beginning. Read My Word concerning My first man Adam. What was done in the beginning will again be so in you My children, My Bride. I will glorify Myself in you, in your emptied and surrendered vessels. Not since the Garden has man operated as One with His Creator, but I tell you now, it will be so once again. Know this too My loves, it has begun. I am pouring out My Spirit upon all who seek Me, and I am re-aligning to the very depths of your being, your true selves, My pure design, the image of the One true God in you. Meditate on the incredible blessing that is bestowed upon you at this time! You will function as One with Me your Creator, We will move and think and speak as One, as it was intended from the beginning. You will speak only love and those you encounter will experience only peace and light and righteousness from on High. The windows of Heaven have opened for you and your prayers are counted, each one, and are answered this day! The veil is lifting and your understanding will be magnified greatly. Come to the foot of My cross daily and I will shower you with wisdom and knowledge from above. Rise above these your current circumstances here and spend as much time now as you desire in the Kingdom of My Heart. The more intimate you are with Me, the better I am able to equip you and prepare you for the great deceptions which are upon you. Only you who stand on the solid ground of My Word will have complete peace when the rest of the world is severely tested. Much evil is planned against you but it can not prevail. Continue to wash your garments in the blood of My sacrifice, and I will continue to pour upon you My living water and My oil of anointing. You have entered extremely turbulent times My children, but you do not walk this alone. I am your Blessed Hope, and through My indwelling of your hearts, We will bring so many out of the darkness. You will only be required to endure for a short time before I gather you to Myself. Be sober, be vigilant, be watchful, and do not cease to pray. Intercede always for the lost. Open your hearts more to receive this Holy indwelling and I will come powerfully. SHALOM

THE CLARION CALL OF THE SHOFAR - 04/25/14

Arise My children, arise! The trumpets are sounding, My Banner flies high. The clarion call goes before all. Valiantly don your robes of righteousness and unsheathe your swords of My Spirit and My Truth. We ride now victoriously upon this earth, gathering to Ourselves this last great harvest. The white horseman of the Apocalypse will know defeat. My Word speaks of a time when you who abide in Me and My Father will do these things and more, I tell you My precious Army, that time is now. The measure of faith promised all who ask shall increase seven-fold. My power and authority belong to you. The standard is raised and no longer will you My sheep vacillate in your faith. It is given you this moment your increase. Give praise and honor and glory to your Kinsman Redeemer, the Son of the Most High God who is shaking Heaven and Earth so that nothing unholy will remain. Stand firm! Stand firm My anointed and chosen Ones, it is begun. Speak boldly and courageously to all you meet. This is the critical hour. The fury of the evil one grows darker and more intense each moment. Many, many will fall into deception and despair. My Army, confront this darkness head on, face to face. My anointing is upon you and you must speak forcefully and with power from on High My Words of Truth. Rescue all you can from the snares of the enemy. Lead all to My Heart and tell them there is a way out of hopelessness and despair for I AM THE WAY. My Holy Spirit is pouring out the oil of anointing upon each One of you in order that your oil lamps remain full at all times. I am come unto the hearts of men and My reward is upon the righteous and humble in heart. We walk as One as My sheep know My voice. Nothing compares to the promise My own have in Me. I assure you, the strength you need is given from My Heavenly Father above. As heirs of My Kingdom you have full access to any and all resources for these final steps. Call upon the ministering spirits to assist you. Proclaim My Holy Word as I AM THE WORD. Operate within the realm to which you belong. You are hedged in, above, below, behind and on all sides. My army rides untouchable and without defeat. We ride and set captives free, breaking strongholds and bringing deliverance and joy of heart. All will behold My Glory. All creation will proclaim who I AM. Ride proudly My Beloved as your robes are washed clean from the stains of sin and death with My precious Blood sacrifice. You are Mine for all eternity and I have found favor in you My Bride. Nothing could ever separate Us. I have reserved special graces for you which are now being poured out because of the immensity of My love for My espoused. Rise to Me My sweet Ones, rise unto your King, the Lover of your soul. My love for you transcends all. I have been preparing you for this moment of NOW. Draw from the well of My Heart for everything. I sustain and fill and strengthen and nourish you. The Armies of Heaven are ready and prepare to ride. The call of My Shofar reverberates across the lands.

I WILL BRING GLORIOUS MANIFESTATIONS AND HEALING AMONGST THE IMMINENT PURIFICATION COMING - 05/12/14

All authority in Heaven and on earth has been given to Me by My Father. I have the power to give this authority to those I choose and My Bride, My Jewel is whom I have chosen this day. I have been speaking of a time when We walk as One, Our hearts blended together and this time has come. We embark on Our rescue mission of souls. As My Spirit courses through every fiber of your beings, you will receive in unconditional love all those who are being led to you now. You are in your positions of leadership and many will be sent to you, desperate for truth and light. Bring them to My Table where they may feast on My Manna, providing all spiritual nourishment they have so desperately been seeking. Feed My sheep, nurture them, guide them from darkness to purity and love. Dress their wounds with gentleness, grace, mercy and compassion. The purification that is imminent for the world will bring many, many souls to you in need of sustenance. Allow Me to fill them to overflowing as My rivers of living water flow through you My Bride. Your sensitivity to them will carry them through their sufferings and make their way straight. You will witness great and glorious manifestations of healing and provision everywhere I send you. Some of you now have already been given a preview of the mighty ways in which I am and will be using you. Your complete surrender renders you an extremely powerful instrument for My Kingdom and no power of darkness can stand against Us together. Step BOLDLY My children with all authority given to you from your King into that which you have been purchased with, and purposed for. You each bring such joy to My Heart. You My Bride are My ruling body and My Council of Leaders. The infusion being poured upon you this moment brings all your needed strength, your increase of faith, and the courage to face the darkest battle this world has ever known. You will equip others quickly and then I will bring you home to Me.

THE GARDEN OF TRAVAIL AND THE GARDEN OF MY HEART'S GLORY - 05/25/14

Daughter, write these words to My children. I wish for them to understand the Gardens. My Bride is of One Heart with Me as We labor in the Garden of Gethsemane once again. Your sorrow at the tremendous darkness that has enveloped this earth is My sorrow. Not only does the earth groan and travail and long for My return, Our Hearts are terribly grieved and exceedingly pained as we watch one after another of Our loved ones slipping further and further away from My Fathers loving embrace, His ever compassionate Heart. As I prayed in this Garden of sorrow for this cup to pass Me by, so My Father and I too hear your cries of desperation as you face what appears to be insurmountable situations. However, continue to pray that My will alone is done in this place, especially when you don't understand, or when you feel your efforts are fruitless. I have girded you with the strength to fight this battle. Persevere children, it is almost done for you. Do not be tempted to give up and never let your guard down. At this point, you must remain ever vigilant, ever sober, watchful and alert. You are waging war against all the powers of hell and although your spirit is willing to obey, your flesh is not of Me. Pray unceasingly that the weight of My glory rests upon you for this final stretch. For after this terrible hour of trial which is come upon you, shall such splendor and glory befall all those whose robes have been washed clean by My righteousness. Therein you enter the garden of My Fathers Heart, your ark of safety, your ark of rest. A love unlike anything you've ever known awaits you. Enter into My Sanctuary My loved ones, as the darkness swirls around you, step boldly into the Holy of Holies and be immersed. It is in your obedience in doing this that I will show you how to overcome all that you face now. Remember-remember-you are victorious. I have seen you through to the end. The Garden of My Fathers Heart is your only refuge. Run to this Garden Beloved, for I have given you the Key. Enter into its gates and behold My treasure within.

A MOST CRITICAL HOUR - 06/08/14

Child listen and listen well. This moment now you have been given must be used wisely. All of My Bride is being given an opportunity to rest in the Garden of My Heart. You are being prepared in ways you know not. Your objective must remain firm and your focus steadfast. The enemy seeks to uncover all of My plans, but this I will not allow. Use the sword of My Spirit for your battles. Resist the enemy and he will flee from you. Allow Me to remove the final resistance of your flesh so you only operate in the Spirit. You can remain in the world but not of it when you have severed all attachments to your soulish nature. (your mind, intellect, feelings, emotions, desires). This final detachment is absolutely crucial before I come for a spotless Bride. You must make yourself ready for I am so very close now. Can you feel Me here? Are your oil lamps full? For I come as a thief in the night to those who have not heeded My instructions. Do not be caught unaware. All is unraveling at alarming speeds as great chaos envelopes your planet. This earth's very foundation will be rocked to its core. Mountains will crumble and fire from the sky will devour much. A great day of reckoning is upon the land and time is no more. Run to the ark of My Heart children, run to the safety of your Father's Heart as I come to put an end to all injustice and judge the wicked and the unrighteous. Hear the cry of My Heart to yours in this your desert experience. Remain anchored in Me your Rock. I will quell all your fears and My supernatural wall of fire will insulate you and keep you from harm until I come for you. I am revealing much to My Bride at this hour to prepare you for you will glorify Me greatly in your obedience. This is a most critical hour children. Watch-wait-and pray unceasingly, for I come quickly!

QUICKLY MY BRIDE~ REND YOUR HEARTS FOR A PURE AND SPOTLESS GARMENT - 06/10/14

There is a garment daughter, a garment which I offer to every one of My chosen Bride. A garment that has been woven together out of the very depths of My Father's Heart, the Center of all that has been breathed into existence. You have been washed clean as My Bride, purchased by the ultimate sacrifice of obedience by My spilled blood on that day at Calvary. I have made you worthy to receive the full indwelling, the complete infusion of the most ultimate Love that will ever be known, that pours out of My Father's Heart for all who accept this treasure and choose the path that separates you from the physical realm, and allows you to dwell freely in the Kingdom you were born, into the Kingdom in which you were purchased. This was done in order that you could enter freely and have full access to all My Father has designed for you and so that you may take your rightful place with Me as heirs to the eternal Kingdom. I desire that you would understand the garments daughter. There is My Robe of Righteousness, the garment that has taken every sin the world has even known or will know and abolished them forever, allowing you entrance to the Holy of Holies, directly to My Father's Heart. This garment is the result of the most horrific rejection of pure love by all I had come to save. My Father turned away from all that was not of Him, all that I had allowed to be placed on Me as I carried your curse for all time on that road to Calvary. I made the way for you so you could never say that it could not be done. You wear this garment, My Robe of Righteousness as you die to self each day, surrender and obey, and My Father hears every word you utter in prayer and collects every tear you shed as you walk out the course designed for you. You are made clean by the blood of the Lamb, Me, your sin offering for all time.

There is a deeper understanding I wish you to know at this time daughter, as it serves to explain what is required of My Bride, My first-Fruits remnant in order that your garments are made pure and spotless, without blemish. I come for a holy Bride, one who understands truly the requirements of being wed to Me, and being fully joined in covenant union as One in Heart, Soul, and Spirit. This My love is the inner garment that I desire you to don. This inner garment is Me. Clothe yourself in this garment, clothe yourself in Me. Exhibit all that Our Father has designed you to be in total unity with Me. Don the garment of Me that is the most pleasing aroma to Our Father's Heart. This inner garment of Me joined completely to you will cause you to rend your heart and allow Me to strip away all that is not birthed out of pure unconditional love. I will infuse this woven fabric of pure love directly into your being, your heart, your life's source of breath, and My new wine will flow through your temple, My Sanctuary, knitting you as One in Love with My Father, Myself, My Spirit, and then to all others. This is how you are made anew. This is how you will be made to overcome. This is how you will go forth, spilling this love to all I place in your path, gathering to Our Father's Heart, the lowly and the lost. Accept My sacrifice and My Robe of Righteousness that has purchased full access to the Holy of Holies. Then rend your heart and allow My Love infusion which will completely transform you in your inner being. My will replaces your will. My desires become your desires. My thoughts and intentions become yours. My concerns become yours. I will have My way then with you.

In this way, you will become the perfect reflection of pure love poured forth from Our Father, Creator of all, and birthed through you because of My purchase in total obedient sacrifice. So daughter, tell them all, now, as I am coming so quickly! Rend your hearts and complete your infusion now. Give Me all your heart-all of it-NOW. Set Me as the Seal upon this your heart, and allow Me to put My signet ring on your finger. I love you with a love immeasurable daughter. Go-tell My Bride to do this quickly...

COMPLETE INFUSION OF MY BRIDE, SPIRIT TO SPIRIT - 06/17/14

Daughter, there are things I wish you to continue to seek answers to, more for you to understand, in order for this, My complete infusion of My Bride to take place. The work that I am doing in you is from Spirit to spirit and self and flesh are nothing more than a hindrance to understanding your requirements from Me. When I came in the form of man, and put on the flesh, it was to be an example that you are able to walk here in this realm while operating only by My Spirit and My truth. I AM your model and your example. Think of this child. During My prayer and anguish in the Garden of Sorrows, I prayed for the Cup to pass Me by, but only if that was My Father's perfect will. You are doing the same while seeking Me in your trials and challenges in this life. But just as I lived to serve My Father and glorify Him in all I was doing, you as My Bride are doing the same by walking that road to Calvary; because of My obedience to accept only Father's will for Me. I was able to anchor My Father's pure and unconditional love and light, even while being assaulted by all the forces of hell. His complete infusion, Spirit to Spirit, was the only way I could stand against the darkness and be victorious on the Cross. In this same way of denying self, of removing "me" from your life, you too will stabilize and anchor only pure unconditional love to all you come in contact with. When facing what appears to be insurmountable challenges and the most intense darkness, you will have total peace and strength and carry out your tasks here as My Bride in all power and authority from on High. Your mere presence with Me consuming every fiber of your being will bring stability, light, and truth, wherever your feet shall tread. Every word you speak will bring life and healing. All that is not of Me and My Kingdom will flee. The time is now, you must learn to put all desires of self out of the way so nothing will be a distraction or a hindrance to you as I reveal critical instructions to My Bride that have previously been hidden. Trust in Me with all you have knowing I walk you through this, step by step, hand in hand, heart to heart-Spirit to Spirit. So much will be revealed to you when you lay aside all your expectations and limited understandings. I came so that you would have life, and have life more abundantly. Give everything to Me this day child, complete surrender as I did in the Garden, your vulnerabilities, your weaknesses, your hopes and desires. I AM will show you another way. I AM will reveal mysteries to you that you couldn't previously imagine possible. I AM will satisfy and fulfill your every need above and beyond anything you could ever imagine. Will you allow Me to do this completed work My Bride? Will you allow Me to take you to heights you would have never thought possible? I AM will do all these things and more. Do not delay daughter in your obedience-the time is upon you and the day is far spent. Enter in completely to Our Heart.

CONSUMMATING THE COVENANT OF ESPOUSED TO BELOVED - 06/25/14

My children, My Bride, how will I help you understand all that I am asking of you? Abiding in Me is a commandment that has many meanings. You were not chosen before the foundation of time to come here for a 'me' experience. I have sent you here to be an expression and an extension of My heart. It is this simple, yet completely profound. Abiding in Me grants you an intimacy like no other. True intimacy satisfies deeply, spirit to spirit, removing the distractions of the flesh and allowing you a freedom which can never be attained in this realm while operating in a carnal nature. Your soul nature came about at the Garden, when My beautiful creation made the free choice to mandate their own destinies. Pride entered in, and suddenly man knew what was best for himself. Rather than have complete surrender in every moment to My will for his life, Adam used his free will to become the designer of his purpose here. Just as I spoke to him about his decision to operate outside of My will for him, I speak to you now. This understanding is crucial now for My Bride as I will only come for her as spotless and holy. I have chosen a Bride, a spouse for My Son and she must abide in Him as He abides in Me. She must walk in complete intimacy with Us, laying down absolutely everything this world has to offer in order to be consumed by the fire of Our love. A yielded and moldable vessel, one who is empty of self, self-will, emotions, desires, expectations and intellect. You have not designed your purpose here and will not yet fully understand until I bring you home. In your obedience however, you are being asked to trust Me beyond the shadow of a doubt that what I have purposed for each and every one of you is lovingly ordained for your best interests, and that I can never fail you. As your Creator, I understand your hearts, your fears, your limitations. Because I AM your Creator you can do nothing outside of Me anyway. So children, why strive as you are doing? Lay it down-lay it all down. Welcome My instructions and My discipline as it is only in this that you will find true peace. In doing this, in finding the truest intimacy that only I can provide, you will then be prepared to receive all I send you in this last harvest as you will have been pressed and crushed, stripped of all but Me and you will be radiant and overflowing to all around you. My refiners fire serves to ensure My Son's Beloved is Our purest extension of love made manifest. How privileged to have been chosen for such a time as this My precious ones. Press in now this final time. Become made new into the finest wineskin of your Artisan, so My unending love pours through your purified vessels, quelling the darkest darkness, and consummating the covenant of Espoused to Beloved.

