1st Dream - Plague

December 2019

Hey this is Dana Coverstone I'm a pastor I'm a husband I'm a father I'm a patriot I love this country and I can confirm the first part of what I'm about to tell you because I told some men at a prayer group back in December second or third week of December I want to share three specific dreams that I've had recently going back to December two that I've had this week both Monday and last night Monday-Tuesday night because I believe nber one they are prophetic. The first one that I had has come explicitly true based on the events of March through June the month of which we're living and I do not claim to be a prophet by any means. I understand though that some dreams and visions by their nature have a prophetic tendency to them but I do believe I've seen things both that have happened as relevant by the first dream that I had and some things that I've seen recently so you can take what I'm about to say with a grain of salt you can pray about it you can think about it but I believe that I have a warning for the country a warning for rural America a warning for America overall here's what happened back in December.

1st Dream - Plague

I woke up, I had a dream and in that dream I saw a calendar starting January 2020 and it was being flipped and I saw January I saw February I saw March and when March came up the hand held it and I saw the finger underline the month of March and then tap it three times so underlined the month of March tapped it three times so to me it was emphasis something's going to happen in March and then I saw April May June and when June came the hand underlined June again and tapped it three times. Then in the vision I saw people marching I saw protests I saw people wearing masks I saw lines going into hospitals I saw typical medical doctors with needles or syringes I saw people on ventilators I saw people who were very very sick very very ill, I saw newspaper headlines trpeting thousands of people getting sick I saw ambulances just flying down roads and then I saw I saw cities on fire I saw buildings being burned I saw protesters with masks I saw people who had their fists in the air people who were yelling and screaming, angry at the world I saw courthouses I saw state houses surrounded I saw people who were mad at the world I saw guns shotguns specifically put in the air held like this [with both hands over their heads] and I saw barriers within cities I told several men in my church about this and I can confirm who those men were and they'll confirm that what I'm telling you is what I told them. I saw absolute chaos and the other thing I saw was vultures flying over large cities not just the ones that were burning but I saw vultures flying over the cities and I saw smoke rising and I saw people fearful, I saw people terrified, I saw people inside their homes and looking out the windows the curtains of their windows and with guns in their hands because there was absolute fear. Then I heard the words “Brace yourself, Brace yourself”.

So since December I've been hearing those words “Brace yourself, Brace yourself” January February came didn't see too much I reminded the men of the dream and then in March boom COVID19 hit and things started shutting down. Churches were shut down business was shut down the economy shut down then we began to see the protests starting in may in Minneapolis and all those things began to go on so where we are at the end of the primary election here in Kentucky and now there's talk of more shutdowns. I just heard the governor talk about schools opening back up and things of that nature but the things that I saw in a dream of vision back in December are the same things that I watched in the news almost every day since March through June all this time I kept hearing “Brace yourself, Brace yourself” I spend time in prayer I spend time in the Word. I'm a pastor and it's not just my job it's something that I enjoy doing I love doing and I'm very interested in the news around the world. I read 40 newspapers [headlines] a day from all around the world, I keep up with news in other parts of the nations better sometimes than here because it's hard to know who to trust but I get news from all around the world from both liberal and conservative sources I'm very well read, I'm very understanding of how nations work, I've traveled quite a bit and I'm not just making these things up I can confirm what I have said and with that in mind on Monday night I had another dream and it woke me from my bed. I made notes about it, I shot some video myself just making sure I can remember but here's what I saw.

2nd Dream - November calendar

22nd June 2020

2nd Dream - November calendar

I saw a calendar and as I [saw] the calendar a white figure appeared and to me it was a representing God the Holy spirit something pure something righteous something true something holy because there was nothing, nothing sinister about it, nothing evil but I heard the voice say “Part two, Part two” and I saw June go up, I saw July, I saw August and then I saw September and I saw the finger underneath the word September like emphasizing it and tapped it three times and then I saw October come up and then I saw November and this is when it got real to me in the dream I think the intensity according to my Fitbit when I woke up my heart rate was about 180. So that was Monday night it was also [the] night that I woke up not feeling very well at all. I was up during the night not feeling well but anyway the minute the finger underlined November three times instead of tapping it I saw a fist ball up and it hit the calendar and literally the calendar exploded into the wall, the numbers seemed like they were 3D and they were falling they were just flying everywhere and there was a cloud of chaos that started and then the next thing I saw was armed protesters I saw fighting in the streets I saw people pmling one another. I saw businesses shuttered and shut up. I saw schools close I saw school rooms with cobwebs hanging in them and like papers falling off the wall and posters it felt like no one had been in them for months. I saw bank buildings with the roofs being taken off it looked almost like alien abduction because money was just flying through the roof into some type of like a vacu cleaner it sounds kind of strange but I was watching wealth just being taken I saw politicians in back rooms making deals with people you know patting people on the back and laughing and smiling and smirking and I saw monuments I saw Washington DC burning I saw Washington DC blazing I saw fires everywhere I saw people being rounded up I saw Chinese and Russian soldiers on the ground and Russian soldiers were telling the Chinese soldiers to go and pick up these people round up these people secure this quadrant secure this area. I saw blue helmets of the UN. I saw military things taking place I also saw no sign of president Trp, I saw no sign of leadership in Washington DC but the vultures that I had seen were now like gargoyles and they were 10 feet off the ground 10 to 15 feet off the ground and they were just attacking people mercilessly I saw people hiding in their homes and garages, I saw churches being burned I saw homes being burned I saw absolute chaos. The fists punched on the November of 2020 is what got my attention and then I heard the words again “Brace yourself, Brace yourself, Brace yourself”.

That has been something that I have heard for almost seven well seven months now starting once we get to July it's going to be seven months and once again I'm not claiming to be a prophet I'm not claiming you know just we'll see what happens through November and see if I'm right about this but I know when I hear God's voice, I know what God's voice sounds like to me I know when he speaks I know when I have a dream that I know is Him and the things that I was saying I don't say this to scare people but I say this to warn people that there are some pretty sinister things coming down the pike and not just for the lost but for God's people as well.

3rd Dream - Coin shortage

The second dream I had last night and it woke me up in this dream we just had a yard sale to help fund a team going to Ecuador this next year and we had a yard sale and I had asked our secretary to get us some change for that secretary for that yard sale so in the dream that I walk into the bank to get some change and on the door it says "there's no change available" I saw the sign it registered in my mind but I walked on in and the president of the local bank was at the teller station and she was gonna be taking care of business and I said I need to get ten dollars in quarters for a yard sale and she said "I'm sorry but the US mint is no longer making currency" or making change like pennies nickels dimes quarters half dollars we're not doing that any more it's like well what do you mean she said they've stopped doing it I said well how are we going to be able to charge the dollar 50 for anything and she said "prepare for hyperinflation and just charge two dollars" and then she said to me in the dream "oh and by the way one dollar and five dollar bills will follow soon after that" and then I heard those words "Brace yourself, Brace yourself, Brace yourself" and I woke up.

I wrote these things down I've never gone on video and recorded the dreams that I've had and I hesitated to not do the one I had back in December but everything I saw in that dream in December came true between march and June in the dream I was showed March through June and so I don't think I would be doing anyone a service if I don't share what I saw in these dreams and visions and I believe that we're going to see not just a second huge wave of Covid between September October November but we're going to see major things with the elections we're going to see major chaos in our country we're going to see troops in our cities we're going to see the protests get even worse we're going to see buildings burn we're going to see what could only lead to civil war in this country and so for my friends that are believers I'm here I'm just going to show you what I think you need to hear first of all you need to be preparing food make sure you've got alternative forms of currency like silver or gold or whatever I believe you need to have an ample supply of both guns and ammunition and that's not just the second amendment fan in me coming out that is the things that we're seeing they're talking about defunding the police that means one thing you're on your own a lot of areas I also believe you need to be praying like you've never prayed before make sure your family knows what's going on - where you are - have some communication between your family if certain things happen if certain things go down I'm not saying get off the grid and I've never ever said anything like this in my church I have said I believe things like this could happen but I've never done what I'm doing right now and I'm telling you that between September and November of this coming year and you'll be able to check me if if by the time we [see] November nothing's happened or December 1st man you call you call me on this and say "Dana Coverstone you're an absolute idiot and a fool for saying those things" go right ahead but I realize I'm responsible for what I've spoken but I also know what I sense and I know the Holy spirit's voice enough to know that what I've heard I believe is going to happen and what I heard in December happened between March and June not because I'm a prophet because dreams have a prophetic edge to them sometimes I've been doing a whole series on dreams and visions I'm going to finish that series up tonight on our church and I'm going to talk about why dreams and visions are literally an extension of the spiritual gifts of first Corinthians chapter 12 because word of wisdom or the knowledge discernment all those things are required for dreams and I pray Lord show me what these things mean that I have seen show me how to interpret them and what they are and right now as I speak this it is June 24th Wednesday night at 5 30 pm in Burkesville Kentucky I'm in my office at the church Living Word Ministries in Berkshire

Kentucky sharing this not to scare you because I believe you know look God gave the prophets of the old testament a lot of warnings not to scare people but to prepare them for what was coming and so I'm challenging you don't just throw my word away don't just think I'm some preacher trying to get people to come that's not it either because look the bible says last days but great falling away Jesus tells people to endure to the end make sure you endure to the end, why, because people wouldn't endure sound doctrine they're gonna hear something you know some are gonna hear me and go "oh man he is on drugs or something" I'm just telling you the dreams I've had you can do with them you can interpret them the way that you want to but I'm going to declare that I believe we're going to see between September and November incredible terrible awful nasty bad things happen [in] this nation and for the people who are not prepared for it, it's not just going to catch them catch them in a bad place it's going to destroy a lot of faith a lot of hearts a lot of relationships a lot of people the aim is to kill this nation because right now we are a nation that stands in the way of a lot of the Antichrist principles like freedom liberty justice first amendment second amendment the Antichrist doesn't want those things and yes I do believe the Antichrist is alive and well on planet earth and I don't really care what people think about this video you can call me whatever you want you can say whatever you want about me but wait till December first to say it and if I'm wrong I'll be the first one to come out and say folks I don't know what I was thinking.

4th Dream - Wolves

26th June 2020

Hi there my name is Dana Coverstone and I pastor Living Word Ministries Assembly of God church in Burkesville Kentucky we're 12 miles north of the Tennessee line. I've been a pastor for almost 30 years, been at this church almost 10, 10 years this October, been in three different places in ministry in that 30 years averaging about 10 years, nine half ten years each place but the reason for this video right now is I had another dream last night. I posted one that I had three [so far] that I had earlier this week and I have been absolutely overwhelmed. Almost 11 000 people have watched that, I had no clue it would go that far, I was just trying to say something to our people here locally and those that knew me but I do believe God has spoken to me and showed me through some dreams some things that are coming. The one I had last night I got up somewhere in the neighborhood of 3:30 – 3:35 and just got my iPhone out and made notes as fast as I could, I do believe that this is something that we're on the precipice of and perhaps has even started and deals with persecution of the church that's coming, and there was a surprising twist for me and I want to share this. I don't want to keep doing dreams all the time I'd rather not have the dreams I've had because there's a lot of responsibility with them and one of the consequences of dreams just like Daniel got sick, he was tired I was exhausted. These things have played with my mind all this last all this week all day long all I can think about is what I saw and heard last night. I worked part-time at the local hospital so I had to be at work at 5:30 this morning just got off about two so I wanted to get this on video format so I can share it tomorrow and our YouTube channel as well. Look I've never pastored a church larger than 150 people, I've never made a whole lot of money ever as a pastor and I mostly pastored in rural communities Terre Haute was larger so the largest city I ever pastored in our county has about 7200 people. I grew up in a town of about you know 1500 in Jasonville Indiana I don't have a whole lot of you know big city connections or things like that and that's not what this is about either. I just God has given me dreams that I believe are warnings and this one specifically is for the church I don't have a time-frame on this one but let me just tell you what I experienced and then you can once again the video I showed the other day you can judge anything you want about this because I'm not trying to make money I'm not trying to get connections I'm not trying to get more followers or people to be on Facebook friends I know I've heard from the Lord, I know what his voice sounds like I know the dreams are from Him and I know this was from Him.

4th Dream - Wolves

So in the dream I was standing over a field or looking down on a valley and there was a large field and there was a bunch of wolves in this field (I'm looking at notes on my phone on my computer so I can make sure I get all the valid points that I need to make) all these wolves were in this field never sleep and there were hundreds [and] hundreds perhaps even thousands of wolves all dark gray not black but just dark gray and menacing wolves and they were all sleeping and they were nuzzling each other and just kind of laying around and no movement at all and suddenly somebody - a very dark figure - began running into the middle of all those wolves and with a look like a whip began to whip all those wolves and the wolves began to wake up and they were shrieking and making horrible noises because they were waking up to being hurt and as I watched the person with the whip just kept whipping them and he kept basically stirring them into a frenzy. He wasn't beating them on purpose he was beating them into a frenzy he was making them mad he was infuriating them he was trying to get them stirred up and he kept whipping and every single animal every single wolf that was in that area had been hit by the man but they weren't hurting him they showed some respect to him they showed some fear of him obviously he was like a master. So as he kept whipping these wolves the wolves finally kind of cowered down at this point he stops and he pointed his finger and he turned around almost like if I would point my finger, he just spun in a circle and he said "go to the cities". And those wolves took off in every single direction possible, howling howling howling [at the] top of their lungs taking off and the sky is dark. I don't remember if I saw a moon I just thought it was a dark night a dark sky a dark figure dark wolves and now they're being set loose and these things are being sent to the cities after being whipped and beaten by whoever it was that was, you know, stirring them up. So next scene changes and I'm standing in front of an almost like a monitor a video screen of hundreds of TV sets or just hundreds of computer screens and I'm watching men and women of God pastors of black white Asian Indian all over all around the world and I saw myself and we're all preaching the gospel and each one of us is sweating and we are there's almost like steam coming off of our heads it shows the impact of what we're trying to make and we're preaching hard and we're teaching hard and we're teaching biblical principles and dealing with some of the major issues and things like that and culture but we're calling people to righteousness and holiness and to give up unGodly things that are part of their lives and as I'm doing this and as I'm preaching and others when I'm watching all these other men and women preach I see people in the chairs in the pews in the seats and some are looking at their watches and some are yawning and some have their heads on the back of the pew and they're asleep others are just - you can tell - uncomfortable they don't want to be there. I see people walking out the back doors but compared to that I also see at the front of the church I see a handful and I'm going to call it a core I will not use the word remnant because when I think of the word remnant I think of that applying specifically to the Jewish people but there was a small core group in every church I saw where the gospel was being preached a small core group of people who were emphatically listening emphatically supporting their pastors who were preaching who were supporting the doctrine the teaching the ideas that were coming out from these men and women of God and they were kneeling in prayer and they were praying and they were supportive but they weren't necessarily unaware of what was going on around them but they knew there were people that weren't paying attention and I could see they were also praying for those in the chairs behind them who weren't listening. All the ones that weren't listening were behind those who were - there were some at the altar, there were some in the front couple chairs and rows and pews but for the most part there was a gap between those really listening and paying attention and those that weren't. And suddenly in the midst of all this preaching and the people being sweaty from the intensity of the message they were preaching - suddenly the howling of wolves lands outside and you suddenly hear scratching at the door like a just like a dog trying to get in or trying to get out and at that moment the people who were up front close to the pastor and close [to] the altar began to turn around and they were aware that someone was at the door and they began to intensely pray just intensely pray and aggressively pray against the enemy against the spirit that was at the door and suddenly the door didn't burst open but the wolves just began to come in they began to walk around they walked up and sniffed some of the people who were just listening and the people who weren't listening at all really had no idea that they were there at all. Now when the wolves came in one key aspect I think I don't know if I said or not, all of these wolves had red eyes when they woke up and were being stirred into flight into a fury they had ravenous red eyes almost like a red led light it shone out, it was like when you take a picture of an animal or someone and the red in their eyes shows up it was that kind of thing and before there was, you know, when they were being stirred up and whipped by that black leader/character/master-figure those eyes began to glow and get brighter and brighter so when they were set loose and going to the city is what he said their eyes were just flaming so now these animals came into the churches but their eyes aren't red they're just black and compliant, they're looking around they're watching and they go and they sit. Every single person in the church that I was preaching and look I did not recognize some of the people in my church I recognized some of them I also recognized the ones who were at the very front, the core group, who were praying and seeking God's face and listening and being supportive of what was being said and once again I saw hundreds of faces so I know I'm not the only preacher who's preaching the kind of things that I preach and deal with issues I deal with I'm not the only one who is saying "hey these things are sin these things can't be a part of our lives". I'm not the only one there were hundreds of faces that I saw but the wolves came up and sat down in the chairs in the pews right beside the people who were not listening and even those people didn't really understand that there was a wolf beside them there was no fear no worry no concern nothing like that at all and it was almost as if they didn't even realize they were there but then the more and the louder that I preached and the more intensely I preached and the more I dealt with issues and things that were sent obviously in our world and in the bible these people began to stir and all of a sudden the wolves eyes became red and redder and redder and as the people got irritated the wolves began to growl and when they would begin to growl the people who weren't listening were saying "shut up, stop saying that, I don't want to hear that" they were very very aggressive words like "stop saying those things" and in my message in my head I kept preaching, I kept preaching and on the screens that I'm seeing in my head all these people just kept preaching and preaching and preaching. Finally the people who aren't listening that are now listening and saying "shut up and stop" the wolves they're like wrestling besides they're nudging them they're getting them worked-up too so the enemy works these wolves up the wolves come in they stir up the people and now the wolves start coming up towards me and on the screens I'm seeing those wolves are coming up near other pastors other preachers other men and women of God who are trying to say don't do this and stop doing this and this is the way you know Jesus said the way was narrow and the gate was very small to get in so we're preaching that kind of a message and as we're preaching that those wolves are coming up and they start nipping at my leg and they're starting to try to bite some of the people that I'm watching on screen and they're growling and they're getting right up in our face one jps up on the pulpit it's right in my face and it's growling I can see the saliva dripping off of his teeth and I'm trying to push him off the screen and he bites my arm and he's grabbing my legs and I'm watching some of my people that I know that are preachers and our pastors and share the same heart for ministry and preaching that I do, I see that some of these wolves are taking them down to the ground and they're growling and we just keep preaching and they keep biting and they just keep biting and they just keep attacking us and the louder we get the louder the wolves howl and the people at the altar they're praying and they're praying for safety and they're praying for protection. Now I'm just going to tell you the wolves weren't necessarily attacking the people that were praying they were stirring up the people who weren't listening and they were attacking the preachers the pastors those of us that were trying to preach the message that God had given us and the intensity in that moment was just it was profound for me and even in the message as I'm preaching I'm trying to kick a wolf here and so there was no way we were just being overwhelmed and attacked and people are getting up and they're leaving I'm talking to people who weren't listening they're leaving and they're slamming the doors and they're just making a big scene "we're not coming back you won't shut up, we're done hearing this! stop it stop it stop it stop it!" and they leave and suddenly the scene changed and I saw courtrooms and I saw judges with gavels pounding just pounding, pounding at the bench I saw pastors in chains. I had shackles on myself I see people in the jury seats and in the witness stand and they're crying and the judges are saying you can no longer preach this message you can no longer declare that this type of lifestyle is sin you cannot say anything bad about this kind of lifestyle you cannot say anything bad about this situation you cannot address these things from the pulpit ever again you cannot say this you cannot say that you cannot say that Jesus is the only way that's one specific thing I remember you cannot say that abortion is a sin that I remember as well you cannot deal with alternative lifestyles and call them awful terrible things you can't say that these things violate scripture you can no longer preach from scripture was one obvious thing that was stated and said and most of us that were in there were saying "we can't do that, we can't do that" and the gavel comes down in anger and they're mad, they're mad, they're mad and then I saw churches surrounded by mobs of people, people that were yelling to shut it down, even burn it down, I saw people who were being so hateful towards the church I saw people harassing believers who were going into church services I saw people waiting outside after church to harass people who were coming from church to go home. I saw just hateful attitudes but the thing that stood out in my mind most, of the people in those crowds were the people who'd been sitting in those chairs and those pews and were not listening to begin with, and in that moment it struck me even in the dream that some of the biggest persecutions the church is going to face coming very very soon and probably - I believe - have already started so the biggest persecution will come from those who sat in our churches never accepted the Word of God as the Word of God raised in all their lives and now want to walk away because they do not like the preaching of the Word of God that says this is sin this is wrong you cannot walk in this and still be a believer it was the group of people it was the sons and daughters and grandchildren of people who've been raised they've been raised in church all their lives but they've said "we've had it, there's nothing in this for me, this gospel has no power, has no authority, it says I can't have this, I can't do that, I can't go where I want to go, I can't be who I want to be, I can't do what I want to do" and those were the people who were screaming they were throwing rocks they had baseball bats and guns in their hands they were throwing threats at those of us who were coming out of the church and the anger was led once again by those who had fallen away and I do believe that people can fall away from the Lord I believe in backsliding those were the people who were pushing back against everything that had been taught, those that have gone away to college those that have become very, very liberal in all they think and all they do, those who have given in to some of the ideas of the protests movements that we're seeing today and the ideologies that we're seeing today the ideologies that say that one race is better than others the thing I saw about the pastors who were preaching, they were of every race and color I saw black and I saw white I saw native American I saw Indian I saw African I saw Russian I saw everybody I saw Chinese I saw people who were preaching the gospel we're not I'm not the only one but I'm telling you what I saw because the biggest persecution that came, came from the people who had walked away from the church and then I saw pulpits being chopped up with axes the big old style wooden pulpit I saw them being just chopped to pieces I saw plexiglass pulpits being hammered, hammered I saw Christians in chains I saw them publicly ridiculed and I saw them publicly assaulted because their ideas were old-fashioned and needed to go and then I heard a cry that I've heard for six months but there was something added to it I heard “Brace yourself and endure to the end”

And just like that I woke up. My heart was racing because I saw people that I knew, I saw missionary friends of mine on the foreign field, I saw pastor friends, I saw district leaders and officials from states that I know who are being attacked by those wolves while they preach the gospel and held to that standard of the Word of God and they would not back down and I saw the intensity in their eyes and the fight of their faith because of what they were dealing with and facing at that very moment I saw it was laid out and I share this because I want those that like I said there's been almost 11 000 views of that video I showed of the three dreams I had I never I never asked for that I never wanted that I just want to get a message out because I felt God gave me something showed me something for the church and those that might be lost needed to hear it but I'm telling you this right now listen to this church this is the pastors this is the missionaries these this is to those people who are who believe the Word of God is the Word of God without any [doubt]. There's too much compromise in the gospel right now and I believe the Lord is showing me that some of the biggest persecution we're going to face is going to come from within the church itself not from the lost not from Muslims not from protesters it's going to come from people who sat in our churches and refused to listen to the truth of the Word of God and they exchanged the truth of God for a lie – Romans 1 comes out to play right here right now. John King and others are calling for all the statues of white Jesus, Jesus was Jewish he wasn't white but his blood covers everyone's sin his message gives every race, every color, every creed hope. So to my pastor friends I say get with it don't stop preaching the hard gospel don't stop preaching the Word of God and the full gospel behind it and there is going to be a price that we pay for it, it's going to bring some need for endurance in our lives but if we can't endure now then what we've been preaching has been a lie all the time. God's calling us to the forefront men and women of God, preachers get on your knees get in your secret place get in your prayer closet hear from God and preach what He says. Say what He says declare the message He gives you and do not stand down no matter what it costs no matter what it does to you or your family brace yourself and endure to the end

5th Dream of Normandy beach

5th Dream of Normandy beach

Hey everybody it's pastor Dana Coverstone Living Word Ministries in Burkesville Kentucky and today with me is Cherie Goff and Cherie has been doing some interpretation on some of the dreams that I had. I want to give you kind of a heads up, this is actually a dream that I had on Friday night June 26th. I recorded it, I printed it out and put it down but I never felt an intensity or an urgency to get this one out. I shared it with Cherie and some others and she told me last week she really thought we needed to get this out because of Thanksgiving and the holidays. So I'm gonna read through the dream and let Cherie do what she does. I just want to say that timing is everything, with God and there's times we feel an urgency to do something right now other times we feel to just pray about something before we do it and even with the dreams I know when God says "Get this out now, Get this out now" there's that urgency that push, that unction that I've had this one, I just didn't have but Cherie told me that she just kind of felt something with it and I believe with the timing and Thanksgiving it definitely is so. I'm going to read what I wrote down the next morning when I got up on Friday night June the 26th.

I saw the beaches of Normandy such as Omaha and Utah and let me just jump in, I know what I saw because I had been there, I have walked the beaches of Normandy of Utah beach and of Omaha beach. Back in the summer of 1990 spent some time there and so those beaches specifically were very, very well known to me. I saw the gun turrets as if the Germans were still there and I saw black figures with weapons attending to those turrets and on the water coming towards the beaches I saw what appeared to be colonial ships with large sails. I saw ships even going back to the Niña the Pinta and the Santa Maria, I literally saw 400 years of history of ships like colonial and naval ships. Each of the ships had people in the top pointing, pointing towards the shores and they were saying: "Get to the beach, Get to the beach". And I saw the top of the hills where shooters began to shoot cannons and missiles, and so what I was seeing was 400 years of military equipment, everything from cannons to missiles, everything from ancient to modern going back to the 1600s. I was seeing 400 years literally of American history, they were hitting the ships, they were hitting some, some were missing but these ships just kept coming, no matter what type of impact they were getting hit with. And then I was shown in my dream the bottom of the ships and I saw people praying, I saw people interceding, I saw people aggressively praying for the safety of the ships to make it to shore. The more the storm of weapons was coming at the ship so the closer they got the more the attack the more the unleashing of the missiles the cannonballs the fire the shots at them. So these people were praying, they and some of these ships had been hit, some of them were sinking and I was also seeing that some of the ships that had been hit had had people inside of them praying, so they were they trusted God for victory but some of those ships were sinking and were never going to make it to shore. And then I saw naval gunships with people inside them praying with commanders on top steering the ships towards the shore. So now these weren't just normal what you would call maybe a residential ship, this is a commercial military ship these iron clad military vessels and I was kind of seeing our history in America from the pilgrims, the colonial to the colonies and the settlers, people who trusted God for victory and yet some never made the shore. And I saw Hebrews 11 the hall of faith and those that were hiding in the caves and those that were killed but I saw ships that were sinking, I saw ships that were making it to the shore but none of those ships got close without taking on fire or taking on water and literally I saw 400 years of attacks on the country and once again the closer they got to the shore the more modern everything appeared to be it was almost like the further out in the ocean you were the further away you were from in our history. The colonial ships were no longer colonial ships they were modern and those wearing pilgrim clothing, they were wearing the outfits of today all of them had people praying and yet some of them were hit and attacked and sunk. The weapons that were originally cannonballs and missiles now became more modernized as well and the revelation to me at that point was that the enemy had always fought this country and fought against our principles and fought against our values and fought against our freedoms and the closer those ships got to the shore the unleashing of the weapons of the enemy became exponentially strong so there were both victories and defeats even though they had prayed and even though there had been intercession and my last thought as I typed this out was that it rains on the just and the unjust.

So it wasn't necessarily a Thanksgiving time frame that I thought about you know releasing this dream. I just never had a real strong urging. This happened the week that I put the first dream out with the first three dreams and Washington being empty or the White house being empty and the senators in the room and the coin shortage that came out on Wednesday and then I had this dream Friday and so maybe it's just one of those times for such a time as this. But Cherie thanks again for having interest in the dreams and your friendship and your insight to these things - I greatly appreciate that so I'm gonna turn this over to you now okay.

