My first thought is to answer your question as to where everyone (especially children) disappeared to. We are in Heaven. Jesus, the REAL Jesus son of God Jesus, came to get us, just as He promised in the Bible. All those fanatical Christians that you used to make fun of...were right. Now you will be told otherwise. I am not sure WHAT lie you will be told, but it WILL be a lie. Aliens, angels, who knows. But Jesus came and got us. We are all better than safe, we are in Heaven right now, but we are learning as of this date while still on Earth...that we may come back. I am not sure when or how long, but we are learning that we may be able to come back in our new glorified/supernatural bodies to help other new Christians find a way Home. Joel 2 in the Bible, talks about our return...Jesus' Army. That's us. Right now we are still watchers on earth as of this date above. We are watching for the return of Jesus Christ. All the signs are here, earthquakes, extreme weather, war (especially with Israel), signs in the sky, meteors, alignments, dead animals washing up on shore, sink holes. Stuff that never happened even 10 years ago to this degree. So we know He is coming! Do not mourn for us, but mourn for yourself because the hour of satan has arrived. It is all written about in the true Bible. Now Bibles are about to become a rare commodity so if you find one, hide it! "They" will publish a "new" Bible, but it will be full of lies. Only the ones you find right now teach the truth about Jesus Christ. He is NOT an alien! Do not be angry at Him, be angry at yourself for not choosing Him while you could before He returned. Now turn to HOPE because you can still come with us to Heaven! Just accept Jesus as your Savior and do not deny Him in the coming days. No matter what! Life on earth is but a breath of air, but eternity is everything.

Next thing on the agenda is what "they" will tell you about our disappearance. We know right now, that satan will be coming to Earth in the form of a very wonderful and charismatic man. Do not be deceived! He is evil incarnate! Probably the Pope is also with him, partnered up even to promote peace and security. Again all lies! The best thing you can do is try to find water and food and hide. Some say the mountains. Just do the best you can. And no matter what...do NOT take whatever mark or chip or implant or whatever they call it, and allow them to inject it into your right hand or forehead. This has already been warned about in the Bible. It has the #666 with it somehow so stay far away. Even if you have to die. To die is gain, because you will gain an eternal life, rather than an eternal death.

Something else that will become evident is that there will be 2 men near the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem. They are Enoch and Elijah of the Bible. They really are these men! The Book of Revelation speaks of these two witnesses, and again I am telling you this NOW on this DAY and we have not yet disappeared! But we will. We will be in Glory, but the earth will tremble and disasters will come upon the land, especially the USA for all her sins (Babylon). Again, try to find water and food and a place to hide. Money will eventually become worthless because you will need that chip in your hand or head to buy stuff. DON'T DO IT! It will change you mentally forever. And do NOT believe the "aliens" that will come. They may say they are angels or guides or whatever. But for sure they are not aliens. These are the fallen angels that fell with Lucifer/satan long ago before the Garden of Eden. Try to stay away from them. There may be some kind of euphoria come over people when these beings come near, so stay away! They are not loving or kind although they say they are and are of the "light". Do not believe Lightworkers either..they will betray you. I know this because I studied the channelings of these beings with the Lightworkers to see what they were up to.

Finally, cry out to God. Repent of your ways and seek Jesus in all that you do. Pray without ceasing! Forget about this life now, the earth is dying and only Jesus return will fix everything. He WILL return, in fact we ALL will return. Read about it in the Bible. I know this all sounds so religious to you...but if you would have heeded the warnings then you would be with us and not reading this "Left Behind" letter. I am so sorry.

Pray for discernment for those that come to "help" you. Make sure they are showing you the way to Jesus Christ, and not the Christ Consciousness. There IS a God and He is the might God of the Bible! There IS hope from the One who loves you! Do NOT believe that there is another Jesus coming with this man and Pope. There is only the Son of God and He will return when the world is all involved in the war with Israel...Armageddon.