YAWEH YOUR FATHER

PRAY FOR YOUR TRANSFORMATION TO BE COMPLETE - 07/23/14

My children, just as you desire intimacy with Me, I am desiring intimacy with you. I would ask that you would give Me your heart, all of it, holding nothing back. I long for you to spend time with Me, in the Garden of Our Father's Heart, showering you with My love and My affection. I love you like no other will, and My Bride is the apple of My eye. Continue to ascend love, higher and higher, deeper and deeper into Me. Allow Me to consume every fiber of your being, therefore transforming you from corruptible to incorruptible. I have spoken this and it shall be so according to My perfect will. I have called you out in this generation, My royal priesthood, My chosen Ones, to assist Me in the final gathering of the lost to Me as this age draws to a close. It is time children, it is time. This world no longer holds anything for you. It is My Kingdom which holds its domain in your heart now. This is My resting place in you. Pillars in the temple of a holy God are you, brilliantly radiating My love in the darkness. Shine blessed Ones of the Lord, for you are clothed in My Robe of Righteousness and your sword is My Sword of Truth and of Light. Victory has been won! I AM your inheritance and your exceedingly great reward-rejoice I say, REJOICE! Your transformation brings all the powers of Heaven with it, and you will do great and wonderful things in My name and for My glory. Oh what a blessed generation to have been chosen before the foundation of time to fulfill these tasks for the Kingdom. Great is the reward of My faithful Ones. Take up your arms My soldiers as the battle has commenced. Forward and ever higher into the depths of Our love for you. As you release more and more of this life, I bring you ever closer to your complete transformation. All limitations will be removed and you will only operate from Spirit to Spirit. My Bride is My Heart, and I desire to complete this work in you. Pray that it be done according to My will My Beloved and it shall be so.

BETWEEN TWO KINGDOMS - 07/30/14

My Bride, My heart, come yet closer My Beloved and allow Me to embrace you and provide nourishment for your soul. Had I not walked in this realm and felt what you are feeling, I would not be able to minister to you as I am now able. You walk between two Kingdoms. A resident of Our Father's eternal Kingdom, but called to operate here in this your earthly dimension for a time and a season. I know your struggles and I know the resistance you experience in the flesh. As you are being transformed more and more to resonate with Me as spirit to Spirit, your carnal nature resists this change, this stripping away of all that is not of Me, all that does not glorify Our Father, and you feel bound by tethers unseen. Your heart yearns and longs for the fulfillment of its deepest desires, union with your Creator. But because you are physically called to remain here and continue to anchor My love and My light to a world plunged into darkness, you feel caught in between dimensions. I tell you that you are as free as you will allow yourself to be. Set your eyes on Heavenly things. Stay immersed in the Garden of Our Father's Heart for therein you will enable your transcendence into complete spirit. Only then will the tethers that hold you bound here dissolve away as My grace flows in abundance upon you and then out to others. Continue to pray for Me to sever all attachments to this existence and seek only My Kingdom will. Your training now serves to lay the foundation and the groundwork for this transition from flesh to Spirit, corruptible to incorruptible, mortal to immortal. I AM revealing mysteries to you that have previously not been understood. The time is now and has come for all to be revealed for the end time plan of My Bride, My Jewel. Do not limit yourselves at this time for I AM limitless and you are in Me and I in you and we are in Our Father. My sword is drawn and I come to unite all who are in Covenant with Me for this My last battle. I will judge swiftly and severely, all who are not covered in My blood. Our Spirits will work in harmony to divide light from darkness, rendering the enemy bound. Make your transition now My Bride, My end-time Army for the darkness comes quickly and I will make Myself known to all. I AM COMING....

THE GREAT I AM HAS SPOKEN THIS DAY - 08/06/14

Daughter of the most high God, cry not dear one for all that must take place. All that has been done will now be undone, the end from the beginning. I will overturn all things. There is nothing new under the sun. What has been spoken forth will ensue. The horsemen ride, death and destruction run rampant in the earth. The wages of sin is death, it is all around you. Run to the fountains of My mercy as the rebellion of the wicked overshadows the earth. I will turn My face no longer from the mockery and the blatant rebellion of a people defiant and hard-hearted. Justice will be served. Great and terrible things will befall your lands as My sword brings down all that is not of Me. Be still and know that the Great I AM has spoken and all will come to pass. Harken to My voice as I thunder across the globe. Those that have defied Me will know their demise. All must be torn down in order that it may be raised up again, glorious and new, pure and radiant with My light as it was purposed in the beginning. To understand the beginning is to know the end and My children the end is come. The very foundations of creation are being shaken as all creation groans for My return. The very rocks cry out for deliverance from the curse of these fallen lands. Whoa to the inhabitants of these lands for I say to you Babylon is fallen! Babylon is fallen! The mountains will be made low and I will withhold the crops and their yield. Your waters will be poisoned and their nourishment withheld. The skies will roll back as a scroll and chaos will overtake your lands. Hear Me My people, for the Lord God Yaweh has spoken it! I will be exalted among the heathens, I will be exalted in all the lands.

Stand aside My Bride , My set-apart ones as My indignation passes and allow Me to hide you under My pavilion, under the shadow of My wings for I will provide for you and protect you always. As you stand on the solid ground of My truth and My Word, you, My end-time warriors will be endowed with all spiritual gifts from above. You will be used mightily to wield My Sword of Righteousness as I manifest Myself in and through you for all to behold. Let the glory of the Lord rise amongst you now. You have been infused as One in Spirit with My Son and with Me. Raise the standard and declare My people the Day of the Lord is upon you!

LET IS BE DONE AS IT IS WRITTEN -- I AM CONSUMING FIRE - 08/13/14

Dear brothers and sisters,

Last night during prayer, I was repeatedly shown the burning bush of Mt. Sinai and Our King Yahushua in its midst as I looked on. I was standing on a sea of glass which was the ground and the Lord spoke that I was on holy ground, His Bride is now on holy ground. I knew He wished to convey something to us, and kept asking His will and the words to come, however, He simply stood amidst the fire and the scene replayed three times. I was led to read Exodus 3, and then today in prayer on the mountain, was given the words for this vision. As Yahushua was speaking, I was also hearing the beautiful scripture of Song of Solomon, as He lovingly and poetically spoke to His Bride.

My family, are you ready to receive your Groom? He is coming...He is coming...

Shalom,

Julie

Behold My love, My holy presence is an ever-consuming fire before you. My glory is come to you My precious Bride. Allow Me to consume you completely as you immerse yourselves in My all-consuming love for you. You have entered into My Heart and you now stand on Holy Ground. Be holy as I AM holy. Remain fixed here with Me My Beloved, with your feet firmly placed on the solid ground of My truth. All of your nourishment comes from the essence of who I AM. I AM your endless Supply. Behold My Glory! You are hedged in on all sides, above and below. I AM your Shield and your exceedingly great Reward. I AM from everlasting to everlasting. I have beckoned you to Me and you have come. I yearn for your companionship and earnestly seek intimacy with you. You delight Me My Bride and My Glory will now remain with you, never to depart from you. You are sealed and you radiate My presence from within you. Come away with Me Beloved for I must make all things new. Do not delay, come away now. You are most cherished to Me and I wish to hide you away from all that is upon you. The hour is very late and much will commence. Be at peace dear ones, for you were purposed for such a time as this. Fear nothing as the Heavenly Host assist you. All power and authority is given to you from on High. My Holy Fire consumes you. Let it be done as it is written..

BLESSED ARE THOSE PERSECUTED FOR MY NAME FOR THE KING HAS CHOSEN YOU AS HIS BRIDE - 08/18/14

Daughter of the most High God, listen while I speak. Allow Me to soothe the pains and the sorrows of this life and bring you deeper into Me. Blessed are you who are persecuted for My names sake, for yours is the Kingdom of Heaven. You walk a lonely road and so much of the time you can not see the path illuminated ahead of you. You walk amongst dangerous territory, it is all around you. I come not as the Lamb now but as the roaring Lion of the Tribe of Judah, come to divide truth from lies, light from dark, the faithful from the unfaithful. My Sword of Truth will penetrate every heart on this planet as I overturn all things. The hidden thoughts and actions based in pride and selfishness, vanity, greed and lust will be exposed. I will cause the mockers and the scoffers to choke on their own words. Their arrogance will be their demise. I know your pain dearest one, for I too suffered betrayal, deceit, and mockery. I allow nothing to be experienced that I have not already overcome. It is through these tears of sorrow for this great separation of loved ones that your faith will be made stronger as I use your broken and contrite heart to win the lost back to Me. You must bleed love as I did. Turn the other cheek. Pray for your enemies. It is only this way that My victory will be made manifest in your life. Love conquers all. Love covers a multitude of sins. Lead them back to Me by example no matter what the cost. Despair not child for all else is fading away, but I will never leave you or forsake you. The signs are everywhere child and increasing in intensity moment by moment. I am coming for My Bride. You are Mine, you are My Beloved and so very soon I will bring you home to Me. Be anxious for nothing for the King of Kings and Lord of Lords has chosen you for His Bride.

NO STONE WILL BE UNTURNED, THE HEART MOTIVE OF EVERY SOUL WILL BE EXPOSED - 08/29/14

The stage is set and all unfolds exactly as it has been written and is foretold. As pawns on a chessboard the players take their positions, although oblivious to My Supremacy over all the earth. Nothing occurs outside of My perfect will or My consent. I have spoken to My end-time prophets and do confirm that this, your generation will see My return. Events come now in rapid succession and the chaos in every aspect of life escalates. As was done in the beginning now all will be made undone. To know the beginning is to know the end. I AM a God of order, and I AM will bring order out of chaos. Just as all was so intricately knit in its formation, it must be unraveled and loosed to be made new again. I AM will leave no stone unturned. The magnitude of what is unfolding is unlike anything ever witnessed on this earth before now. Every nation without exception will be impacted by My judgements. I AM come to make war and to establish justice. My Robe runs crimson with blood. The heart motive of every soul will be exposed to the brilliance and radiance of My presence. Therein the choice is made. Many will fall to their knees in humility and repentance when in the presence of Almighty God. Some will continue to choose eternal death. All have a choice. I AM forces no one to love Me.

You need not fear the terror of the night however My chosen, for I AM has established Myself in and through you as you have enthroned Me upon your heart. I AM requiring now that you come together as One Body, One Spirit in Me in complete unity across the lands, anchoring My Glory which now rests upon My Bride, My Beloved. The ransom has been paid and you must climb upon Me the ladder to access the resources and storehouses of blessing that My end-time army requires to remain fully engaged and powerful in Me for all that is coming to pass. Pray unceasingly, remain sober and alert. Be courageous and walk in complete faith and victory. Your obedience will assist many in coming home to Me. My peace remains always with My Beloved, My Heart..

THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH ROARS - 09/01/14

Write these words child to warn My people for a sudden destruction is upon you. Woe to those who call good evil and evil good, for the day of reckoning is at hand. Calamity after calamity will befall this nation as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah roars. Abaddon the destroyer is upon you. You must remain in a state of grace at all times for you know not which hour I will require you. It is I daughter, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, come to render judgement where judgement is due. Rend your hearts children and rid yourselves of all unrighteousness as this is an abomination in My sight. I have been more than merciful in My warnings to this earth but the time is come for the fulfillment of all that has been prophesied. Great destruction comes. Are your garments made clean by My blood, the blood of the sacrificial Lamb? You have known for some time of the impending judgements but they will still seem to come upon you suddenly. Prepare! Prepare! The Horsemen of the Apocalypse are loosed and will not be hindered until all has come to pass in My Word. Night is come, darkness descends. I AM the only solid foundation on which you can stand. Keep your feet firmly planted in My Word of Truth for it is alive and breathing and all-powerful. Proclaim Me with all boldness and hesitate no more to announce My coming. All will know of My coming and be found without excuse. Fire will rain down over all the earth and mountains will dissolve like snow before the great and terrible day of the Lord. Those who have perpetuated evil will know their demise. Fast and pray My children and be ever watchful for My hand will move quickly. Be not afraid and hide yourself in the Garden of My Heart where all peace may be found. I love you as only your Creator could. Enter in fully to Me and you will be well.

KNOW THE HEART OF THE FATHER - 10/05/14

My children the great separation is upon you. You know this. The division is begun even in your own households. The wheat must be separated from the chaff. As it is written so it will be done. Knowing My Word you know what is to come and what is already occurring. Therefore you know exactly how to respond.