1st Vision - Praying in tongues

Video here

Hello this is Dana Coverstone pastor at living word ministries in Burkesville Kentucky. Sunday morning I had a vision that I just want to share quickly and I want to make it very clear that this is aimed at spirit-filled people those of you that speak in tongues I'm a Pentecostal pastor I've been baptized in the Spirit since I was 15 years old I've actually spent the last about 40 minutes praying in tongues here before. After I got up I'm in office right now and I'm sharing that yesterday when I got this vision I was in the pulpit walking back and forth on the platform praying for the morning service. Here's what I saw and I believe here's why I saw it.

1st Vision - Praying in tongues

So a long rectangular room I saw a door at the very end I saw no windows concrete floor no cracks no gravel just a concrete floor and I saw ten people lined up on their knees there were five men five women the men had no shirts on the women were dressed modestly but they were all bent down almost as if they were about to be executed behind one man the first man in line a dark figure shows up and begins to just beat him. Looks like with a whip all 10 of these people are praying out loud not yelling or screaming, just out loud in tongues there are different colors different races different nationalities no one is speaking English at all, so I can tell in my dream in the spirit that all these people are praying in tongues and they're about to get beaten for it. The first person is getting beaten just as hard as they can and they keep praying in tongues they keep praying in tongues they keep praying in tongues and finally the beating gets so bad they go down to the ground and the person with the whip gets down and begins to listen into the ears of the person that's praying they've gone from speaking in tongues and praying in tongues out loud and now they are whispering in tongues so the man gets up and begins to beat the man until he is unconscious then he steps behind the next person pulls out a different type of weapon this is more like a cane pole like you'd see someone in the Philippines being beaten with and that person begins to beat on the man as he is praying in tongues once again they are consistently praying in tongues the whole time it didn't stop when one person is being beaten the focus is on one person being beating and beating at a time and everybody's praying in tongues that's one specific thing I know from the vision that I saw and the second person begins to get beat with that cane pole and that person begins to get a little bit louder and louder in tongues and as he gets louder and louder praying in tongues the beating intensifies to the point that the guy just drops to his knees the third man he walks behind him and he picks up a different type of weapon more like a flagell or something like what the Romans would have used. I see pieces of metal and nicks in it and rock and glass and bone and he begins to whip him and the guy stops praying in tongues and takes a deep breath and then he starts again so the guy hits him again and it sticks in his skin, and he stops praying in tongues and then he starts again the guy whips him again and finally he says I can't take this, I can't take this and the figure said "then stop" they said "okay I'll stop" the man drops the flagell walks in front of the third person grabs him by the hand and leads him to the door opens it lets him out shuts the door and comes back, the beating continued on all of those people only one person left when the beating was done of all those 10 people or the nine people that are left now I went back in the spirit I moved towards the door and looked back and I saw the front of the people and they were bloody and just in pain and in agony but all nine of the ones that were left were continuing to pray in tongues and they had gotten louder and louder one of the women was wailing groaning as it says in Romans just groaning in the spirit laying on the ground writhing in pain and yet she was groaning in the spirit and the man that the figure behind him which I'm going to asse was a man, was just a dark figure was yelling at them and accusing them of lying about being filled with the spirit. He was accusing them of pretending that they were praying in tongues it really wasn't the spirit of God and it was just they gave them no power no authority no ability but yet they were still alive and they were still praying in tongues.

I believe what the spirit of God was telling me was that we're in a place right now where the enemy is going to do everything he can and spirit-filled people to beat the willingness to pray in tongues out of them through hardship through difficulty through frustration through all the things that are going through the pressure and the stress and the strain of life right now the enemy is going to do everything he can to keep you spirit-filled believer from praying in tongues now I know a lot of people I've been called devil-filled, demon-possessed because I pray in tongues, I've had people stop me and say won't you pray in tongues right now well you don't test God in that sense but nonetheless I'm not going to have a theological argment I'm putting this out there because I believe God showed me yesterday spirit-filled people especially in the assemblies of God get on your knees and pray in tongues if there's ever been a time when we need the spirit of God moving in us and through us and with us and out of us it is today. We have people sitting in our Assembly of God churches who haven't prayed in tongues since they were baptized in the spirit 20, 30, 40 years ago emphasize this in your churches pastors pastors I'm an Assemblies of God pastor, I sign a card every year that I believe and I believe that praying in tongues and speaking in tongues is the initial evidence of the baptism of the Holy Spirit we're not emphasizing it as much because we don't want to get our people upset or mad okay I'm not seeing the nber of people baptized in the spirit in my church that I want to see but I've been preaching even the last several weeks you've heard messages from me and we've got to be spirit-filled people have that acts 2 experience. This vision that I had yesterday confirms to me that the spirit of God wants to work with us and help us contend with the enemy's onslaught and the things that are coming and if we're going to endure to the end it's going to take the holy Spirit in us the boldness the power the authority he gives us to make it that's why He[Spirit] fell in acts chapter 2 on the day of Pentecost. Those men were not drunk and Peter said this is that that the prophet Joel spoke about then he talks about the dreams and the visions and the Spirit being poured out on his people all mankind in the Assemblies of God I'm calling us back literally, literally to people praying in tongues on a daily basis I don't care what anybody says about me, look if you've been taught the tongues of the devil read through the book of Acts read through the book of Corinthians I keep hearing all these people say to me well you know it says that you know the tongues will cease it also says knowledge will cease and that hasn't happened so look at the context of the things that you're talking about so even if you're from a movement that preaches that this is of the devil read the bible it's in the bible it's actually in the bible. I know a lot of pastors that will not touch Acts chapter 2 or most of Acts or some of the other chapters in the book of Corinthians read it for yourself and ask the Holy Spirit to show you what's there asking for the fullness of the holy Spirit we need this power of the holy Spirit in today's world in our lives in our hearts and Pentecostal Christian non-pentecostal Christian you need the baptism of the holy spirit in its fullness to make it in the world in which we're living, Jesus sent that not just so we could have it as a token put on the shelf and use when we really need it no we need it every single day whether we're in hard times or great times we need to be praying in the Spirit every single day and this vision that I had I believe God is telling me to encourage us as Pentecostals in this nation and look this is for any Pentecostal anywhere whether you're in a persecuted country watching this or you're in Africa or you're in some place where the spirit of God is moving in powerful ways it doesn't matter what matters is the enemy's gonna do everything he can to beat the willingness out of you to pray in tongues he's gonna give you every excuse in the book as to why you don't need to pray in tongues that much any more. Don't buy it, it's a lie we need to be praying in tongues you know Paul said "I thank God I pray in tongues daily, I thank God I pray in tongues more than all of you" that was his testimony I thank God I pray in tongues more than all of you Paul was also saying I thank God I pray in tongues more than all of you probably in that sense don't take the theology out of it or put into it but here's the deal folks if you're spirit-filled and you've not prayed in tongues in a week there's something wrong. You'd be praying in tongues every single day because the enemy is going to do everything he can to beat the willingness out of you to pray in the spirit and we need that in today's world you need that in today's world so take it something that I believe is from God that I'm to encourage you with but pray in tongues every day and pray with intensity and pray aggressively and let God do something great in your life

6th Dream - A Solemn assembly

10th July (Friday)

Video here

I had a dream Friday night, I have several dreams out on Facebook. There are men in this room that I told that dream to that I had back in December. When I had the second one a couple of weeks ago I told the guys that Tuesday night about it as well - the continuation of the dream. Friday night July 10th I had a dream that followed the pattern of dreams that I had in 2020. I want you to listen to this I want you to hear and fill my heart with it I'm not trying to sensationalize this. I purposely decided to say it this morning both to my church and not anything on Facebook. Cause I found that posting dreams on Facebook has interesting consequences.

6th Dream A Solemn assembly

Friday night July 10th I had a dream that followed the pattern of the dreams I had with 2020. I saw a calendar turn to the month of September and I saw a hand reach up and pulled the month of September off of the calendar. Then that month of September was just floating out in the air and I saw it land and sit right in front of the altar in our secret place. I saw the horns that are on the altar in there I saw the picture of the return of Jesus and the healing the four [unintelligible] doctrines [unintelligible]. I saw them on the wall and saw the cross behind me so I knew I was in the secret place but the month of September was on the floor. I was then instructed to stand on the month and pray for the church to have a strong backbone, for corruption to be exposed and for a great harvest in the coming months and so I walked and I actually walked and stood on the calendar which was underneath my feet. Standing on the month of September 2020. After I prayed for several minutes I was instructed to get help as I was not enough. So I began to speak in the air begging believers to come and pray with me for the month of September. Pray for the church to have a strong backbone, pray for corruption to be exposed and praying for a great harvest. And suddenly the calendar below my feet was getting bigger exponentially if you've ever been to Europe and some of the plazas and courtyards or some cities they have life-sized chess pieces it was like the calendar was getting that big. I was on a life-sized September calendar if that makes sense. I then saw that I was not alone I was standing on Tuesday morning September the first. After I woke up the first thing I did was look at my phone to find on what day September the first was – a Tuesday – but I'm not the only one on the calendar. I'm standing on September 1st and people are on second and third and fourth every one of those days is filled with people that are standing on the month of September and they're praying for the church. There were some praying in tongues, there were some praying out loud, there was some praying very quietly, there was some that were kneeling, there was some laying prostrate every mode of prayer you can imagine, but these people were praying along with me and then the cry went out again that more people need to pray. So everyone including myself began to say we need help come and pray with us, come and pray with us and everyone on the map at the calendar that was praying was asking people to come and to pray through the entire month of September. Every day from the first to the last day we're asking people to come and pray with us, pray with us for the church, for corruption to be exposed and for a great harvest. And more people began to show up on the calendar and then I saw a hand as if I was lifted up and looked down and I saw a hand or finger and it began to write the words “a solemn” in front of September and the word “assembly” after September so all spelled out it said “a solemn September assembly” and a very, very clear call to pray during that month. The numbers of the people kept growing and growing and growing and now I realize that the contours of the calendar are actually beginning to fit into the contours of the United States of America. Since I'm standing on September the 1st I'm up in the Washington and Oregon state area so just imagine the calendar is in the shape of the United States of America so I knew this specifically was for the American church and our country. The people kept growing and they kept filling the gap – you know there was a lot of white space on this calendar. But I'm seeing more and more people filling the first, the second, the third I've got people side by side with me - there's hundreds of people on September. We're praying hundreds of people on September 2nd and they're praying but the more we prayed the more aggressively we prayed I saw storm clouds that appeared all over the country and I saw fires that were outside of the country and I saw fires within the country. I saw both the fires of revival then I saw the fires of opposition because of how hard we were praying. And yet the clarion call kept going out pray church pray, pray church pray, pray church pray and I saw incredible warfare in the heavens. It was impacting those on the ground that was wearying us. The saints that were fighting in prayer - believers were holding each other up standing together without any division; that was black and white men and women everybody was fighting together in prayer on their knees or standing or just yelling it out. There was no distinction and no division among the body of Christ in this dream. The heavens were alive with battle, I saw angels, I saw demons, I saw warfare but I saw believers in battle that was severe and intense and brutal. There were wounds and there was exhaustion, people would stand for a while and go to their knees and pray then stand back up but I saw the bruises on arms and hands and shoulders. I saw weariness in the battle and the heavens were alive with the same type of battle going on and in the dream it seemed like it lasted forever. Finally the battle was over and my eyes were drawn to the very last days of September (and I want you to understand one thing this is not a date setting dream) as I looked at that calendar I saw people who were broken who had been beaten down, they were wounded but they were standing victoriously. And I saw the heavens open, I saw the Lord stand with his angels and he said very clearly “Arise my bride, arise my bride and prepare to pray. Arise my bride, arise my bride and prepare for battle” and then lastly “Arise my bride, arise my bride and prepare to see my face for I'm coming soon and my reward is with me” and then it was like the sound of a thousand shofars blowing all at once, and in the dream I could feel the wind of it hit my face. And I woke up so peaceful, I woke up with the peace of Christ in the heart in my spirit.

And what I sense is that the Lord is calling the American church to pray during the month of September. He said “arise my bride, arise my bride and prepare to pray” not “arise and pray” he said “arise and prepare to pray” in other words we've got to pick up our prayer lives. I don't know what's coming in September this is the one dream I had, but what I saw was intense spiritual warfare unlike anything I had ever seen or anything we've ever experienced as a nation before. I don't know what's coming but I can tell you the battle he is preparing us for and causing us to pray for is going to be serious and difficult and we should expect serious spiritual conflict in that month. So the closer we get to September the body of Christ needs to be getting ready to fight spiritually like never before and I'm not declaring that October 1st the rapture is going to happen. Nowhere did Jesus say “I'm coming on this day” He just said “I'm coming” the same thing he said in revelation, the same thing Paul said, the same thing the disciples said, the same thing the word of God tells us. We're going to have to learn to tarry again church, we're going to have to learn to be on our knees and stay on our knees – why? - because he's trying to warn the church that something is coming, something difficult is coming, something big is coming and we're not ready for it. I can say we as a church are not ready for what's coming, but I can tell you this there are thousands and thousands of people that have contacted me and said your dream struck a nerve because I have felt the same way. I'm hearing about churches that are starting prayer meetings I'm hearing about national things being started – why? - because other people have the same sense of feeling in their hearts, their minds, their spirit that something is wrong and that something big is coming. Then I've heard you say for several months now something big is coming, you don't say it out of fear you say it as a warning and then the spirit of the Lord is saying “something's coming” and when something is coming you prepare. If the weather guy says “okay folks there's conditions right now on the ground that's possible for a tornado to be hitting so be watching” – right? - the Lord is telling us now the conditions are there for the tornado to hit. But come September he's going to say “folks it's on the ground right now in your area” what are you going to do? Head to the shelter? Run for cover? I'm calling this church - people can deal with this however they want out there - but I'm calling this church to start praying to get us ready for what's going to happen in September. I don't know what it is and I'm sure that they even say “well October 1st paster” if nothing's happening you can apologize – you bet I would.

7th Dream - Sleeper cells

25th July 2020

Video here

Hey pastor Dana Coverstone here Burkesville Kentucky Living Word Ministries church in [inaudible] on my way home right now my daughter's driving I meant to get this on earlier but because of preaching in the morning and afternoon service was not able to but last night Saturday night July 25th right around 1:19 I woke up from a dream that I had and interestingly enough Mike Livengood had just texted me an encouraging message all the way from New Zealand and so he's the guy that tom had prophesied thousands decades ago but nonetheless I woke up to hear the notification go off and it was Mike Livengood texting me and so I took that as a sign after I got up from the dream that definitely it was from the Lord.

7th Dream (Sleeper cells)

In this dream I saw a calendar started in July and it faded it was almost like the month of July just faded off of the calendar and it went right into august and I saw august the letters of august September October November December just got bold very very bold and almost like they've been highlighted with a black marker and then suddenly I'm walking near an abandoned slaughterhouse in the home town where I grew up about half a block from where I was staying at the moment. I used to be near [where] my aunt Betty's house used to live we used to work there and suddenly this overgrown with grass and weeds slaughterhouse comes to life I see smoke coming out of smokestacks I see movement inside and I'm watching what's going on and suddenly I realize that it's demons inside demons with just ugliness about them began to appear before my eyes inside the building and they were arming themselves with weapons and preparing it for it seemed like for war and then I realized that this town was not the only place where this was taking place every a major city small rural communities these were places where the demons were getting together almost in teams and were preparing for war in that region and then I realized that these kind of preparations that were taking place were just like sleeper cells like terrorist sleeping cell all over the country. We think of terrorist sleeper cells getting ready for something only these were demons in the cities of Minneapolis Portland Seattle Louisville they were just the opening assaults and much more was planned by these cells in ways of violence and chaos and the first volley that I saw was an assault on ministers and Christian leaders in the areas of sexual temptations and accusations I saw the spirits of lust and pornography being released relentlessly unleashed on pastors upon Christian men throughout this country it was a full out full frontal stage attack on the minds of Christian men pastors and ministers I saw marriage I saw ministry marriages that were under attack and the need for those Christian couples to focus on their prayer lives together to defend themselves against these things that were coming they were very very strong spiritual attacks and then I saw the outline of the nation and smoke rising from what appeared to be outdoor funeral pyres I think of the Vikings and native Americans who used to put the bodies up on a funeral pyre and burn it you know it would go into the sky but here's what I saw. I saw headlines declaring a sudden increase in a nationwide suicide spike and that included some in Christian leadership, I saw people in ministry who were killing themselves I saw angry people demanding that the government would fix the problems causing the suicides which were mainly the financial losses forced evictions job loss the depression spikes drug overdoses and just rampant increases in abuse both emotional sexual and physical because of the covet shutdowns and then I saw post offices I saw post offices that were open two to three days a week not every day a week not from not Monday through through Saturday I saw fields large fields that were filled with postal trucks the smaller ones that delivered to your door or to your mailbox and they were just full of these things. I saw the unemployment rate hit above 50 percent in the headlines with no help from the government and that was spurring a lot of violence towards the government people in Washington DC and the crowds were heinous and I mean heinous in their efforts to get the attention and then I saw that same white figure but he appeared this time and he said "Brace yourself, Brace yourself, Brace yourself" with the emphasis on the word "brace" there were sleeper cells who are almost being activated and I mean activated to bring attacks on Christian pastors Christian ministers Christian ministries it was going to be a relentless attack on the body of Christ through the pastors and I saw Christian marriages under assault and so I just want to warn the church and pastors make sure people are praying for you and watching what's going on because there is coming an attack on our minds or our sexual purity so guard your marriages your relationships and things that you got to watch make sure you're watching what you're seeing on the internet on your computers your phones because the enemy's gonna do everything he can to destroy pastors and ministers right now and he's also gonna do everything he can to destroy Christian men in marriages because the spirit of lust and the spirit of pornography was one strong thing I saw and I saw great waves of suicides coming at this point I'm just putting things [out] that I'm seeing and dreaming.

I don't want to have a dream a week or dream every day I don't want to be doing this but I understand that God's shifting some things in my life and my ministry my call and i'm seeing things that I believe are coming the coin shortage continues and now we're starting to see ones and fives and in various situations getting less we're seeing stores that are putting up you know no longer taking cash so there are some aspects of those dreams that are happening as I speak I'm not claiming to be anything but I'm a pastor who's having dreams and visions and I'm seeing things I believe are coming and I'm trying to warn the pastors I'm trying to warn the churches these things are coming and we've got to be ready for them so be in prayer be in the Word watch what's going on [in] your head what's going through your eye gate and make sure you keep your eyes and your hearts pure.

8th Dream - Flag, Fireworks, Faithful

10th August 2020

Video here

This is Pastor Dana and I had a dream on Monday night August 10th and I understood a lot about it because I know when I show this it's gonna make some people mad and my life's not been the same since I posted that first dream. I never asked for this I never asked for God to show me anything. I've done a series on dreams and visions I thought maybe I'll get some dreams maybe some others will get some dreams but it's been different it's been a lot different. There's been some concerns from my family because of the dreams I've posted. People showing up in my door who then get arrested in my community for being violent. A lot of emails a lot of phone calls a lot of messages I'm not doing this for notoriety. I'm not getting paid to do this [1] had a dream simply had a dream and I'm sharing them because the things that God - I believe - is showing me what the country needs to see. So I'm just gonna share this and you can do with it what you want I'm not asking God to give me any more I've not prayed God to give me another dream. Since I had the first one they keep coming.

8th Dream - Flag, Fireworks, Faithful

So I dreamt I was in the month of October I saw the month of October as a calendar and was waving like it was being blown by a strong wind not a fitful wind not violent just kind of a fitful wind you know. I saw a finger appear and it pointed to the second week of October and it dragged the finger through the third week of the month so it covered the second and third week of October and then it pointed to October 31st and it held the position - it just kind of tapped it and held it - the first thing I saw was a rock it came flying out of the sky and it landed in a large pond and the ripples started off small but then it became like vicious waves like when the wind begins to blow stronger and the ripples start to go further out I saw federally elected officials faces I recognize I saw specific state governors I saw agency leaders and I saw just radicals like the people you'd see in Portland or Seattle or Minneapolis but they had wicks coming out of their head almost like a like a firecracker with like a firework wick and the second week of October is when I saw simultaneously all those wicks coming out of the heads were lit on fire federal officials had heads that were the shape of like an old M80 those folks from the 70s and 80s remember those the governors had a heads shaped like the black cat firecrackers that you know the one and a half two inch firecrackers everybody else had the smaller like lady-finger style fire crack from firecracker fireworks these people are talking and they're starting to get animated they're yelling they're screaming the facial images went from normal and calm to red face jping to an absolute out of your mind primal scream everybody's head blew up at the same time, these people were still alive but their heads had blown up and this resulted in sparks and debris flying all over the area where they were standing and started fires around them and then I saw the protests that were taking place that were still taking place in October they went up another notch because the bystanders were part of the protests and that were there that were not being very violent and not really getting as involved the protesters basically said if you're not doing that you're not one of us and they begin to assault those protesters who are not deemed as violent or as vicious as they should be and I saw some of those protesters left on the side of the road almost like they were dead they'd been beaten because they weren't protesting like the other ones were they weren't doing all those things that they should have done if they weren't complicit they were beat on I saw the elderly people and this is what got me I saw elderly people being attacked it was an attack on older Americans the people that hold the constitution dear the flag dear the people that have the common sense values commitments to faith and biblical principles I even saw people trying to get into nursing homes and nursing facilities to attack older people that I saw in the dream and then I saw a hundred dollar bill a big hundred dollar bill about the size of a flag, it was hanging like a flag on a pole, it was burning from one corner and it was being lowered like at the end of the day and I saw people their hands over their hearts and they were crying because their God of money was just being lowered it was it had lost its value and it burns - there was about a third of it left - it was a celebration people were celebrating while some Americans were just devastated and torn up by what they saw happening there were people celebrating the dollar had died was dying the value of American dollar there was someone even playing taps in the background and then I saw churches small churches small groups of people kneeling and praying they were wrestling in prayer with the spirit of the age these people were protected by bubbles, bubbles of safety they're angels guarding them around or guarding around them and these were the faithful core of the church that had not been compromised in their values and their faith they were being encouraged to stay to stand strong they were being encouraged to keep preaching, praying, believing and there were relentless attacks against them just like the ones I saw in the September dream there was just relentless attacks against them if they stayed faithful they were in the heat of the battle they were praying they were fighting they were wrestling [like] I said with the spirit of the age but they were fighting to stay faithful and there were very few in numbers but that didn't bother them and I saw behind each of these each of these people pray and I saw a small gate and I was reminded of Matthew 7:13-14 entered by the narrow gate entered by the small road they never stood up even though they'd walked through that gate they just they were right there beside it then I saw puffed up pastors and I saw puffed up prophets very expensive suits and they were preaching against the idea of persecution coming, they promised prosperity they promised health and wealth and only good things and they spoke their words like they were slurred like they were drunk and suddenly their clothes were coming off their tie was loosened and taken off their shirt was taken off pretty soon they were standing there completely naked and I saw this rug pulled out from underneath them and they go flying up in the air they're trying to cover their their modesty while they're up in the air but as they were falling there I saw money flying out from them, all the money that they'd gotten from all the prophecies and ministries and things they'd done selfishly I saw that money just kind of flying when they landed on the ground this is another thing that just really got me when they landed on the ground all of them that landed on the ground that were all puffed up bit through their tongues as they landed and pieces of those tongues went flying and they were trying to reach out to grab them they were always beyond their reach. I was reminding the story of the emperor's new clothes they were exposed and this thing went back to those that were praying and the warfare was still tense but the present strength was obvious in those that were praying and then it switched to one last scene.

I saw clowns in suits like circus clowns and they were pouring buckets of oil and grease on the ground in front of election venues and the signs you know elections so many days away weeks away like weeks away but these clowns were dancing and acting like clowns they were juggling and there were people trying to get to vote they were slipping they were sliding past the doors and they couldn't get in the vote and the clowns were actually trying to distract these people from doing what they were supposed to do and they were doing it in a professional way they were juggling but they were doing skits but the skits were sinister and they were abusive and they watched anybody approaching the venue the building where they were going to vote they looked at them with suspicion and angst if they were doing everything they could to keep people from voting they were trying to distract them from what was going on.

And then I saw this big billboard and it said Passover 2021 big things are coming for the world big things are coming for the world that white figure appeared he said "Do not stop bracing for the storm will not pass until I stop the storm. So brace, brace, brace yourselves and don't look back"

I had that dream on Monday night I had glimpses of it for a couple days before I'm sharing it because I feel the profound unction that I need to. I've had people ask me to do "a dream a week"

“a dream a day” I don't want to do that that is not what I believe God's plan is for my life because this has already messed my life up enough I want to be obedient to what God has shown me I want to be sensitive to the spirit of God in my life and when I see things I want to say those things and share those things.

So I'm sharing and you can do with it what you want you can pray about it whatever some of the things are very obvious in the dream what they mean what they are and i'm sure the attacks on me, my ministry, my preaching everything else is just going to take on a whole new level but I got to be obedient to say what I see.

9th Dream - November Election

17th August 2020

Video here

I want to share with you just a few more dreams that I've had.

I had a dream last Monday night I sent it off to a friend who'd actually looked at the very first ones I had, he works with dream interpretation and I appreciate his insight. So I waited on this first one just because there were some things in it that were concerning to me and then I've had a dream Friday.

I had a dream last night.

I believe the dreams I'm having sometimes are metaphorical some of these things are literal and I'm seeing them happen just like I saw with a coin shortage. We're seeing the spike in suicides we're seeing some religious leaders come under attack because of things that they've allowed to be in their lives. So what I'm just gonna start doing from now on is I'm just going to type them out I'm going to read through them and you can do with them what you will.

I'm not trying to cause a scene – a problem – I'm not trying to gain notoriety, I'm not trying to just keep having dreams I'll be honest if I had my way I'd really rather not have another dream because all the stuff it causes and the people; it changes their attitudes and opinions towards me but I believe God is shifting who I am as a pastor not into prophet at all I still do not consider myself a prophet I believe I'm a watchman and the watchmen on the wall say hey folks there's troops coming this way they're bringing the artillery this way heavy movement coming you know so that's kind of how I feel that I am right now. I'm still in uncharted territory still trying to figure it out because these things weigh heavy on me so I'm just going to read what I've had share with you and I'm reading it so I don't add into it, there's a lot of accusations about well I'm doing this and doing that and trying and I don't want to also try to interpret things as well I'm just going to tell you what I saw in the dreams Monday night.

9th Dream – November Election

I dreamt I saw a calendar month in November it was bent it was torn it was dirty. I saw trees in the backgrounds that were leafless but there were a few trees that still had scarce amount of leaves on them and they had turned the leaves that were still in those trees had turned like it was about to rain. The sky was a dull gray with extreme cloud cover I hardly ever see sunny skies in these dreams that's one thing I know for sure. I saw that finger appear and it circled November 3rd continuously and it continued in a clockwise direction and then suddenly it changed to counter-clockwise and these images began to appear. I saw cities on fire which was nothing new. I saw headlines that read “Trp victory challenge everywhere”. It was on digital marquees like in New York Times square places like that. There were protesters in the streets, they were weary and asleep and they appeared dirty and dingy like they had not slept or showered in weeks. And this bell rang and suddenly these people came to life, they woke up and they started salivating like a dog like Pavlov's dog situation, big buckets of saliva and it seemed to stain their shirts and I saw people screaming and getting violent over the election results to the point people were firing weapons just randomly in the air in the sky. People were angry and people were mad. I saw a person with a sign that said “The obvious winner is not so obvious” like a placard like “The world's about to end, God is coming” you know get rid of you know what whatever the little signs they said the obvious winner is not so obvious and he held his head in shame. But the crowd was in a frenzy - the hatred - they were even hitting each other with with their signs and their banners and their wrath and I saw more cities with pillars of smoke over them like the wild firestorms in California right now. I saw crbled and burned out buildings in Washington DC not monents but businesses and commercial real estate.

Headlines declared that rebuilding would take time and trust would take even longer and government could could not do it in a timely fashion and that's when I saw a treasury official - who's in the treasury department right now - wink like as almost as if he was looking at a camera on TV, big smile open mouth wink with right eye and held it closed and just kind of you know almost like a sarcastic type thing and then I saw a Conestoga wagon - think "little house on the prairie" and Kamala Harris was driving that wagon it was led by two mules and Joe Biden was not sitting with Kamala Harris, Joe Biden was riding on one of the mules on the left on the far left so to speak and our side was a mechanical box that would trigger dynamite like you would see in the wild coyote movies you know or cartoons where they push down and it blows up - it was in an upright position though, the trigger and then the wind started blowing the wagon covering back and revealed several cases of like what I would consider to be civil war-type cases of dynamite that era of the late 1800s 1860s 1870s and most of it was in cases stamped "dynamite" there were some loose ones in it like an open wicker basket which didn't fit the timeline but it was there and Harris began to whip the mules and with the whip and she was hitting Joe Biden as well but Biden had no idea he was being whipped. He was not aware of what was happening and the mule started moving and picking up speed they were headed towards a car, a target, and this is where I saw Hillary Clinton standing behind president trp president trp was on his knees and she was wearing like a "Wilma Flintstone"-dress there were patches where it had not been finished yet it wasn't seamed up it wasn't sealed up the collar wasn't on there were like little strings just hanging all over the place it was almost like it wasn't finished it wasn't actually ready to be worn I guess for prime time or whatever she was doing it was very ugly and she had this gaudy ring on her index finger it looked like it had blood on it she had the skeleton key hanging from her neck and it was dangling and she had bailey she had Donald trp with a he was on his knees and she had a Roman Gladius knife to the left side of his throat holding his head back like that and the skeleton key was dangling in front of his face and the skeleton key looked like it had blood and black moulds all over it and where she leaned down where it was banging against the front of her shirt it looked like it left like a Nazi symbol the storm troopers the Nazi SS had like the lightning signal the lightning strike the double pane of lightning that's what it looked like on the front of her shirt.

I'm not saying she's a Nazi I'm just saying that symbol was on her shirt and it was like just tainted/stained black red/ugly/gaudy and the wagon starts picking up speed and they're headed towards this - you know Hillary Clinton's holding Donald trp and Hillary's face was giddy but next to her leg there was like an animal trap a large like a bear trap but suddenly Trp grabs the key and he pulls it down like this well he grabbed with his left hand as she came down he brought his right hand up and hit her in the face in the chin when she did that she dropped the knife and she stepped back and the president began to run off quickly well then she steps into the trap and she's trying to get out and she's trying to pick up the knife and she can't lean over she can't get the trap she ain't the knife as the president runs. He's running towards the beast which is the car he's usually in. I hear three gunshots and they're handguns shot it's not a shotgun or a rifle this is a handgun shot I hear. Three shots fired out of nowhere I see three different and it happens like there's one shot and another then another but as trp was running to the beast a secret service agent jps in front and gets one of the bullets and then rolls on the ground. Trp keeps running, the second shot's fired another secret service agent jps in front of trp and takes the shot and hits the ground and then the third secret service agent jps in front of the third bullet that comes at him and then he gets into the beast and that moment - what I saw was - the secret service agents were around the beast but instead of normal modern traditional AT-15s or guns they had muskets but the other thing I noticed in the dream that none of them were wearing glasses most secret service agents that I've always seen have always had sunglasses and I noticed in the dream they're all standing around the car looking out with the muskets like this [guarding] nobody nobody has it like this[ready to fire] they've got the muskets up and they're watching and they're looking around they're surrounding the car looking out from the car, the car is moving slowly and they're moving with the car.

So those are the things I'm seeing now Hillary tried to pull her leg away she couldn't and finally the wagon strikes. It was a huge explosion and in the explosion it threw the carcasses of the mules up on top of the building rubble and the smoke was coming off and like they've been grilled or something Biden was laying face down in the middle of the street and wheel tracks over the back of it and there was a vulture sitting on his head and - I'm not trying to make fun I'm not trying to disrespect anyone in political leadership at this moment those that know me know how I feel about certain people and leadership but I still pray for these people - Harris was crying in disbelief and her tears looked like they were the size of quarters it was almost like she was crying quarters, the tears were as big as quarters and it appeared like they looked like quarters coming out of her eyes. There was a huge hole in the ground, buildings were collapsed. And then I saw the church, there was a separation line and there was no middle ground, no middle ground left as the sides literally - but I guess in the dream at this time of the dream - sides had to have been taken. There was fire on the altars and the churches around the nation and the fire moved on the heads of people who had been praying and above the heads and many people in the church I saw an actual question mark symbol above their head and they appeared confused by what they were seeing in the world and in church.

I heard a voice say “Those who refuse to get ready will be wanting in the end, so brace yourself and tell others that I have warned them to brace themselves for they are about to see even more shocking things”

I'm thinking of Habakkuk there, a passage that I preached from in the last several weeks

10th Dream - Ready or not nation

21st August 2020 (Friday night)

10th Dream - Ready or not nation

I simply saw the white figure appear raised a finger to the sky and he said “Ready or not nation, here it comes. Brace yourself” just a rather quick and simple you know play on hide and seek – I guess.

11th Dream - Shock and awe in the US

24th August 2020 (Monday)

11th Dream - Shock and awe in the US

Last night(24 August) I saw a calendar it was turning to the month of November and it had shadows flicking all over it. I saw this light in the sky a big light, very large bright light and then darkness and then I began to make out like a morning it was morning and the night was going away and the fog and the haze were drifting away and I saw there were many Americans and they were in an emergency shelter I'm not sure but it seemed to me it was more along the Gulf coast area these people were huddled together and they were shivering. There were individuals laying on cots and there were suitcases all over the place and a lot of desperate looks on the faces of most everyone there were encouragers in the crowd though they all were wearing crosses and they stood out emotionally from everyone else because they seemed to have hope they had smiles on their faces, everybody else was just downtrodden and in despair/angry/frustrated/confused and they were checking on people they were trying to show patience and kindness but at times they were met with anger and told to go away but the encouragers just kept doing what they were doing in spite of the manifested upset of several in the shelters and I saw businesses that were shuttered in the bigger cities I saw a gas station it looked like people just walked away from them and I saw headlines and one read "Shock and awe in the U.S." and one read "U.N. steps in to help host nation" and the nation was quiet, there wasn't war or riots or people fighting or screaming or yelling the nation was quiet almost like it had not awakened and not awoken from a bad dream, yet that's what I was kind of sensing the nation was fitful it was suspicious it was leery I saw people just quietly looking around and taking everything in with their eyes hesitant it's very [...] like they were expecting something to happen and the sun was shining behind the clouds but it was not out yet.

Then the white figure appeared again and he said "Remain braced as this calm comes before a gathering storm that recovery will have a hard time finding"

I'm just sharing what I'm seeing I know I wasn't supposed to share the one dream last week I think maybe for the piece I had last night I get glimpses sometime from time to time but this one no one else I'm feeling.

I'm trying to be obedient that's it I'm just trying to be obedient so you do with these what you want I have some understanding what they mean I've asked others to look at them and pray about them too but I believe the Lord is coming back soon he needs the church to be ready he's trying to wake America up he's trying to wake the church up and there's not much more time for us to wake up

12th Dream - America Blackout

5th September 2020 (28 August – 4 September)

Video here

Hey Pastor Dana here. Between Friday August 28th and Thursday September 4th I had a series of glimpses and dreams that got longer each night and I'm seeing more and more things in my dreams that are apocalyptic and frightening.

12th Dream - America Blackout

I don't share these dreams to cause people to have fear but I saw the calendar of December and I saw a finger underline slowly and like it was pushing slowly and forcefully under the line of the name December flipped over to January and then underlined it just as slow and was pushing. First thing I saw was long food lines, I saw people waiting for what seemed like hours and they were standing in line and not in cars. And I saw this throughout the nation, I saw ships in ports on both east and the west coast they were just sitting idle, there was nothing moving at sea, nothing. I saw a headline that said "The Baltic dry index is dead" they said that nothing was moving in trade around the world and one thing I noted there were no Christmas lights. This was December, there were no holiday displays there were no sales mentioned no Christmas lights no Christmas displays no Santa Claus no Easter no Christmas type things going on at all. It was a great sadness over the land and people seemed very dazed and they seemed very confused but there were Christians who stood out because they had faith, they had hope in Christ and they appeared like they looked like burning charcoal and they were carrying torches wherever they went and a lot of people rejected their approach but they kept their faith, they didn't back down from telling people about Jesus and they kept telling people that they desperately need Jesus at that moment. It was "you need Jesus now you need Jesus now, you need Jesus now, don't wait you don't have tomorrow, you need Jesus now" and a lot of it was rejected but there were some that were coming and surrendering and praying and being saved in the dream.

I saw what looked like shopping malls that had been converted into shelters or living quarters it reminded me of hurricane Katrina when it came through and the football stadi. The businesses in those malls were shuttered but I saw people on cots and I saw food outreach things going on.

I saw people who were misplaced this was not like a homeless shelter this was like something that happened that people were in shelters I continued to see shuttered properties I saw people in homes who were wearing coats while the windows were they were looking at were closed curtains and that's been a consistent thing in in the dreams. People inside their homes looking at what's going on and when I looked when people were looking out the curtains the curtains came back far enough that I could see more of the snow-like stuff that was on the road, it was dingy it was dark it was grey. It wasn't white pure snow like after first fresh snowfall I saw headlines said "nationwide outages plagued the south-west" another headline that said "Americans don't know who to blame for the darkness" and some of the darkness in the areas stretched into Canada, it was north, it wasn't everywhere.

But I saw America as lights flickering and it was like I saw the whole country outline of the United States of America including Alaska and Hawaii and it was like it was a light like right before the light goes out it flickers and it starts flashing. That was what it looked like it was like America was a light bulb about to go out.

I saw vultures with food hanging out their mouths and these vultures were heavy - a word I don't like to use is the word "fat" - but these vultures were fat and they had rotting food hanging out of their mouths. I saw depression as a figure, as a creature and it had a face mask on with a smile but it was choking people pushing them down to the ground.

Then I saw the St Louis arch and I saw people standing under the St Louis arch in very very expensive business suits all of them had very expensive watches and at their feet were these briefcases larger than briefcases, it reminded me of like a nuclear suitcase a nuclear briefcase that they talked about in the 80s and suddenly all of their alarms went off at the same time and they hit them and they grabbed the briefcase they got into these black SUVs. And of course the Mississippi river goes right through and divides the country and I saw them getting the black SUVs and they went east and they were they were going all over the place each of them had a Wall Street journal - a newspaper - under their arms and they had heavily tinted sunglasses.

The next headlines that I remember about market crashes about yields being lost and one of the one of the headlines declared sympathy for the swastika.

I saw tired crowds, I saw tired people, I saw many who had lost the resolve to fight due to the emotional overcast of the nation and I heard Christians - that group of Christians that was going around with hope - I heard them saying that they remember what Jesus had said about the winter and having to flee in winter but they kept encouraging one another's faith.

I saw lights all over the country and I knew these lights were churches whether they were churches like we think of today or whether they were house churches and I felt in my spirit - I did not hear this but felt as I was watching this - that these churches were keeping warmth and hope in their communities.

That white figure rose up out of one of those lights and he said: "Brace yourself, brace, brace yourself on the Word and My promises and do not rely on your own strength."

Every one of the dreams have had a little bit of a different caliber to them.

This one left me more unsettled. I see them in glimpses, it's like a movie trailer. I see a little bit one night a little bit more the next night more details are added but the scenes of people in the shelters, the food lines, the Baltic dry index being dead really really really stood out to me and those things are heavy in my mind and look I'm not going to try to interpret these dreams. I feel that as watchman I'm just supposed to share them I think some of what's gonna happen is obvious.

I'm continuing to see more and more of the things that I have seen in dreams are happening and coming to pass I'm not trying to justify what I'm seeing are my dreams, I just believe the Lord shows me things to warn the church. And look if you're not prepared, if you don't have some of the food and things like that you might be in trouble with that.

The first video I talked about this was my own personal opinion. I talked about getting guns and ammunition - that wasn't to go all Rambo on people - it was to be able to shoot animals or you know for food and now if you try to find a gun today you have a hard time getting a gun unless you have friends or family you can buy something from. Ammunition is hard to find some of the companies that sell storable food, they're now five to eight weeks until you can get it. There's some companies that have stopped selling these things and folks you don't have to be a dreamer or a genius or have insider training to realize that we're in trouble and God's been trying to wake the church up to get things ready and to listen.

The health and wealth gospel is about to meet a reality in our country. And all those prophets that are saying "oh there's nothing but good, nothing but good, nothing but good" you're gonna stand before God one of these days those folks are - they're gonna have to answer just like I'm gonna have to stand before God answer for what I'm doing with these dreams.

I'm not trying to make money off this stuff I'm not trying to make it make a for.

A friend of mine put another Facebook page together for me that I've not even looked at, you know why, because people are having trouble finding the dreams in those situations, my Facebook page has exploded I can't even get through my own Facebook page on a daily basis. He also set up an Instagram account because so many people are trying to make contact with me through Instagram I don't have an account and we're trying to get the messages out and that's the reason for this.

This is not about me getting a big head because I still pastor my church I still live in the same house I still drive the same car. I'm not making major changes because of all the stuff with the dreams but I am trying to warn the church. Things are coming and pastors and prophets you're telling your people it's going to be okay I fear for you I fear for you so please folks pray aggressively, pray specifically, pray strategically.

Say "Lord what should I do for my family" and get on it, get on it, get on and get on it.

I've been saying this since June, I'm gonna keep saying what the Lord shows me keep sharing the dreams the Lord shares with me but I can't make you do anything.

I know what I've done for me and what I continue to do for me and my family.

Folks don't ignore the warnings that's all I'm going to say.

13th Dream - Toppling of Liberty

8th September 2020

Video here

Hey pastor Dana Coverstone it is Tuesday September 8th last night on Monday the 7th of September had a dream that has probably troubled me more than the dreams that I've had. I'm an American I love this country I've travelled to 43 countries and we have a heritage we have a country that stood as a beacon of hope and light even financial support for a lot of nations this one got me last night.

13th Dream - Toppling of Liberty

[I] saw the statue of liberty proudly standing in that Harbor outside of New York lighting the nations in freedom I saw the sky suddenly darkened strong waves began to crash against the shore with a very, very fierce intensity almost hurricane tsunami-like force tropical storm type force and there were boats they had men in them they were out in the storm trying to breach the island on which she stood they were fighting the waves as well but they were actually kind of working with the waves and they were trying to get the lady but the storm was so severe they could not even though the storm and them seemed to be you know working together so to speak. I saw the torch in her hand it was flashing being struck by lightning pieces of rock and debris were being thrown with brute force and she was - even though she had her torch - she was an immovable statue I saw her watching and looking around about her to kind of see where the attacks were coming from so she knew they were there but she would not move [her] feet were stuck on that pedestal the rocks and the stuff the debris was being thrown at her had caused some gashes had caused some cuts on her neck round about her heart I could see there was blood coming out like she - not had been shot - but something had tried like the debris in the rocket either pierced her or had left the jagged edge and cut something. I saw that three of the spines on the crown on her head I don't think necessarily it's a crown but it had some spines that were pointing out three of them three of those spines on her crown had been broken off and was leaving a very very jagged edge and the right torch hand kept dropping to secure the tablet with the declaration of independence July 4th of that year had been pinned on she would drop her hand and kind of do this to keep the book in his place she was struggling to keep her footing almost slipping off the pedestal but she wouldn't move she would not move and also there's a huge volley of trash and debris just junk hit her directly in the face and she stepped back off the pedestal when she fell because the force of this hit her right in the face she still held on to the torch she still held on to the declarations you know dateline on the book but that light that torch just kept flickering like a light about to go out the declaration that was in her left hand [the] left arm it was cracked and there were large chips and pieces falling off of it I kept seeing liberty trying to reach out with her hand while she holds it and grabbing the pieces but they wouldn't stick she was crying liberty was crying she was weeping she was fighting to keep her dignity she was trying to get the pieces of what she had held on to but it was obvious she knew that she was in a battle that was fighting her and defeating her and she was desperately trying to hold on, you could see the fierceness in her face she was trying to fight and win but it wasn't coming through and then the boats appeared with the men and they threw ropes around her arms and her legs and kept trying to bring her to the ground and they pulled and pulled in tandem and finally she fell to her knees it was almost like Gulliver's travels when the giant gets knocked over, they were throwing herself around but she still had the light she tells the torch in her fists her right hand and she's trying to hold that book what's left of it in her left hand. They were hammering away with like pry tools at the declaration trying to get the days off so July 4th and they're trying to pry those numbers and those letters off and they were using cutting tools to remove the torch, they kept trying to just rip it jerk it out of her hand and she just kept holding on and holding on and holding on and because she fought them so hard they finally just began to cut off her hand they tied her other hand behind her back and the men began rolling her in ropes and she was yelling for help she was crying out it wasn't a desperate cry it was a cry for those who were listening to come to her defense all those nations that she had helped for so many years and nobody would come they took a large banner of fabric it was black and smoky grey kind of all together black and smoky grey banner of fabric and they covered her face with it they just kept wrapping and wrapping almost like a mummy would they just kept wrapping and wrapping and wrapping until you couldn't you barely see her eyes and the jagged spines of some of the spine of the crown. Then [they] took an anchor chain and they wrapped it around her neck and they asked her if she had any last words her eyes weren't fearful they were feisty they were fitful there was this angry resolve in her face that she said nothing that chain was tied to a boat and the boat began to drag her off of liberty island out into the Harbor. When they got over the sea [the] boat began to pull very quickly her arms were down to her side her legs were tied and she was just kind of rolling spinning as the boat pulled the boat kept going faster and faster was almost like a ski boat was pulling her she kept twisting back and forth but she was being pulled by the boat and eventually lost all the strength that she had. The banner had come off of her mouth but she wasn't saying anything the boat slowed and then the boat kind of looked back to see how where she was and they reversed the boat and went backwards and ran over her I see that body bouncing and bleeding in the Harbor she took a breath and she went under she came back up a minute later and then she did the same thing again when she came up the next time the boat accelerated forward [and] hit her square on the face as she went down. The boat began to circle the area after it hit her she never came back up she never came back up. At least alive she floated back up her back was to the top torch hand was gone the other arm is tied behind her back there's this thunderous clap brilliant lightning strike and the storm just raged all around the Harbor. When I saw the men on that boat there's a loose group of men someone was throwing them pieces of silver not in a bag just loose pieces of silver were being thrown with them in and then began to pick them up almost fighting over them feverishly picked them up gripped them with their fists put them in their pockets [sat] down on their seat and drove away almost like okay our job here is done.

This one got me the others the dreams always get me but this one got me because this is America's I and I love I know what the statue of liberty stands for but I love our country. Traveled enough to know that we've got a lot of good here I know what most Americans think about this country but I also know that a lot of people that hate it and don't even really know why they hate it and that's sometimes the protests and the "DE-fund the police" groups and any movement that wants to shred the constitution you know I may get a little political hearing I don't care what I saw has impacted me last night. I lost a lot of sleep last night I woke up about 2:15 I was unable to get to sleep ever since the dream going through my mind very very much. Believers we need to pray for our country we know eventually it can't last forever I know that you know that we all know that my hope my prayer was that this nation would last long after me so my kids and my grand-kids but understand how much this country has done for people its people and for the nations and for those that come I'll ask you to pray for America ask you to pray for elected officials. The silver at the end of the dream tells me something/somebody is paying to see her go down I do believe there's a deep state I do believe there's a lot of chaos in our world a lot of chaos in our country I believe there are people in high elected office who want to see this country burn I don't I want fire but I want cause fire revival to hit I know what the dream means I think you all know what the dream means our country our freedoms are under attack and we have a responsibility to occupy until He comes to seek His face to pray and to trust so pray for America not because I had a dream because this used to be His country we used to be the one nation under God and there was a large group of people fighting the very God whose nation it used to be under or who the God used to be under you know what I'm saying. This one got me still getting me now pray for America pray for revival if nothing else I want to see her go down fighting and I'll go down fighting with it and for it join me...

14th Dream - Guilty as charged

13th September 2020

Video here

Hey it's pastor Dana Coverstone, I'm going to share today both the dream and the vision that I had that were very closely linked. I had a dream one night on September 14th and the next evening I had a vision and when I shared the dream I did not share the first part because I was still trying to look at it and figure some things out. But here's how that went...

14th Dream - Guilty as charged

I saw a calendar and it started in January and it flipped all the way through to December so every single month January February March April May June July August September October November it just kept flipping and in the corner of each of the months there was a picture of a tree almost like those flip books that you would flip and the thing would move. And what I saw was a seed was planted and the first couple of months the tree quickly grew and then it died over the stage of that 12 months. So as the calendar is flipped my attention was drawn to the corner and I was seeing a little flip box so to speak like this in the corner of the calendar and I was watching it. The tree go from seed to tree to leaves to rotting, dying and finally flat ground again. Each stage of the tree from birth to rotting to nothing literally was covered by those 12 months and it was like I said a little flip book with a picture. And then I saw a field that was filled with trees and they were bare of leaves but they began growing leaves, began to grow, so obviously it was winter January – so to speak – and the trees were growing but they were growing from the top down. They didn't start from the bottom, the trees, the leaves grew from the top down, started with sprigs and then full leaves and turning colors and then they began falling off of the tree but from the bottom up. So the leaves started growing from the top down and they started falling from the bottom up and I saw a totally bare landscape with all the trees with not one single leaf on them at all. And then a man dressed like – the best word I could use was – like a lberjack or someone you would see in Vermont that goes out to tap some of the trees from maple syrup came walking. He had a very, very large bucket a heavy hammer in his hands that was walking up the snowy incline towards the largest tree in the grove where - this large tree stood out. He stopped and removed a syrup tap and he hammered it into the tree but he was hammering it at a level higher than his head, way above his head, he then took the bucket and attached it to a hook that was on that tree so the bucket is well above the ground. The syrup tap is hanging out above his height. The man had this ancient style white beard, his eyes were closed as he walked. No movement from the trees, no limbs were moving nothing like that at all. And then he turned his back and he walked away. Suddenly we start to see the syrup coming out into the bucket and the bucket is very large, it's almost like a cauldron, and so he hangs the bucket and – it almost looks like Karo syrup – coming out of the [tree] itself so it goes from a watery appearance light colored syrup like Karo and then it starts getting darker and then it eventually turns into blood and suddenly the bucket – that's more like a cauldron – now is beginning to shake and it's almost like this bucket's on fire. There's no fire at the bottom of the tree by any means but there's obviously something going on and the bucket is shaking, and suddenly it's frothing almost as if it's being boiled but there's no fire underneath it. And the blood starts to come up and out of the bucket and it flows over the bucket and goes onto the ground and literally begins to spell out some words. And those words that were spelled out were "Guilty as charged". And that was unlike any dream I've had, this would have happened before a supreme court justice [RGB] passed away. I did not see any legal ramifications but the words that are spelled out were "Guilty as charged" and that's what I saw in the dream.

15th Dream “I will brace you...”

13th / 14th September 2020

Video here

All right. Hello this is pastor Dana Coverstone from Living Word ministries in Burkesville Kentucky going to be sharing part of a dream that I had that I've not shared yet and today with me is Cherie Goff who's been doing some interpretation of my dreams from Arkansas.

So Cherie thank you so much for being with me and doing this and partnering with me as far as the dreams and the interpretation. We're seeing some interesting things happen in the country right now and I'm interested to see how these things play out and I want to remind people once again that prophecy is speculation until it happens but yet God was very clear that we're not supposed to disdain or to treat prophecy with contempt, we're to judge it, we're to pray about and seek. And so I ask those that are listening today just take what the dream is, pray about it see what [God] was trying to say to you through it. I'm not trying to push any agenda or any ideas or any formats, I do believe God's given me the dream to share with the nation to wake up [the] church and get us ready for some of the harder things that are coming. So the dream that I'm about to share was part of the one with the trees and the man that came nailed the peg into the tree and then hung the bucket, also part of the dream scene of the elderly lady who was in the hospital who was taken care of and kind of came back to life. But this was the middle part I'm going to share. And then Cherie is going to take over from there and talk about some interpretation.

15th Dream “I will brace you ...”

I saw a bunch of women who were wearing judges robes and they had signs and placards and they were standing outside of churches waiting around the entrances in the streets near where the churches were. And as pastors and believers began approaching the church to enter, to go in the women boxed them in and started yelling and screaming obscenities at them. They pushed against the believers who were intently trying to get into the building without harm. But they were also trying to not cause harm to the ladies who were pushing against them. They were being very, very tolerant if I can use that word. The women were slapping at people and they were throwing rocks and they were also throwing hardback books and when they threw those hardback books they would stand back and they would chant, they would say “You have to listen to our book now, you have to bow to our book now” and the women, even some of the women in those judges gowns, were trying to flash the crowd, they were pulling their robes up they were trying to incite both temptation and angst, a lot of anger, a lot of frustration. But they were doing it with these demonic looks on their faces and I also saw angels in the crowd indicated by their white appearance and white robes and they were shielding those believers and semi protecting them, but there was still some contact. There was still some physical contact happening as far as the hitting and the pushing, even the rocks, the books were hitting some of those people but the Christians pushed through and they got inside the doors. And the crowd surrounded the building and they started screaming at the top of their lungs with curses against God, then the process receded. When the believers came out of the building, out of church services and when they left the church and headed out the doors these women surrounded the Christians and there were no men in the surrounding crowd, no men at all and as they surrounded them a few people pointed and rebuked them in the name of Jesus and told the demons to be silenced and at this rebuke the crowd quieted, just quieted and they started letting people pass through. But they did it like someone, who was actually chained up or tied, like when you're trying to hold a child down that's having a temper tantr. These people, these ladies who were yelling and screaming were, you could tell, they wanted to get out but they were being held back almost like trying to get out of ropes they obviously did not like the binding that they were being subject to. And then a man in the group of believers turned to me and I identified him as that Christ-type man I've seen so often in my dreams and he said: "I will brace you against the demons. Just believe and do not fear".

So that's the first time that I've shared this part of it publicly. I would have had this dream back in October [September?] several weeks before judge Barrett was brought to the attention of the nation and it was not felt the time to release it. So I did that today in the context of these dreams.

16th Dream - Earthquake

14th September 2020

Video Here

Hey pastor Dana Coverstone and I'm going to share a part of a dream that I had on September 14th 2020. There was a reason I didn't share it and I'm not going to go into that. I was connected with some other things in the dream that I'm not going to share as well. But it was about an earthquake and I'm just going to share it because I've had a lot of ask about it. I did share it this last weekend when I was in Topeka Kansas and here's what I saw once again September 14 2020.