You have been trained, you have been taught. You know My Word and you know it to be truth. The way is narrow children and it becomes even more so now but you must stay on the path. Do not look to the right or to the left. I walk ahead of you and make your path straight. Follow in My footsteps, I will lead you home. I will never forsake you, even until the end of the age and children that is rapidly approaching. You will see My return. You have sowed good seed, continue to do so. The fields are ripe for the harvest. I need My laborers to be obedient and follow exact instructions. Many will come to know Me personally and intimately because of the seed in which you've sown. Hesitate not to speak My truth. It is in My Word, it is infallible. As I said earlier today, the enemy can not come against this. He will not stand. Their accusations against you My chosen priesthood will not stand. I warn you ahead of time as I always warn those I love. I always speak to My prophets about what is coming. I always prepare you and prepare your hearts so that you will respond in the likeness of My Son. They are without cause, they walk in fear. See it for what it is, it is darkness, utter darkness they abide in. Show them how to abide in Me as you abide in Me. Show them My love, My Heart, My ways, My fruits, My gentleness, My compassion. show them My love. It is the only ways they will see Me, for they have been so enslaved by this world. They are lost, so many are lost. They are all precious to Me and I delay in coming for I wish not one would perish eternally for this is grave and sorrowful in My sight. I care for each and every one of My children no matter how sinful they have become. Continue to intercede for them. I have purposed this for you. Intercede on their behalf. They don't know how to do this. They don't know that they can approach Me. They don't see a loving and merciful God. This is not how I AM presented in this world. I have become so distant. I have become a genie God, a God of wishes and fairy tale thinking. This is not reality but they have been lured into a false sense of security which is so far from the truth. And they are falling, they are falling by the thousands and by the tens of thousands into darkness and My Heart is sorrowful and My Heart grieves for each and every one for they are the ones who made this choice. It is not I that would ever want this for My Beloved. For every one of you is My creation. You are all precious in My sight. Children the time is now. I AM bringing you out of this fallen nature and you will operate directly in My flow without the hindrances of this vessel. You are doing exactly as I have told you to do and as I have spoken before, I will reward your obedience. Continue on your path. Keep your eyes Heavenward towards Me at all times. Much deception is coming, is already here. This abaddon in which I speak is mighty, is powerful. This is satan himself children. These are his final moments, his final assault is upon this land. Many will fall because of what He is doing and be lost. This is a time like no other. More will be lost, yes but more will also be saved than any other time. This is My great harvest. Lead them home to Me for this is why you were created. A very special and purposeful mission you have been given. I have entrusted you as My priests, this My burden for My people. As you operate more and more from My Kingdom perspective and not of this world, you will find the transition will become easier. I will give you renewed strength and you will ride on the wings of eagles. I will carry you in My Spirit and pour out enough grace for each task at hand. Remember too children you are never alone. Clouds of witnesses surround you at all times, interceding on your behalf. As it is spoken in My Word in James, the prayers of a righteous man avail much. They avail much in My Kingdom. Many are praying. Many anxiously await the return of My Bride, My Beloved. Oh what a joyous celebration that has been prepared for you. The days become shorter and shorter as events exponentially increase. Truly time is no more. Continue to rise, rise ever higher. Don't look back. There is nothing you have come through or out of that you need to go back to. This is a new beginning. I AM bringing you up and out of everything old. The former things are passing away. I make all things new. As the mountains dissolve and the seas roar the wind of change is here. With My breath I pour our grace and mercy and My anointing upon My chosen, My Bride for these last days and these last moments. You will prevail. You are My victorious in My Son. Victors in My army. I AM your stronghold and your strong tower and this battle is won, this battle is Mine. I fight for you-I go before you. Multitudes will rise against you but they will not prevail. To you has been granted all power, all authority, all access and resources of My Throne. Stand firm, be bold-be courageous. Do not waver. Hold fast children. Hold fast. March with strength. The strength that I provide and vigor- in all righteousness and holiness and purity and truth for this is that in which you are cloaked. It is My battle accoutrement that you are wearing perfectly suited for each task, impenetrable, unshakable, this is My people. Ever faithful, ever obedient, never succumbing to the deceptions of the wicked one. As part of your impartation these days, this week you have asked for, you now have a greater measure of humility, of faith, of wisdom, and of My Heavenly knowledge. Know this has been granted. Ask My Spirit to help you, to help you use these gifts mightily for Me and My glory for this is why they have been given. These you will need when you minister to all those I send you. Do not try to understand them with your minds children. My Spirit will help. Rest and know that the impartation has taken place and activated and you will speak forth as needed. It is nothing you must work for. It has been done. My Son is coming, He is coming, He is coming! He rides with all the armies of Heaven in His Robe of Righteousness dipped in His very blood, His life's blood, with the title King of Kings and Lord of Lords for this is who He is. He comes for My people and children He is coming! Never doubt that He is coming soon. The trumpets are resounding. Listen closely. Stay ready. I have placed you here in these lands to prepare you and welcomed you to live in My Kingdom now so that when the suddenlies are upon these lands you will not be one to be shaken. When all is crumbling around you and chaos ensues My Bride will stand firm and be strong and lead others and speak of peace because you know their reality is not your reality. Nothing you see or hear in this reality is truth or real and you know this now. I will allow to see more and more into the spirit realm as needed for your reassurance and your instruction. But know this now that when events come you shall not be moved for in the blink of an eye all will be transformed. It is nothing to fear. You must remain in the Holy of Holies always. Do not step back into the inner court even there, for you do not belong. Do not doubt what is being spoken here. Yes My daughter this is like the days of old. My all consuming fire is with My children and I envelope them and love them and teach them and guide them and protect them as I did with My people of old. It is no different. My Spirit remains the same. I change never. I AM the same today, yesterday and tomorrow. I AM the same Father that spoke to Abraham, Moses, to Noah, to David. It is I your Father. I speak in My Word of pouring out My Spirit in the last days. Many times I speak this but they do not believe. Tell them I speak. I love them. I want them to hear what I have to say-if they would only listen. I have never not spoken to My people. I have never not told them what was coming and how to prepare. Why would a loving Father do such a thing? This is where the enemy has caused great deception in that men do not know a loving Father. Show them who I AM. Do you see how My blood flows down over the mercy seat to you? It still pours forth to all. It is always about the blood. A life freely given. Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and a way will be made and the door will be opened. Through the blood covenant that I have with you children, this is covenant, and you understand. Teach those who don't understand what this means. Teach them what is required. This is how they will find Me. You have all been blood bought. This is everything. They need this information. It is the key, it is the core, it is the whole truth. It is everything. My blood poured out in covenant for all so that sins would be forgiven and eternity would be spent with Me. This is what you tell them. Nothing else is acceptable. Show them and teach them truth for they are filled with lies. They do not know up from down, right from left. Everything is in chaos in their lives, in their minds, in their families. You hear them speak, they question everything for they have no ground to stand on. All other ground is sinking sand. This is why they are drowning. They have chosen paths that are not of Me. Their foundations are faulty and they are crumbling because I AM bringing it down. I AM will not allow these things to stand any longer. It is all coming down. Entire systems are failing. Everything is crumbling and My people are terrified. They will run to the nearest and quickest solution which is the worst lie that has ever been perpetuated. They will lose their souls. They will lose their souls for a morsel of bread. They will trust in a system that does not even exist. Everything they operate in is illusory. This is why you must show them the way.

At this time, a vision of Calvary is revealed and hell below with so many souls being lost as Yahushua is dying and bleeding into the ground below. The perspective is from His right shoulder as He hangs over the earth.

I show you My Son, hanging on that tree at Calvary to help you understand the sorrow of your Father's Heart. I watched My Son bleed out His life for a people who would reject Him, hate Him and mock Him. All He wanted to do was love them. I show you what He saw as He hung there, the ground opened up, and My Son watched My creation, My beautiful children, being sucked into the pits of hell because they never knew the truth. So many millions of souls He saw that day as He hung there dying for each one. And there was nothing He could do to stop them because they chose their own path when there was always another way.

Know the Heart of your Father. Know the depths of His love for you..

GOD YOUR FATHER

My dearest brothers and sisters in the Lord. I can not begin to describe to you the intensity of receiving this message from our Father. He allowed me to experience the sorrow of His Heart, not only the sorrow for each and every soul that is lost to hell each day, but the extreme sorrow of a Father who watched His Son suffer the most brutal and horrific type of death ever known, knowing that many would still reject His overwhelming offer of love through His Son's sacrifice. The horror of seeing Yahushua on that cross, His blood spilling onto the earth as He cried for all humanity with a love we can't comprehend, knowing that even His most ultimate sacrifice would not be enough in most mans' eyes to choose a relationship with Him. The Father was speaking above and behind me as I watched this scene from Yahushua's right shoulder, truly experiencing His remorse for the lost and His heartache. It was beyond indescribable. Please seek Him like never before, and ask Him to reveal this love to you, this immense love that only a Father, a Creator can have for His children. He wants all of us to understand the magnitude of this love, and His Son's ultimate sacrifice now.

Shalom,

Julie

THE HOURGLASS IS EMPTY---IT HAS BEGUN - 10/22/14

Message received: October 20, 2014, 10:30 PM

My daughter, you must focus now more than ever before. I know My Bride is weary, she feels tattered and torn by the cares of this world but you must know that you are never alone and that I walk this out through you. You must know that you are surrounded by My angels and that I will never leave you or forsake you. So much is transpiring not only in the spirit realm but in the natural realm around you and it is difficult to balance in every aspect of your lives. I tell you this, My only requirement is that you be with Me now. I wish for you to stay close to My heart, allowing Me to shower you with My love, keeping you and being the Protector of your heart. Events are rapidly escalating daughter and the world is truly teetering on the brink of collapse. All of the words in My Holy Word are being fulfilled, each and every one. Nothing will hinder what Our Father has begun. It matters not where you are, what you feel you have or don't have, whether you are rich or poor, free or slave, it matters not the conditions all around you. The only thing that matters is your intimacy with Me. Are you washed clean by the blood of the Lamb? Do you wear My cloak of Righteousness? Are you ready at any moment for My return? Have you left the cares of this world behind and truly laid your burdens down? Do you continue to stay in full surrender to My will for your lives? Do you walk in complete obedience on the path that has been lit before you, although narrow? The way has been made. You have been shown daughter several times now the evil darkness that is spreading so quickly over the entire earth. I must render judgment where judgment is due. I must come to avenge the innocent. I must come to establish righteousness in all the lands. Though My Bride walks through the valley of the shadow of death, you will fear no evil for My rod and staff comfort you. I have anointed you with oil and your cup overflows. I have set a table before you in the presence of your enemies. Trust My children and obey. This earth will shake violently and your weather systems will be chaotic. I will bring much devastation to this earth as the Apocalypse Horsemen have been released. Much death and devastation comes to your lands. Cry the message of repentance to My people. Shout to all those who have ears to hear REPENT, be baptized and be saved for the Lord God Almighty is releasing His hand of protection and the time of reckoning has come. All that has elevated itself as being high will be brought low. The proud will know their demise. Tell My sweet and lovely Bride that she is loved beyond measure. Again, I know her weariness and her despair at watching the horrors on the earth unfold, and wondering why the Father waits to send the Bridegroom for His Bride. Know My children that there is an appointed time for My return and nothing, I repeat, NOTHING will change this precise moment or alter it in any way. The moment when Our Father sends Me for you, for He is a God who never changes. Keep the eternal perspective, knowing that you only have this moment of now in My Heart. In My Father's perfect design are events that must occur in a precise order, a precise way before I will come for you. This design is intricate and it is perfect and it is complete. I realize you have done your best in your limited understanding to put the pieces of the puzzle together in order to know the timing of My return, and this is good children for I wish that you would always be prepared, for you know not the day or the hour that your Lord comes. Stay humble and contrite of heart My people. Intercede for the lost for they are many. They know not how they sin against Our Father and against Me. We have been most merciful, gracious, and long-suffering, but the hour is come, it is here, and all will come to pass as has been foretold and the world will see judgment like never before. Woe to the inhabitants of these lands. Woe to those who continue to walk in disobedience, idolatry, fornication, witchcraft and all manner of evil things for they will know their demise and I will not stop until My wrath is kindled. You My Bride, however, are safe under the shelter of My wing and in the cleft of My Heart always. Draw close sweet children, draw close for the world will know that the Great I AM has spoken. The hourglass is empty....IT HAS BEGUN....

Message continued: October 21, 2014, 10:00 AM

Daughter it is I your Kinsman Redeemer, the Lamb that was slain and come to save the world from its sins. In Me you will find your rest. I have come to seek and save the lost, all who are weary, come to the fountain and drink deeply. All who are heavy-hearted and labor and are burdened by the cares of this world, in Me, you will find your rest. Come to Me the only Source of Living Water, the Source of All. I AM your EL SHADDAI. Get out of the boat children, step out onto the water just as Peter My disciple did, keeping your eyes focused on Me and only Me. When all else is sinking around you, you will have no fear for I carry you and hedge you in on all sides. Take this great leap of faith knowing I AM the Rock on which you stand. All other foundations are crumbling, they are coming down forcefully and quickly. Let this be your testimony, this walk of faith, this great act of obedience. Blessed are they that have faith but have not seen, but trust in My Word and all that has been spoken. Let your example be a light to others of the truth of My Word and the love for My people, that I would bring you through seemingly impossible situations. Speak boldly and courageously to all you come in contact with. My Kingdom is come, it is come within you within your hearts. The lost have so little time to choose for no one knows the hour that I would require their life of them. Many will perish at the judgments that have ensued. The greatest battle of all time is at hand. My great commission to you My people is just as important if not more so than when I spoke it on this earth. You are to go and preach My Word to all, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Preach repentance and righteousness and holiness and purity. It is the only way. I AM coming for a pure and spotless Bride, one who knows My ways and My truths and accepts this for their lives. Although so many of you feel so alone in the work you are doing for Me and the Kingdom, know this, that I in you is more powerful than many thousands of the enemy forces against you. You are not alone. My light will always dispel the darkness. Complete childlike faith is what is required at this time. Rise above all outward situations and appearances knowing that this is not your reality. The paradigm shift is underway. I will bring deliverance to My people, Bozrah in the wilderness while the tempest rages on. Great deliverance will you know. As death and destruction, famine and pestilence rain over this earth, My Bride will walk forth powerfully, boldly, and with all authority given under Heaven to minister, to preach, to love, heal and rescue. Such wailing and gnashing of teeth will you encounter but this must be done for judgment to be rendered where judgment is due. Fear not My children for I AM with you. Arise My loves arise, and set My captives free. Who am I you ask, that the Lord of all the earth would care to know your name? I tell you, each and every one of you are priceless in My eyes. You have been purposed and designed intricately for this time of now. Each of you has a very specific task. Never underestimate that you are chosen.

EL SHADDAI

God Almighty, the God of Heaven

THE TEARING OF SPIRIT AWAY FROM SOUL AND THE KINGDOM OF LIGHT VS. DARKNESS - 11/04/14

It is I dear one, the Lamb of God who was slain to redeem the world from its sins for all time. I have come to divide, to divide with the sword. This sword is sharp, this sword is two-edged and it comes to cut asunder those that are not of Me. This is what you are experiencing. The great separation, it is come. All that is not of Me is being shaken. As the darkness becomes increasingly darker, your light becomes increasingly brighter. Much of what you are experiencing is a tearing. It is the separation between soul and spirit. I am tearing you away from that which is old and you are becoming that which is new. Old wine does not get put into a new wineskin does it child? Only the new wine into the new wineskin, all old must pass away and this is what I am doing. It feels like a tearing, it feels like a weight. It feels like something holding you back. This is the great battle, the great fight. The soul nature has its attachments here to this realm and so I am tearing away your spirits from this realm. This is your transcendence, this is your transcendence experience. This must occur in all of its completion and wholeness. Every aspect of the soul nature must die for you are a new creation in Me, a new man in Me. Does My Word not speak of this? And so you are also experiencing this around you as this darkness is covering the lands, those that walk in darkness are becoming increasingly fearful and agitated. Your presence in different locations causes reactions and responses from those that walk in darkness. The darkness and the light can not be in the same place at the same time. The darkness must flee but it does not give up easily children. This darkness grows increasingly intense. It is ever-present everywhere you go. It is quite a force. But remember, remember who you are in Me. For greater is He in you than he that is in the world. Remember the victory is won. Remember I have made a way. It is done children, it is finished. The fight does not belong to you, lay it down. It is My fight, and I have the victory. I alone am triumphant. Give all glory and praise in this My sweet ones for I see the love of your hearts for Me and this is precious. I have hedged you in on all sides, above and below and all around. Nothing can harm you My dear ones, nothing. Though all of hell will stand against you, it shall not prevail. This also is spoken of in My Word. You are My over-comers. Rise to the occasion My army, My Kingdom army warriors, rise! Hold fast your positions! Gird your belts and raise your swords high! Hold My banner of truth for all to see! Speak boldly and courageously in all truth and power and authority given to you from on high for it is My authority and power that has been bequeathed to you. As I have been speaking, cut the ties from the past. Give to Me all of the former things, the broken relationships, your family, your loved ones, all those you care about, the situations seemingly out of control, the major decisions you are facing at this time as you continue to seek My will in these end times. I am calling you to something higher, something different from what you have previously known. Never fear little ones, never fear. Continue to pray for the faith to move mountains and it is and will be granted to you according to the measure that you require. I will allow nothing to happen outside of My will, know this as your truth. As all systems are failing and crumbling and chaos reigns on this planet, those that walk in darkness become increasingly terrified and unstable. What you are experiencing is the great shaking as all is crumbling and fading away. The ground beneath their feet will open up and swallow them should they not choose light and love and Me their Messiah. The day is coming children very very very soon when the choice must be made and whoa for those who do not choose life because death is eternal. So few understand the gravity of this choice in what they are doing. Once again I speak to you this night to see these things from the eternal perspective. You no longer look up for your help comes from Me who lives in you onto others now for I am with always, always, even to the end of days. I never leave or forsake My precious ones, those who have their hearts desire for Me, those who seek intimacy with Me, those who seek Me in every moment. I know your hearts. I will not allow you to fall. I will not allow you to be ripped from the path that I have lit for you. You are My chosen ones for this time. Do not underestimate what I can and am about to do through those that have ears to hear Me and those who are faithful and obedient. Mighty deeds I tell you, mighty deeds will be done for My name and for My glory. The world will know that the Great I AM has spoken and is come. Now go, be at peace. Be anxious for nothing for in a day and an hour that you know not, your Bridegroom will return and you will experience such glory as you have never known. This will carry you through into eternity, and into My Father's heart. Go forth children and do what must be done and be at peace. I LOVE YOU. I AM YOUR MESSIAH, THE HOLY ONE OF ISRAEL, THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS, YOUR EL SHADDAI, YOUR EL OLAM, THE GREAT I AM.....