16th Dream - Earthquake

I saw a shimmering of the great lakes and the water appeared to go out of the bowl and then spread over the shores several hundred feet and crashed back in the lakes. It appeared as if there had been an earthquake under the central point of the area of the great lakes but a very, very significant depth. I also saw at that moment the Rocky mountains trembling and all the coast of California was completely shaken with that same shimmering type of surface disturbance like I was saying. It looked like I was standing on top of the Rocky mountains looking down, it was shimmering like when you're driving down the road and you see that heat on the asphalt miles ahead, it kind of looks like something's moving, that's what it appeared to be. And there was this mass chaos mentality at work as it seemed a very very big earthquake had just hit the southern California area in the same time-frame. I also saw all five boroughs in New York with significant fires and those fires had started in Manhattan. Also I'm gonna skip the next part. The clouds began to churn and they were mixing with smoke from the fires from New York and it looked like it was boiling over out of there. And then I saw the clouds began to turn red and ashen, opened up and revealed mount Rushmore and mount Rushmore was just there in all its glory. Gray clouds behind it, fires in the background, and the face of George Washington spoke out loud and said: "Hold the fort, toe the line, fight". Then the clouds covered mount Rushmore and the monent again but the sun came out and it started to rain. So it's raining and then I saw that the Christ-type man that I've seen was walking along the national mall and spread his arms out, just like put his arms out wide, and he said: "Now it's up to you church"

So once again that was September 14th and I had one last night and I haven't even written it down yet but I've been up since about 2:30 thinking about it, praying about it.

20th November 2020

16th Dream - Earthquake (refreshed)

Yeah well then I saw a shimmer in the great lakes and the water appeared to go out of the bowl and spread under the shores several hundred feet in and it crashed back in the lakes and appeared as if there had been an earthquake under the central point of the area of the great lakes but at a very very significant depth and I also saw the rocky mountains trembling. The coast of California was shaken with that same shimmering type of surface disturbance. It was like I was standing on top of the Rocky mountains watching these things happen almost as if when you're driving down the road and the asphalt road a mile and a half ahead of you looks shimmery like there's heat coming off of it that's what it appeared to be. There was a mass chaos mentality at work and it seemed a very, very big earthquake. It also hit the southern California area that's when I saw all five boroughs in New York with significant fires and those fires had started in Manhattan and standing on Wall street were two senators a man and a woman and they were yelling at an effigy of the president and they were almost dancing angrily around and threatening, making noise about the supreme court justice appointment - once again, I had this before that all happened. The female was wearing a very, very cheaply made Chinese t-shirt with a vintage yin-yang symbol almost like from the Bruce Lee era. The shirt was almost transparent and dirty like it had been worn for too many years. They'd been worn a long time and they were both enraged and were trying to convince the crowd to share their anger. But the crowd was entranced by the fires, it was almost like they were hypnotized and not moving instead of being aggravated by these two senators they were watching the fires in New York and both leaders were also wearing clown makeup that resembled the joker from Batman and both were wearing shoes that made them appear to be much bigger than they actually were and they were swaying as if the wind was blowing. They were almost like they were on stilts, they had difficulty standing without a fight. And then the clouds began to churn, they were mixing with smoke from the fires, it looked like it was boiling over the cities. Clouds were also turning red and ashen, it opened up to reveal mount Rushmore. In Washington president Washington from mount Rushmore spoke and he said: "Hold the fort, toe the line, fight!" and the emphasis of those three was "fight" it was said with a very, very emphatic "Fight!" and the clouds covered mount the Rushmore monument again the sun came out and started to rain and then I saw that same Christ-type man again. He was walking along the National mall and he spread his arms wide and he said: "Now it's up to you church".

So he's putting it all back on the church so let's start the beginning here.

2nd Vision - Frail Lady strengthened

14th September 2020

Video here

Hey everybody pastor Dana Coverstone Burkesville Kentucky Living Word Ministries Assemblies of God church and I want to share a dream that I've had. I've had three which I cannot share at this time, one which I need to wait to get a little bit more insight on, but this one was a vision that I had September 14th and I waited just a little bit to share it. I did share it Sunday night at the September Solemn Assembly in Plano Texas at the 40-hour prayer and fasting event but I wanted to just share this. This was not a dream this was a vision.

2nd Vision - Frail Lady strengthened

I was watching – I still believe – with my wife and my son and his girlfriend and zoomed out, it was almost like the camera zoomed back to me and I saw something.

I saw an elderly and emaciated woman in a hospital bed she appeared rather weak. She was malnourished almost skin and bones and there was a hospital worker that appeared to be another guy that I saw in a previous dream, it was kind of connected I'm still not sure how and almost like an orderly – somebody who was working at the hospital to help with things and – he was standing near her bed. He put down the side rails and lifted her out of the bed and he clutched her tightly to his chest in a very loving embrace. It was almost like a son holding his mother who was about to pass away. She was elderly, she was emaciated, her skin was almost like you felt if you touched it, it would break. She was just very, very weak very, very sick and he kind of helped pick her up and held her to his chest. Her head was here[against his shoulder] and holding like that kind of has his hand out here[around her body] like this and just kind of holding her his hand on her face. His eyes misted it over and he gazed very lovingly at the woman who tried to open her eyes but she did not even have the strength to do so, barely able to whisper - almost not breathing at all - but the man held her closer to his chest and moved his lips like he was praying. And then I realized he was blowing over her face. He was holding her here[close to his chest], there was tears coming down his face he just began to blow over her face. And he was holding her left hand with his right hand at that time he squeezed that open hand gently - her left hand - and her skin was chalk white, it was pale all over, it was almost dead there was a deathly pallor to it - I'll say it that way. Her hand began to darken just as soon as that man squeezed her hand, suddenly her face began to light up there was some color coming back to her face, her hair began to turn like a light brown and her body started to fill out it was almost like weight was being put back on. She was growing in his arms, healthy weight, her eyes were trying to open and trying to focus and trying to see and she asked him to set her down but he said "Your strength is not returned but it will soon" and she has to be set down almost like on her feet like she wanted to walk and the man said "I know better, you need time to rest" she started to ask one more time and he told her not to ask again and then he laid her gently back into the bed and he covered her up and he walked to the door and he looked back and he said for her not to try to walk too soon or she would end up limping. He said "You need to be able to run, so stick to the instructions or you will be ineffective later on" and then he said "Stay braced and occupy until I come". One of the biggest distinctions with this dream, this vision was I've always seen a white ethereal type figure which I know was Jesus, the Holy spirit combination of both - one or the other - but this time this hospital orderly this man who I've seen now in a previous dream - I'll be sharing here in the near future - but he said “Stay braced and occupy until I come”. Well now I know exactly who that figure was, it was Jesus because he's the only one that's going to be returning - in that sense.

But I saw something that was almost near to death, could it be the church, it could be, but I think I was watching the bride of Christ with hope breathed all over her. I think I saw a battle weary, battle-worn bride that was being told to get ready. All I know is I saw her come back to life, I saw her come back to hope and I saw life spilled out all over her because of the breath of the One that was holding her but He told her to get as good as she could as well as she could because she needed to be able to run so stick to the instructions. Folks stay in the Word, let God do what he wants to do in your life. Realize he's coming back soon I believe that, I believe that I've been saying lately that I think everybody's going to find out that their end times theology is probably not going to pan out the way we all think it is. Everybody's going to be wrong about something I'm not arguing pre-trib mid-trib post-trib whatever I'm just telling you, you need to be ready whenever He comes. I've not changed my theology, I've not changed my opinions, I've had all sorts of people asking me about that. I believe Jesus is coming back and I want to be ready when He comes, He's telling the bride to get ready to run, get ready to run, get ready to run, get ready to run, so take this, pray about it as you will, as you want. That's what I saw in this vision and I'm sharing it today I hope it will be a blessing and more than that, I hope it will give you some insight into what God is doing in the church and saying to the body of Christ

10th October 2020

Recap of 2nd Vision - Frail Lady strengthened

Then the next evening watching a movie with my son and my wife and had the dream about the hospital person and the man that I saw standing beside that elderly woman at the bedside was the same man I'd seen in the dream who put the syrup tap in the tree and blood began to come out of that tap. I had seen this weakened very malnourished woman laying in a hospital bed, she was emaciated, her skin was paper-thin almost like it was been broken and - some of you will know what I mean by that. And this man was standing right near her bed almost as if he was an orderly or a male nurse but he was standing right by the bed. He put down the side rails, he lifted her out of that bed and just began to hold her as close to his chest as possible. His eyes began to mist-over and I really believed that in a sense in my dream that this was maybe like a father or a son who was watching his mother about to pass away. And there weren't tears, there was just mist in the eyes and the lady she was trying to move a little bit, but she was so weak she could not, she could barely open her eyes, her mouth was not moving. I saw him as he held this lady to his chest, and he just kind of expressed an almost a peacefulness and he squeezed the hand that was kind of hanging there and that's when the color began to appear. In that hand her skin was already chalk white it was a pale almost alabaster white. I saw her cheeks begin to fill-out - I thought at first he was praying over her - speaking - but he began to breathe over her and in the process of breathing [over] her that's when he grabbed the hand and that's when the skin began to kind of come back to life, the color began to come back to the lady. Pretty soon her hair was beginning to turn light-shades of brown, she opened her eyes a little bit, looked around, and weight was coming back on and I was actually watching the body of this woman become healthy. It was as if life had been breathed into her at that moment. Finally she catches attention to what's going on and she asked to be put down and the man holding her says “No you're not strong enough. You need to rest - so listen to me - you just need to rest” he also said “You'll be able to get up soon, you'll be able to get up soon” and the woman said she was well enough to walk but the man said he knew better again “You need to rest, you need to rest, you need time”. She started to ask one more time and he basically told her very firmly but gently “No, if you walk too soon you're going to limp. You need rest, you need to heal up”. And he walked towards the door said to her not to try to walk too soon - once again - because she would limp. He says “You need to be able to run, you need to be able to run, so stick to the instructions” and then this man - for the first time that I recognized from earlier in other dreams, the white ethereal figure, had now appeared to me in a dream the night before with the syrup tap in the trees and he was walking out that door of this emaciated lady and he said “Stay braced, and occupy till I come”.

Been a lot of different ideas about who this lady is, I believe [she] is the church, I believe that we have been woken up, that God's trying to get us ready. We don't understand how big and difficult of a battle that is coming against us and some people are very, very antsy to get out there but they're not ready. They think they're ready but they're not, there's a lot of believers in the church you know in Matthew 7 Jesus said some will say “Lord, Lord but we we cast out demons, we healed the sick, we did miracles” and He's going to say “Get out of my presence. I've never known you” so we got a lot of people in the church-world that they've come to church and they've heard the messages but they've never surrendered their lives to Jesus, they've never taken up the cross, they've never followed Him and they're the ones that are going to think they're ready for what's coming. Folks, I don't think in one sense any of us can understand exactly what's about to face us, I don't know exactly why God's telling us to brace ourselves but I believe it literally means to get ready for something that's about to hit us. And we're warned about what's coming so that we can withstand it and still be standing when it goes by us. So I encourage you wherever you are in the Lord, I know church has been shut down because of Covid, I know a lot of people you know 40% of people who used to go to church before Covid will not be coming back because of the situations and changing their lifestyle but I'm telling you if you are a part of the church, if you're saved and you're really committed the Lord. I want to challenge you to get into the Word to get into prayer life, make sure you're ready for the attacks that are coming because He wouldn't give us the warning to get ready unless the things that are coming are pretty strong and pretty big.

I've heard from over 10 000 people personally [thru] Facebook, emails, people looking in the face over ten thousand people that have said the dreams that I've had have been resonating in their hearts, their minds and their spirits and it confirms that what they have sensed the same thing: that something big is coming. And that many people cannot be wrong that many people cannot be wrong now I've made statements from the first dream I put out that if things end up not going anywhere near like some of the things I've seen you bet I'll be the first one to say Man, you know, I'm still going to tell you this. I'm a pastor that had a dream, I'm not the one that made them go viral, I'm not the one that pushed them to go, but I never shared a video of anything I did, but I know what I sense in my heart. I know what I sense in my spirit and what I sense is there's a time of trouble a time of persecution coming to the church that we're not really ready for and even those that think “we're ready” we've got to become even more ready because it's going to surprise us like Habakkuk chapter 1 verses 1 through 5. God told the prophet “I'm going to show you things even more shocking than what you've seen” so we've got to be prepared God wants us to get our hearts and our minds wrapped around the fact that “through many trials and tribulations we will enter the kingdom of heaven”. We're supposed to work while it is yet day and the sun is starting to set. So church “be the church” go out there, stay in the Word stay rooted in the fellowship forsaking not the assembling of ourselves, be praying, be fasting, be seeking his presence and let the Lord move in your life because He needs us to be light and salt in today's world. So thanks for watching, take it to heart see what the Lord wants to do with you but go out there and be ready to fight. God bless and thank you

17th Dream - Ready or Not

26th September 2020

Video here

Hey everybody this is pastor Dana Coverstone and you're watching this video starting out on a new YouTube channel today. And if you would have told me three months ago I'd have my own YouTube channel and have millions of views on dreams and things I would have said that you were as crazy as I would have thought that was. At this time my life has changed a whole lot in the last three months, a lot of fake accounts, a lot of fraud, a lot of crazy things going on which is why we're here today which is why the videos are from now on going to be branded and also copy-written. Because people are taking them and using them in some unscrupulous ways and making money off of them that was never my intention. As a pastor I had a dream and it stirred me deep in my spirit to wake the church up, to realize that He's coming back. This is not to cause debate or to challenge anybody's theological position. This is not to cause arguments about the rapture or the second coming. This is to wake the body of Christ up because all through church history there have been times when the body of Christ, the church was not where it needed to be and the dream I'm going to share today in this first video on here has to do a whole lot with that. So let me just share it.

17th Dream - Ready or Not

Saturday September 26th I had a dream where I saw a huge field that was flat it was open and on either side right and left it stayed flat for about a mile but at the end of that mile it elevated up to small hills on each side. So basically there was a flat area and a hill here[left] and a hill here[right]. In the middle of that ground was a silver line, it was actually a glimmering silver line about five feet wide and it divided the entire flat area that I was watching. The sky had no clouds the sun was out, the sun was at high noon, hot high above us and it was a lot of heat. You can see, like when you're looking down a road and it's hot you can see the glimmering things like that, that's what the ground looked like. It was very, very hot and on either side of that line, which was glimmering like silver, it was a silver color it was glimmering like silver. I saw a large number of people resembling what appeared to be armies and to my left was a very, very dark and demonic army with red horses, weapons, heavily armored obviously very ready and prepared for war that they were about to be involved with. They had horses and those horses grunted and they pranced they pulled up the ground they were anticipating some type of battle and the handlers of those horses were stroking their necks to calm them down. They were sitting on the horses they were not holding them they were sitting on the horses ready to go to war, ready to do something with intention, they were very confident as they prepared to fight. The other side though was a much smaller army both in stature and in number, they appeared to be mesmerized by the army on the left almost like they were unbelieving in their sense of what they were seeing, they were awed by it. They were not necessarily afraid but they were so awed by what they saw, they could not move and they just stared almost in a dead stare. Now some of these people had some armor but it was shoddy, it was broken there were swords that were split, there was shields that were broken. So they were this ragtag group of people who were very, very unprepared especially if they were fighting the group that was on the left side. They seemed very, very disorganized and most of all they were very, very ill-prepared for what they were about to face. And suddenly from down the hill behind the smaller army there were 10 horses and riders – white horses – the riders had large swords and very, very good armor, flowing capes even the horses were armored up. And they rode down behind this smaller army and they come up right behind the people the smaller army and they begin to go around. And they begin to yell out strategies “here's what we're going to do”, “we need you guys to go on this side”, “we need to flank them on the left”, “we need you to be ready and prepared”, “we need to be watching” one group was told to kind of stand just on the other side of the line and make sure that nobody got past them - as far as the [dark] horsemen. So the leader stated clearly that it was time to engage and that every single one of them was needed for a fight. And this leader wasn't just begging, he was saying “here is the way it is, here's what's going on here, here is life, we have got to fight this battle. You've got to go with us, get ready we're going to lead the way, you follow right behind”. And so the horsemen went up and down in front, they were laying out that strategy, they said every single one was needed for the fight and finally the horses got right next to the line, very close to the line they turned around, they said “let's go” the leader yelled “Charge!” and they went flying across this line. But only the horsemen and its riders crossed the line, the armies began to clash swords and fight it was very, very close hand-to-hand combat. The men were on their horses and they just kept fighting, I saw and heard the clanging of armor and swords of battle, the clinking and the clanging you saw swords dropping not from the men's hands but you saw the fight. This was a lot of action, a lot of excitement was going on but I could also see there was concern on the leader's eyes because they kept looking back to see where everybody else was from the army. They kept looking back and they kept asking them to come and fight with them “Come! Come on guys, come on, come and join us! Come on we can push them back! We need you! Come on! Come on! Come on!” Those sort of comments and nobody showed up, nobody else came near that line. They got close to it but they just kept watching, they were mesmerized, they were awed by it, but nobody crossed the line and finally some of those in that smaller army began running back. They were walking backwards so they could keep a watch of what was coming, they were walking backwards and they went up that hill almost to the top of the hill and they sat down and they began watching from the top of the hill. The battle that was taking place, the ten riders and the horses they were still victorious they were fighting, they were clashing you could tell they were tired, they were being worn down but they just kept engaged, they would not disengage from the battle. They would not come back across that line but the people sitting on the hill just sat down and watched, they only watched the battle, they paid no attention to what was going on around them or the surroundings at all. Suddenly on the hill behind the ones who had retreated I saw a group of about 20 of the darker forces that were coming up behind them sneaking up on them very, very carefully, no horses they were just sitting low to the ground sneaking up craftily and the people watching the battle had no idea they were even coming. These evil people were brandishing swords and battle axes, large clubs and they were closing in. As they got within a few feet of them they attacked and literally beheaded five of them, five of these people who were sitting back there were beheaded before they even knew what was happening. And then they began to stir began to realize they're being chased and they start running down towards the army even though the enemy is behind them and in front of them. These people started to yell towards the others, tried to warn them "Hey the enemy is coming from behind!", once again they had no armor, they had no swords, they had no way to defend themselves. The field is open, it's empty there's nothing else there except this wide open sky. And now they either cross the line of the battle or they get killed where they are. But they're running towards that line they're running towards others. The people that were next to the line were only watching the battle ahead, a few turned around heard what was going on and became aware that something was going on, they began to squint their eyes and look and they realized something was wrong. But they still would not cross the line, they would not even cross the line where the warriors were to get close to that situation so these folks were easily killed, they were basically killed where they stood. They would not engage because they had no weapons they simply cowered down and died right there on the field, some had tried to run around the army but pretty soon were flanked on each side and they found themselves surrounded. While the battle was going on, on the other side of the line, part of the dark army that flanked them basically took out the retreating army and the army did not cross the line. The ten riders were still fighting and they were successful, they were winning and yes, there was blood and yes, there was damage but these guys kept fighting like they were determined. They knew they had engaged and they were not going to back away, were not going to stop and the enemy was pushed back but even as the enemy was pushed back what I was seeing was from the top of the hill on the side of the line where the smaller army had been it was littered, literally littered with dead corpses of people who had been killed, people had been beheaded, people had been ran through viciously killed all because they would not engage and didn't have the equipment, didn't have the armor, didn't have the swords. They were in a place they should never have been to begin with and they weren't ready. Some of those folks never crossed the line, they never stepped across it. The leaders on the horses kept fighting as if they had prepared and anticipated this battle while the rest of those stood on the side were dead, out of commission some are even on the ground near death. And what stood out to me was that only a few were pushing the enemy back for the good side but also just a few of the evil ones took out the many, because they weren't ready.

I mean the interpretation I think for this dream is is pretty obvious it only requires a little bit of common sense to make you see that you better stay prepared. That silver line was a line that you've got to cross and that too many have not crossed because they've not been ready. They've not been praying they've not been seeking God's face, and there have been warnings not just from me in dreams but there have been warnings from prophets and pastors and teachers for decades and centuries even. From the prophets to get ready for the things that were coming that that silver line was a very refined and purified line that requires a life committed and surrendered to Jesus to cross. And we need the spiritual maturity and the experience in warfare and if we have those things we can win. And God's trying to warn the church and wake the church up to say that these things are coming but there is coming and will be a day when if you're not ready there's nothing you will be able to do ever again to prepare for the things that we're facing. There's a line and there's a time that will determine whether we're ready or not and once that time begins it's going to be too late to prepare, too late to make a difference. So we've been wanting to get ready and if we're not we pay the price – and yeah – there will be a price we pay for being ready, there will be opposition, there will be persecution, there will be challenges and attacks on our faith and on who we are as believers. But those who are ready, will simply be ready, and that's what's going to matter the most. So those of you that are hearing this dream, I'm going to challenge you to do your best to make sure you are ready, and you stay ready, this is not the time to lag back in your faith. This is not the time to take a spiritual vacation, this is not the time to ditch the church this is not a time to stop reading and praying, this is not a time to let go of the spiritual disciplines because these things are going to be required for us to have the victories and face the things that we're going to face in the future. And they're coming not just because others are having dreams or I'm having dreams or whoever is having dreams but because the word of God tells us that the many trials and tribulations will enter the kingdom of heaven so church if you're not awake you don't have much time. Stay awake, stay ready and engage in the battle because that's what God requires of us to do. Thanks for listening.

18th The Data Dream

Video here

Hey good morning folks it is Tuesday October 20th. Last night I had the completion of a dream that I've had the last several days. It started about the 17th or 18th of October. This one got my attention especially since we're so close to the election the second part is a little bit more contentious so I've sent it to two of my friends to look at. Once again I'm not going to try to interpret what these dreams are I'm just telling you what I had. I felt the urgency to get them out this morning so here's what it is.

18th The Data Dream

I saw what looked like an atlas with interstate lines all over the nation like if you were looking down on an atlas and you see the interstate lines going all over from state to state. And they were flashing with bits of information going all over. It looked like a data map, it appeared to be like a network of sorts that was obviously overworked and some of the data points were not flashing, some were places like cities, smaller places. You had flashing, you had things that were moving, you had data points that were moving almost like traffic but I could see there were small workers in white lab coats and they were trying to work on the areas where the data was not flashing. I saw hammers, I saw guys with laptops, I saw people who were trying to work out the minute details of why this point wasn't flashing, why this point was flashing too hard or too fast and I could see the areas heating up. I heard concerns, the circuits were going to go hot that's what they said "Those circuits are going to go hot and if they go hot they will fry!" and so that was the language I was hearing and they said "they're going to go hot and get fried" if they could not slow the system down. And suddenly from the west-coast of the mid-west, and it started Washington state, Oregon, California there were these big flashes and then I saw smoke from the data points that seemed to represent those bigger cities and they stopped on the western side of Mississippi. So it started all the way on the west coast went to the west coast or to the western edge of the Mississippi river. I was not seeing explosions, I was not seeing bombs I was seeing like systems shutting down because they were so hot and as the systems(data points) the flashing, got closer to the bigger cities it got faster and faster and faster. And almost in the background – in my dream – I could hear a warning sound like what happens in a laboratory or something like that (bio-hazard alarm sound) and the lab coat guys were working feverishly to fix these, but they couldn't get the system back online so instead they were trying to reroute, I could hear them saying "Reroute that system, go around this city" I heard them say several times "Go around Reno, go around Reno, go around Reno, go through Vegas, go here, go there" and they were trying to reroute the system to bring, whatever the system was, back to life. But as they were doing it and rerouting it the bigger cities were still sending up smoke clouds, it was like you would see in the old western movies where someone like a native American Indian with a blanket or something going over it, it was almost like the data points were sending up information about what had happened there. I did not see native American Indians, I did not see anything like that or people doing smoke signals but it looked as if there was something interrupting the smoke, as it was coming up almost like it was sending out a signal of information and then there was a countdown clock. There was no countdown clock at first, but now on the other side of the Mississippi river there was a countdown clock and it was counting down ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one. And when it reached one the eastern side of the mid-west started having the same flash points and the cities there began to smoke and the circuits were fried and I could hear those guys yelling “The system's going up, it's going up, it's going up” and then they would scream “It's going down, it's going down, it's going down, circuits are going to fry the circuits are going to fry!”. And then there would be these flash points and you would see the smoke. But when the flashes reached Philadelphia and this was specifically the city that I saw where all this was happening, the network line that was red it looked like a fire hose that was pulsating with like led lights inside of it. But when it got to Philadelphia the network line that was flashing red went into where the liberty bell was sitting. It went underneath the Liberty Bell and then the pressure began to build up and it was like watching water in a fire hose, it just filled it up, filled it up, filled it up came underneath the liberty bell and when it got underneath the liberty bell it blew up and the liberty bell went flying straight up in the air. It split in half, it blew the liberty bell up into the air and then the liberty bell split in half and it fell in such a way that the round area landed on the ground and it was rocking back and forth just wobbling back and forth, it didn't land on the flat edge of the bell. The crack was where it had split through the whole thing, so the crack became what split the whole thing in half. It stopped rocking after what seemed like – in the dream – several minutes of just rocking back and forth and then the Liberty Bell began to melt. It was almost as if a huge heat source or from the data point that fire hose was so hot that it was melting now, so the Liberty Bell began to melt like heat was being applied. And then I saw that the lines of data were all headed towards Washington DC from there it looked like the city had these octopus arms and they were trying to fight to disconnect the data lines and what I asessed was they were trying to keep the explosive power of this systems shutting down from hitting Washington DC. And so these octopus arms came out and they were trying to disconnect the systems but there was one that just kept flashing, kept building up pulses it seemed bigger and more extreme carrying more data, more information than the other lines I'd seen in the interstate-area before. There were people wearing suits and ties, this was business attire, I saw judges, I saw people in suit and tie, business attire and they were trying to basically pull this line out of Washington DC to keep it from blowing up or whatever. They were trying to pull this line away from the city to no avail, this thing kept going it finally blew up because all the connections went to the capitol building. That's exactly where it was going to, the capitol building it finally blew up and the building literally cracked in half so I've seen the liberty bell crack in half and now I saw the capitol building crack in half. And it issued this huge smoke-cloud as the smoke goes into the air it created a word and that word was “DISCOVERY”, discovery was the word that was in the air. So you got the halls of congress cracked in half, you've got the smoke just building up and spelling this word out in the sky which is the word “Discovery”. It's not like smoke, dissipating or clouds it stays there in the sky and there are people, they're running now and they're not running from the explosion they're running from the word they see in the sky which was “Discovery”.

Then the scene changed and I saw the Rotunda of the Capital and there was a closed casket in the middle of the rotunda and the sign on the casket stated that inside was the democratic candidate for the office of president and there was a calendar hanging above that casket and they had the date specified clearly, one of the first times I've seen an actual date not on a calendar but on the paper it said December 17th. That date was clearly spelled out and I'm not going to say someone's going to die on the 17th, I don't know what to say about it, I'm just telling you what I saw, that's all I'm doing. But it said the calendar hanging above the casket, the sign said had December 17th circled. Now one of the sons of the democratic presidential candidate was there but not the other and his wife was there and she was looking down to the ground, nobody was crying, nobody was crying. There were also many congressmen and senators from both parties in the room and they all had their heads down looking at the floor and they were shaking them just violently just making fists and shaking their heads violently. Also all their shoes were not on their feet, the shoes were piled like when you walk in the rotunda area[entrance] all the shoes were piled there so all these congressmen, all these senators were basically barefooted there was a couple of the females that had socks or stockings on their feet almost like a pantyhose type stocking on their feet everybody else was totally, totally barefoot. And then a prominent Senator stood up and demanded to see the body and that's when the sergeant-at-arms rushed up and he said, with several marines by the way, and he said "There will be no viewing of the body today or ever again, there will be no viewing of the body today or ever again" and the senator sat down and collected himself, then he walked over to that pile of shoes and he dug through all these shoes until he found his pair, he put them on and he sat there for a minute looked around you could tell he was getting angry and he rushed out of the room and he was running like at a sprinter's pace to get out of there. Smoke was still rising outside and he's running towards the white house with both fists clenched like this and his mouth is moving and I did not hear the words but I could see that he was cursing not swearing, not cussing he was cursing the White House he was cursing the leadership - I don't want to put words out there because I did not hear what he was saying but he was obviously cursing - he was upset with something that was going on, he was intent on making a change and he stopped for a moment near the Washington monument and looked back and when he looked back there was about 20 to 25 other people who were following him men and women, I can't tell you the parties, I can't tell you who they were, I did not see these faces. The runner, yes, I knew who it was, I'm not going to say but nonetheless 20 25 people are falling in after him but they're holding their shoes in their hand while they walked. He told them to hurry but they just continued their very steady almost cautious pace to get to him and then he sneers at them and he sneers at the White House and he begins sprinting towards the White House as fast as he can and at this time I saw the man I've seen in the previous dreams.

He was standing in the place where the president gives the state of the union address, he was standing in the halls of congress right there where everybody sees the president give the state of the union address every single year. And he tapped the microphone it was real, it wasn't a sm58 [microphone] it was a real thin, very professional, microphone that was there. He tapped the microphone three times one, two, three and then he stated in a very loud voice "A house divided against itself shall not stand" and he emphasized the word 'SHALL' he said it like this "A house divided against itself SHALL not... stand..." and the emphasis was on the word 'SHALL' And then he pushed the microphone down, just put his hand and pushed the microphone all the way down to the podium and he walked to the door at the rear of the room. And on that wall there was a panel of probably 25 or 30 light switches just a flip-switch and one by one he flipped them down one by one until every light in congress and that building in that room went out.

And that was the end of the dream so I had this dream over the over the course of the last three or four nights I've not slept since about three o'clock I had it at about 2 15 at some I think around 2 15 to 2 30. woke up with an incredible urgency to get this out there. Once again I'm not gonna say all the things what I think it means, I think we're about to see a whole lot revealed in congress, I think the next two weeks we're gonna see a whole lot more revealed about some of our leaders on both sides but whatever I saw with the data points they are explosive things that are happening. That was not cities blowing up, that was information, that was data points that was systems that were crashing. So I'm sharing this asking you to pray about it, pray for wisdom and understanding. Every time I put a dream out there I usually get - and this is no joke - I usually get three to four hundred people trying to interpret and tell me what the dream is and that's okay I can't look at all of them and I don't look at all of them.

But all I'm telling you is: I think you know we're two weeks today from the election and there's a whole lot going on definitely in this dream and the dreams I've had lately have been a lot more political, a lot more situations. I'm also not saying that Joe Biden's going to die on December 17th I'm just telling you I saw a closed casket, I saw a sign that said this is the Democratic candidate for President, I saw his wife and one of his sons not two. And that's all I'm saying, we are seeing some of the things I've seen in the dreams that are happening and I'm not trying to just clarify that and say hey I'm doing these I keep telling these dreams so that there's some value added to what I've said or done. I'm just trying to be obedient and share what I've seen, you can do with them what you want but I am trying to warn the nation I'm trying to warn the church that I believe there are some pretty explosive things that are coming and that we better be where we need to be nber one, with the Lord and secondly be prepared with our families to protect, to watch, to lead to God and to speak up. Right now, I think this is going to be the most important election and the most contentious election in not just modern history but in the history of this nation and, I think I'm qualified to say that based on the news, the reports of things that are happening, the nber of attorneys on both sides so take this, do with it what you want, but this is the dream that I've had last night, this is the dream that will be on my mind for the next several hours, the next several days going to the election and so please pray because the spokesman that was standing where the president gives their union speech said "a house divided against itself shall not stand" and if we've ever been divided as a nation it is today. I don't think we have to go back to the civil war to find the kind of divisions that we have like we have today and the division is a very, very spiritual one, it's the difference between right and wrong, good and evil that's what we see out there. It's not black and white, that's not the biggest issue that we have in this country, there's a spiritual issue that is deeply underneath the foundations of this country and things are about to become explosive and violent and issue-oriented. But I think also, what I'll just say this, I think God's about to punch the November calendar. The more I pray about, the more I see, I think God's about to say "Enough is enough in this nation" and we'll see how the rest of my dreams play out but I'm just telling you what I saw today and ask you to pray about it, ask you to make sure you're right with the Lord ask you to share your faith with as many people as you can get out and vote, get out and make a difference but also prepare for the things that could happen in the next several weeks, we're two weeks today from the election and things are not slowing down by any means so take this and do with it what you will.

Thanks for listening

19th Dream - Hold your breath

26/27th October 2020

Video here

Hey everybody pastor Dana Coverstone Burkesville Kentucky had another dream that compiled over two nights August [actually October] 26th and 27th and I woke up with a little bit different understanding of this dream I'm just going to share the dream and let everybody else pray about it, think about it and look at it.

19th Dream - Hold your breath

I dream't that I saw people all over American during the daylight hours in various places. I saw people on Wall Street with suits and ties, also people at church, I saw people at the park, I saw people at high school games, I saw people at malls, I saw just people doing normal things. It looked more normal than before Covid as you can imagine, nobody was wearing masks there were no concerns as to disease or illnesses or anything going on. People were acting like 2020 had never happened and then suddenly a lot of those people started to look up like they'd heard something, there was no noise in the dream that I heard. I just saw people just look up suddenly and looking around like that and then a bunch of them - not all of them - but a bunch of them just took a deep breath like they were holding their breath, like they're about to jp into water or something and other people had not heard anything though and there was people like the person talking to me just kept talking looking at me as if they couldn't even tell I was holding my breath, they just kept talking and engaging with me. Other people once again were looking, those people who looked around saw something coming or heard something, felt something, sensed something took a deep breath. We're holding them [breath] everybody else just kept doing what they were doing. They were not even aware that people were holding their breath around them and the people holding their breath were not straining by any means not hurting to hold it in, they were just very calmly watching the landscape around eyes watching, looking around while holding the breath of what was happening.

Then I saw waves of water coming over the landscape and the surrounding mountains (the boundaries of the United States of America were mountains) so take the outline from California all the way to New York it was all about the boundary, the entire nation was all mountains and coming over the mountains was water, not like tsunami waves, not like rushing waves just water just steady, just steady water and it was just brilliant blue like ocean blue water it wasn't dirty, it wasn't murky, it wasn't clear and transparent, it was just blue, just blue ocean water coming over slowly and it was like the water was going to fill up the pool of the mountains around the United States of America. Now the people who were holding the breath acted like they hadn't seen anything scary coming, the people holding their breath were not worried, were not scared, were not leery, were not panicking once again they just kept remaining very, very calm. They stood there holding their breath, some of their families by their sides holding their kids hands they did not run but they stood squarely in the place of where they were the others however when they saw that wall, they were screaming, they were panicking, they were running but they had no place to go and I could also see them just making a fist, looking in the sky and cursing God, cursing the sky and the God that they believe lived there. The water was coming up to their knees and people just kept yelling and screaming and once again the people holding their breath were just calm and relaxed. So there were two distinct groups: those who were holding their breath and those who hadn't even tried to hold their breath, yet one group was running and caught off guard while the other group was very, very calm and out of the group holding their breath walked the man that I've seen in the previous dreams, the white figure, who'd always said "Brace yourself", the person from the hospital to the person who hung the bucket on the maple tree, he walks out and he held up two fingers on his right hand and he said clearly "Stay braced but don't breathe just yet" so once again he held up two fingers and he said: "Stay braced but don't breathe just yet".

I had this over Monday night the 26th and Tuesday night last night the 27th not a whole lot more in that dream but that's what I saw. I saw the brace-yourself figure anytime I have one of those dreams with that person saying "brace yourself" I'm going to share it. I know we're seeing a lot of tultuous stuff begin to happen especially in Philadelphia, we've seen another city San Bernadino had a situation, all sorts of crazy things are happening in the news and so I'm sharing this once again. It doesn't fit the 2020 [dream]-timeline, I never saw anything with 2020 it was just everything was normal, everything was daylight yet, the people holding their breath were very, very calm and together and I'm going to take it very easily, very quickly those are believers who are not panicked about what they see but the figure said "Brace yourself but don't breathe just yet" almost like there's more coming than we can imagine, more coming. We can see whether it fits the timeline - I don't know - I'm just telling you the dream that I had that's what I saw and I just simply wanted to share it and for whatever it's worth, there it is so thanks for watching.

4th November 2020

20th Dream - Holding the wall

I saw a bunch of people holding a wall pushing against the walls like they were supporting it. Behind that wall was a huge bunch of water and I saw hundreds and hundreds of thousands of people just holding that wall, pushing it, holding the wall tight and you could see the wall shifting and moving and it would sometimes push people back and they would re-brace themselves against the wall and hold it and as people were doing that I could see that some of their cell phones would ring and they kept looking back, to be distracted. Finally one person steps away from the wall puts his phone out and says: "hello" and starts to talk and gets involved in communication and just kind of walks off. Other people were starting to say: "I've got to be somewhere, I've got to do something to do". "I've got this" and "I've got that" and basically announcing where they were what was going on with what was happening and they had to go. And so little by little people are walking away from that wall and every time that someone walks away from the wall there's a gap in the wall and people have to re-brace themselves and push harder. So now you've got fewer people holding that that wall and it reminds me of the story from Amsterdam and the dyke and the wall and little boy plugging the hole and holding the wall. That's what I was seeing.

I think the interpretation was very clear to me on that. It was simply this: we've been holding the wall since September and we cannot stop holding that wall, we can't walk away from, we can't be distracted, we have to keep praying we have to keep seeking, we have to keep fasting, we have to keep trusting the Lord. I have a pastor friend from Pakistan who told me this last weekend in Topeka Kansas that he is going to pray and fast through to the inauguration and I think that's probably a good plan. So once again Christians we cannot step back from holding that wall in place and we are keeping a lot of things from happening in this country. And if once we get to this election process we say: "Okay we're done" NO, we cannot stop holding that wall and I think that's what [George} Washington was trying to say in the dream part of it was "Hold the fort, toe the line and fight". I'm not gonna just lay down and be ran over, we don't know what could happen tonight with the elections. I haven't even looked at any news this morning as far as the last couple hours but we need to be holding the wall, holding our petition, our position and staying embraced even in the Breathe-Dream I saw people who were doing everything they could to stay braced. It's not that they weren't breathing they were holding their breath, they weren't panicking but even the voice said "Stay braced but don't breathe yet" so keep fighting, keep holding the wall, don't move from your place. We've got too much stuff to pray about too much stuff too fast about we cannot let down okay. So that's what I got.

21st The Lincoln Dream

9th November 2020

Hey everybody it is Tuesday November the 17th. I'm gonna share a dream that I had on November 9th 2020 last week and I spent about a week just praying over this one, walking through this one. Shared it with both John and Cherie and they're working on some things with it. But it was one of those [dreams] that just makes you think. I've had some folks ask me if I was gonna be putting dreams out I don't go to bed saying "okay God give me a dream" I'm just simply sharing what I saw and I do want to remind people that dreams are most of the time not literal. I've got 500 people saying nothing in those dreams has come true and I've got 500 people saying everything in those dreams is coming true and I've got half a dozen saying oh some's coming true some's not. Dreams for the most part are not literal they're symbolic. I do believe we're seeing some of the things happen for sure, but we'll just go from there.

21th The Lincoln dream

So here it is: It's a dream I had November 9 2020. I saw Abraham Lincoln at the Lincoln memorial and [he] was standing up at his seat with his right hand held up and was being addressed by uncle Sam. There were spotlights aimed at his head and he was bathed in like this overwhelming light and on the granite seat where he'd been sitting was a stack of law books and on the bottom was a simple brown leather rawhide bible that was larger and thicker than any of the other law books. On top [of the book pile] his top hat - the hat that Lincoln was known for using - was laying on top of the law books and it kind of made the stack look like a like a pyramid. Uncle Sam asked him if he would tell the truth the whole truth so help him God and Lincoln said that it's all you will get from me on this day. Uncle Sam walked backwards without turning around and he stepped up onto a platform and removed his patriotic hat and he whispered the words "I am sorry" towards Lincoln. Then he shifted his eyes to his right and left and then to the right again as if he was getting acknowledgment from people behind him. A voice shouted very loudly "Get it over with already!" and then a hand appeared and pulled the curtain along a piece of rope that appeared to be about 50 feet long so - just pulling a rope like this - and this made it appear as if the judge were standing in front of a large black backdrop and on each side hanging like almost like a banner waving down was a tattered American flag on a pole. Lincoln remained standing as if he had never considered even sitting on the seat. There were marks on his face like he'd been assaulted, he had a sling over his left arm and a bandage around his left hand with blood showing through the palm and he kept a very stern face but was obviously in slight pain from whatever happened. Uncle Sam cleared his throat three times and then he said "Hear ye, hear ye. The accused before you is here to admit his crimes publicly and will do so voluntarily. How do you plead Mr Lincoln?" - not president but Mr Lincoln - the president never blinked his eyes, he swallowed hard, he said "I won't". Uncle Sam winked at the president [and] asked again while grimacing in a way to get Lincoln's attention. "I won't" was repeated and uncle Sam looked back above and beyond the curtain behind him and then looked back: "Really Mr Lincoln, you must make a plea" but Lincoln responded by saying: "Well then, give me a trial by jury after I do". Lincoln simply looked straight ahead and said nothing, two men then walked up behind uncle Sam each went to a side and they whispered in both of his ears and uncle Sam grimaced and he dropped his head as the two men went back behind the curtain. Uncle Sam then stood before Lincoln and the crowd of people who had appeared near the chair at the memorial, and this crowd was aggressive and mean-spirited they held signs and specifically they had torches in their hands. Lincoln stood taller and closed his eyes slowly after looking both to his right and his left and each of the men who stood behind uncle Sam and these people consisted of federal elected and appointed officials, governors and judges in their robes. Uncle Sam walked up to Lincoln and whispered in his ear and revealed tears running down his cheek, he choked back a sob and he said "Mr Lincoln you have been found guilty by those in power and are sentenced to death by hanging for it". Mr Lincoln said "As the former president of this union I deserve to know what I am accused of, to begin with. I am an attorney and I know what the law says". Uncle Sam stated clearly and precisely and with great struggle "We do not recognize the law of man or of God and simply find you worthy of death, your time is over and a new dawn awaits those who will dwell on this earth and at this time". The men standing behind uncle Sam came forward and they put a noose around Lincoln's neck and they tightened it. Then they pushed uncle Sam forward while they threw the end of the rope over a marble brace at the memorial and they handed the end of the rope to uncle Sam and saluted him. Uncle Sam held that rope in his hands for a very long time and he wept and then he faced Lincoln and he said "I am sorry Mr president" and at this statement the men behind him pounded him about the head and neck until bruising began to appear on uncle Sam's head and they yelled at him and said this "You address him as 'Mr Lincoln' nothing more!". Sam looked back at the men and said: "You can hang me next for what I've allowed you to do to my conscience", he then started pulling on the rope. President Lincoln stood quietly and began to feel the tautness of the rope, but he reached backwards and began trying to grab something on his seat as uncle Sam's strained to pull and hold the rope, Lincoln was trying to grab his bible, he was pushing the law books off of it, but his fingers [kept] slipping off of the binding. He did get a hold of it but the jerking of the rope made him drop it to the floor just as his feet left the floor. Lincoln's eyes showed his compassion towards the elected and the appointed men in front of him as uncle Sam, holding the rope tight, would not look at anything but the floor. (Note: It was interesting to note in the dream that Lincoln never fought back after the bible slipped from his hands) And now he was just swinging slowly. One of the judges, not the federal officials, one of the judges spoke up and said "You can drop him now" and uncle Sam very slowly and respectfully dropped Lincoln to the floor. He looked back at the men and he said "I hope you get what you deserve for this" then he grabbed his chest and dropped to the floor. He was dead within seconds with his eyes wide open. And the crowd began to scatter, including the elected and appointed men who had been behind him encouraging this whole endeavor. At that very moment the man appeared that I had seen in [the previous] dreams so often, he knelt down besides president Lincoln and said: "They didn't have any idea what they were doing and now the nation needs to brace itself for what they deserve" he then walked over to uncle Sam closed his eyes tenderly and tapped the heart area three times and he said "Rest in peace uncle Sam, sorry you had to see the ship go down" then the man looked right at me in the dream and he said "Nation, (specifically 'Nation') brace yourself for fire and ice and don't forget to anchor your soul"

I had that dream last week I've said it before I love American history, I've been at the Lincoln memorial, I've been in Washington DC as a child. A lot going on there so these dreams are becoming very historical in aspects. I'll share another one here in just a little while that I had this week, this weekend Sunday night Saturday night into Sunday night and some more on Monday about Benjamin Franklin and some things happening with America. They gripped me these, these dreams gripped me and once again I remind people I believe that most dreams are symbolic I struggle sometimes when I see these things as dreams and that's why I waited about a week on this one. Just because it tears me up, tears me up because I love this country and those [who] want to say when I use the word "patriot" they're offended by that word, get over it. I love this country, I love America I've been to 43 countries, I've seen a lot of the world and I've been to places that aren't like ours. So just sharing this dream and let you know what was in it. I had this last week and the main thing that was said was "Nation brace yourself for fire and ice and don't forget to anchor your soul" so I'm gonna stop for just a little bit, I'll come back on in about 15 20 minutes and do the Franklin dream that I had last night.

22nd The Franklin dream

16th November 2020

Hey, we're going to go into the second dream I had. Some people may say "Why'd you change your shirt?" there's a lot of people looking at the past videos and saying "Okay what color was the shirt when he did this and that" once again my friend Jay has helped me to get some branding up so we can actually know what's going on when the dream was when I had it. Simply doing that for clarity and things like that. Once again it's a historical dream and I've had several. There's one dream that I've not released I'm going to be sharing [after] working with Cherie Goff this coming Thursday to share it and put it out there, it goes back to one I had in September about ships in Normandy and once again prayer is the focus of it. And I do believe that one of the reasons that God has given me the dreams is to call the church back to prayer, to call the church out, to get ready in the times in which we live and that's what it's about. So here's the dream that I had.

22st The Franklin dream

This is the dream that I had on November 16th 2020 it features Benjamin Franklin. I saw Benjamin Franklin outside at night flying a kite among very stormy skies, lightning in the background, strong winds and a very, very light rain. But the kite was an American flag and that American flag seemed to be covered in a type of oil or at least it had a greasy sheen on it. At the end of the kite was a globe a small globe attached to a chain almost like a key chain you would have. Okay so [the globe] hanging off of the flag off the kite wasn't a key - like Benjamin Franklin used when he first did his search for electricity and things like that and how light what was in lightning - it was just a globe attached to a chain at the end of the kite. Franklin was holding the kite very steady in the rain. He was watching the lightning around him with very wide open eyes because he was paying attention where the lightning was obviously anticipating a strike on something. Suddenly this hand appears out of the heavens and it grabs the flag and it squeezes, the hand squeezes around the flag in a very rough manner, it's just like this grabbing and squeezing almost violently and the globe was hanging underneath his hand. You couldn't see the flag in the hand of God who was squeezing the flag but there was a chain running out and down and the globe was hanging out and so as the hand was squeezing the globe was shaking, that globe was hanging off his hand. And flowing out of that squeezed hand was a mix of oil and water, it was a sheen it was just like the sheen you would see on an ocean if there's been an oil spill on a body of water. And as it squeezed out of the big hand it just kind of rolled over the globe and fell back to the earth. The rain and the lightning behind it was illuminating it and it was like oil was coming from heaven instead of rain because of the sheen that was on the flag. The hand kept squeezing, rolling back and forth like this squeezing and rolling back and forth with the flag inside. With sifting going on inside that hand you could hear things like shifting and sorting and moving in the hand and then the rain stopped and the hand opened up to reveal several large - and I do mean large - diamonds there were large chunks of what appeared to be coal - that's what it looked like to me - large chunks of coal but there was also a lot of trash in that palm almost like it was covering the diamonds and then God reached down and just went <blows> with his hand with his breath and a lot of that trash just went flying away from his hand and the only thing left in his hand was the diamond and the coals. Then he lowered his hand to the earth and he rolled out the items in his hand and the diamonds were about the size of vehicles and the coal pieces were about the size of large boulders the coal was not as big as the diamonds and they were each laying on this beautiful green luscious healthy looking grass and the diamonds were shining in their brilliance. It was still night, it wasn't daytime now it was still night, the rain has stopped still dark but the coal had no shimmer it had no glory about it, it just stood out though in great contrast to the diamonds but you could see that they'd been squeezed but had not made the cut into diamonds so you could see the intention this coal had been pushed as well had been squeezed. Franklin was standing there admiring the scene and he solemnly said very clearly: "I guess we are no longer a republic" and the Father spoke and said: "No, it's mine now as is the whole earth" and Franklin asked he said "Where did the globe go that was attached to the flag" and the Father spoke and he said: "It's still being pressured for now but will be released in good time" and then he said "Franklin keep your glasses on, your eyes sharp and stay committed to the captain"

This dream gave me some hope. We know that eventually there's going to be some Antichrist work going on. The spirit of Antichrist is already here according to first John. So items continue to appear in my dreams: the American flag, historical figures the kind of nation that we were at times. But once again when Franklin said "I guess we're no longer a republic" the father's voice said clearly "No it's mine now, as is the whole earth" and Franklin asked where the globe was that had been attached to the flag the father said "It's still being pressured for now" and those words were used "pressured for now" but it will be released in good time keep your glasses on, your eyes sharp and stay committed to the captain.

So I'm just sharing the dreams. I know there's a lot of people who have some ideas and thoughts about what's happening with the dreams that I've had, things in Washington, the data dream is being referenced to me quite a bit almost on a daily basis and I appreciate that people are looking at that and thinking about that and trying to figure things out. I am getting - every day - hundreds and hundreds of emails, if there's a news item that relate to the dreams I will get several of those. The other night fireworks were kind of thrown at some some Trp supporters in Washington DC and so I had people sending me that by the hundreds and the comment was "if I had seen fire in Washington DC" and so could that be maybe I don't know but I know the headline was pretty strong and one thing I do know I am seeing is headlines we're not seeing necessarily lines at the hospitals but we are seeing a huge outbreak according to the media. We're seeing a huge uptick in COVID cases and things like that. I'm not trying to justify things I've seen folks take the dreams I've had and pray about them I'm not trying to do anything with these, I just I feel like I'm supposed to share these dreams and trust the Lord will help you to understand what they mean. I'm working with other people to do interpretations and I think my job is just to have the dreams and share them. I understand I'm responsible for them yeah but I also encourage people. You need to pray about what you do with the dreams. I had someone that called me actually called me and was furious "I sold property, I bought property here and there now this things aren't happening...". I never told people to do anything, I gave three recommendations and that was get some storable food, buy guns and ammo which every election year you know those things are going to be hard to get. And you can't buy ammo or guns right now so you can say what you want about that one. [I] also encouraged people to get silver or gold because I don't think anybody who's watching right now has absolute confidence in the American dollar and when you've got Trudeau and Schwab encouraging people being thankful that all these COVID lock-downs and this and that has made it possible for a great reset and those are the words they're using. I shared in my prayer time this morning that there was an MP in Great Britain from UK who basically said you know as vaccines come we should basically make sure that if you don't get a vaccine you can't work. Now that's tyranny and that's also the spirit of Antichrist at work in our country right now. So just pray about the dreams do with them what you want, you can say whatever you want to say and believe me I've been called all sorts of names I've had all sorts of threats and everything else but I'm going to continue to share what God shows me. I'm not going to apologize for loving this country, not apologize for calling myself a "patriot" I've been to enough places around the world and have understood and studied communism and socialism enough to know that I don't want that here, I don't think anybody in their right mind wants that here and you can take that statement any way you want to. Anyone in their right mind would not want communism or socialism of any sense in this country if you don't believe me talk to people in Venezuela who are out, talk to the people who are holocaust survivors, talk to people who lived in Russia and Poland and Albania and some of those nations who spent centuries under communist and socialistic rule so once again you can do with the dreams what you want to do with them, but I just felt supposed to get them out there so thanks for listening.

23rd Snake-Chain dream

7th Dec 2020

Hey everybody, pastor Dana Coverstone and I am at Nashville Arkansas at first assemblies of God with my good friends and we're here to unpack a dream. We spent a couple hours last night - you can see the marker board behind me - we unpack the dream I've recently had. This is our first time to meet like this and we're excited about it and hopefully the first of many times. This is John Redenbauer or "Dimbo" and Cherie Goff and we are here to share a dream and unpack it so here it is.

23rd Snake-Chain dream

I saw cherry blossoms in Washington DC and there was a brilliant sun cutting through a foggy haze early in the morning. But then there was a bolt of lightning that went across the sky from straight up to the clouds and a very loud and long lasting clap of thunder that ended with a huge rainfall for just a few moments but the rain stopped just as suddenly and the sun was out again as if a high noon day. There were silver and gold flecks in the clouds and they were glistening like diamonds the cherry blossom leaves began to fall off the trees slowly at first and then a hand appeared and began to rip them off the trees in clps. The wind was blowing them up into the air and then a tornado funnel appeared and picked up all the leaves up in the air and then it disappeared and the leaves all fell to the ground and they covered every square inch of the ground. The air then became very dark and gray clouds appeared in the sky and the trees were leafless and appeared very gnarled and ugly, and the health of the trees seemed to be in question. But as I got closer to them I saw the trunk and the limbs of the trees were actually covered in large lengths of chains and these chains were about the size of boat chains and what they must have weighed, 100 pounds or hundreds of pounds. The leaves on the ground seem to be about a foot deep around the trees. And then I saw a group of men marching in a straight line along the National mall and they were wearing hiking boots and work clothes which one would consider to be construction type clothing. They each went and stood close to a specific tree, they reached down through the leaves which were all dead and brown by now and they reached down towards the roots of the trees and they grabbed the lowest length of the chain and they began to pull. As they began to pull on that chain their faces were contorted their muscles bulged, it was a lot of work, very intensive it was as if the tree had grown into the chains because as they pulled the bark and the pulp were interlinked between the links of the chain are cracking and popping and exploding off of these chains. These men were sweating they were strained and they began dragging the chains behind them back the way they came. On the scene they strained, they kept pulling, their muscles were physically ripping it was even causing injury to these men. As they pulled these chains it was slowing them down but it did not stop them from pulling the chains at all and I saw that they walked onto a large map of the United States of America. Each man went and laid the chains down on the boundaries of different states and the states were represented by horses and mules and oxen. They were just standing there in the interior of all the states, these animals began to push against the chains like they wanted to back away. The marching men eventually connected all their chains together and laid them over the geographical boundaries of each state and those animals were trapped and caged by the chains and they were trying to kick against them and push against them and jp over, but they could not do it. They were trapped there and then a shot was fired into the air and one of the marching men yelled: "That will be heard by the whole world!". And suddenly the area was filled with red, white and blue lightning and the crack of thunder was very loud and the trees began to bleed from the roots and the blood of that tree the blood that was coming from those trees began to stain the ground under it until it flowed to every state boundary and through every state on the map. And the chains then coiled back like live snakes until the blood had covered the entire outlay of the state so it just kind of moved from where the trees were in Washington and it just moved steadily and slowly on until it covered all the ground of the map on the boundary lines. The heads on the chains kept guarding the boundaries and hissing and spitting anything that got close to them and biting those that got too close. I then saw people who appeared to be bitten, and once they were bitten these people would go to the ground and start having seizures and foaming at the mouth and then they would die but there were some that knelt in prayer and after they had prayed on one knee then they approached the snake chains with a rush and no fear. And some of these people were bit by the chain snakes but they did not go down, others were bit and did go down, but they did not die and they returned to praying before they approached the boundary again. They were in pain but they kept walking to pass the boundaries praying as they walked through and they also seemed determined to find other people praying and joining with them to pray as a larger block. And when they met in larger groups they would sing, they would lift their hands, they would pray, they would link arms and they would be shoulder to shoulder. And the main thing I saw with them was they had smiles on their faces, there was joy, they were appreciative and excited and even though the snake chains were lifting up behind them and hissing and whipping, there were more groups meeting after crossing the lines to pray and they were growing. So every state was covered with people who were praying, and praying together, the clouds were still turning with evil but the people were praying and they stood their ground. And they prayed even louder and that was the end of the dream.