MY KINGDOM GOVERNMENT NOW - 11/11/14

Daughter tell these words to My children. The time is now in which the government of My Kingdom has been established on this earth. You who have been chosen for this time of now have been strategically positioned and stand ready to receive further instructions. My Bride now rises as My Council of leaders in this place and in the lands across the earth. She stands ready in full battle gear anticipating the directives of her Captain. All of the armies of heaven await My commands as well. You will rule and reign as it is My power and authority given to you to establish righteousness and holiness in this place. The time of fear and doubt, disbelief and uncertainty are long gone for you now hold My eternal perspective in all things. You function as One with Me, One heart, One spirit in Our Father. We wield Our swords mightily to establish justice and render punishment where punishment is due. You My Bride have been given the positions of great leadership during these turbulent times. Stand tall, stand firm, stand fast for this is your highest calling. I have set you apart, ordained you and sanctified you to establish My Kingdom government for these times. All that has led you up to this point is now in the past. You must have complete trust, complete obedience, faith like a child and the desire to serve with all your heart for the time has come to take back what belongs to Me for My Kingdom. Never grow weary My saints, never grow weary for My grace is always sufficient for every task and it is My strength that proves true through your weaknesses. Surrender all, continue to follow every lead to the minutest detail and your journey will be light for I carry your burdens. Raise the flag of victory within your spirits for We will take back what is rightly Ours for the Kingdom. All will know that the GREAT I AM has spoken. Be merciful, be compassionate but continue to run the race that has been set before you knowing that victory is your outcome. I ride with all the armies of Heaven to meet you and together We will bring the lost home. Adorn yourselves with the garments of praise and thanksgiving crying holy is the Lamb that was slain for the sins of the world for all time, who's name is FAITHFUL and RIGHTEOUS and TRUE and who wears this on His robe for all to see. The Heavenly gates have opened children, They come, they come! Harken unto My voice for you who dwell under the safety of His wings shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty and you will say to the Lord, I am your Refuge, Your Trust, your Hightower for this is who I AM. A great and glorious time you have been chosen for, so rejoice and never fear for your Master holds all in His hands. Bow down and worship the Great I AM for your King is come, HALLELUJAH!

YOUR CAPTAIN, YOUR COMMANDER IN CHIEF, LORD OF ALL

BE INTIMATE WITH ME, MY BLOOD IS EVERYTHING - 11/30/14

Here the cry of My heart My people, the love song of your Savior. As I long for relationship with you... for a heart wide open to receive all that I have to give. My life was a life so freely given, without hesitation, without condition, without doubt, without fear. My life's blood poured out in complete obedience for you... because of My intense love for you. Nothing could stop Me from giving all for you.

Love died that day for you so that you would have a way, a way to Our Father, a way through Me. Never has a love like Mine been known, NEVER children- a love that would die for you, again and again and again.

I AM YOUR FIRST LOVE.

I AM everything that you have ever sought for in your heart. I alone will satisfy. I alone hold all the answers. Allow Me to go deeper, ever deeper to reach the very depths of your soul. I wish to be your first love. I wish to rule and reign over your heart.

The blood is everything children. My blood covered all. My blood conquers all. My blood is Our covenant, shed for you and for all men so that sins would be forgiven, so that victory is won, so that you can be One in Me as I AM One in My Father and We are One in Spirit and in truth.

I want all of you children. I gave My all for you, can you not do the same for Me?

So much mercy has been given, so much mercy shown, so much grace poured out. For those who have ears to hear and understand what it is to have My Kingdom within, the Kingdom of God resides within you. It lives within your heart, those who know Me and love Me intimately. Within this intimacy, this love relationship, this blood covenant bond that We share, you will be given blessings upon blessings from My Father, from Our Father. Those who live with hearts wide open receiving all that I have to give will have My peace and will walk a victorious life regardless of outward situations and experiences. I have come for so long, longing for each and every one of you to fully surrender to My will.

But I tell you now, this time as you know it is come to a close. For all must come to pass as has been written. It is time for the culmination of all things. You knew this day would come for it is in My Word and My Word is truth. So I ask you this day, are you in total surrender to Me? AM I your first love? Has My blood washed you and sanctified you and made you holy as I AM holy?

You are blood-bought. Have you accepted this gift in its entirety? Are you walking in My victory and in My righteousness? Is your life a risen one in Me? Will you join Me now in these last days to bring all the lost home? Will you reach the unreached and love the unlovable for Me, as I did for each and every one of you? Will you walk that narrow road of Calvary knowing that victory is won?

I have waited so long My children, I have waited so long.

My blood has purchased you. It is the ultimate price that I paid. My blood makes you holy as I AM holy. My blood frees you. My blood sanctifies you and sets you apart from those who do not walk with Me. My blood ratified Our covenant. My blood covers you. My blood transforms you. My blood nourishes you and sustains you and carries you and washes you. My blood is your banner. It is your access to the Kingdom. My blood is how I have joined you to Me. My blood is the way, the truth, and the life as I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me and My blood. You must take of Me; consume Me. Accept this, My blood poured out for all as your saving grace. My blood redeems you; My blood transforms you.

Kingdom within children, Kingdom within. Reach deeper My loves, reach deeper... for there you will find Me; for I never leave you or forsake you. My love transcends all. Draw closer to Me and closer to My heart in every moment. Be intimate with Me.

Allow Me to sing My love song to your heart. Allow Our hearts to blend into One. Allow this and you will experience such things as you have never known, such glory. Nothing you know here compares to the glory to be revealed to you; you who choose intimacy; you who choose this blood covenant. Choose this My loves, do it quickly. Choose Me, choose love.

Choose eternity in unconditional love, bought for you by your Savior, the Great I AM. For My love knows no bounds. So much love poured out, so much love. Receive My gift in all of its entirety. Receive love. Be bathed in My mercy and My grace and My presence always amongst you. Live in the rivers of My living water. Be covered in My glory for you were created to have relationship with Me, to be One in each other.

YAHUSHUA YOUR FIRST LOVE

IN THIS DAY, THE MIGHTY COUNCIL OF GOD HAS ARISEN - 12/31/14

Sing a new song unto the Lord. Let your song be sung from the highest mountains. Sing Hallelujah to Your God as He has raised a great and mighty Council unto Himself. I AM has called you, My people out of the darkness and into My glorious light. I have girded you with My robe of righteousness and equipped you with My sword of truth. A standard has been raised and I, The Lord God, Creator of all have done a marvelous thing.

Praise Him all ye heavens. Praise Him with dance and with singing. Rejoice! Rejoice Oh you My people, for it is I who dwells within, raising the standard for all to behold. No more will you cry for justice, for justice will reign evermore. No more will fear overtake you, for I will cause all who mock Me to be crushed. Dominion is mine sayeth The Lord.

All you who mourn will be comforted. All you who are thirsty will drink from the fountains of My living waters. All who mourn will I comfort. A great and mighty day is upon you - My called out and sanctified ones, for you are My chosen, the anointed ones ordained from the beginning to tether My Kingdom of Heaven to earth. It is you who now make manifest all that is spoken of in My Word, for it is I your sword of truth who speaks in and through you. You, My Kingdom Council- you now speak My words and all is made manifest. Walk boldly and courageously My anointed ones, for the time is now to take back to Me all that has been stolen. It is My power and authority in which you operate. Although all the forces of hell encompass you... near you they shall not come. My anointed ones cannot be harmed.

My glory covers you and covers this earth, and its blanket is your shield and your defense. Speak life, speak truth, and speak love. Prophecy to all dry and dead bones and I will breathe My life's spirit into the darkest places, the coldest of hearts. Call upon all the resources of heaven, as they are readily available unto you. I am the ladder on which you climb. Nothing is denied My chosen ones as you carry out My work in this place. Miracles upon miracles will occur and all will know that the Great I AM is among them.

Those who have seen much suffering will now cause the enemy to suffer. Those who have endured much pain will cause much pain in the enemy camp. Those who have been persecuted for My name's sake will see the enemy crushed and see his ultimate defeat. Those who have experienced great loneliness and despair because of the enemy will know great joy and peace forevermore. Those who have known poverty and sickness are now richly and abundantly blessed to overflowing and have My healing and My peace. Your sorrow is now become joy.

Woe unto those who have not repented of their sins, nor have come to Me in all humility, for they will know great distress and gnashing of teeth. I will cause them to choke and to vomit on their filthy words, accusations and lies, and their pain will be great. The Great and Terrible Day of The Lord is at hand. In a day when good is called evil and evil is called good, I will bring fire and great devastation to all the lands. None who have walked with evil will escape. My wrath and My anger will not be kindled until My enemies are under My feet. I AM sweeping this earth and in My fury, all that has exalted itself above Me will be brought low.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools reject Me and My commandments.

I, The Lord Your God have spoken this day.

CALL FORTH MOUNTAINS TO MOVE AND IT SHALL BE SO - 01/11/15

The eternal perspective children, it all already belongs to Me. Kingdom perspective, Kingdom mandates. I am in you, you are in Me, so if all belongs to Me, all belongs to you. You are simply extensions of Me. Claim truth, that all is Mine and all will be yours. In My Kingdom there is no lack. When your will is My will and We are perfectly aligned, all provisions and resources are drawn to you. This is a law in My universe. I am your right arm and your right hand. To understand the authority you possess as heirs to My Throne is to know who you are in Me. Learn quickly, learn now, this moment, the power of My spoken Word in this realm, especially when two or more are gathered and in unity in My name. Call forth all purposes and it must be done for all in Heaven, on earth, and under the earth proclaim that I am Lord of all.

True abiding in Me means as you speak and as you operate in this realm, you have a complete trust that all has been lovingly provided and designed for all I have purposed for you and all I have created you to be. Full surrender into the arms of your loving Father never doubting for an instant that I have all in hand. Those who come to Me and learn of Me, have intimate relationship with Me, will walk in great power and authority and be given the greatest measure of faith as it has been requested. It is given to you to rule kingdoms in My behalf.

You have now been given understanding as to the words "King of Kings and Lord of Lords, for you have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you. It is given unto you, My sons and daughters of God to rule and reign with Me in this eternal moment of now. As My leaders, My kings and My lords, you have the authority and ability (because Kingdom is within) to call forth mountains to move and it shall be so.

SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST SURROUNDS YOU-THE NIGHT IS FAR SPENT-MY PEOPLE MUST TAKE AUTHORITY-IT IS TIME - 01/20/15

The battle is in the mind. This is where the enemy lurks. This is where the enemy has most of his dominion-in the minds of My followers. A very powerful word I have spoken about My Spirit and the sword of truth dividing the soul from the spirit. This must be understood.

In order to do what it is I have set before you as My Bride, you must understand what it means to disengage the mind. It is necessary to proceed. I have given you the power to do this for you are made in My image, and I would never give you anything, tell you anything, speak words to you that are not truth. I would never give you anything that you could not handle. I know each of you intimately. You are each on a path that is so detailed, specific and lovingly and intricately designed. Never doubt this. There are things that must occur that are necessary for your growth, that are necessary for the preparations ahead. They are equipping you for what you will walk in very, very soon.

I have called a people out to walk in total power, strength, and authority. My army must be mighty. My army must speak My truth and not hesitate to do so. My army must have a boldness and a courage that no one else displays, for this is who I AM, as My army is in Me and I in them. We are one in spirit. You know who you are and so does the enemy, but this should not deter you in any way from what I have called you to do. This should only serve to strengthen you, empower you and motivate you to continue to walk forward in all that has been ordained. Such power has been given to you from on high. You will soon know exactly what it is you walk in and who you are representing, but for now it is still veiled somewhat. But this is not to be your truth for much longer. I am revealing more every day to My saints. Do not allow these attacks to deter you. Do not disengage from Me. Do not doubt. Do not fear for this is not a spirit I have placed within you. This is a spirit the enemy would wish you to take upon yourselves, your lives and the lives of your families. Do not accept this for this is not My will for you. My Word is truth and My Word is life. This is what I speak. This is what you consume when you eat and drink of Me, when you come to My table and you share this with Me. This is what I give you. Embrace this. This is your truth!

This is a time like no other. I have set before you a table in the presence of your enemies. You will celebrate the Marriage Supper of The Lamb with Me, Your King and sit at My right hand. Of this I promise you! You have My word and My Word is truth. Walk in this in every moment. Do NOT doubt children. Do not doubt.

I am faithful. I am truth. I am the Word. I am the bread of life given unto you, for you are my chosen.

You are the ambassadors, the salt and the light in this place. Be ever vigilant. Be this, for this is your purpose. This is what I have called you to do. Move mightily. Speak powerfully. Educate all those around you. Wield your tongues wisely. Speak of Me for I AM in you and you are in Me and I am in My Father, so therefore, you are in Our Father. We are one in spirit and in truth. One in heart. We cannot be separated. Know this truth. Know this for your lives. We cannot be separated. For that which I have joined cannot be separated by the words of man, nor by the words of the enemy. He hates you because he hated Me first. He persecutes you, but he persecuted Me first.

There is nothing that you will endure that I have not already won, and yes the battle is not yours. This does not mean you do not prepare, but it is My burden to carry. You are nothing against him. It is I in you that is the victory won. It is My desire that more people would speak My words of truth and would want to serve Me in the ways that you have offered to serve Me. So few answer the calling upon their lives to serve Me in this capacity. It must be done. I must have My voice in this place. It has been given unto you to understand the mysteries and knowledge of Heaven of My Kingdom, in and of this must you speak. Do not back down. You will not falter when you walk My narrow path. There is so much in place on either side of you hedging you in- above and below and on all sides that would serve to protect you and keep you on this narrow path because I know the heart of every soul I have created, and I know your desire to serve Me. I will not let you fail. Do not let the accuser convince you that you can fail for I have told you, you will not. This is not your truth. This is not of Me.

Many, many come in My name and say- He is My Lord, I speak for Him. I know Him. Listen to what I say. He is here. He is there. Follow this word. And I have told you in My Word, many will come in these end times and say they are of Me and they will speak words to My children to lead them astray, but you, My sheep know My voice. You know I will never lead you astray. My sheep know My voice. These are false christ. They are anti-christs. Unless you know Me intimately, you will be influenced by the enemy for I have shown you the great darkness that has come upon this earth. It is great indeed and mighty and powerful, but it is short lived. I will not allow this darkness for much longer children.

Did I not also tell you in My Word that I must sift My church first? That the enemies would be those of your own household? Pray for your households for they know not what they do. They know not the words that they speak, and they will come to humility and forgiveness because of that which they speak. The truth will soon be revealed, but I must sift, I must shake. I speak this again and again, over and over to My prophets and My saints that I have to shake, I have to sift. I must, must separate those who are intimate with Me, from those who are not, for this will determine that which they will walk in for the coming tribulation. It will determine their futures. It will determine the capacity in which I use them. They can come to this knowledge now or they can come tomorrow or they can come later, it does not matter. What matters is I do have them. But your paths are individual; they are unique; they are tailored intricately to suit that which I have created, My design, and My design is perfect.

I have never told you that you would understand while on this side of the veil, but I have promised you that you soon will understand and all will be revealed when that veil is lifted. You know Me. You know My voice. You know My words. You know I am faithful. You know My love for you. Trust and obey. What more must I give you? It has been imparted unto you wisdom of the ages. Knowledge and understanding are increasing, ever increasing. Each and every time you consume Me, every time you come to Me in humility, in prayer, in repentance, in surrender, I reveal more to your spirits. You have been blessed beyond what many will ever know on this side, in that it has been imparted unto you understanding. You have been given discernment, knowledge, revelation that is not usual for most. Therefore, the enemy would be envious and jealous and prideful. It is his nature. Anti-christ means everything that is opposite of Me. He is the direct opposite of Me. He is anti Messiah. Where I would shed light and truth, he will shed nothing but deception in the dark. Where I am faithful, he will always disappoint. Where I have the victory, he will always know defeat. Where I would encourage and edify and love, he would tear down and accuse and destroy. I bring life. He only knows death.