24th Church and State dream

30th Dec 2020

Hey good afternoon pastor Dana Coverstone Living Word Ministries Burkesville Kentucky I'm going to be sharing a dream I had between December 19th and 23rd, This stretched out over several nights and I'm gonna share it and leave it at that. I know a lot of folks made a lot of comments even there's even somebody here who said: "prophecies are false". I would like to remind people that dreams are symbolic. Confirm what you say I said. Dreams are for you to pray about, look at and then decide what to do with them. I believe this one's very, very easy to figure out what it's about, what it's saying but I also just want to make a point. I'm going to continue to share dreams I'm going to continue to share what God's showing me and people can say what they want, do what they want with them. I'm not really bothered by that, I'm simply going to say them. I know that I've got to be obedient about what He's showing me, so I'm going to do that and regardless of comments or people or negative whatever I'm going to continue to share them so here it is.

24th Church and State dream

It's the dream that I had December 19th through the 23rd of this year I saw the United States capitol building and it was fully lit up and the tower parts had large arms - like han arms - attached to it. The arms were muscular and they had short sleeves and very rough-looking hands when I say a rough-looking working hand I mean hands that had worked the ground, hands that had been on a plow or working with machinery or in other words hard working-hands. The building was also the capital but it was also flying the flag that Betsy Ross designed with 13 stars in a circle in the top left hand corner. So I knew this had to do with the starting of American history. Across from the congressional building was a traditional style church, it also had arms attached to the steeple, the arms were very muscular and very similar to the arms of the capitol building both had rough hands and arms that knew work you can see the veins popping out, the muscles that work, these were hands that were not afraid to get themselves dirty or work hard and they had short sleeve work shirts on. The hands were not necessarily dirty but they obviously were dry and cracked and obviously been working in the fields or on equipment - something like that. So you get the idea, these hands have been working hard. Behind the church there were standing religious leaders that were wearing [religious garb]. I saw like several catholic cardinals, I saw early 1900s and late 1800 style preachers with the long black code and bibles in their hands behind the capitol building. There were some older style congressmen if you met colonel Sanders they were dressed kind of like colonel Sanders' older style southern and northern professional dress. But they seemed older still - the clothing did - but they also seemed very professional and each group was cordial towards each other at the beginning of the dream. The hands shook the church and the state hands shook hands and they seemed to get along, they stood in their location they were respecting each other's sides. Supporting each other as well and then the sky began to move and shift and change, it would look like a scene from the HG Wells' The Time Machine where the sky is going faster and faster and faster and finally as it's changing times change, time shifts becomes a little bit more modern in that regard. As the scene slowed down, I noticed the Capital building arms were now long sleeved and they had very expensive cuff-links, gold cuff-links with diamonds all over, obviously very very expensive cuff-links and the hands were no longer rough they were very soft and had manicured nails. Looked like they had not touched an ax or a shovel or been in the dirt for any amount of time at all, the roughness was entirely gone too. The building, the capitol building, was well maintained very well lit, both buildings were very well lit, but it looked as if they'd been taken care of and polished. The church appeared to have the same kinds of muscled arms with rough hands and they seemed dry and cracked and those hands were in constant motion, but no sleeve no cuff-links. They just appeared to be very similar to what they were from the scene I had seen earlier.

The capitals suddenly put their hands together firmly like popped their knuckles and pointed at the church in a very accusing way and the church's hands they just kept moving and working there's even blood on their hands and I think in a sense like from sacrifice. The sacrifice, the hard work they had done was causing their hands to crack and bleed and they were working on something. The capitals hands then went up like to stop the church from moving forward and the church stopped in its tracks and the church hands were moving like "hey! we got to get by here, we need to get past you, we've got work to do, there's a gospel to preach" they weren't saying those things but the hands were indicating it, they needed to get by the capitol so the church tried to move by and the capital moved over and stood right in its way and put his hands up like this. Well then the church started to go around again and the capital pushed him down to the ground so they go in the dirt and the church wipes itself off, gets up tries to walk by again and he got pushed down one more time. So the church wasn't backing down, the church was caught, they're trying to look around to see what's going on, trying to figure out, they want to get by and so they're getting back up, they were not backing down or they weren't stopping from getting up from the ground, but each time they got up they just kept coming back towards the state or the capitol. Now the people behind the church, they were very timid very, very worried because the capital, the people standing behind the capitol building, they were grimaced and arms folded and just looking like: "you can't move, you don't need to do anything you just can't move, you're gonna stay right there". Then I saw the church do this pop with its knuckles and they set its face towards the area behind the capitol and just trying to walk by the states and this time that the church said strongly: "We need to get by and we're going to do it right, but we must be allowed to pass" and the state simply said: "Not on our watch". That was the response of the state so now both sides have their vision set to do what they're doing. Both sides are going to do what it's going to do. The state then grabbed the church by the throats pushed it back and down but the church got back up and pushed back against the state. So it's starting to get violent, the church bend itself down leaned into the state and put his back foot down, like literally braced itself on the ground and pushed forward and they were both straining against each other as they were pushing and contending and wrestling almost like a wrestling match. One of the capital arms slipped a seed, just a very, very dark almost black type seed, into the back pocket of the church. At the same time some of those standing behind the church saw the hustle and bustle and they moved over to stand behind the building, the capitol building, the capital then said: "the church needed to stand down" but the church said "We won't" so there was a standoff. And as the standoff is going on looking at each other and kind of pushing each other this large thorny vine was growing out of the back pocket of the church, it was coming up behind around the back wrapping around the body of the church, wrapping around the building of the church going up into the arms of the church and trying to wrap around the neck and even trying to go down the throat of the church. And when the capitol building saw this it just kind of stepped back and went like this like it could go on by. Now the flowers on this vine were red just a very, very bright almost blood-red and they were biting the church and they were wrapping around the legs of the church and it kept growing and once again as I said, it went into the mouth of the church went down its throat and was trying to surround its heart. So by this time the capitol building is not even concerned about the church, they're not even looking, they're just doing their own thing over there. But the church building itself has a left arm that is red, blood red almost like the color of the vines. The right hand of the church is a white hand and not like white skin like of a white Caucasian person but just like white paper you know just like piece of paper that kind of white. So the distinction it's not nothing to do with the color of people it has to do with the purity - I guess - the white. The leaves on this vine - that appear like the flags - also have these unusual symbols on them. And the left hand the white hand is trying to pull the vine [away] while the red hand is trying to slap away the white hand to keep the white hand from pulling off the vine. The red hand is trying to protect the vines going around the church so this results in a fight and the two hands are trying to protect one's trying to protect the church while trying to strip it [the vine] from the church as the struggle continues the capital just looks at the church trying to assess the strength, but it's over there handing out money and signing bills it's shaking hands and it's shaking hands with business leaders and professional looking people from all the different nations, different nationalities and that sort of thing. At this moment the church begins to shake violently like it was having a grand mal seizure and the chest kind of opened up and revealed this heart that had been squeezed almost to death by this vine the heart was beating barely. The white hand took a knife [which] just kind of appeared in his hand and took a knife and pierced the root of the vine wrapped around that heart. The vine root began to wither, it just almost like the life went out of it and it fell away from the heart and the heart went back to its normal size and should be pping. The red hand made a fist and punched the steeple doing this [punches head] tried to grab the white hand but the strength was fading, it was letting go and it finally just dropped to the side. The left side of the church and the church took a few steps but its strength was fading and it dropped down to the ground on its knees. And that white hand just kind of dropped to the side, then both hands came up red hand's kind of gone now, they're both the white kind of hands. It unbuttons the shirt and it falls to its knees and the church asks forgiveness for allowing that red root to grow in its heart and then that Christ-figure that I've seen in some of the visions and dreams appear and He just embraced the church, He pulled the building towards Himself so the Christ-figure was facing ahead at the capitol building. And the church He was holding on to - like this - was looking behind Jesus and He suddenly pointed at the capitol building and He said: "You never wanted the church to succeed, but the gates of hell will not stop her, and those who have seen the root will prune the vine and cut off the poisonous part" and then He let go of the church and He kind of pulled her out to his side and He said, He pointed to the church and He said: "Be about my father's business, stay pure and fear not the state, for they know not what they do." and the church then slowly walked past the capitol and all the people who were standing with it - including some religious figures - got just a few yards past the capitol building and then it just took off running. I mean took off running both hands that were now white were up like this as the church was running not in a fighting position, they were open and they were like sharing things, information spreading the gospel.

But laying at the feet of the capitol was the root of that seed that was planted in the church's back pocket and it looked to me like a - if you can imagine - sweet potato that is just blood-red, deep-red, it looks like it's maybe rotted that's what it looked like. And then the Christ-figure appeared once again and said clearly these words: "Stay braced, stay focused and stay on task, for I am coming soon".

I think what the Lord was trying to tell us is very simple we need to continue to fight to get the gospel out, we cannot stop praying, we cannot stop seeking his face, we can't say: "Well we're in January now 2020 is over we're good to go". No we have got to hunker down in our prayer-life, hunker down in our prayer-time, hunker down in our time, in the Word. This is not the time to just relax, I really believe we're in the dream where I saw us holding our breath and we can't just stop praying folks, we got we need to be praying more now than we ever prayed before we need to be more tuned to the Spirit and using more discernment than we've ever used before. Now is the time for us to truly listen to what the Holy spirit is saying to us and be the church, be the body of Christ. Don't be intimidated by censorship, don't be intimidated by those that say "stop talking about those things" we simply keep praying for people and praying and praying and praying like we've never prayed before. That Christ-figure has appeared to me several times in those dreams and every time I hear the word "brace yourself". I'm reminded of what we got to do and he said "Stay braced, stay braced". Many people believe that once January first turns over everything changes and shifts I don't think so, once we get a president in it's going to change and shift. I don't think so I think most of you that are awake and alert spiritually know that there's something going on, things are happening around us, something is happening around us, there's been compromise in the church, there's been struggles in the church, there's division in the church, there's a church that is awake and there's a church that has no idea what in the world is happening and I know which part of the church I want to be in and there's always going to be wheat and tares but we've got to continue to do the work we've been called to do because Paul said "work while it is yet day". So folks keep praying, keep seeking His face. I'm hearing from more and more of you that are yourselves having dreams, having visions I'm hearing from more and more of you that are having prophetic words, things you feel like you need to say and that's what what Joel said would happen when Peter quoted him in Acts chapter 2 “in the last days I'll pour my spirit down on all flesh, your sons and your daughters will prophesy your young men will have visions and your old men will have dreams” so keep walking in the Spirit keep walking those things and keep trusting the Lord to use you like never before. Pray about the dream, ask the Lord to show you things about the dream if He shows you nothing, that's fine. I just know when I have the dreams and what I sense I'm supposed to share that's what I'm doing and thanks for taking the time listen.

25th The Birds and the Maul dream

2nd - 4th Jan 2021

Hey good afternoon it is Tuesday January 5th and between January 2nd and 4th last night I've had a dream - a recurring dream - it was like the trailers I've seen before and I want to make one thing clear once again I am not a prophet, I'm a pastor. I've had dreams that I believe are warning dreams to the country, to the American church. I had a dream about praying in September and I hope the church is still praying. I hope if you're a believer that you have not just let go and slacked off and given lack to your prayer life because I believe in the days ahead we're going to need [prayer], I believe this dream is an indicator of that. I want to make something very, very clear. I am not predicting civil war, I am predicting great conflict coming our way. I don't know how far it's going to go or what's going to happen but there are some parts of the dream that I believe [unintelligible] so that with prayer that we can see some solid things happen as you know in Georgia's an election right now. I have received some word through the news that there are some of the voting machines that are down in certain areas bringing techs in, we have the electoral college meeting tomorrow to vote and to certify the election and we have a lot of people, a lot of people in Washington DC and the National guard has been called out. So I'm just going to share what I have, this is probably one of the most graphic dreams I've had, I've been up a lot last night. Since last night I have been heavily burdened this morning maybe because the dream, maybe because of what I feel but since Saturday night I have felt like something heavy, something big is going on something's happening. And I'm talking like from the foundation of the earth stirring, like the soul of America is in conflict right now and I woke up to hundreds and I do mean hundreds of emails and messages saying [the same]. Since Saturday night I have been just like - UGH! - the fire being shut up in my bones from Jeremiah 20 verse 9 and we don't know what it is, it's just a burden and so there are hundreds of people who are feeling what I'm feeling right now so here's the dream that I had.

25th The Birds and the Maul dream

I saw two distinct flocks of birds flying above a four-lane interstate and there was a median in between. I saw that traffic was very heavy and at times bper to bper but the speed of all the vehicles was over the speed limit and then it was obvious these people were driving like crazy going someplace and coming away from another place. The people in the opposite lane were driving even faster than the ones that were coming on you know coming into traffic, basically I'm going this way another traffic is coming this way. As I'm watching the birds the drivers and the people in the opposite lane were driving even faster and even more erratic. They were running from something, they were trying to get away. The drivers both coming and going seemed angry, they had white knuckle grips on the steering wheels and they were pounding the dash and screaming at other drivers. So these people were very, very, very upset. The birds were all crows but they're in two very tight groups and they appeared to have tens of thousands of birds in each group. So you got tens of thousands of crows in two distinct groups all flying in the same direction, they were headed in the same direction as the traffic. In the right two lanes going forward and appeared to be going towards a tunnel there was a tunnel miles and miles ahead but I could see it was a big enough tunnel that you could see it from where we were, as I was in the dream following the birds that's what I was seeing. I was seeing what was going on with them and they were headed towards this tunnel miles ahead. Now the flocks would bp into each other as they're flying both separate groups were flying, they would hit each other almost violently and you would see when they would bump each other a few birds would fall out hit the ground hard and never get back up and return to flight. And those flocks of birds, those groups just kept going. The two groups that fight like I said, they were intentionally doing it, they were intensely fighting each other and it caused damage to the birds in both groups every time the two groups hit, it basically damaged the birds and birds were falling and hurting, but they just kept going. And it wasn't like they were fighting but at times it seemed that there was conflict between the two groups of birds which were crows. Then off of where the birds were flying there seemed to be like little flashes of lightning and upon seeing this one lead bird would take off. So you'd have the group right here and one bird would take off in a way and several birds would follow that lead bird and the lead bird was weaving and moving really, really quickly up and down and through the oncoming traffic. But each bird in the lead on either side - and it came off of both sides - so both groups of birds had lead birds that flew off chasing this lightning and leading other small groups of birds behind them almost like it took off and the birds followed. Each bird in the lead on either side also began to move dangerously and the birds following seemed to be getting dizzy so they were confused but they kept following but they were just getting dizzy and the wings weren't working as well and they're trying to figure out, they were making real sharp turns and things like that. Finally the lead birds led the followers right into absolute danger. One was flying those birds behind towards a semi [truck] and just suddenly, real quick, just went straight up, just straight up and the birds behind him following him actually hit the semi head-on and all these birds were killed. The other bird led a group into an overpass and just at the last second lifted up and the birds behind him hit the overpass and then fell to the ground and were dead. And the lead birds then went back to the flying flocks and did the same thing over and over and over probably three or four times. They were taking birds off of the groups and then taking them out and basically killing them by leading them into danger. The birds continued flying towards the tunnel and that carried all four lanes of traffic. And there were large American flags hanging over this tunnel above where the cars were coming and going. It was almost like an overpass as well. The tunnel was underneath the overpass and these American flags were laid there on the overpass part of it and these flags were dirty, they were ragged they, were tattered, they looked like they were connected to strips of fabric that was almost like a candy cane. There were red and white stripes like the sign you would see outside of a barber shop. The fabric was like that and it connected all of these flags together and the flags covered the entire overpass over this huge tunnel that encompasses all four lanes of the traffic that was coming and going. There was wind, there was no storm clouds it wasn't like a tornado coming, it's just real bad wind and the flags were just whipping and being tattered and torn as they were being blown like that. And they were ripped, they were being whipped violently by this wind, it was a very, very strong wind. Then the man that I've seen so often in my dreams, he showed up and he was standing on the flags that lay on the cement embankment over the tunnel. He was standing on them looking towards the birds, he was wearing a metal medieval helmet like you would have seen and I'm just going to use this term. I was thinking about it like Charlemagne's group or crusaders that would have worn those metal helmets that fit over their head with a little cross extension you could see out and protected your head and your neck. He was also wearing chain mail, a medieval chain mail that protected the soldier from swords and knives. He also had a long sword about the size of a Scottish claymore on his side, it seemed almost as big as him it was a claymore and the Scottish claymores were just known to be very, very large long swords. They also had a basket hilt on it so you may know what I'm talking about and in one hand he was holding a very, very large metal spike, as tall as himself. He was holding it by himself, it was as tall as him, he also had a huge metal maul - what you would use to split wood - it was just this huge maul about the size of his head and he had his hand on the handle and the maul was on the ground. He was holding it so he has this huge metal spike which is kind of down like it's gonna be driven into the ground and this huge maul a very, very heavy maul. As the birds got closer to the tunnel the man who now looked like he was about 10 feet tall. He took a position, he took that spike and he held it right in front of him on the ground it was on top of the flags, it was on top of the embankment area on top of the overpass so to speak. He sees these birds coming, he takes up this position, he looks like he was about 10 feet tall. He holds the spike at the top of the flags of the embankment and then he lifted the maul into the air - and this thing was huge - and the maul appeared to change and became not a maul but it was now an anvil, an anvil like you'd see in a metal shop or something. A huge anvil on this wooden handle and there was blood dripping from the anvil and it was dripping down onto the man's hand so even as he holds the maul - like this - he is seeing the bloods coming down on his hands. The traffic disappears and the road became like a runway and both groups of birds now merge together and they are flying particularly fast I mean almost like a stealth bomber. They just they're all together these black crows are all together and they're just moving as one now towards the tunnel, trying to get into the tunnel. The tunnel was now very much larger and the dark hole was now filled with people wandering around blind with masks over their face and they were using the white cane - that's what it's called a white cane - the stick that they unfold and they walk with in front of them so all these people are they're walking like they're blind. They've got masks over their face and they're using these white canes, they're walking in this tunnel and [because] they're walking underneath, no one knows what's going on, they can't see what's happening, they're not aware of what's happening but they're walking around blind.

Birds are getting close to the tunnel and that's when the man placed the spike securely with his hands - looked at the spike - took up that anvil or the maul in his hand and he began to pound, pound and drive that stake with it. It was almost feverish, it was just as fast as he could he was pounding, pounding, pounding that stake. The birds kept getting closer, they keep flying towards him and as he keeps pounding - suddenly - the ground trembles and it cracks open. It's like air that rushed to the surface, like it's been trapped down there somewhere. I don't think it was necessarily from the tunnel, but it just looked like there were these pressure gaps that came up through the soil where he was standing. He kept pounding, and pounding, and pounding until the tunnel began to collapse and the ground was shaking uncontrollably to the point of beginning to split. Then he takes off his helmet and begins pounding even more feverishly and the ground was shaking, and the ceiling of the tunnel begins to collapse on the people that are underneath there and in it. The people, they're unaware, they are totally unaware of the rocks falling on them and they continue just to meander around aimlessly. And debris and stuff was falling on them and it was just pounding the ground. They just left their dead. And the birds kept coming and they entered the tunnel right as the entire tunnel collapsed on them and they were crushed flat and buried under the rubble, it was almost like the overpass was just gone. The flags were now burning and they had burned ash you could see the residue of the flags' ash but the wind was blowing the residue of the flag away. Now out of that rubble comes this man, he carries the maul in his hands - spike's gone - and he's carrying it about halfway up the handle, not right next to the maul part itself, but halfway down the handle. He takes the helmet off his head and places them all down on the ground and then he said this: “Justice for all is coming but will not be seen by the many who needed it desperately. Bracing is required to stay the course but it will be a course of consequence”. Let me say that again he said: “Justice for all is coming, but will not be seen by the many who needed it desperately. Bracing is required to stay the course but it will be a course of consequence”.

And then the ground began to shake and I saw men - none of whom were soldiers - there was not one military person involved in what I'm about to say. I saw men taking up arms and lining up, ready to fight, these men were in camouflage jackets they had AR-15's over their shoulders, they had caps on their heads they were wearing boots. This was not military soldiers, this was just citizens, this was just people and they're taking up arms, and they're lining up ready to fight. Almost like you would have seen during the American revolution when the British would line up to fight. Then have the guns lining up stepping one next to another, that's when I heard the sound of Reveille in the background it started getting louder, and louder, and louder, and louder. And as the men marched forward weapons came up and there were shouts and then I awakened from the dream.

I got to my computer as fast as I could and wrote it all down, put it down there. Once again, I'm not declaring civil war, I'm just saying this. I believe we're going to have some great conflicts coming very soon and believers, this message, this dream - I believe - is for us to recognize the things that are coming. If you're not awake you need to get awake as quick as you possibly can. Once again, I'm going to be careful what I say, I don't want to add to this, but I have had a burden since Saturday night that I have not been able to get away from. It has fired me up, it has brought me to my knees time and time again as I pray for the country. I think we understand what's at stake, we understand what's at stake and there is a good versus evil moment that's approaching us very, very quickly. So I encourage you don't come on here in 10 minutes and talk to me, or anybody else, what the dream is. You need to pray about this say “God what does this dream mean, how should I respond to this dream”. We need to hear from the Lord. I just know I've got an incredible burden for the nation right now and I mean an incredible burden and a sense that there is something just about to happen that the “wick has been lit”. I will say that clearly “the wick has been lit” and what it's going to and how long it is I do not know, but I know in my spirit - I know - that the wick has been lit. So I know there's a lot going on in Washington. I don't want this dream to become something that stirs people and gets them all upset or worried or fearful about tomorrow and the things that are happening. The people that are meeting - I'm just telling you - what I saw and you can do with it what you want, you can do with it what you will, but more than anything I ask you to pray, pray for the nation, pray for our leaders, pray for Washington DC and pray that God shows us as believers what we need to do, to say and how we need to live and what we need to be praying about for the nation so...

26th The Plb Line Dream

9th - 10th January 2021

Hey everybody pastor Dana Coverstone, Living Word ministries Burkesville Kentucky.

I'm going to be sharing a dream here in just a minute but I want to make a couple of comments first. If you're watching this on the Facebook Brace Yourself page, we're watching carefully. Jay and I have been working to figure out some things. We do have a concern about potential and ongoing censorship issues. I'm going to keep my personal Facebook page for now and see what happens but we will be moving the Brace Yourself page to an app called Jp and Jay and I both have had some conversations with the leaders of that group and I feel very, very supportive of what they're doing. So we'll be moving to Jp, I can endorse and support the type of social media platform that they have and greatly appreciate it. So once again I'll be moving to Jp at least we'll be moving the Brace Yourself page to Jp and when I'm done with the video I will be going onto my page and posting a link so that you can link there as well. I encourage you to support the platform and be a part of it and I register or just line up or join that. I will be doing a personal Jp page as well probably by the end of this this week, but maybe sooner. But I'll be moving to jp the Brace Yourself page primarily. Will still have the YouTube channel will still have my personal page on Facebook, but we will be moving to Jp and I encourage you to support that as well and I will be posting the link for that when I'm done.

I want to just say a few things before I share this dream and this has nothing to do with accusations, I'm just going to share something about my life. I am a very, very conservative christian and most of you already know that I grew up with a father who was a drunk but he had been a World War II Air force veteran. My dad had a business in Terre Haute, Indiana. He was very patriotic, matter of fact, when he put advertisements in for his store he always had a picture of the flag. Every flag day he always posted flag facts and I grew up knowing how to fold the flag, how to treat the flag. I knew every flag-fact there was, was very very schooled in American history, the presidents. I'm thankful to have been born and raised in a home with a dad that loved America, I grew up learning presidential history, I watched every inauguration and state of the union address going back to the time of Nixon, even though I was just a little boy. I was sitting in my dad's lap watching it and a lot of people lately are wanting to make some strong statements that well I'm probably just viewing history through my dreams and this and that. I simply share what I see and I ask people to pray and to seek what they hear from it on those dreams and leave it really kind of up to people. A lot of times we say things and it's still left for people to figure out what to do and pray and don't just in 15 minutes "now that's what that dream means". You need to pray and seek God's face, I share my dreams with several people before I post them. Now this is the first time I've not done that and I will be sharing my notes with them when I'm done but this dream that I had I'm calling it the "Plb line" dream and I've had it since you know basically between January 9th and January 11th. I had it last it started on Friday night Saturday night Sunday and I had a little bit more of it well last night which was Sunday. And the reason I share the dreams and especially this one, I want the church to understand, I've been saying "Brace Yourself" so always been saying "Brace Yourself" to the first dream I had from the very beginning. And I've been trying to warn the church, I've been trying to warn the church desperately to say “there are hard times coming, difficult things are happening”. We are already seeing a great amount of censorship and if you study history you will see very, very easily that once they try to silence the group, they try to do other things to a group, or they come after the group. So please keep those things in mind and we ask you to I ask you to simply pray about the dreams, although I have folks that I trust to bring interpretation to it I'm thankful for those and there's a very, very small circle. I do not intend to increase that small circle, these are people that I love, I care about, I trust who have proven themselves both to me in friendship and ministry. And seems like every time I give a dream or somebody else interprets it, they just tear into it. And I know a lot of folks typically I get three to 400 different interpretations of dreams and I'm just going to say very clearly; I think this one's pretty clear going in. Matter of fact I ended up on the floor after waking up from the final part of this because of the last thing that I saw. And I'm just wanting to encourage the church to stay strong, to stay rooted, to stay grounded, to stay trusting the Lord for whatever comes, whatever we face for whatever is coming down the pike. And this is an even greater warning dream to the church so here's the dream that I had on January 9th to 11th and I'm calling it the “Plb-line” dream.