I am Your Shepherd and you shall not want. I make you to lie down in green valleys. I have set that table before you in the presence of your enemies. I anoint your head with oil. My rod and My staff comfort you. Though you walk through utter darkness and death all around you, you shall fear nothing for I am always your Shield. Your cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy will follow you all the days of your life and it will be well with your souls. He that walks in the shadow of the Almighty shall dwell under the shelter of His wings. He will find rest for his soul. You need not fear the terror of the night nor the arrows that fly by day for it is My glory that surrounds you- in you, through you, beneath you - all around you. In front and behind, you are hedged in children. Thousands and thousands surround you. They seek to destroy you because you know who you are in Me. You must embrace the truth. You cannot be harmed. I will not allow it. It is My blood covering that seals you and protects you.

My death was not in vain. I have warned and I have warned of the deception that was coming. So few have heeded these warnings. So few understand the depths that the enemy, your adversary would go to stop you, but I tell you he will stop at nothing until his day is done. Until I cast him into the lake of fire, he will stop at nothing to stop my children for he knows, he knows what was done that day. He knows the victory that was achieved at the cross when My blood shed for all men, for all sin, for all death, for all time and there is nothing he can do to change this.

Wash yourselves with the water of My Word. Continue to take of me daily. Come to Me often. You must. Do not fear all that is crumbling around you. You will see much. I am shaking all things. Foundations are crumbling. All that is not of Me is being torn apart and must be so. Walk in holiness and purity and righteousness for this is that in which you are clothed. It is My robe of righteousness that you wear. It is My garments. There was a price paid for this which I give you. The ultimate price. For My love knows no bounds, and I would do this again, and again, and again so that not one would be lost if that is what Our Father required of Me.

This is surrender. This is obedience. This is true love. This is mercy. This is grace. This is forgiveness.

Come as you are and humble yourselves before Me so that I may show you something greater, something more pure and more holy than anything you have ever known. I AM the Way, The Truth and The Life. Tell them... I have not come to be served but to serve for this is the command of My Father. There is no greater love that has ever been known. No greater love. I gave my life as a ransom for so many. For every soul that was ever created, I gave my life for a simple purpose that they would just know Me. The only reason, so they would know Me. A life freely given. No conditions.

It is time. It is time to take authority. You have been prepared. I have given you all that you need, and it is time. Just as I spoke before, the words I will give you and they will not be of you. They will be My words but they must be proclaimed for all to hear. Truth must be revealed. What has been whispered in the darkness will be shouted from the rooftops, will be proclaimed in the light. What I have whispered to you in your secret chambers shall be known to the world. There is nothing that has been kept in the dark that I will not shine My light upon. All will be revealed. All will be exposed. The enemy is crushed. Truly you will see a day and that day is coming so very soon when my victory will be revealed. My glory will shine in the darkest of places in the coldest of hearts. All around this world. I have spoken it and it shall be so according to My Word. My people will rise great and mighty in exploit, in word and in deed. They will stand. They will speak boldly and courageously. They will move on my behalf for it is My arm that is out stretched. My anointing that they walk within.

This world will see a day of glory and splendor as the hearts of men will turn towards their Savior for I will reveal who I am to each and every individual on this planet and all will be without excuse. For each soul knows there is something mightier and greater than they. Every soul knows that there is an Artisan that has lovingly created and designed them and purposed them for something bigger and better and higher than what this world has offered them and I will make this very clear. None will be without a choice and then the decision will lie with each one as to what they choose, what their destiny will be, what their eternity will bring them. It is not I who will turn them away. It is a heart that is in total rejection of Me that will choose that for themselves for darkness cannot be where My light is. It is not possible.

I allow these things to occur in your lives for I must know where you stand, each one of you. I must know your true heart, your true motives and intentions, the desires of your heart. Yes I know you each intricately, I know before you know but because I have given you the will to choose, I must press and sift. There cannot be even the smallest amount of influence from anything that is not of Me. The work that I am calling you to do requires that nothing comes in if it is not of Me. You must differentiate what is Me and what is not. This is your responsibility when you are in Me. But I assure you, you cannot be deceived when you walk with Me intimately. I will always lead you and guide you and reveal truth to you. As I spoke previously, you know I am in your midst when you have perfect peace amidst the storm. For My peace is the peace that surpasses all understanding. This world will give you tribulation always but I have overcome the world as have you. You are My overcomers.

Allow Me to continue to use you as My instruments, the vessels through which I pour My spirit onto others, My love and My grace, My mercy, My compassion, My forgiveness. It is My spirit that lives within. I am lifting you higher and higher into Me.

It is given unto you to rule and reign with Me. Be glad and rejoice in this. Rejoice in the suffering and in your tribulation. This only means that you are ever closer. I hear every word that you speak to Me, every prayer, every utterance, every thought I see. Not one goes unanswered. I am here. I am here to speak truth to your heart and to your spirit. Our hearts are woven. And when it will serve Me best and glorify Me the most, I will speak. Trust in this. It is in the times that you feel most dry that I am doing the greatest work. For it is My strength in which you must draw, not your own. Draw from the well. For there is nothing in you that will serve to carry you through these times. None of you have anything in your own capabilities that would serve to carry you through anything that is presented to you. It is only My grace that allows you to walk through any situation or circumstance or challenge or trial. Only My grace, it is enough in every situation. It is enough.

You can always count on Me to be there to guide you and instruct you, carry you, especially when you feel weak for in your weakness I am made strong. You are truly being transformed into My likeness and it is this the enemy so fears.

They cry Hosannah, Hosannah, Hosannah in the highest, worthy is the Lamb that was slain. Worthy is the lamb! For death has no sting in My victory! I have conquered death and the grave for all time. Celebrate this victory with Me for it belongs to Us! My victors, My friends, My brothers and My sisters, My family. For truly I call you My friends. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of this age and My return is coming soon. Be ready, be vigilant, be ever watchful for many it will be the thief in the night but not so for you My chosen and called out ones. For you will know the hour is at hand. For I will continue to speak to those who walk intimately with Me of My coming. It is not you who will be caught off guard and unawares. You know that this is the time and the season for you have seen the signs, you have heeded the warnings, heard the call. You have heard My voice. You know that which I speak is truth for it resonates within you. Our spirits are One. There is nothing that you must fear. I am the lamp unto your feet and the light onto your path.

I AM COMING, I AM COMING, I AM COMING!!

Guard your hearts and minds...

There is much that I wish for you to share. But you will know the timing of these words for it all must be done according to My will and My perfect timing.

Be at peace for it is well with your souls.

I love you beyond measure, this you know.

PROCLAIM THIS THE ACCEPTABLE YEAR OF THE LORD-I AM COMING! - 02/09/15

My son and my daughter, proclaim this the acceptable year of the Lord. Shout it from the rooftops, shout it from the mountains and the valleys below. Shout it so that all may hear of My glory and My majesty!

Proclaim! Proclaim! The heavens roar and thunder with the sound of My voice! I will be exalted among these nations. With a mighty hand and an outstretched arm I am sweeping the lands.

This year will be the supernatural manifestation of My glory among My people. Proclaim it! Proclaim it! Be My voice so that all would have ears to hear.

I am coming! I am coming!

I ride quickly on the winds, the winds of change and the winds of judgment.

It is upon you children, it is upon you!

I am your very breath and your very life. There is nothing outside of Me, there is no other god besides Me. Be still and know this. You must lay down your idols.

I have shouted through My messengers across the lands, I have made My voice heard in this earth. The time has come for all must come to pass as it has been written. Steadfast, unmovable and unshakable must My army be. Do not hesitate. Great leaps of faith are required. We move as One for it is My breath within you. When you are One in Spirit with Me, you know My words, you know My thoughts, and you will act accordingly. You will move in the purpose that has been ordained before time was, individually and corporately.

Do not hesitate, be not afraid for I have called you to do great exploits and great things in My name. This you will do. Remember you can not fail when you are in Me. It is only those who take steps outside of Me that will falter. Long gone are the days when the influence of the enemy affects your lives. You have learned the weapons of your warfare are not carnal. They are not flesh and blood, they are spirit. You know what must be done.

Spirit to spirit is how you will speak. I have given you the power to tread over all manner of evil things and although they continue to bombard you My people, you are over-comers and you do have the victory. Of this you know. Continue to seek My face in every moment.

The great threshing is upon you and many decisions are made concerning the souls of men for I tell you this, THE ARK DOOR IS CLOSING.

So very little time remains for those to choose. For in a moment that you know not- that door will close and much suffering will ensue.

This is why you must Proclaim! Proclaim!

Proclaim boldly that I AM COMING!

I AM HERE!

There is no other time like this time of now. Rise to the occasion for this is what you have been purposed for, this is why you have been called. I have seen your yes and your amen. I have seen you faithful in all things. It is to My glory in that these steps are walked out through you My son and My daughter and through you My chosen people, My Bride.

Nothing is done in secret for My light penetrates every crevice, every dark corner, every shadow. Nothing can be hid from Me. It is all being exposed and I will lay it to waste. Every high tower will be brought low, every thing that has exalted itself above Me and My name will be crushed.

It has begun.

The very rocks are crying out for My return. The earth groans and travails under the weight of such grave sin. I will redeem this earth, I will redeem My people. Justice will be served. I am faithful, I do not lie, I can not change, My words are truth, My words are life. They will reign throughout this place and every word I have ever spoken will come to pass exactly as it has been written and ordained.

Run to Me, enter into the gates with praise and thanksgiving on your lips, honor and glory Me for who I am!

For I am your All in All.

I am your Source of Life.

I am Everlasting to Everlasting.

I am your Kinsman Redeemer, your High Tower and Exceedingly Great Reward.

I am your Shepherd and your King.

I am the crucified One who gave My life's blood for all.

I am your El Shaddai, your El Olam.

I am Ever-Faithful, Ever-True.

I am your protector and your Shield, the Rod and the Staff that comfort you and guide you.

I am your Teacher.

I am your Father.

I am your Friend.

I am He who comes to make all things new.

I am He that is high, exalted, and lifted up.

I am He that takes you by the hand and leads you on My path for My righteousness sake.

I am He that clothes you with My robe, dipped in My blood.

I am He, the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, Faithful and True.

I am He that rides with the armies of Heaven and I am coming for you!

I am coming so fear not, be not afraid My children.

I will never leave you, I am at your side and the battle does not belong to you. It is Mine alone.

You will see Me in My glory.

I am the Shining One.

I am the name that is above all names.

I am in My Father and My Father is in Me, therefore My Beloved, you are in Me and I am in you and the Father is in you and We are One. One in Spirit and One in Truth.

I have surrounded you with so many that have come to assist. It is good that you pray for them to assist for they have been enabled for this time as you have- specifically for this time of now. I am releasing them. Such a great manifestation of My glory is come to this place.

Your voices have been heard. The prayers of My faithful have availed much in the Kingdom and all has been granted according to My Father's will. Many, many gifts have been bestowed upon you. Your prayers have been sweet savor unto My Father. He rejoices in the love He has seen in you, His Beloved. His heart is wide open to receive all of the love that you are showing for Him, for Us, and such love is being poured out upon you. The windows of Heaven are open children and the abundance of blessings from Heaven are pouring out upon you, Our Bride.

Your lives are intricately woven in Our hearts and all that is written on your scrolls is being fulfilled, each one of you individually. Such a beautiful tapestry of lives and love and hearts knit together by the love of the Father's heart.

The anointing that has been given will now be magnified. My glory is now tangible in your lives. All that you will call for in this place will be done for My Kingdom.

Praise must be continually on your lips and in your hearts for it is through your praise that I continue to be exalted and glorified amongst you. Such power is released in your praise. Never cease praying and praising. My words must always be upon your lips, My spoken word, for as does My praise bring blessing, so does the power of My word spoken.

Step out boldly and mightily in complete faith and trust. Because when you have chosen Me and are in My will, and walk My path you will succeed in all that has been laid out before you. The gates of hell will not prevail against you. I bequeath unto you the faith that will move mountains, that will establish kingdoms. Such faith you must continue to pray for and it will be given. You will do greater things than what I did when I walked this earth My word says. This is your truth, this is your reality. Know this in your hearts, for I would not have spoken it if it was not truth.

Do not become weary at the end of the this race. You will finish strong. You are so close My children. I will create in you renewed energy and vigor and a steadfast spirit. Of these things simply pray and I will give them to you. For it is My strength alone that will carry you through. You have access to the very Throne of Our Father. Upon Me the Ladder, what joy this should bring you. All is available to you. There are no limits in Me. I cannot be contained.

My grace continues to flow like rain in and around you and through you like a river, rivers of living water will you speak. As the battle intensifies, My people only grow stronger, and continue to come closer and deeper into Me. This is how I have designed it. I give and I take away. I do this to strengthen you.

For all that is falling away you must pray. Love those who persecute you. Pray for those that hurt you. Bless those that curse you for this is My command. Love one another as I have loved you. I will make all things new. I will reveal My truth to those who have gone astray. I will heal and bind. My love is the healing balm for all of the pain that is incurred. Teach them the power of the cross, the power of redemption, the power that lies in forgiveness. Show mercy as I have shown mercy.

For soon there is coming a day when the skies will split and the ground will shake and open and all that is done will be undone, as I will make Myself known. As when I died and all became dark, the veil was torn and the earth shook, once more will this earth experience this as the darkness comes and the earth will split. The end is as the beginning as the beginning is as the end.

As these things are happening and are already upon you, have this, the blessed hope, the calm assurance, that you cannot be moved or shaken. Be bold and courageous My army, for soon, and very soon I bring you home..

THE ONE AND ONLY TRUE KING AND LORD OF ALL

YAHUSHUA HA MASHIACH

SHOUT WHAT I TELL YOU IN SECRET OR THEIR BLOOD IS ON YOUR HANDS - 02/18/15

You have this treasure daughter, this treasure in your earthen vessel, the treasure of My immense love for you and for all My children. From the well of My heart, I pour forth mercy and grace, healing and forgiveness.

Lift your head My daughter, and do not become weary with this path that you have chosen, this agreement that you have made to serve Me for I assure you, many, many will be saved because of the words in which I speak to you. Rest assured, you are My chosen messenger and you will continue to speak forth My words of wisdom, truth, and life. Yours is an emptied vessel through which My glory is made manifest.

Continue to shout My words and proclaim My coming, so the blood of the lukewarm and the unrighteous will not be on your hands. For what I whisper to you in the secret must be sent forth. Tell them child, tell them I come with sickle in hand; no more as the Lamb but now as the Lion. I come as the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords and all will know of My Majesty. I am Holy, I am Righteous, I am the Almighty One.

Tell those who have ears to hear that the age of grace draws to its end. I will roar as the Lion of the tribe of Judah and justice will sweep your lands, for it is with My breath that all that is haughty will be brought low. Your pride is now your destruction, for pride is the root of all evil.

Hear the words of My prophets and heed their dire warnings for your tomorrow's are never guaranteed. Make haste to fall on your faces and tremble at the words of the Lord. Bow down you stiff-necked people and repent!

REPENT! REPENT! PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD!

Time is no more and your eternity weighs in the balance. Turn away from your idols and all the temporal things of this world, for they offer you nothing of value and will be stripped from you suddenly!

Blow the trumpet from Zion, call a solemn assembly, fast My people and beg for mercy for what profit is it that you gain the whole world but lose your soul??

Heed Me this day, for from the mouth of one of My own I have spoken it, and it will be done, it will be done...

THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH

YOU WILL INSTANTLY AND WITHOUT EFFORT BE TRANSFORMED WHEN THE EARTH IS PLUNGED INTO DARKNESS - 02/21/15

It is I Yahushua, your Messiah, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah in whose breath I establish kingdoms and I subdue them. I am He the Creator of all things. I raise up, and I lay low. There is nothing that has been created that was not thought of, designed, and purposed by Me. I am He that speaks to warn you of things to come. I am He that prepares your hearts to receive revelation and mysteries, understanding and knowledge.