26th The Plb Line Dream

I saw a bright sunlit sky, no clouds and I saw the man that I see often in my dreams walking down the streets of New York and I saw the traditional skyline. I even saw the Empire state building, so I knew exactly where I was, the man was dressed in a first century robe like any Jewish male would have worn in public, and as well he had the prayer shawl over his head. His pace was steady and the people walked by him oblivious to the fact he was carrying this rope. It was a rope just hanging down in his hand and it was hanging down to the ground. And at the bottom of the rope appeared to be a large stone tablet that resembled the traditional tablet, like the ten commandments, and the rope stayed tight every step he took, it didn't move it didn't sway, it didn't move at all. And then I found myself walking beside him and I was walking beside him in the dream. And I'm watching this rope that just stands steady and doesn't move at all. So I asked him why the rope and stone never moved, why it didn't wobble as he was walking. And he stated clearly: “My plb line never moves”. And I asked where we were going and he simply said “To do business”. And then we passed the street sign that said Wall street and we walked further down the street, we walked several feet past that sign and then he stopped and looked into the distance at a taller building and he held that rope up and he measured the balance of the plb line against the building ahead. I could see that the building was obviously tilted away from the line that he was holding. And the man then pushed - he put both hands on the building and began to shake it back and forth - and it kept rocking even after he took his hands off. So the building's moving back and forth not up and down but just sideways and just moving. Some of the windows began to suddenly open and I saw office furniture, I saw people who were falling out of these windows as the building swayed, there were files and there were folders, and there was currency of all kinds, it was not just American currency, there was currency of all kinds floating. The dollar bills floating, coins saw precious metals, I saw things of value that were just kind of floating down. But specifically currency and as soon as they hit the ground this violent wind began to sweep them up into the air and they never came down again. Now the people on the ground were bruised, they were struggling to walk and their suits - they were all dressed in suits, both male and female like professional suits - and they were covered in what looked like tar and pitch. It was thick almost like a just like tar, tar and pitch and glued them to the ground so they could move. But they couldn't get up, they were just kind of stuck there, and the pitch had an oily sheen to it and the man then told me to follow him so I did. So I left this scene of all the currency that had gone up in the air, files and the folders and the people were there on the ground. But the people were covered in stuff but nobody else was, then I could see the capitol building on the horizon and we walked briskly towards it. Saying nothing on the walk he had his face set to go to those places. He stood at the bottom of the steps of the Capitol and he held up the rope in his right hand and the Capitol was twisted, much the same way as the Wall street building was. The rope was here but the but the capital was off, it was not lined up straight and then the man raised his right foot into the air and he took off his New Testament-style sandal. And then he brought his foot down very hard on the first step up to the Capitol. I mean he brought it down hard and the building began to rock back and forth and soon people were falling out of the windows and the doors, and there were desk name plates that were falling onto the ground along with people who were all landing on their knees - hard. When they fell from the windows they just fell on their knees, hard you could actually hear their knees almost pop when they hit. So there definitely would have been pain, and then they were screaming out in pain - so obviously they were - these people were covered in a sticky purple syrup, that was the color it was a sticky, dark just a dark purple syrup that was as thick as molasses and it was hindering them from walking. They were trying to get up and walk but they couldn't, it wasn't gluing them to the ground, they could move but just not as effectively. When they did get up they would slip, they would get covered in the mess again. It was all over them so some of them had the syrup all over their faces, all over their hands, their feet, their knees, their suits were being ruined. But they were covered, half of them were on the ground weeping, some of them were laying on the ground in fetal positions and groaning and some of these people were shaking their fists at the man, but they said nothing, and then they dropped their heads to hide their faces. So they were shaking their fists, they're not saying a word, they're putting their heads down. Half of them were weeping, half of them laid on the ground in the fetal position and just groaned. I mean just groaned like they were in intense pain.

And then the man told me to follow him again. At this time the sun set and it was clearly dark, it was nighttime and the next thing I saw was a church building, it was modern architecture but on top of it it had a large seemingly out of place neon green cross on the roof and it was glowing. And it kind of glowed from white to green, white to green almost like it was on a circuit and it would go white to green and then fade white to green and fade like it was flashing, but doing it very slowly over time. So it was almost like it was set on a switch. The man walked up to the church and he took off his outer robe and he took off the prayer shawl and he appeared to grow considerably larger than the church and he placed both hands on the church and lifted them into the air. He did not put the plb line out first, he just walked right up to the church, he grabbed it by his hands, he placed both hands on the church and lifted it into the air. He looked right at me and he said “I warned them”. He then shook the church aggressively and violently and he shook it for several moments. The hands on wall street the hands on the Capitol had just been like a push, and then he took his hands off and they began to shake and they continued to shake. But he actually shook the church aggressively and violently and he shook it for several moments, and the lights and the cross went out, the windows broke open, I saw the outer outer walls begin to tear from each other and then he slammed the church down – hard - on the ground and the front doors broke open and the doors actually fell off the hinges. And I watched people stble out of that church like they were dizzy and they started to run away as fast as they could and as they ran they were throwing bibles to the ground and not even looking back. They were trying to get out of there as fast as they could. There were people that identified as pastors who were running as well while covering their faces with the jacket, they brought their jackets up over their heads like you know kind of like hiding their heads like a hoodie would do. But just the back of the jackets over their head and they ran and they were running into each other, they were running just crazy but they were running with a purpose, to get out of there as fast as they could. So I identified some of those men and people who were running as pastors, leaders many of them just kind of shook their heads and walked out and there was a group of people that I couldn't see their faces, but as these people left the church and walked out of the church and as they were walking by they were denying even knowing who Jesus was “I never knew him. I don't know him. That's not my church.” things like that as if they were embarrassed for even being a part of the church that had just been shaken. They were walking away from it, and they were walking away from it briskly. Some were going slower because of the damage of being shaken, but they're walking away from the church. And then I was able to see inside the church and I saw damage, I saw pews that were turned over and broken in half, wood split in many ways in the building, I saw lights that were hanging from damaged ceiling tiles and things like that and I saw a chandelier was on the ground and electrical wire was all the way up to the ceiling, there was that much damage in there. And then I saw there was an oak pulpit that was still intact at the front of the church, the platform had been all messed up, you could just tell the church had been shaken by this man. Electrical damage, wall damage, structural damage but that pulpit was intact at the front of the church, but had been chipped by debris and appeared to be leaning just slightly. And then I saw the altar area and there seemed to be hundreds, hundreds of people and they were tied together with ropes and even chains and they were connected to each other but they were also primarily connected to the altars on both sides at the front of the church. They were clutching bibles to their chests and so much that the bibles had hand prints in them from ,where you could tell, they were clutching them and gripping them so that the shaking wouldn't rip them out of their hands, that's what I'm supposing. They looked weary, they looked shaken there was some of them who had been damaged but they had joyful faces, there were smiles on their faces because the shaking was done and there were some in that group though as they were tied together that realized that there were some who had who'd passed away, and appeared to have been hit with debris from the shaking and the ones who remained alive they were shedding tears for them. But they got up and they kind of not necessarily untied themselves they didn't really untie themselves from each other or the altar but they got up and they began to clean up the area and kick away the debris. And they were just trying to make sense of what they were seeing. Then the man walked in, he looked around as if he was assessing all that he saw, and he said these words: “You took warning; and you were good to do so, your obedience has been noted and there will be fruit both here and in heaven. Though shaken and broken you will arise my bride and work until I come” so once again the last thing he said was “You took warning, and we're good to do so, your obedience has been noted and there will be fruit both here and in heaven. Though shaken and broken you will arise my bride and work until I come”.

The one thing I want to specify is that both on Wall street and in Washington DC this man held the plb line up when he walked up to the church, he simply walked up to the church with the expectation they knew what the standard was and had been missed. And I want to once again encourage the church that's watching this right now, believers that are watching this right now, we're already seeing censorship issues and history confirms once again when they after, they silence you, then they come for you, now am I saying that's going to happen, all I'm saying is; I know the shaking is coming to the church, he's going to shake us with both hands, he's going to shake his heart and most likely that's going to involve persecution. A lot of people want to continue to say the church is never going to go through hard times, never going to have difficulty, then we need as the church to apologize to every country where the church is persecuted and opposed especially within the 10-40 window. We are not exempt from persecution, the things that are coming and although there's a whole lot of things happening that we're not sure of, a lot of videos about insurrection act's been passed, this has been done, that's been done, there's a whole lot of things. Most of these things we have no idea for sure what is happening at this moment, and for anyone to come out and say “well I've got this information”, information fine you can say that but there's a lot of videos that are out there right now that are saying certain things have happened, certain things haven't and can they be confirmed? Not always, some can but there's a whole lot of confusion and all I know is this, the Lord is showing me, and been confirming in my heart and my mind for years now not just since the dream started. Back in June they've been confirming to me for years that persecution is coming to the American church, it's coming, it's coming and the censorship is just the first step. So the thing about the people in the church, they were tied to the altar, they were not going to let go, they had their bibles in their hands, they were not going to let go, they were secure in their faith, they were rooted and grounded in the Word and they were connected to the altar, and they weren't leaving it. So American church you better make sure you're where you need to be with Jesus, American church you better repent of some of the things that you're involved with, you better repent, we better make sure that our theology lines up with the Word of God and not political correctness, we better make sure that your heart and your mind are set on Jesus, you better make sure you're taking up your cross after denying yourself and you're following Him, you better make sure that you're living the kind of life that God wants you to live because that's what it's all about. I don't know when Jesus is coming, all I know is I would be ready when he does and I believe the Word's very clear; "judgment begins in the house of God", that means persecution is coming, it will come. It's not just going to go away, we know even during the tribulation there will be great tribulation among believers with beheading being the primary way it happens. So take the dream, pray about it, pray through it I'm not nearly as worried about Wall street and the Capitol but I'm very concerned about the church. After I put the first dream out people were praying and people were excited, people were thinking about things I think we went through a lot, we said okay, we can just let go, we can't let down, we can't stop praying, we can't stop seeking, we can't stop staying aggressive in our prayers we need to pray aggressively, pray specifically and pray strategically that God gets us ready to do the things He's calling us to do and that we stay on target and we stay on task and whatever we do, we do not deny Jesus for any reason whatever cost, whatever price comes against us that we do not deny His name because Jesus made it very clear, "if you deny me before men I'll deny you before the father". So now will we survive? There's always a remnant there's always a core there's always people but the thing about persecution; persecution always, always spreads the gospel, persecution always purifies, persecution always takes us to a place we've never been before and strengthens us through it. So church I'm I believe we're going to go through some fire, but I'm thankful that the fire purifies and the dross will be taken off and out will come a vessel for the smith - that's a proverb. So once again that's what I'm sharing today, I just want to remind you.

We're going to be moving to the Brace Yourself page, we'll be moving to Jp, I'll be posting a link for that and it's a group that I can support and endorse and looking forward to being on their page. My personal Facebook page is going to remain up, our YouTube channel is going to remain up. If something else happens we'll see what goes on, but Jp is going to be a place that we're headed to right now. So in my prayer video this morning I made the statement that we were considering a jp to something different and looking forward to being part of that platform as well as Facebook for right now.

I do hope that we stay faithful and stay focused I stay rooted and grounded in Jesus so thanks so much for listening. Take it, pray about it, discern it and occupy till He comes. So God bless.

27th The "They Don't Hate Me, They Hate You" Dream

Video here

23rd - 26th January 2021

Hey everybody we're recording this and then we'll be posting it on TheJp at noon today and it's the dream I've had during this last weekend and I've seen glimpses and in pieces of it before. Some of it's very easy to understand what's going on and I'll make a few comments, I don't usually want to make comments about the dreams but here's what I saw.

27th The "They Don't Hate Me, They Hate You" Dream

First of all I saw a hospital nursery filled with hundreds and hundreds of cribs with babies and many were crying, some were sleeping and I saw maybe 12 to 15 nurses who were running everywhere trying to take care of all these babies. And it was obvious they were stressed, they were sweating, they were nervous, they were running from here to there. Get one baby put it down and another start crying. And this room was huge, like an auditori, they kept saying they were not enough for them and they needed help. And they were absolutely calling out for help: "Can anybody help here, can anybody help please, come help us please, come help us". They were still unable to help take care of all those babies, some of the nurses were holding two and three babies at a time trying to feed them, trying to calm them, trying to get them calmed down and put them back into their cribs. That man that I see so often was dressed as a doctor in a white coat just looked plain to the room and he said: "The harvest is full, but not enough are helping"

I understand that's the reference you know "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few". So I'll just kind of say I really felt the Lord's showing us that there's some major, major revival about to happen but we've got to be ready to help assist. We've got to be ready to help disciple, we've got to be ready to help pour our lives into people who become Christians and there's not enough committed to that, so stay open, stay faithful, stay ready.

The next thing I saw was Washington DC, and there were two F-16s flying in a circle around the boundaries of the capital and they would circle and then they would fly towards each other, but not in the same line not, head-on but circling in different directions. It was not two F-16 circling together like this it was one going this way, they were meeting going around (2 half-circles) each of those f-16s. I used to live in Terre Haute right next to an air force base or an air force area and we saw F-16s take off all the time so I know what they look like, but they had sensor-like equipment on the bottom of them as well as missiles under each wing and the pilots were watching very closely the airspace, you could see the pilots talking to one another and looking and watching in the perimeter.

Then I saw the Capitol building and inside the chamber there was, what looked like, furnaces but no wood or no fires it was like a suction device where you would put the wood. And I saw congressmen and senators and they were shoveling stacks of hundred dollar bills into those fireplace areas, but these congressmen were shoveling stacks of 100 bills in that fireplace and they were being sucked up through those pipes and then went flying with the wind and every single direction out and about but nothing was landing on the ground and there were people on the ground in coats and gloves and they were looking up and jumping up to grab the money, but it was too far above them and they couldn't get it in their hands. Even people on top of the buildings had nets and bags, but they could not reach the money as it flew past them.

Then the next thing I saw was up in the balcony of the Capitol and there were about 30 congressmen and senators. I know who I saw, I'm not going to say names for this one, and they were barricaded into the middle section there. And it was obvious that some of them had been beaten, some of them had been abused physically and they were surrounded by a police unit, non-military, with rifles with body armor, helmets and they had faces that were covered. And they were being very aggressive towards the elected officials that were kind of rounded up in this middle section of the capitol balcony. One senator stood up and he demanded to know why they were being held like prisoners and treated like prisoners and was hit right in the face with a butt of a rifle and was told to stop asking questions. The scene quickly changed to the floor where the former president stood in the area where the state of the union address was given. He was in handcuffs and one ear was bleeding a very bright red - not normal blood red or the color of blood that you would see flowing - it was a very bright red blood and the other ear was bruised to the point it was just black and blue, like if you were in an accident or car accident or something. And you've been hit by a two-by-four. It seemed his ear was just black and blue bruised deeply bruised, his eyes were very bloodshot and he appeared to barely be standing on his own, matter of fact the sergeant-at-arms was directly behind him holding him up and was whispering into his right ear, he would occasionally squeeze his right arm as well and the former president would wince almost like he was hurting. He was in pain and he would almost go to his knees every time that the sergeant at arms would squeeze his right arm. And suddenly he just (the former president) pushed himself up and went forward quickly and he suddenly spoke out loud and he said: "It's not me they hate, it's you. It's not me they hate, it's you". He was then rushed out the door and a congressman came to the podium and this person hit the gavel roughly, enough that it broke both the gavel and it dented the desk that they were sitting at and this person said: "Now, let's get the rest of them, because it's our house now". A congressman looked up to the balcony, pointed and said: "Put them with the rest". Then the man that I see so often was now standing up in the middle of those 30 leaders who were on the capital balcony and he said loudly "I never said to stop bracing" and he helped those beaten leaders to their feet and he walked out with them through the door, the back door of that balcony area. He looked back as he went through the door and he said these words: "Stay braced for His name sake, stay brace for His name sake"

And I believe a lot of what I saw about this was related to persecution coming. I'm not going to say names of the people that I saw because I'm not. I've been offered money to share names of senators or whoever was doing certain things and that's not what this is about. What I saw was the nursery, there's going to be things happening in the church-world. That we've got to be ready to help disciple and get people ready to know who the Lord is. If you've not prepared, if you've not braced yourself you know that that's up to you. I told people to aggressively pray, specifically pray and strategically pray about what they should do for their families and their situations. We do know that censorship is very much of a big deal right now even we're seeing, where some states are wanting to ban certain types of social media and so the censorship is a type of persecution and it's already here and it's going to be probably coming even stronger. So the other things we saw happen in the Capital that's where the legislative branches of our government pass bills, you want to make sure you're watching a whole lot on the domestic terrorism bill, watching what the NDAA is saying about that, paying attention to the just the whole idea of social-media being censored at the rate and the way that it's being done and I do believe very, very strongly what I saw last night was coming persecution and I believe that in one sense what our former president said, "they don't hate me, they hate you" and what I heard in them was it's not me they hated it's you and we're supposed to brace ourselves for His name's sake. So I'm not telling you to do anything with this dream, I'm telling you to pray about it, ask the Lord to show you what it means for us. I believe the church has got to be very, very cautious and very, very careful even in the things that we say and the way that we say them at the same time we cannot stop preaching and teaching the gospel. We cannot stop speaking the truth and we are living in a time where the truth could very well become a criminal act and I believe that's the most part of what we're seeing, but yet at the same time while we see persecution coming, we see a great opportunity for the church to disciple to teach and train believers to understand what the Bible says and get the meaning of it out there and to not be afraid to live our lives for Jesus. So I want to encourage you once again, pray about these dreams, every single dream I've had put out pray about it, it's not just cut and dry it means this, it means that. For every dream I have I usually get four to 500 different interpretations and some are right on and some are way out there and some aren't even worth reading the papers that come in. And this is not about democrat or republican, this is not about who's in power now and who's not, but the one thing that was said now, let's get the rest of them because it's our house now, and we have seen some changes in just the last few weeks and we cannot ignore those changes. We cannot ignore those comments, we cannot ignore those statements we have to live it out and so believer get in the Word, get on your knees, stop playing games, repent get your life right with Jesus because there's some hard things coming against the church and the body of Christ. So pray about it, do what you want to do with it I'm just sharing these because I sense the Lord has given it to me and will continue to and I want to warn people. We've been told to brace ourselves, I've been saying "brace yourself" for seven months and I continue to hear those words. I continue to see that man in my dreams and he says "brace yourself" I want to read what he said once again: "Stay braced for His name's sake".

28th The Bunker Dream

6th - 8th February 2021

Hey good afternoon it is Friday February 12th at 12 o'clock noon central time and there's a lot of things happening in Washington DC and I'm going to be sharing a dream that I'm calling the bunker dream and I want to just give some very, very clear up-front and very, very specific instructions on what we're doing today when Cherie begins to do some interpretation of this dream. We are focusing today only on the spiritual aspect of it. I'm asking you to listen to it I'm asking you to pray about it, I'm asking you to understand there are certain words and terminology that I will not be using today as I share this dream. But I feel it is a very, very important dream to share. I had this between February 6th and February 8th. I've not held on to it for a whole long time, shared it with the people that I share it with first and so I'm just asking you to listen to it and to pray about it to not say a whole lot more than what's what we're saying. Because there are some elements, political elements, in this that could draw a lot of attention and could be a distraction. But also could cause some fear around things, so please just listen to the dream, focus on the spiritual side of it and then we'll go from there.

28th The Bunker Dream

All right so here's the dream the bunker dream. I saw the skyline of Washington DC and an overview of the White house, the lights were out and there was no official business of any kind taking place in the building. I heard a phone that was ringing constantly and was not being answered, it just kept ringing and ringing and ringing. Computers were shut down as well and all electronic devices that were left on desks were attached to chargers which were glowing green, have been plugged in for a while. Clocks on the wall were frozen at various times and all of the digital clocks in the area had been unplugged and there was no light no red LED light coming out of them to tell what time it was. The rooms were clean but the oval office had dust on the desks and the curtains were pulled closed. There was a grandfather clock in front of the curtains but the pendul was not moving. There was also a sign on the wall that said this "Business as usual is over for everyone", it was red and white and it was edged in barbed wire that was colored gold and it was polished and it seemed like it glowed in the dark of the room of the Oval office. Then I was seeing a bunker that I felt in the dream was below the White house with no windows and a very large conference table in the middle the symbol of the white house was on a large sign on the wall and seated at that table were 16 men, some of whom were dressed in military uniforms, some were wearing dark suits but all of them were wearing sunglasses that were tinted absolute black - and you could not see the eyes of anyone. Several of the military men were wearing their medals and ranks and they were looking at very thick folders in front of them. The folders had top secret classification stamps on them and heralded this title "The American solution" One of the men stood and acknowledged each man while saluting each one individually, he then spoke very clearly and said this: "Today we leap off of the mountain and fly towards a new beginning, many though not us will hit the precipice moments later but we will not even have to look back or look down as we have better places to go” At that moment all of the men nodded and they hit the table very hard with their fists and it rbled in the room. “Gentlemen, please give a report” he said and a man in a suit and glasses stood up and he said this: “Events are planned, but if the first one hits hard enough the other two will not be needed, our target groups will be easily identified in the events and the rest of America will demand their arrest and imprisonments immediately, perhaps even their executions” The first speaker stood again he looked at one of the men wearing the darkest sunglasses and asked what he had to offer. That gentleman stood and he said this: “Hoover will be proud sir, and our list is pristine and better than his ever was”, he then sat down and the first speaker said: “All in favor?” and every man hit their fist on the table and pounded them as hard as they could and they shouted the word “Favor!” as they did so. Then I was back in the Oval office and the curtains were open to a gray overcast day that was sprinkling rain and the grandfather clock was now moving so fast that the entire clock was shaking in its wake. It was almost it was just shaking back and forth almost moving in its place. At that point four soldiers walked into the room, two were wearing American uniforms and two were wearing blue military uniforms almost like peacekeepers but their faces were covered with black head coverings. They saluted the empty desk and then started shooting up the office with handguns one of the soldiers in the blue outfit took off the barbed wire from the picture and placed it on the resolute desk with a handwritten note and that handwritten note said: “My office is surrounded” And that's when I realized that the entire White house outside was occupied by military and concertina wire surrounded the building. Then the man that I see so often stepped out from the rose garden and he said: Bracing will save many but will also speak to many. They will hunt you and when you stand before the haters, I will prompt your words to convict their hearts. It is started and darkness is in the winds and so Brace and speak and don't stop speaking.

This was a dream that I had between February 6th and 8th, it was one of those dreams that has kept me up from having any more much sleep at all since having it. Very, very troubled in my spirit and I will say it this way. I had the trouble of resting like Daniel had when he got some of the messages that he had, that overwhelming feeling deep in my spirit. So I shared this with John, shared this with Cherie, share this with one other and I've wanted to present this with the spiritual aspect of it, because I don't want to focus on the political stuff as much as the spiritual side of this.

29th The Mud Dream

18th - 20th February 2021

Hey everybody, I appreciate you being with us this is pastor Dana Coverstone here with my good friends John Redenbauer and Cherie Goff and going to be sharing a dream that I had from February 18th to the 20th and I'm discovering the value of having good friends that will pray and not just look at the dream and think what does this mean, who will pray, who will hear the Spirit's voice and so I'm grateful for my two really great friends who helped me with this dream. When I have a dream I share it with them primarily first and ask them to look through it and at it. Some have said: "Well why do you take so long to do that". Because I want to make sure I get it right, I want to make sure I've heard it right. I want to make sure I share it right and I want to make sure that there are people I'm accountable to who can look at that dream and not just make sense of it. I'm sure there are things that are very easy to see what the interpretations are but I'm thankful I have some great friends in my life for helping me with that. So just gonna share this. I'm calling this the Mud dream, I had it from February the 18th to the 20th and here's what I saw.

29th The Mud Dream

I saw a landscape of ice and snow and there was a fog over the ground that was so thick you could not see through it. And then it began to clear, as that fog cleared I saw the outline of the southern coastal states from Texas over all the way to Florida. I could see buildings that resembled churches, they had steeples that obviously had crosses and things so they were buildings that resembled churches in each of those southern states and there was smoke coming out of each one of those churches. And there were many believers praying earnestly and loudly in each one of them, and I could hear those people praying out loud. They were repenting, they were confessing the sins of the nation and their own sins as well. It was very much like a Daniel prayer and there were many tears and there was wailing, wailing as their lost loved ones were being brought up in their prayers. These people were praying for family members and moms and dads and husbands and wives and kids who were not serving the Lord, they asked for forgiveness for being an inadequate witness and for being anchored to sins that they knew that were wrong but they had kept holding on to - this chain - and because of that it ruined their walk with the Lord. So they were anchored to things that they knew they shouldn't be doing. And the louder they prayed and the more aggressive they prayed as they confessed, I saw that all this snow was beginning to melt. I saw that the ice began to disappear and the snow disappeared and as it happened this began to happen in every state. But it also was happening from right around the church. It didn't start out in the countryside or in the land, it started the snow began to melt away from the church and it just kept melting consistently and that happened as they prayed louder and more aggressively. This also began to happen in every state I began to see more of the United States it was happening in every single state and as the snow disappeared over the United States of America it left behind this gray mud and you could tell it was like death and decay. In the dream I know it's going to sound strange but I could tell that it smelled like death and decay, it was just decay, it was great it had no life in it. There was very little green vegetation, no leaves on the trees, the ground was dead and exposed even the grass was just like old dead and brown.

The believers went out from the churches and they began holding their noses and they were asking God, why He had not answered their prayers to bring restoration to the land and then the heavens opened and the voice of God said: "Just work with the mud you've been given" and some immediately complained and began to speak of the hours they'd prayed expected to have a better return for their prayers. And once more the voice said "Work with the mud you've been given" and the voice was firmer this time than before. And a cloud then appeared and it was basically in the middle of the United States and the believers began to follow and walk towards that cloud and even though they were heading to that cloud it was directly over some of the muddiest and the most decayed ground. Several also walked away from where they were following the cloud, they walked away because of how bad it looked, they were starting to head away and those that walked away passed the churches they left their prayer guides and their bibles and they said "We will find better ground and the God that will honor our prayers". And the ones that did follow the clouds soon were in the mud up to their knees and they were struggling to move but they gritted their teeth. I saw the muscles and the veins in their arms stretching out as they were pushing, it was hard work and they pushed forward and then very suddenly I heard the howling of wolves. It was all around and the mud walkers stopped quickly to listen, but they didn't give in to their fears, nobody panicked and they just kept back, they had their eyes on the cloud and they started walking towards that cloud again through the mud and within moments there were hundreds of black wolves very similar to the ones I saw in the other dream that had been worked up. These black wolves were pushing through the mud, they were trying to get very close to believers and they would snarl, they would try to bite but were seemingly being held back at the last minute, they got very very close to the people but they would be pulled back almost like a rope was on them and they were at times inches from the faces of the people. But the people stayed focused on following the cloud and they kept looking up as a group to see the cloud. The sky was clear but the ground was muddy and it was ashen gray and everybody's shirts were just covered in sweat, you could tell it was work what they were doing trudging through this mud.

And then the scene changed where I was seeing the entire United States and in each state there seemed to be people who were all trudging through the mud towards this cloud at the very center of the nation. It was drawing the believers to what seemed like a central point trying to get to the middle of things. And the cloud wasn't moving it was stationary but everyone was pushing through the mud and avoiding the wolves all along the way so this wasn't just happening in the southern states, it was happening all over the country. But the closer they would get to the cloud the wolves began making contact, they were leaving marks, bite marks on the people's arms and shoulders but yet the people continued walking and moving. The landscape was littered with the prints of the wolves and they were innerable and their eyes began to glow with an intensity like I had seen in the other dreams that bright red almost like a led light in their eyes. And they were being provoked by the winds, I could hear the howling of the winds, it was stirring up their fur and you could just see the wind blowing on them But they were being provoked by the winds but also people who were wearing masks. And the masks that these people were wearing were skulls, witches faces, faces of demons and they were all on the outside of the mud and these people were screaming curses and blasphemous words at the believers in the mud, calling them “haters” and “dividers”. There were no specific leaders as they moved along those that were in the mud but some of them threw rocks and sticks and these sticks resembled arrows and they were thrown at the ones in the mud. And yet the believers kept pushing through towards the cloud and though they were covered up to their necks now in mud. They were simply covered in mud from the work and the fight and trudging through the mud. They also were pulling some of the weaker ones by their hands and a few were riding on the backs of those that were stronger, it reminds me very much of the September solemn assembly event prayer dream that I had where I saw believers helping each other up and going through things and trying to encourage them. But the ones that have started in the mud they remained in the mud, nobody had gotten out but they looked at the more solid ground around them. They were looking and they wanted to get there, they realized it was easier to walk on that path but they were in the mud together and walking forwards. A few of them paused though to consider getting out of that mud and at that point I saw several get out, because the mud was getting deeper, it was getting harder and they were helped by some of the people who were wearing the masks and once those people were out of the mud they were given masks and began to taunt those in the mud and they said “the mud is not God's plan” He has deceived you and yet you follow without thinking for yourselves.

And then that Christ figure that I always see appeared in a white robe with angels all around him and he had a scepter, it was just a big scepter in his hand, in his right hand and he spread his arms like this just out like this and he spoke and he said loudly “My ways are not your ways, your spiritual legs will be strengthened through agony and your witness will defend the naive and those who have no fear of me. Bracing gives way to fire and those braced must remain on the path. My command is ‘Come out from among them, separate yourself as the chaff is about to burn and their smoke will fill the skies’”. And at this point in the dream I saw absolute green lightning, it was green almost like an emerald green, multiple thunderclaps filled the sky and it seemed like it lasted for a long time. And then there were blinding flashes of light that lit the entire country up and even the shadows disappeared. It would cover the entire country and I saw when those flashes of lightning went off the wolves hid their faces in the earth and the people harassing the believers hid their faces in shame and then the Christ figure was raised up. I think of that verse “And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.” (John 12:32) Jesus was lifted up, he ascended from the earth and looked down and He was raised in the sky and He thrust the scepter straight down towards the earth and he shouted these words: “I am coming soon and my reward is with me! Stay faithful until I come”.

So that was the dream that I had over several nights February 18th and 20th.

30th “Biden’s House” dreams

Video here

10th Jan 2021 - 10th March 2021

Hey. Good morning everybody so glad to have you with us.

I already see we've got folks from Great Britain, France all the way I'll say “aloha” to the one in Hawaii who's watching. This morning many, many states represented and I want to thank you for coming on and listening. And I want to appreciate those of you who have been praying about the dreams and following through and not just taking them and running with them. when I have these dreams I share them with Cherie and John, two people I trust the most with them and I know they pray about them and that's why I've asked Cherie to kind of be on here with me, not just to present the dream and run. I've tried to learn a whole lot in the last eight or nine months from this. The first dream I'm going to share - I'm going to read four of them at once - I've had three in the last week and a half. The first one I had was January 10th and I will stop through the dreams and share when I had the other ones.

I did not share this dream on purpose because it was about a potential inauguration assassination and I thought there's no way I'm going to put this out there, I don't want federal agents showing up in my house or other crazy chaotic things happening because of this dream and the time frame. So once you see both what I see and what Cherie is seeing you're going to recognize some things with the dreams. So I'm just going to read quickly through these and then let Cherie talk a little bit and share what she sees and some other insight that I have.

10th January 2021

Okay the Biden inauguration dream I had this dream on January 10th 2021.

The dream started with me standing at the bottom of the ceremonial area where the president is inaugurated, everyone was dressed in blue jackets, blue dresses and there was blue confetti being shot all over the place. Biden was asked to come and stand by the chief justice and he pushed a walker to do so slipping and falling along the way twice each time people looked away and nobody helped him up. His face was getting angry but he kept smiling even though he was in pain, he finally got to the stand area and was asked to raise his right hand but he instead raised his left hand and began waving to the crowd. Justice Roberts began reading and asked Biden to respond Roberts started and said “I, Joseph Robinette Biden do solemnly swear” and then Biden stammered and said “Robin and I solemnly swear” and then stammered again as every single person on the platform was looking at their watches. Justice Roberts asked if he needed to repeat that phrase and Biden slammed back “I'm not a stupid man judge” then he said “I, senator elect Biden do hereby... “. And at that moment a shot rang out and blood appeared on Biden's shirt, he said “They got me right in the heart” and he slammed his hand against his chest in almost an animated and over-dramatic fashion. He then fell backwards and hit his head hard on the floor, he shut his eyes and he smiled. The crowd simply in a matter-of-fact way was cleared, they cleared the platform and nobody was screaming or panicking over his death judge Roberts took off his black robe and he covered Biden's body and then he took a bulging white envelope from his chest pocket and reached under the robe over Biden and he placed the envelope in Biden's left hand and Biden's right hand reached out and shook the judge's hand even though his head was not showing out from underneath the robe. The judge started to move away when blood appeared on his chest as he was shot from behind and he went to his knees. Men appeared in suits with ear monitors and pulled away Biden's body as they were pulling his and Robert's body away Biden spoke out from under the robe and said "Hey man, I may be old but please treat me with kids gloves because you are hurting me" and the guards then kicked the body under the robe and pulled him up the stairs.

Now we go to Monday 1st March 2021. _

I saw Air Force One, it was flying erratically in the sky it would speed up then slow down and the right wing was shaking very almost like something was loose or something was coming apart in that right wing. It was reckless flying and there was no protective fighter pilots anywhere in sight - usually Air Force One is always covered by F-16's or F-17's. It began to take on even more risky flying and I found myself looking at the cockpit from just inside the cabin of Air Force One, Biden was flying the plane and was pushing buttons and smiling when it made noises. He was pulling handles and moving things yet the co-pilot was just looking out the window and ignoring president Biden completely. The president began to talk to himself, he got up, he looked out the window, he commented on how blue the sky was and how far the ground was below and then he sat back down in the pilot's chair and he nodded off to sleep the pilot next to him watched him nod-off and then he himself closed his eyes and started snoring after just a few minutes. There was suddenly a message from the cockpit that stated autopilot has been engaged but do not expect a smooth ride even once we land.

Then Monday 8th March 2021

I saw Biden sitting behind the resolute desk, he was struggling to stand up. Vice president Harris who had been standing behind him the whole time came forward and helped him stand revealing that there was a walker pulled out right in front of his desk. Biden looked incredibly frail as he grabbed the handles of the walker and he tried to step but could not get his legs to move. Harris then got behind him and pushed his feet with her feet while she helped him balance himself to stand in the walker he kept saying: "Slow down please, I can't go that fast". When he got to the table in the office he stopped and he patted a bust of Robert Kennedy and he said: "Sorry, they got you Bobby but they had to let you know because they had to because you know, they knew you knew too much." Harris said: "Sir we need to get you to your room so keep moving" and Biden's response was "Please don't take me there, I hate it there, I don't like the food or the smell of the air in that room". Here Harris kept pushing him to the point where she was almost knocking him down over the walker. She pushed a button on her jacket and whispered that she needed an agent immediately to assist with the "elder" and that was what she called him "the elder". Two secret service agents walked in and one loaded Biden onto the other's back almost piggyback and the agent carrying him carried him through the wall door and into an elevator. The other agent had pushed the buttons for the door and stood with his back to the door. As the doors began to close he then hit his mic and said "Elder secured.

Heading downstairs. Oval office stable and my eyes are on the door. What you do now, do it quickly”

And then earlier this week 10th March 2021

The elevator door opened and the man that I see often in my dreams was wearing a very expensive looking suit, he walked out from that elevator to the oval office and he stood behind the resolute desk, he suddenly grabbed that desk and upturned it and pushed it towards the front of the room. It ended up upside down with two of the drawers out and papers still flitting and flying in the air towards the ground. This also revealed bloodstains, a large red blood stain under the desk and in front of where the president's chair sat as well, and then the man spoke and he said: “Don't let the suit fool you or the office either. What's under the desk will eventually be seen and the blood spilled as of late is worse than at the beginning. Stay braced for the winds are picking up according to my command and the stakes have never been higher for your country or for your church”. And then he stepped over the upside down desk leaving the room and as he did the desk seemingly faded almost like it just disappeared almost like the disintegration you would have seen in Star Trek when they were being beamed up or beamed down. They just kind of de-materialized. The desk seemingly faded into nothing and the blood stains glowed red almost like they got thicker, they glowed red and all of a sudden they burned a hole into the ground and just left a hole in the carpet with the red edges around it.

And that's when I woke up so hopefully you can see from the very first one why I did not share that first one when I had it. I do believe these are all connected and so Cherie go right ahead.

34th “Rats in the Sewer” Dream

18 March – 2 April 2021

Hey everybody I want to thank you for joining us this afternoon. I've got Cherie Goff a good friend and sister in Christ pastor's wife there in Arkansas works in the prophetic, someone who I've come to trust and appreciate in this new arena that I've been walking in since June of last year and I'm going to be sharing a dream today. I'm simply calling it the “Rats in the sewer” dream and I had it between March 18th and even just recently when I was in Washington DC and I want to share just a few things before I share the dream. I'll let Cherie share some of the insights that she has to it. I've been hearing from some folks that there are some folks out there that are saying that they are the only person giving the proper accurate interpretation of any of my dreams and I want to say I really hope people will be careful about saying things like that. Because first of all I will get 300 to 500 interpretations of this dream emails, text messages, phone calls in the mail. I have folks that listen to them and then play the video back and write them out word for word by hand and then give interpretations. I was standing at the Cherry blossoms at the Martin Luther King memorial this last weekend on Saturday in Washington DC and God began to speak to me very clearly and - I believe - was something about the “Cherry blossom” dream that I've had back in the... was that December? November? anyway well we were, you and John, and I sat down with some other folks and we kind of laid out the Cherry blossom dream and at that point we knew the roots were going to the states and there were things that were trying to hiss and bite people at the state level. But it starts Cherry blossoms and I had this whole idea about the vaccine passports and how states were going to be issuing some of those and the government was going to let the private sector do it and I had a whole different understanding of the Cherry blossom dream because of where I was standing there by these cherry blossoms. And I just really feel like a lot of folks, we may not even see the interpretation of some of these dreams for weeks, months, years later and that's fine but I just want to always give that word of warning. I don't ask Cherie to do it because she's going to give me the most accurate only possible translation interpretation out there I sent them to her because number one I trust her. She's within the Assemblies of God she understands the fellowship I'm a part of. I know her heart and I know her desire is to see what God wants to say to people through these dreams. And so that's why I contacted her and John. There's some other folks that hear about him but I just want to make sure that anyone out there is saying well I'm the only one given the proper interpretation this is not a competition for people interpreting my dreams and I've seen good strong interpretive abilities from people who sent me things and I've got another dream interpretation that I thought: “What in the world were these people eating or doing when they got this message because obviously God was not in their interpretation at all” So I also encourage you, when I give these dreams, I don't just give them out say: “here they are” I want you to pray about it, you need to pray, you need to do the due diligence, the research. Get on your knees and pray and just like many times I've given a dream and then 15 minutes later I get an email “here it is” and that means to me one thing. You haven't prayed about it, you haven't thought about it, you haven't given any time or research. So pray about these things, pray about the dream and let the Lord begin to speak to you about what to do, how to prepare and in that regard that's really what I want to say about that. Because I have some real concerns about - there's some crazy stuff out there, theology is getting twisted in many, many places many, many ways and I want to make sure everything that we do here is solid and stable and that's why I trust someone like Cherie to do that for me and I love teaming up with her in this regards because she'll see things I don't see. And God has given me the dreams, yes I understand some interpretation to it but I think and I feel that my role is just to share the dreams, share what God is showing us, Cherie can give the interpretation but you can all pray with me and her that God shows us how to respond to it, okay.

34th "Rats in the Sewer" Dream

So I'm going to share the "Rats in the sewer" dream. This is the one I had between March 18th and last Friday night April the 2nd going into April the 3rd and it was a continuation dream of the last one in the White house and here it is.

I was standing in the White house Oval office and the blood under the desk from the previous dream was now dripping from the carpet edges where it had seemingly burned through the floor underneath and there was smoke associated with it and the blood was descending along with the carpet and the wood-area type things. It kept going it was getting thicker and seemed to be alive. The blood was moving, it was moving and there was like a lightning blazing within it as it burned through the floors. It just kept going floor to floor to floor to floor to floor and finally it went through the floors into the granite below until it found itself (and I found myself) in a rounded and equipped tunnel about 30 feet wide and it seemed like it ran for miles in either direction. So it had gone from the Oval office floor down through the floors of the capitol of the White house through the granite through the floors and finally ends up in a tunnel that obviously ran underneath the White house. There were auxiliary lights and very bright lighting on the walls running along and down the corridor. There were also tunnels leading off in other directions at intersections in both directions as well. There also seemed to be a channel on the ground wide enough for two vehicles to drive beside or back and forth. And suddenly the blood from the oval office came through the ceiling and it began filling the channel where the cars would have driven. So the blood is entering from the ceiling that has come all the way from the Oval office and now it's pouring into this tunnel with the channels on the ground. There were signs with distances to various capital locations on the wall of the rounded tunnels doors about every half mile and they had key button pads to get through and also on the size of those rounded tunnels there were walkways about five to seven feet wide that people would have walked on but these walkways now were filled with rats and these rats seemed to be glowing almost pulsating and they were running in every direction. Some were even trying to climb those smooth concrete walls. The blood was getting higher, it seemed to be boiling. The smoke was still in the air and the space between the ceiling and the blood rising. The rats were soon barely getting enough air above the blood and they were climbing on top of each other in sheer panic to get out. And then the lights in that room, those auxiliary lights, began flashing and the blood kept rising and suddenly an emergency siren went off and at this the rats began to chatter and bite. And they appeared to be screaming at each other, they were fighting each other in desperation to get... ..what it appeared to me. So they were in sheer panic the blood kept rising until it filled the entire corridor and then it began to foam, the blood at the top began to foam and I could see the rats with their faces against the roof and there were some rats that were floating dead within that current of blood because the blood was moving and flowing down those tunnels and all at once there was a flash of light and the blood just pushed in each direction until it was only about as high as the walkway almost like doors or gates had been opened and the blood just rushed on through. And I was already seeing light and air from outside at this point, and realized the blood had pushed itself through every manhole and was coming up into the buildings, the basements of buildings and the first floors of buildings in that area. At this time I'm standing on Pennsylvania avenue in front of the White house and the rats were running everywhere. And as those rats ran, their tracks they were tracking blood everywhere that they went through the grass, in the streets, on the sidewalks and I could see that every major building had tracks in and out. The rats had gone in the and the rats had gone out: the supreme court building, the treasury, the Smithsonian, the National mall were all covered and - I mean - covered in those tracks and the rats were still entering buildings and monuments alike. They there was a huge number of rats, it was just ongoing they were just coming from everywhere. People then appeared with cameras and they had the large press flash bulbs like you would have seen in reporters in the 1920s to the 1950s maybe, large press-like flash bulbs they were taking pictures of every single set of tracks and it seemed that each track was being followed by reporters who took pictures and then they made notes like in a little journalist notebook and with each flash bulb going off the rats appeared to age and soon the gray hair was white hair and they seem to be getting weaker and weaker and they were laying on their sides and dying. And although a lot of them was covered in blood, they had blood on their feet, I could just tell they were aging and getting older, becoming more elderly-like so to speak in that regard. The footprints of the rats started glowing until they became three-dimensional and thick and then those same tracks caught on fire, but they went out quickly but they left this smoking track, it's almost like a smoking gun idea there. And then I saw a giant walking towards the Washington DC area who was standing way, way just bigger taller much taller even than the Washington monument. And as that giant walked, he grabbed the top of the Washington monument like a lid and he lifted it up and as he lifted it up the ground around the primary area of Washington DC came up with it. Everything was still there in one piece and it kind of reminded me - if you watch the marvel movies - Marvel the Age of Ultron where the city of Sokovia has the vibranium at the bottom and the city is rising and you see dirt and dust and stuff dropping off of it, well that was what was happening. The whole city is being grabbed by Washington monument and it's being lifted up and so the whole city of Washington is just up in the air. And this giant is catching on to it and then after he pulled the entire thing up with one hand he placed the city into a large sifter - a sifting tool - like you would sift flour that he held in the other hand. And then taking both hands he literally took that sifter and he began to shake it, he shook the sifter and the parts of the city and the ground began to break up and the buildings were shaking violently and the parts falling through the sifter were falling back into the hole from which it had been pulled up and it was just people falling out there was debris falling out, it was filling up with the ground and after a few minutes it seemed like it took forever but after a few minutes of shaking and sifting the only remaining things were the federal buildings that were linked to DC and the historical precedent that came with it. And then holding the sifter in his left hand he reached into the sifter with his right hand so he's holding the sifter in his left hand he reaches in with his right hand and he grabbed those remaining buildings and he just crushed him, just squeeze you can see the muscles and the blood vessels popping on his hands as he just squeezed and was literally just crushing them in his hand and he held it so much until his hand began to shake. It was literally shaking as he held it and then he opened his hand and there was nothing but crushed debris in his hand and he just literally put his mouth down and went and just blew it and the debris became like fading smoke. That debris didn't end up on the ground it disappeared like fading smoke in the air and was gone. Have you ever seen flash papers, as a children's pastor I used to use flash paper quite a bit and you light it and just disappears, well this wasn't like flash paper it was just dust that became smoke and then just disappeared. And then he placed the sifter on top of the hole below, there's still that large indentation in the ground. And then the man that I always see in the dreams - he approached me and he had a scale in his hands, the kind that you would weigh produce on, kind of holding it you have two different things you can tell the weight and on that scale was a bowl and in that bowl was currencies of the world the yen, the ruble, the US dollar. I saw the Euro, I saw many different types of currencies and he held the scale high above his head and then he threw the scales to the ground and when it hit the ground it powdered and the wind blew that into the air as well but the bowl was still in his left hand and he said these words: "I determine the value of what is valued, I determine the value of what is valued, but the soul of the nation worships paper and paper is all it will be" and then he said these words: "The time of bracing is past and the season of endurance is upon the body of Christ, endure now, endure tomorrow, endure until the end."

That very last part(of the dream) I had that last Friday night as I slept in a hotel in Washington DC. There's a reason I had not shared this dream, because I knew I was going to Washington DC nor did I want to cause any issues or have any major conversations with people in Washington DC about the dream which is why I waited so long to share it.

35th The “Flaming Spear” Dream

11 April – 19 April 2021

Hey everybody thank you so much for joining us today it's good to have my good friend Cherie Goff from Arkansas with me helping with the interpretation of this dream and I want to just say a couple things first of all. I'm praying that God is raising up more and more dreamers, we need people dreaming. God used Nebuchadnezzar, He used Pharaoh but He used people who knew who God was to bring those dreams out to understand and comprehend them and I had three or four people today who have sent me and said: “I've had a dream what should I do with it” and I'm saying this: “Go to your social media put it out there, it's not about going viral, it's not about getting everybody's attention, it's about being obedient to what God's put on your heart and if He shows you something He's showing you that something so somebody else can see what's happening. And what's neat for me is that I have people every day who will send me dreams and visions and things that they're hearing and there's a consistent weaving of the fabric. People are seeing the same things, people are seeing the same shaking and the same type of sifting and shifting in the country. I'm hearing consistent dreams of fire even this morning I got about seven or eight different people who sent me dreams about fire and so the dream that I'm sharing today had some fire in it so I'm gonna go ahead and share the dream real quick. It's a little bit longer because I had it Monday night Tuesday night Wednesday night Thursday night Friday night Saturday night Sunday night and Monday night, every single night I had a part of this dream and that's never happened, this is very unusual for me. A little bit of shifting with it, but I'm just going to read the dream and then do some interpretation. We'll talk about those things but I really believe that God is trying to still wake the church up, I will tell you this I spoke to Stan Johnson, we are planning on doing another September solemn assembly prayer event. We're not sure yet but I had a great time there the last year 40 hours of prayer and fasting and we know the nation needs it and this is a calendar dream as well. It ends in September and we have talked and, Stan will tell you, we talked about this two or three weeks ago and so when I had this dream over the last couple of nights or the last week I knew we need to do something with it, so we will be doing another September solemn assembly prayer event. Details will be announced as soon as we get it figured out but we need to pray for the country and I pray that the church will see in this dream, we need to wake up so here we go.

35th The “Flaming spear” dream

This dream went from 11 April 11th to 19th. I saw a globe, it was sitting on a stand, no hand touched it or moved it, but it just began spinning on its own and accelerating at a very, very rapid rate and it began to wobble. It began to wobble on the stand. And there were two male runners who appeared on a running track, but this running track was just a straight track it went on for miles and miles and miles but between the two runners there was a large wall probably 20 feet high so they couldn't see each other. They each had a spear with a fire like torch on the end that was burning very bright and the flames shot up from the tip. Now it did not appear as if it was a torch or had fabric wrapped around it, it was just a sharp piece of metal that was on fire and both runners had it. One was wearing a multicolored outfit like you would see in the Olympics and he was stretching and balancing as if preparing to run, the other one was wearing a solid white outfit like a track outfit but was not moving at all. He was standing in place almost without breathing you would have sworn the guy was a mannequin at first. A man then appeared standing on the wall above the runners in a very expensive suit jacket but he was wearing runner shorts underneath and runner's shoes, so very very strange looking outfit and he carried a starter's pistol and he said to the motionless runner wearing the white he said: "You must pace yourself and win" and at this the runner simply nodded and cracked his neck. The man in the colorful runner's outfit was not addressed at all. The man then called out: "To your mark!" and when he did this the runner wearing the multi-colored outfit took a running start and threw the flaming spear into the atmosphere - just threw it in the air - then he took his place at the line in the runner's blocks. The motionless man moved into position but did not get down to the block so almost like not an official start in that sense but he leaned down and he tapped the end of the spear on the ground and then he spit on the flame and it exploded, it exploded to the point that his hair caught on fire but he was not hurt, his hair was burning but like a burning bush, he was not hurt. And the man called: "Ready!" then he fired the pistol and the two men took off. Now the multi-colored man ran very, very quickly and very determined the fiery man just took off at a jog and because the wall was between them neither man could see the other. Then I saw a bright crimson red calendar with crisp white letters that had a thick black outline on the letters so they stood out, they were shadowed and I saw May 2021 and two hands like this kind of like how your hands will unroll something. And these two hands were unrolling this blood-covered calendar and they were rolling it out and down and I saw June, July, August and September. They were unrolled and they hung below from May and September was touching the ground so he's standing here like this with the calendar in his hand bloody, bloody hands and the calendar all the way down to the ground from May to September and September is touching the ground. Then the scene changed to a map of Europe and it went through Russia, China down to the middle east the Mediterranean, Israel was seemingly over-emphasized on this map. I saw leaders in Russia, China, Israel, Western Europe these were modern leaders and they had these high-powered binoculars and they were watching the United States and they were telling individuals to write down the things that they were seeing, they were getting excited, they were pumping fists in the air patting each other on the backs and they were waving their nation's flags feverishly. I saw military leadership in the rooms and the leaders were whispering in their ears and then would get on a phone and whisper as well and I could then see blood dripping down onto the counter from those hands that were holding [the phones]. It was going all the way through September then, I saw fires all over America and I saw cities on lock-down, I saw flags that were half-mast and they began to fade into smoke and there were many American military groups on the ground directing traffic and keeping a close watch on the streets. And then I saw the colorful runner running very hard and his hand was on the wall the entire time but just brushing it so he's running very hard, his hands against that wall and he was saying: "Wake up or Wake them up! Wake them up!" and he kept his eye on the spear he'd thrown it was above him heading in a direction almost like he was following the spear. And the runner in white was now a dingy gray [he] had gone from white to dingy gray and the white was completely gone from his jersey, his hand was also on the wall but it was leaving a trail of fire that followed him as he ran. The colorful runner was weary, was sweating profusely, appeared several times almost to trip and fall but he recovered and he kept going but he was breathing with great difficulty, he was very tired. The jogging runner was smirking and taking his time and now he was fully engulfed in fire and was spreading, it was spread into the place where his gray jersey was now just a flaming red, it almost looked like somebody running with a fire around him, he then started running as fast as he possibly could and was making up distance. He was kind of catching up to the colorful runner however he [colorful runner] kept his eye on the spear that he had thrown, it was still in the air and it was heading towards a building. So the guy that threw the spear, he's keeping his eye on the spear, he's running as hard and fast as he can, he's trying to get going he's watching that spear and that spear was headed towards a building that seemed to be filled with people who were on their knees and they were praying loudly. And both runners kept moving with one spilling fire all the way along that wall, it was almost like a trail of fire behind him, everything he touched was fiery and the other was now screaming as loud as he could: "Wake up! Wake up! Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!" constantly he never stopped screaming "wake up". And then I saw American generals in a facility, it was obviously underground, and I saw many phone calls were coming in on rotary phones, I saw the curly q cords they were coming on rotary phones and as the generals answered them they were telling others to position numbers on a very large map of both the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans. It was frantic in that room, people were obviously in a state of panic running here and there very, very quickly. And I could then see world leaders in Europe, Russia and Israel - modern day leaders - talking with each other with great passion, great concern on their faces. Their faces revealed that they were very very important things they were discussing and then this word was spoken: "It might be our time". It kept being spoken by the leaders as they watched the fires burning over America. Then the spear thrown by that first runner hit the building it was aiming for and it exploded into a bright light and it streamed down over the entire country and it looked like a napalm storm if you see the videos of us dropping bombs during the Vietnam war there in Vietnam. So it looked like a napalm storm that filled the atmosphere of the United States and as the fire from that building spread it was putting out some of the fires in the United States. It lessened some but on others had no impact at all. Some of those fires kept burning and then I saw the explosion. It actually threw people all over the place, the people who were praying in that building were now just thrown up in the air to these areas of the nation and these people the thrown-people they were like fire extinguishers and brooms. And they were patting down the fires, they were screaming as they were patting down those fires they were screaming just like the colorful running man they were screaming: "Wake up! Stay awake! there's not much time! Wake up! Stay awake! There's not much time!" they kept repeating that "Wake up! Stay awake! There's not much time!". And the colorful runner then sat down, he leaned against the wall and took a deep breath, he was just on the other side of the finish line and the man that I see often in the dreams was helping him to his feet and the fiery runner was laying past the finish line too and was smoking like a burnt building he was not moving and was not breathing. And the man pointed at me and he said:

“Warn them there is not much time left and it will never be easy again. If you're not braced now, you won't make it. Not rooted you will be pulled up, pulled out and the fire will never go out. Look for Me and endure till I come.”

(And one other thing that's different about this dream is after the man speaks to me in the dream that's it. But I had another small piece and this was Monday night.)

I then saw every one of those international leaders and American generals put down their phones at the very, very same time and in unison all at once they said: “It's time, it's time” then they all sat - every single one of the leaders, the military they all sat at their desks and they put their heads in their hands like this and they began to weep.