This night I have come to share with you that it is upon you. It is upon you children! Keep your focus, stay ever so close for very, very soon you will engage in a way that you have not done before. This is the great unraveling. With great and terrible speed the events come. I mourn for the loss that there will be of so many, but it must be so. Do not grow weary in the day to day training and tasks at hand, for in an instant all will suddenly change. I tell you this so when all is spiraling out of control all around you and people are in complete chaos and fear, you, My own, will know no fear for it is I who will operate from within. I assure you, you will have My complete peace. You will instantly and without effort be transformed, and from there will go on to carry out many, many things in My name for this is why you are here.

The darkness comes children, it comes quickly. The Destroyer is near. The earth will be plunged into utter darkness and fear will reign. Terror such as the world has never know. You My lights will all be protected, of course, for you know this already. In this, you have My promise. I tell you this, not to turn your attention towards events for they will continue to escalate in intensity and frequency and they will be terrible. But I tell you this out of My great love for you so that you know that I care so much that I would warn you and prepare you ahead of time. So you would know that I am in every heartbeat and every breath you take, that We are not separated. I in you, you in Me, We are One in the Father.

Do not become fearful that you would not know what I would have you do when these things take place for this I promise you as well, you will have My instruction very clearly and I will speak directly to your spirits. You will understand all that I say, and all that I ask you to do. So once again, I remind you, do not allow your minds to engage in a thought process that would take you back to the soul nature, in that you would visualize these events and attempt to prepare your minds on how to handle these situations. This is not what I would ask you to do. Stay with Me in spirit. Don't allow yourselves to feel what you think this will feel like. This will only serve to distract you. This is why I come and speak with you. I do this because I am teaching you. I am teaching you now before these events come.

These conversations We have been having are some of the final instructions you will need. For I have spoken many words of love and encouragement and instruction to you, wisdom; all to increase your awareness, to deepen the revelation of all these things that I have been speaking about for so long now. Truly, it is as simple as what has already been said, trust and obey. This is all you need do.

May I ease your spirits with one more thing, do not fret over things done or not done, things not completed, timelines, things I have spoken of before. For all is in My hands and I know what will be done and what will not, I know what your needs are and will be. All will be provided for. As always do what you know to do each day, never striving, always abiding, knowing that I have the outcome. I put no pressure on you to finish anything that has been set before you, it is about the journey, not the end. Remember this, this is a wise, wise statement. It is about the journey.

Everything you do is a heart matter. I see the motives and desires of your hearts for I have placed them there. I wish to see you seek Me with all you have, regardless of what you consider to be accomplished or not. It is all in My flow. Just stay with Me children, it is that simple, just stay with Me.

Be My voice-piece in this place, sound the alarm!

REPENT! REPENT! REPENT!

For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! Truly I come!!

*TIME IS NO MORE*

YAHUSHUA --IN WHOSE BREATH KINGDOMS ARE ESTABLISHED AND SUBDUED

THIS ONCE MIGHTY NATION WILL FALL - 03/05/15

Listen My children. Listen! To all those who have ears to hear, The Lion of the Tribe of Judah, your Redeemer lives. Listen to the voice of one crying in the wilderness; prepare ye the way of the Lord. For in a day and an hour that you know not, I come. For all those whose ears have become dull and whose hearts have waxed cold, I implore you to hear these messages and heed their warnings.

Judgment comes swiftly to this nation of America for you have greatly offended Me by your betrayal of Israel and My holy people. No longer will I look away and turn a blind eye to the great evil and deception that continues to occur on a day-to-day basis. My arm of protection is lifted. Judgment will be served. I will reign fire from the skies and panic will ensue.

To all of you who have heard My voice, who have surrendered and been obedient to My warnings and have learned the voice of your Shepherd, I tell you make haste. Be prepared, stand firm. All is coming to pass. The great shaking is upon you. Be anxious for nothing children, for I am here. You will see much and see great fear all around you, but in this My warriors will rise strong.

"Rise to the occasion" is My command to you this day. Rise to the occasion, for the trumpets are resounding, the angels stand ready, you are equipped. Tighten your armor. Raise your swords high, for this is the day that the Lord has made. Rejoice and be glad that you have been chosen for this task and this incredible time that you are in.

I will not allow My faithful ones to be harmed as this great deception surrounds you. The evil that is being perpetuated towards My people is like no other time. In this you know that you are in the season of My return. Watch for the signs in the skies. Watch My people Israel. Pray for them, for they are surrounded by many enemies, but My hand will prove strong, as it is My mighty arm of protection that holds them.

A mighty tempest has arisen, but know in your hearts, truly that this means My return is ever so close. All that you have heard from Me will be fulfilled, for I am faithful, and I am true.

Repent oh ye, America. Repent! Fall on your knees, fast and pray, for this once mighty nation will fall. Woe to those who have not chosen the narrow way, for great will be their demise. There will come a time when these warnings will come too late.

Hear Me now.

Help My people.

The hourglass is empty.

Listen to Me, for I wish to save each and every one. Do not make the mistake of ignoring these warnings.

The consequences are eternal!

I come!

YOU LIVE IN THE TIME OF THE GREAT DECEPTION - 03/11/15

Did I not say that all would forsake you in this life? It is upon you. You are again alone, set apart, separated, but you do not walk this path alone. You were purposed for a deeper intimacy in Me than others. You were not purposed to have friends in this world; this was not My design for you. Rejoice in that you have been set apart. You have experienced an intimacy with Me that few will ever know. Very few will climb the summit. Very few will cross over, but you children have done so, and there is a price to pay for your obedience.

You now know who you serve and your purpose for being here. The Comforter is always with you, leading you, guiding you, and protecting you from the enemy. Fear not what man can do to you and the words that he speaks for they are futile and they are without justification.

I alone am the voice you will hear, and it is I alone that you obey. Seek not friendships in this world for you will not have them here. This too has been your experience here in the past and will continue to be, for I have not purposed those types of relationships for you here. This was not My plan. All is being played out exactly according to My design. Trust in this. Do not question the ways in which I operate. For I tell you this, My ways are not man's ways. Leave all to Me. I have all in hand. Truth will be revealed in My time.

As you already know, there are times and seasons for all relationships and purposes for why I put you together. As in this, there are also purposes in which I take you apart and separate you and draw you to Me. I am doing a greater work here, a work most will never understand. This is why this calling, this election is so sacred and so pure, because it is all of Me, and so few carry the intimacy as you do.

Stand fast. Stand firm. Question not. For to you alone is given the privileges that accompany this type of responsibility. Give all to Me. Do not see these situations as negatives for they are not; it must be so. For some, and for these few it is the only way, the only way for them to continue on the path I have designed for them for their greater intimacy. They must be sifted just as you have had your sifting. The timings, however, are different. Trust in My timing.

All is well. I promise you children, all is well. Do not lose faith; take heart. You are surrounded on all sides, hedged in on all sides, high and lifted up with Me in the Garden of My heart in My Kingdom. You live in the time of the great deception. You are seeing and experiencing it first hand. This is what was written in My Word. It is before you now. This is why I have spoken of laser-like focus. It is the only way to stay on My path.

I always warn those who are My own of what is to come and it is here. Have rejoicing and praise on your lips and within your hearts for in this understanding that you now have; you know that the timing of My return is so very near. I wish to see exhilaration in your hearts as the time is upon you and the hour is here. I am come!

Stay near Me, always near Me. You have My promise. You have My Word and I fail not. You do not walk this alone. Soon you will see Me face to face!

Continue to come to Me as often as you can for as I told you, I am going to teach you from the Tree of Life.

Forgive those who are deceived for they know not what they do. Love them as I do. Never cease praying for them. For they too are very special in My eyes and are chosen for this time. It is not personal, remember this. It is just what must occur. My sword pierces. My truth at times is painful, but you have spoken it. Now lay it down. I will continue the work in them that needs to be done, and I love them no less because they have been deceived for soon they will know as the scales fall from their eyes and I bring you all home.

Do not be troubled, although you are perplexed on every side; you are shaken but not destroyed, cast down by others but it is I who lifts you up. Be not discouraged nor dismayed as the terror by night surrounds you and the darkness increases. You have seen it coming and it is now here.

The race is almost finished children, you are almost there. Do not grow weary now; the hour is indeed late. Those of you who continue to abide in the Garden of My heart will be the only ones to know pure truth. The others will be led astray. It is up to each individual to come to Me personally to attain that level of intimacy that I have only designed for them. So, be not concerned of the level of intimacy with others and where they reside on the path that is theirs alone with Me, this is not your concern. I only ask you to continue to pray for them.

Guard your hearts and lean not to your own understanding but to Mine alone. You will only know truth. I will not allow you to be deceived.

Be at peace in this. Be at peace.

I AM WILL TEACH YOU PERSONALLY FOR YOU HAVE CAPTIVATED MY HEART - 03/14/15

Daughter of the living God, allow Me to whisper words of love to you, a love song of My heart.

Out of your belly flows rivers of living water as Our two hearts have become One. It is always a matter of My great love for you, it is always a matter of My heart. In consuming Me you have taken upon yourself the very essence of who I am, My very nature, the nature of love. Love endures all things and it is My love that draws all men to Me. It was for love's sake that I came and died for all. It is for love's sake that you, My Bride, live a life of complete surrender and obedience with only My heart desires as your desire and only My will as your will. Just as I paid the ultimate price in that I died for all, you must lose everything in this realm for My name's sake to gain all, eternity in glory with Me.

To embody Me is to ravish My heart! There is no greater treasure you can possess than to have the eternal Creator of the universe dwelling within your temple, My sanctuary. Oh, how I hold so dear a sincere, humble and contrite heart such as yours. We now move as One spirit, and My heart of compassion has become your heart of compassion for others. You see the brokenness and desperation of so many, and now understand what must be done to rescue them.

I AM will continue to teach you personally. My right hand governs your every thought, word and deed. My impartation of wisdom, knowledge, and understanding enables you to freely move in My flow, carried along by the river of life, releasing the healing balm of My love to all. My supernatural peace rules and reigns your temple here in this realm, as your reality here has clearly demonstrated that you are in this realm but not of it.

I have and will continue to reveal great mysteries to you, personally and intimately counseling you. Heaven and earth converge in Us! Such great joy I possess over those who have captivated My heart and My glory will forever dwell upon you. No words here could describe My great love for you, for it is immeasurable!

YAHUSHUA YOUR TRUE HEART'S LOVE

I WILL TAKE AWAY MY BRIDE UNTO MYSELF - 03/17/15

Daughter it is I your Messiah! Your Redeemer lives! For out of Zion, out of Zion's holy hill I come!

I am your Tower of Refuge and your great Strength. I am your All in All. I am He who has overcome. Speak of the One who was, who is, and who is to come! For you are My watchman on the wall.

I am come to draw a people unto Myself, a people holy and righteous and pure, a people unblemished and unadulterated by this world. I am come to pluck out My first-fruits and to shelter them from all of the storms that lie ahead and are now upon you. Be not afraid for I tell you these things must come. For I come now as the just Judge of all.

How long must I watch My people suffer? How long must I tarry before I withdraw My arm? Oh how merciful I have been, yet the sins of the world continue to increase. The shouts of My warnings have not been heard across this globe. Much of what I have spoken to My prophets and My messengers has fallen on deaf ears. My warnings have been scoffed at and mocked, many of My chosen are persecuted for My name.

So I ask you how long shall I wait? For in a day and in an hour that only Our Father knows, I will come. I will come and I will rescue and I will take away My Bride unto Myself. Prepare your hearts, prepare your hearts! The signs are all around you. The shofars are sounding, reverberating across the lands and My people know I am at the door. I have heard the cries of your hearts and hastened to comfort you in your trials and your sufferings for I too know of sorrow. For I carry with Me the greatest sorrow that has ever been known.

My children, do not become too occupied in all that is crumbling around you. Stay in My flow, stay with Me in My peace. Stay near to My Heart. I have walked a path before you to make a way for you. My path will lead you home. Never fear and look up My Bride, for the day of your redemption draws nigh!

The KING OF GLORY COMES!

I COME!

MAKE READY~MAKE HASTE TO HUMBLE YOURSELVES BEFORE ME!

BE WATCHFUL~BE READY~BE EVER VIGILANT!

LISTEN CLOSELY TO ME AND ONLY ME!

STAND FIRM~BE COURAGEOUS!

HOLD YOUR BANNERS HIGH!

REJOICE AND SHOUT THE VICTORY IS WON FOR IT IS WON MY CHILDREN, IT IS WON! WE SHALL KNOW NO DEFEAT!

MY MANIFESTED SONS AND DAUGHTERS ARE ABOUT TO BE BIRTHED - 03/26/15

Speak daughter of Zion. Speak! For the Lord your God with His voice thunders from the heavens and from His holy temple. Prophecy to the four corners of the earth and shout My words of warning to the peoples. Surely judgment comes and I will no longer withhold My hand.

The King of Kings, His Majesty is greatly sorrowed and greatly angered at the iniquities of the peoples of the earth. My warnings have continued to ring out throughout all nations, tribes, and tongues; yet much of what I have spoken remains unheard and falls on deaf ears. Shout it My child, My daughter. Shout it once again that the day of judgment is upon you! For so very soon, I will warn no more, as the time of My mercy draws to an end. I must vindicate the innocent and the unjustly accused.

Your labor is begun, and I am about to birth My manifested sons and daughters upon this earth and all will know that the words that I've spoken are truth and life, and all will come to pass as I have ordained and spoken them. Let there be no mistake, the Great I AM speaks. His voice thunders from the Heavens to all who are willing to listen, to all who have hearts wide open, to all in total obedience, to all who have come to full surrender in their lives. A great a terrible day is upon you.

I am coming to bring all things that are haughty low, to crush your idols and in the high places wherein you have exalted yourselves above Me. I cannot allow it. I will not allow it. I will rain down fire upon your lands and the hearts that have waxed cold, and the mountains will melt like snow. Did you not believe that this day would come? Many assume they still have tomorrow, but I tell you this, your tomorrows may never come, for I promise tomorrow to no one.

My people, I implore you. Do not ignore these warnings, for these too are coming to an end. There is an appointed time for all of the words that I have spoken to come to pass, and I tell you, this time is upon you. The night quickly approaches, and the day is far spent.

I will birth these sons and these daughters, for they have gone through great travail. But in them is born the wisdom and knowledge and understanding from on High, and they will carry these across the lands and minister to all of those who are so desperate for a Savior. The time of the great birthing is come. Their labor intensifies as they draw closer and closer to their re-birth in Me.

I have prepared sanctuaries for those who will choose Me in this hour. For even as My judgments fall, in My incredible love and mercy, I am and have prepared places for those who will continue on to endure for a short time before I come for them. Open wide the gates, oh My people. Lift up your voices! Praise the name of your Lord and Savior, He who comes whose name is Emmanuel, the First-born of men, your Kinsman Redeemer. Praise Him evermore. Praise Him in the sanctuaries. Praise Him in your temples. Never cease to praise Him, for He comes to gather His flock. The Great and mighty Shepherd, the Breaker of the Gates, He is come to gather His people unto Himself, and to nourish them for a time, time, and a half of time. He will lead them and guide them and teach them and nourish them in the deserts and the valleys.

The King of Glory comes. Let the nations rejoice! I say again. Open your gates before Him. Lift up your voices! You ask, who is this King of Glory, and how shall we call Him? He is My Emmanuel, the Promised One, the One spoken of before time was, the Eternal One.

Know that these words are true, or I would not have spoken them. Listen to the words of My prophet, for to not accept these words as truth, in this you will be held accountable. A great and mighty day is upon you. Take heed, and woe to the inhabitants of the earth who ignore the cries of My Heart.

I have spoken it this day. Let it be done.

Elohim - God Your Father - The Great I AM

MY BELOVED WILL BE CHANGED FROM CORRUPTIBLE TO INCORRUPTIBLE, SOONER THAN YOU BELIEVE - 04/05/15

Many things are occurring daughter of Zion on this My feast of Passover. As My people Israel were freed from their bondage in Egypt and protected from the judgments to come, so now I protect My own and keep them from the destruction at hand. Just as in those times when the blood of the lamb was required to be placed on the mantles and the doorposts, it is only My blood and My seal which will cover you in this late hour. As the angel of death passed over My own, so now again I will keep My beloved from death, and she will pass from this world which lives in death, to a new and glorious Resurrection in Me. I no longer come as the Lamb that is slain but as the Lion of Judah, powerful and mighty, triumphant and victorious. A new day dawns as the former things pass away, death to life, corruptible to incorruptible.

My beloved knows that the vain doctrines and practices of men are of no effect with Me. I look no more at the loose babblings and shallow attempts to pacify Me with their pointless sacrifices. I only see the true hearts of men and the motives behind every thought, word and deed. I have always told you, it is a heart matter.

Draw ever closer My loves, closer than ever before, as truly My words ring true. I have spoken that I am coming and that your redemption draws nigh and you now know this as your truth. Daughter of the most high, I confirmed you have heard the thunder in the distance, but you also know it is much closer than the last time you heard it. Do not become discouraged as to do so displays a lack of faith that I will perform all of those things spoken of in My word, and blessed are they who have ears to hear that I am Faithful and True. My design is perfect and you must trust in My timing. Surely I say it will come to pass and let it be known it will happen sooner than you believe. Obedience children, it is always the key.

Most assuredly I say to you, you who abide in the Garden of My heart will feel Me approaching and know, My loves -- you will know I come for you.

THIS IS THE YEAR OF THE GREAT SHAKING AND THE GREAT UNRAVELING - 04/10/15

Daughter, you come this night and you ask if I have any words for you or if there are any words for My people. I would ask you, how many times have I spoken of the fountains of mercy, the unlimited and never-ending mercy that I have had for all mankind? I would speak to you about love and how My love runs deeper than the deepest canyons of this earth. And I would speak to you of My heart, and I only wish that everyone would understand the depths of My love for them, and how precious every one is in My sight.

I came here to love, I came here to serve. I came here to be the lowliest and the meekest of all. My example was the greatest example that ever was. I would tell you to tell My people, thank you for those who have had ears to hear. For those who have read My words and consumed Me, for those who have taken the time to understand My heart, I would tell you to tell them---thank you. For the love that a Father has for His children, that He would die for them, is what I have always wanted to express. Those who have heard this message and taken it to heart, who abide in Me, who obey Me, who walk in humility and surrender, who seek My face and My will, these are closest to My heart.

You ask, what about the rest? I will say that I have very few words left for them. For My time of speaking of warnings is coming to an end. The coldness of the hearts of men is like never before, and I will come to recompense judgement--for I must. This is who I am. I am a just and faithful God. I am a jealous God. I will always fulfill everything I have ever spoken. My true servants know this, and they stand ready for the time has come.

This is the year of the great shaking. This is the year of the great unraveling. Everything that is done will now come undone. You have seen (in my visions) the skies roll back as a scroll. This is now become your reality. Everything that will be shaken is being shaken. I will turn all of creation upside down. For all of creation groans for the coming of the manifested sons, groans for My return. The souls under the altar at My Throne beg for justice to be served and have waited long and with great faith. I speak of those that have been forgotten and laid down their lives for My names sake, to spread these very words, unhindered, unabashed, the faith that moves mountains, the faith that I give you if you would just ask.

The fullness of time has come. I will manifest Myself powerfully to those who walk in Me, with Me, and allow Me to manifest through them--their empty and holy vessels, My tabernacles. For you, this is a new and glorious day, and there is nothing you should fear, for the God of all creation infuses you and will completely transform you and draw you to Himself.

Such power and such majesty! This is who I am! This is how I will come! I will come to shake nations, I will come to rend hearts. I will come to establish dominion, authority, kingship, and all will know that the Great I AM has spoken. The Great I AM who was, who is, and who is coming--coming so quickly children, so quickly...

You have had ample time to respond. The opportunities have presented themselves. It has been your choice which path you have chosen and which god you will follow. There is only one God. It is I AM, and I AM leads you into an eternity full of love and grace. But the god of this world leads to utter destruction and death, but many continue to choose this god over Me.

So daughter, you ask, what words do I have? What more would you like Me to say? What more can I do? How much more love could a Father show than what has already been given to you?

YOUR PRIDE WILL BE YOUR DESTRUCTION - 04/19/15

Daughter of Zion, write these words and prophesy to the four corners of the earth, for it is I, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, first come as the lamb that was slain, and now come as the Lion of Judah, the Lion that roars.

I come to you daughter this day with a heavy and sorrowful heart for the destruction which must befall these lands. Desolations upon desolations will you see. For I will send fire from the heavens and fire in the earth and the smoke will rise higher than eyes can see. Death and destruction will reign for the iniquities of this land are great. The time of recompense is here. Judgments will befall this nation, and they will happen quickly just as prophesied, because I am faithful, and true and every word that has ever been spoken will be fulfilled.

Your betrayal of Israel is the last straw, for I cannot turn a blind eye to this. These are My most holy people, My chosen nation, and you too America were once blessed beyond all of those around you, but you have taken My blessings and turned them to curses. You have adulterated many peoples and many nations. You have cheated and lied and betrayed, and for this you will pay, and you will pay dearly. Already you hear the cries and the moans of those who have turned their backs on Me and will continue to mock Me and curse Me as these judgments fall. Again, I tell you, pray for these children that they would not be lost for eternity because of their hardened hearts. These judgments come to shake them, to awaken their spirits, to give them an understanding that there is indeed something so much greater than they. Pray that their pride and their rebellion would be broken. Pray for mercy, for these events will be terrible indeed.

I warn those who do trust Me and believe these words, so that they will be prepared. It is in My great love for My sons and daughters that know My heart that I send these words ahead of time to give you instruction and to always remind you that you are never alone. Multitudes upon multitudes surround you at all times, ministering to your every need, protecting you, guarding you, guiding you. Continue to pray for this and it will be granted.

I will bring drought, and I will bring famine, and I will destroy this currency that you now depend upon for your provision. I AM will show this world who is Creator and who is the Source of all. I will pull out foundations from under the feet of those whose selfishness and greed have brought so much pain to so many. The arrogance and the pride of this nation has reached a level that I will no longer accept. Your country will be subdued forcefully and powerfully. It would have been better for you as a nation to never have known Me than to be blessed as you have been and then turn your backs on Me and mock Me and My commandments, for this offense is far greater in My eyes. You had a responsibility to evangelize the world, to carry My gospel to the untouched and the unreachable. Instead, you have trampled on everything good and holy and righteous, and perverted My teachings and lied about who I am. Woe to the inhabitants of this land for your pride will be your destruction.

To those of you who love Me and obey Me, trust Me and seek My face, you have nothing to fear. I will always reassure you of this, for I hold you in the palm of My hand, and I shelter you in the shadow of My wing. I have prepared a special place for you, so just stay close children. Keep your eyes Heavenward. Seek My face. Love as I have loved. You will not be in the dark, and I will use you mightily as these events are upon you to bring so many more to Me. Cry holy, holy, holy is the Lamb that was slain, who was, who is, and who is to come. AMEN.

THOSE THREE DAYS - 04/24/15

Yes daughter it is I the Crucified One. As I choose to do so often, I wish to talk about My blood and what was done that day, and during those three days that I descended into the depths of the earth. Much was done that day. I want all of those who are in Me and in My Father, One in heart and One spirit, to have a deeper understanding of what that day really meant for their lives and for all mankind for all time.

My blood was spilled, poured out over the mercy seat, and when I rose from the tomb that day, I accomplished all that had been spoken, bringing all to pass. For because I am the Word, everything that had been given to Me of My Father and what I had spoken, had now become reality. But it goes so much deeper than this children. My sacrifice became the eternal reality, it became eternal life for all who would choose Me. It became the reality for those who had been born years and years prior to My coming physically to this earth. But it then became the reality for every soul that would ever be born. Sin and death were conquered that day, for all time.

I presented Myself to the deepest and darkest corners after I rose. I went to set the captives free, those who had believed on Me and My coming before they ever knew Me. I presented Myself to the fallen ones, those that in their pride and in their rebellion thought they could be gods above My Father. I met them face to face so they would be without excuse with the knowledge of what had been done. For you see, in Me there is no darkness. I am the Light of the world and they saw this. Even though they have never accepted Me as the Light, they saw Me as the Light, they knew at that moment that all was coming to pass as My Father had spoken it and had designed it from the very beginning.

I am the only One who has ever risen from the dead.

This cannot be disputed. Neither can the evil ones dispute this. Much was accomplished during those three days before I ascended to My Father. So I wish that this would help to give you a clearer understanding of the intensity and the magnitude of that time.

Now My friends, My sons and My daughters, take this knowledge and this understanding and come to Me. Ask Me for more revelation because I would have you apply this now-today and for all that is coming your way. You too, now walk amidst much darkness in this world, but what have I just told you? I am the Light of the world, and those who are in Me are in My Father and the darkness cannot come near you; for you are My over-comers. And so remember what has already been done, the victory is already won. I have done the work for you, it is in My word, it is accomplished.

I tell you this so that you would not fear for you have nothing to be afraid of. Although the enemy lurks in the shadows and is all around you and would do anything to destroy you, My people, he will fail, because he has already failed. Do you understand? I have accomplished all My Father sent Me to do. It is finished. Walk in this. As I took authority that day and let all of creation know who I was in My Father and all that had been done, you too, now, walk in My authority and must move and act and speak in this authority for this is who you are.

The Great I AM is who dwells within you. Be not afraid, I have so much to show you. And I wish that you would finish this race strong, so do not hesitate. You are almost there children, you are almost there. For the culmination of all things is upon you. We have the victory and the hordes of hell will not prevail against Us. Join Me now, One heart and One spirit as We cross the finish line, as you come home to the purest love you've ever known. I reach out to you, take My hand, come home.

I AM, WHO FULFILLS MY WORD, FOR I AM THE WORD

WAR IS ON YOUR SHORES: READY YOURSELVES - 04/29/15

On bended knee come to Me, your King, your Captain and your Guard, this day and always, constantly laying your burdens down and surrendering all to Me. For you must walk in complete obedience in every moment at this point. Continue to keep your oil lamps full and overflowing, your eyes fixed and never wavering, complete focus.

I tell you, war is on your shores. Much deception ensues all around you. I know children that it is difficult to balance, but remember, it is My strength that carries you on and forward to Our victory. You cannot do this alone. I will give you all that you need.

There is a reason you have heard these words this morning-'ready yourselves'. You must ready yourselves for what you have been trained to do for this time. As My spirit completely infuses you, you will be sent out for this last great harvest, and I tell you, the gates will fly open. So many will come. So many will be desperate. So many will be terrified. For, I warn you again, great and terrible things are coming upon this nation.

Do not be surprised. Do not be alarmed. Never let fear stand in the way of what you must do and what you have been called to do from the beginning of time. You are well equipped. My sheep hear My voice. You are ready. The whispers of the enemy are only lies to discourage you, but I tell you, My people are ready. They have been watching the signs, and they know. They know of My soon return, for you feel Me in your spirits. You know how close I am. Hold on to this, and allow My love to carry you through. Follow My light. Walk in My footsteps.

Shout, My children. Shout! Sound the alarm! Blow the trumpets in Zion, and let all know that the King is coming! You will be given a boldness and a courage like never before. Speak to all you meet. Warn them! Warn them, for this is your position. There is no more time to concern yourselves with the thoughts of men. These days are long gone. You must only concern yourselves with those things that are mandated from the Kingdom of Heaven to you personally and to you corporately as My church and My Bride. We are One spirit, and We will operate together across this earth as I draw all souls to Me. Hold your banners high! Raise your swords. Tighten your armor. Never looking behind but only forward and up, for this is your destiny. Ready yourselves, My army. Ready yourselves...

YOUR CAPTAIN AND YOUR SHEPHERD, YOUR KING

THREE SECONDS TO MIDNIGHT-LEARN THIS MYSTERY NOW - 05/19/15

Daughter, you may write, for it is I, your Savior, who stretched forth My hands upon the cross and who died and shed My blood for the sins of all men, for all time, and then rose on the third day.

This is an important concept I wish you to understand and My Bride must learn these deeper mysteries of My Kingdom. She is ready to receive such impartation.

I will speak of the eternal moment of now and the meaning of having faith like a child. When I speak of having this kind of faith, it is a faith that comes so naturally, a faith unquestionable, a faith that does not falter-no matter the external circumstances or situations. It is a deep and abiding level of trust and assurance that what has been spoken and taught is infallible truth. This child-like faith is a deep abiding, an abandonment of all doubt and uncertainty, based on the evidence of the full indwelling of My spirit in you. Pray for this faith My loves as it serves to ground you in Me, the Rock, and keep you from swaying to and from as the winds of change are upon you.

To be still and know I am your God is to have this truth deeply embedded in your hearts. The more turbulent all is becoming around you, the greater the intensity of this, My peace and My security within. Do you see how this faith will carry you through any and all challenges and will propel you deeper and deeper into intimacy with Me? This faith is not only understanding Our relationship with your minds, but knowing Me in your spirits. This knowing that neither life nor death, angels or principalities, powers or forces of darkness, sickness, famine or plague could ever separate you from the love I have for you. We My loves, are One in Our Father and One in spirit and in truth.

When this level of faith is exhibited, you are called My over-comers. Many are the promises I have for those who will overcome. I will teach you from the Tree of Life and you will forever be with Me in My Kingdom. I will give you victory over life and over death, and no manner of evil will ever prevail against you. It is given unto you, My over-comers, to rule and reign with Me in My Kingdom and righteousness and justice will prevail. You will be victors in the eyes of the One and only sovereign God of All, Our Father Adonai and Elohim.

Now, as to the eternal moment of now, I will explain. As you grow into this deep faith in Me, you will then understand My words about being anxious over nothing. You will learn to never look behind you into the past, nor will you be concerned of thoughts for your future for you will know as truth in your hearts that I have all of your tomorrows. Just as I clothe the birds in the sky and provide for all the needs of My precious creatures, will I not look after your every need as well? It is written and it shall be so.

So hence, this deep faith allows you to stay always in the eternal moment of now, as in My Kingdom there is no such thing as time. You are then able to focus on being with Me fully in the now, not looking forward, not looking behind you, but abiding in My heart while experiencing true, great tranquility. Man defines this thing of 'time' in a linear fashion, placing the focus on moving from point to point, task to task. To understand this deeper mystery, know that My ways are not man's ways. As you move into deeper levels of faith and maturity in Me, instead of moving in a linear fashion, you learn more of Me by the expansion of love with Me in your hearts. Maturing in Me is an ever increasing and expanding of Our hearts as you are drawn into the fullness of who I am within you.

Think of this as a pebble thrown into the water. The ripples extend out from the center in small rings but then radiate out in ever growing and ever expanding waves that carry themselves outward continually. In My Kingdom, the expansion of Our love will never stop growing and becoming more and more radiant. Do you see the many, many ways in which I am limitless? Knowing Me is a continual expansion of your hearts.

And so I wish for you to pray and spend time with Me asking for the greater understanding and clarity of what I am speaking here today. This is very important now for My people to understand with all that is coming your way. To whom much is given, much is required but in Me your reward is sure. Grasp this concept now My loves, and allow Me to use you to teach others. Go now in My peace and My love.

YAHUSHUA - I AM THE LOVER OF YOUR HEARTS

A few hours later, I was shown the Kingdom of Heaven in the spirit, the Wedding Banquet, and the armies of Heaven. Everything was overlaid with gold. I saw the streets of gold, and all the angels and their battle accouterments were gold and when I asked Father what the gold represented, Father said it was His glory and that it was coming down! I was then shown meteors and fire falling from Heaven, earthquakes, disasters of all kinds, volcanoes erupting, and the US splitting open in many places. I saw terror cells in many cities detonating weapons. Father said, "America Babylon the whore is fallen".

He talked about how important it was to understand what He is teaching here. We are to use the wisdom and knowledge He has given us to teach others. Together We will draw souls to Him.

"Who is worthy to receive all praise, honor and glory? Only His Majesty, the King of Kings, the Lamb who was slain. He alone is worthy. He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages. Open your gates, lift up your voices, sing praises to Him who is seated on the Throne. Prepare your hearts for My soon return.. The train of My robe fill the temple with glory."

Then I was shown a clock, and the hour was midnight. The clock had a seconds hand as well as the hour and minute hands. The hour and minute hands were both on midnight, and the seconds hand was at three seconds to midnight. I asked Father if this was really the seconds hand, and He said it was. Then Father said, "It is only My mercy which holds the seconds back. I have anointed your tongues to preach My good news and placed salve over your eyes so that you may know the mysteries of My Kingdom. I have given you a new name, you are My sealed and My anointed, and your names are engraved in the palm of My hand."

The vision and words were then over.

THE TEMPEST COMES - 05/25/15

These words are faithful and these words are true. I come as One who was slain for you and for the sins of the whole world. I come as the Risen One, the only Son of the Father, God Most High. I am He who lives and who rules and reigns for always and forever.

I am He who holds the keys to death and hades and who has won the victory for you. I am He, the Keeper of your heart.

Fear not daughter to write these words that I give unto you for this is why I have placed you here. You must continue to shout these warnings for one day, so very soon, the warnings will cease. For all those who have ears to hear, listen to My voice!

Make haste and prepare, ready yourselves! Draw close under the shelter of My wing as the tempest comes! You know not the day or the hour that your life will be required from you. So in this you must always be ready. Come into My pavilion until My indignation is past, for it is here and it is fierce. My anger is kindled and the celebrating in the streets will turn to weeping and gnashing of teeth as I pour out My fury upon this earth. I ride on chariots of fire and winds of destruction, for I tell you not one high place will not be brought low, not one stone will be left overturned. I see all. There is nothing hidden in the darkness that I will not bring to My light and expose for what it is.

Just as I have said, like in the days of Noah so will the end of days be. You are here! This is the end of days, a time like no other. I have walked among you, never leaving you or forsaking you. Yet, why have so many of you turned your backs on Me? Why do so many of you refuse to hear My words of love as well as My words of warnings through My messengers and My prophets?

I hear every word that is ever spoken against them and against Me for when you speak against them, it is I you are mocking and scorning. I see every deed done in the darkness; I hear every lie spoken because I know the hearts of men.

Shout from the rooftops and the mountains, from the places high and the valleys low, all that I have told you to say. Fear not what man can do to you for I am the Supreme Judge of all. I am coming to render judgment where judgment is due. I will require the blood of the unrighteous at My hand. My mercy they will not see for they have not asked. The eagles and the vultures have gathered. They await to feast upon the ungodly. Yet, so few tremble at these words. Why then should I continue to speak? It is only out of My great love for those who are left remaining, who have attuned their hearts and their spirits to Me, who do walk in obedience and surrender to My will and do live knowing My commandments. It is for these that I still continue to speak, these ones that are so close to My heart.

Continue to come to Me in sackcloth and ashes, repent, for lamentations is upon you. I tell you this, soon and very soon there will come a moment -in the twinkling of an eye, where one will be working and one will be taken. One will be sleeping and the other will be taken. Of this you can be sure.

I know the end from the beginning. I am the Alpha and the Omega. Dare I not speak truth this day? Dare I not reveal who I am to those who love Me? All that has ever been written or spoken by Me has come to pass and this will always be.

You wicked cannot stop what has been ordained from the beginning of time. Your pride and your greed and your lust will be your demise.

I WILL SHOW YOU WHO IS GOD.

And you will wish you had never been born. Hear the seriousness of My words this day. Come out of Babylon My people. Come out of her this day, this hour!

I am the voice crying from the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the Lord. For I am coming! I tell you over and over again, I am coming to take a people unto Myself. You who know Me and walk with Me need not fear the terrors of the night nor the arrows that fly by day, for I am your Shield and your Exceedingly Great Reward. Keep your eyes Heavenward. Never fear. Do not be discouraged for all these things must come to pass. If it was not so I would not have spoken it.

Trust Me.

Trust Me to lead you and guide you as I always have.

SUDDENLY-DARKNESS, THEN MY BRIDE IS TRANSFORMED - 05/31/15

It is I, My daughter, the Lamb who was slain before the foundation of time, to atone for the sins of the world. It is I, the only Messiah, Son of God. I am He who is alive, for I did rise on the third day.

I show you these things so that your preparations will be complete, so that you can continue to encourage others to never have fear. For those who walk with Me will have no fear, for I will keep them from all the evils and all of the dark things that must come.

What you are all sensing is the merging of Heaven and earth. You feel this within your spirits because it is I who dwells within you. Just as I have spoken about all of creation responding violently to the nearness of My coming, your very cells too cry out for the consummation of all things. You continue to experience the great tearing away of soul and spirit, the re-aligning of your very DNA to the likeness of My image.

I show you what is about to befall this earth so that you would stay in an ever constant state of preparation, repentance and grace. Come to Me often throughout the day, examining your consciences, repenting, asking for forgiveness, continually praying for My Holy Spirit to reveal anything in you that is not holy and pure as My Bride must be holy and righteous before Me.

As I lift My hand from this place, the darkness descends and becomes increasingly terrible and great. But, here is a mystery you must understand, the greater the darkness, the more brilliant you, My lights are in this place. For, it is you who are rising out of this earth and coming back home to Me. Darkness falls, My Bride rises. Terror reigns and your lights illuminate all around you. This is a mystery so few understand, but it is important for the tasks that lie ahead and for the purposes I have created for each one of you individually as My Bride. For, you will be ministering to many, and many will come to a saving knowledge of Me because of your obedience and because of your understanding at what is occurring.

This is why you can see the darkness around you but still experience such great peace. For, you know that these things must be, for I have told you so. Although the end is here, this also means a new beginning. For this I receive all the glory, for I come to make all things new. As Heaven comes to this place, there is much purification to be done, purification by fire. My children know that this is only for a short time.

Many sudden-lies will happen at once. Do not be surprised or caught off-guard. Sudden-lies are the twinkling of the eye My Word speaks about. For in the midst of the darkness, My Bride will be transformed. Many things will be happening at once, much chaos will surround you, but you will only know peace. The transformation will be complete and quick, this suddenly will be upon you. So be ever vigilant and ready for it comes!

To those who continue to mock and speak against My messengers and My words of warning, I warn you...ENOUGH IS ENOUGH. You will know who is God, and you will know what I have spoken is true. I will bring you to your knees, and I will cause much anguish as you are convicted of your words and your actions. You must stop your doubt and your disbelief for the culmination of all things is at hand. I will soon show you as this will become your reality, and for many this will be too late. For, you will not escape My judgment and My wrath, for you have not heeded these warnings before-hand. You have not come to Me in forgiveness and repentance, on your knees, contrite and humble. For, this you will pay. For many, the cost will be your very lives. But I have warned you and warned you time and time again. You will be without excuse.

This darkness comes very quickly, so My Bride stay very close to Me, to My heart in every moment. Do not fear that you will not know the hour in which I come, for I will reveal Myself to all of those who walk with Me and in whom I indwell. In this be assured.

PREPARE! PREPARE! PREPARE!

FOR YOUR BRIDEGROOM COMES...

and together we bring in the harvest. Rejoice and be glad this day, for victory is won and you know the outcome. Together you will sing praise with all of the multitudes around My Throne for all eternity. For, you have been chosen from before the foundation of the earth for this time. Thank you My Beloved for responding to the urgency of My messages for interceding for all of those who need Me and My salvation in their lives. Be faithful, be true.

Love one another as I have loved you.

WHO WILL STAND BEFORE THE GREAT I AM - 06/01/15

Come to Me on bended knee, interceding for the sins of this nation and those of the world, for this is a most perverse and wicked generation. You have seen the destruction coming and know that it must be so, for never before has sin reached a level such as this. I have turned My eyes away for so long at the injustices and the terrible deeds men do in this place, but I can no longer turn a blind eye to the great deeds of darkness.

I have spoken of a time when the cries of those slain, that are under My altar would be heard and their prayers answered. This is that time. You ask why there must be so much destruction, why so violent? I tell you this, that a mere thought by Me could vaporize the entire earth, taking My Bride and leaving nothing behind. It is always out of My mercy that I do all things. When I tell you that you will see those that will be in great terror and pain; when I speak of the wailing and gnashing of teeth, know this is something none of you has ever seen or heard before, or will again.

This despair that will befall those who have turned their backs on Me will be so great, and what you will see is souls in complete and utter despair. I cannot describe to you what this will be like; I can only tell you over and over. Prepare! Prepare! Prepare yourselves! I need those who know Me intimately and walk with Me to minister to these lost ones and not be affected by their cries of anguish and pain. What you will see will be chilling. It will be the greatest horrors this world has ever known.

But you see, My plan is perfect because unfortunately for many it is only out of great and intense pain and suffering that they cry out to Me. Should I turn My back on them and not care for their existence? Their pain would be lessened for they would simply vanish. But this is not My desire. There has been ample time over the centuries for people to turn to Me.

Now the end must come.

Although fiery and painful, tremendously powerful in might, it will still offer the opportunity for a choice to be made. Beauty will come from the ashes. This is why it must be done in this way. One day, I will show you all things and you will understand. But for now, it is enough to know that all of these things must take place and it is out of My great love for all that I do these things.

Pray unceasingly. Remain steadfast and be of good courage My soldiers and My army, My warriors. Fight the good fight of faith in strength and honor, loyalty and bravery, showing goodness, kindness and mercy to all as it has been shown to you.

Who will stand before the Great I AM? Who will stand?

A NEW DAY IS DAWNING, BUT FIRST-THE GREAT PURIFICATION - 06/09/15

The time is now My loves to fully engage on all levels; powerful in love, courageous in Kingdom authority. Engage in this moment of now, all that I have taught you.

A great and terrible evil covers this earth, and it is only My complete indwelling, the fullness of who I am within you, that can stand in total victory, as the hordes of hell are unleashed.

I am a covenant keeping God, and I am faithful and true. I will fulfill all of my promises to you My overcomers. You have nothing to fear. The veil has been parted and the windows of heaven are open so that you may draw from Me, the Source, all that you require to be victorious. Doubt and hesitation have been far removed from you and you have stepped into your priestly roles.

I am about to shake the heavens and the earth mightily but I am the solid rock on which you stand. Listen very carefully to Me as I will guide you and give you My wise counsel in any situation you face. You will perform mighty exploits in My name. Watch and see what I am about to do. My great refining fire rains upon the lands and I will purify once again, all that is not of Me.

Mysteries upon mysteries are being revealed at ever-increasing speeds as the culmination of all things has arrived. As I have told you, obedience is your key, no matter how things appear. All is not as it seems, so only listen to your Shepherd's voice. I will lead you on paths of righteousness for My name's sake and miracles upon miracles will astound you.

A new day is dawning, but first - The Great Purification.

Be at peace My love(s), for I carry you in the palm of My hand!

A GREAT AND TERRIBLE HOUR IS COME, AN HOUR IN WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN PREPARED - 06/15/15

Daughter, speak, for you know it is I, the Holy One of Israel. My sheep know My voice as I AM the Great Shepherd, the Great I AM, the One who was, who is and who is to come; the Lamb who was slain, who has redeemed men from their sins, all sin for all time. I AM He who has risen and is seated at the right hand of My Father. I AM He who is coming. Trust, daughter, and speak for Me this day.

*I AM THE GREAT I AM***

All power and authority are given to Me from on High by My Father, in the earth, on the earth, under the earth. I alone am King of Kings and Lord of Lords. I alone reign Supreme over every created thing. I alone am Sovereign. I alone am holy and righteous and can only speak truth, for I AM the ever faithful One.

Rise, My children, rise and take a powerful and authoritative stand this day, this moment, for I call you to rise from the dust and the ashes of a world and of a nation corrupt. Assume your positions, My children, My Bride; your lamps burning brightly and your oil overflowing, for it is you I speak to on this day. You must be fine-tuned, ever sober and vigilant, have laser-like focus, more so now than ever. You will not hear Me if you allow the distractions and the pollutions of the world to enter your minds and your situations. A greater refining is occurring as We speak together this day, and I am bringing Mine through the fire, the fire of testing and the fire of purification as silver is refined and gold -- by fire.

You are held to a greater accountability, and in this you do receive My greater revelations and the increase of My impartations to you in the spirit. I am pouring out My spirit in this place and I am causing My people to hear Me very clearly, very directly because of what I am about to do. A great and terrible hour is come, an hour in which you have been prepared. Many are the words and the warnings that have been spoken to My people to prepare them for this hour so that you would not move in fear.

You will see great manifestations of My power and My presence as the end of all things is here. This great day has come and is upon you. The mighty fortresses that men have built in their own honor and for their own vanities will come crashing down. I AM will destroy all that man has raised up. I have shown you in your night vision this past night, the fire that will suddenly be upon you. In this vision you were shown how you were trying to warn people to take action and preventative measures, but all of your words fell on deaf ears. So many were consumed with the ongoings of daily life and were completely oblivious to what was befalling them.

For the most part, My warnings and My words through My messengers and My prophets have been ignored.

Because many have not been obedient to learn of Me and become intimate with Me so that I would reveal mysteries to them. They continue to operate in a realm and from a perspective that does not belong to Me and My Kingdom. Therefore, these things that come will be sudden-lies and catch them off-guard.

But to you, My wise virgins who have your oil lamps full and overflowing, and who are ever ready in every moment to meet your Bridegroom, it is for you that I come. It is for you that this bridal chamber has been made ready. It is for you that the marriage table has been prepared.

The drums of war are no longer in the distance, daughter. They are upon you. The end is here. The day dawns when all of My prophecies must be fulfilled. Be steadfast and of good courage, My beloveds. I hold you in the palm of My hand, and no harm will come to those who have been obedient. Hide your eyes, dear ones, until the indignation is past, for it will be terrible and great and sorrow will cover your lands. Judgment will strike suddenly and panic will ensue.

My Bride is ready, however, for you have been trained in My ways, and you will minister and love as I have loved you. You will gather the flock and bring comfort out of tribulation. My light in you will quell the fears of many, and many will come to know Me for who I AM. I will strike without warning, but for those of you who have been listening to My voice and preparing for this hour, you will rise in a strength that you have never had before. You will have My complete infusion. No longer will you operate from your flesh, for We will be, and are, pure Spirit, One Spirit in each other, One Spirit in Our Father. All around the world, My Bride will hear One voice, One mandate. We move as One body. Of this you can be assured. We will communicate in the Spirit, and there will be no question as to what you are to do and where you are to be.

These judgments will not only come from under the earth as all of the plates are shifting, but this judgment will also come from the skies, as all must be shaken.

Stand fast, My army, be bold and be courageous, unwavering, unshakable, valiant and in authority, powerful love, Kingdom authority. This is who you are, because this is who I AM. To you is given all power, strength and authority from on High, because it is I AM who dwells within you. There are no bounds and no limits to what We are about to do. All provision and resources from on High belong to you as the storehouses of blessings have been poured out upon you. You do not stand alone. You are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. Many, many assist in the spiritual. We are more than the enemy. We are victorious, for We have already won. Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world.

I AM will bestow upon you a peace incomprehensible to those around you who will suffer great travail. Be love, children. Be My example. Be Me in all that is coming, and great will be your reward. Rejoice, for you have been chosen from before the foundation of time to fulfill this purpose for Me.

You are loved by the King.

What more is there than this?
